Preliminary Statement

1. Plaintiff brings this action for compensatory damages, punitive damages and said rights are secured by said statutes and the Constitution of the United States.

2. This action is brought pursuant to 42 U.S.C. §§ 1981, 1983 and 1988, and the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution.

3. Jurisdiction is found upon 28 U.S.C. §§1331, 1343 and 1367.

VENUE

4. Venue is properly laid in the Eastern District of New York under 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b), in that this is the District in which the claim arose.

JURY DEMAND

5. Plaintiff respectfully demands a trial by jury of all issues in this matter pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 38 (b).

PARTIES

6. Plaintiff SEAN STEWART is a forty-four year old African American man who resides in Staten Island, New York

7. Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK was and is a municipal corporation duly organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of New York.

8. Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK maintains the New York City Police Department (hereinafter referred to as "NYPD"), a duly authorized public authority and/or police department, authorized to perform all functions of a police department as per the applicable sections of the aforementioned municipal corporation, CITY OF NEW YORK.

9. That at all times hereinafter mentioned, the individually named defendants GERARD DELPRETE, MICHAEL FRIEDMAN, ANDREW HILLERY, SALVATORE DESANTIS, BRENDAN O'BRIEN, LAWRENCE COGNATO, MATTHEW REGINA, and JOHN and JANE DOE 1 through 10 were duly sworn police officers of said department and were acting under the supervision of said department and according to their official duties.

10. That at all times hereinafter mentioned the defendants, either personally or through their employees, were acting under color of state law and/or in compliance with the official rules, regulations, laws, statutes, customs, usages and/or practices of the State of New York and/or the City of New York.

11. Each and all of the acts of the defendants alleged herein were done by said defendants while acting within the scope of their employment by defendant CITY OF NEW YORK.

FACTS

12. On March 20, 2010, at approximately 7:30 p.m., the defendant NYPD police officers unlawfully stopped and detained plaintiff near the corner of Port Richmond Avenue and Castleton Avenue, Staten Island, New York.

13. The defendants searched plaintiff by patting him down and searching in his pockets.

14. The defendants did not find any contraband on plaintiff.

15. The defendants held plaintiff at said location for approximately twenty minutes.

16. The defendants then handcuffed plaintiff and imprisoned him inside a police vehicle for approximately one hour.

17. The defendant officers transported plaintiff to an NYPD police precinct and imprisoned plaintiff therein.

18. The defendants imprisoned plaintiff until March 21, 2010 when plaintiff was transported to Richmond County Criminal Court and arraigned on false charges filed against him on Docket No. 2010R002724 based on the false statements of defendant GERARD DELPRETE.

19. Plaintiff was released from Richmond County Criminal Court.

20. The malicious prosecution compelled plaintiff to return to Court numerous times, until October 26, 2011, when all the purported charges filed against plaintiff by the defendants were dismissed and sealed in Richmond County Criminal Court.

21. The defendant officers GERARD DELPRETE, MICHAEL FRIEDMAN, SALVATORE DESANTIS, BRENDAN O'BRIEN, LAWRENCE COGNATO, MATTHEW REGINA, and JOHN and JANE DOE 1 through 10 either participated in or failed to intervene in the illegal conduct described herein.

22. Defendant ANDREW HILLERY supervised MICHAEL FRIEDMAN, SALVATORE DESANTIS, BRENDAN O'BRIEN, LAWRENCE COGNATO, MATTHEW REGINA, and JOHN and JANE DOE 1 through 10, and approved of, oversaw, and otherwise participated in the arrest and prosecution of the plaintiff.

23. All of the above occurred as a direct result of the unconstitutional policies, customs or practices of the City of New York, including, without limitation, the policies of engaging in falsification, and of arresting individuals without probable cause to believe that they have committed a crime; the inadequate screening, hiring, retaining, training and supervising of its employees; and due to discrimination against plaintiff due to his race and/or nationality.

24. The aforesaid event is not an isolated incident. Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK is aware (from lawsuits, notices of claims, and complaints filed with the NYPD's Internal Affairs Bureau, and the CITY OF NEW YORK'S Civilian Complaint Review Board) that many NYPD officers, including the defendants, are insufficiently trained regarding the requirements of probable cause when arresting individuals.

25. Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK is further aware that such improper training has often resulted in a deprivation of civil rights. Despite such notice, defendant CITY OF NEW YORK has failed to take corrective action. This failure caused the officers in the present case to violate the plaintiff's civil rights.

26. Moreover, upon information and belief, defendant CITY OF NEW YORK was aware, prior to the incident, that the individual defendants lacked the objectivity, temperament, maturity, discretion, and disposition to be employed as police officers. Despite such notice, defendant CITY OF NEW YORK has retained these officers, and failed to adequately train and supervise him.

27. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff sustained, inter alia, physical injuries, emotional distress, embarrassment, humiliation, and deprivation of his constitutional rights.

65. The aforementioned customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of the New York City Police Department included, but were not limited to, arresting individuals without probable cause and then committing perjury and/or manufacturing evidence and/or engaging in falsification in an effort to convict said individuals or for other improper motives. In addition, the CITY OF NEW YORK engaged in a policy, custom or practice of inadequate screening, hiring, retaining, training and supervising its employees that was the moving force behind the violation of plaintiff SEAN STEWART'S rights as described herein. As a result of the failure of the CITY OF NEW YORK to properly recruit, screen, train, discipline, and supervise its officers, including the individual defendants, defendant CITY OF NEW YORK has tacitly authorized, ratified, and has been deliberately indifferent to, the acts and conduct complained of herein.

66. The foregoing customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of the
