5. Plaintiff respectfully demands a trial by jury of all issues in this matter pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 38 (b).

PARTIES

6. Plaintiff BRANDICE WILLIAMS is a twenty-eight year old African American woman who resides in Staten Island, New York.

7. Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK was and is a municipal corporation duly organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of New York.

8. Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK maintains the New York City Police Department (hereinafter referred to as "NYPD"), a duly authorized public authority and/or police department, authorized to perform all functions of a police department as per the applicable sections of the aforementioned municipal corporation, CITY OF NEW YORK.

9. That at all times hereinafter mentioned, the individually named defendants GERARD DELPRETE, DWAYNE BREWSTER, BRENDAN O'BRIEN, MICHAEL FRIEDMAN, PATRICK FLAHERTY, CARL WATSON, ANDREW FAGO, NELVA CENTENO, LEONARD CIURICINA, and JOHN and JANE DOE 1 through 10, were duly sworn police officers of said department and were acting under the supervision of said department and according to their official duties.

10. That at all times hereinafter mentioned the defendants, either personally or through their employees, were acting under color of state law and/or in compliance with the official rules, regulations, laws, statutes, customs, usages and/or practices of the State of New York and/or the City of New York.

11. Each and all of the acts of the defendants alleged herein were done by said defendants while acting within the scope of their employment by defendant CITY OF NEW YORK.

FACTS

12. On May 14, 2009, plaintiff BRANDICE WILLIAMS left work in her vehicle and drove to 131 Skyline Drive, Staten Island, New York, the residence of her daughter's father, to pick up her then nine-year old daughter.

13. Upon her arrival, at approximately 9:00 p.m., plaintiff observed her daughter sitting on the steps of the residence with a police officer.

14. Plaintiff BRANDICE WILLIAMS was informed by defendant officers that her daughter's father was being arrested and that plaintiff had permission to leave with her daughter.

15. Plaintiff and her daughter entered plaintiff's car and attempted to leave but plaintiff's egress was blocked by a police vehicle.

16. Plaintiff BRANDICE WILLIAMS waited approximately five minutes and then briefly sounded her car's horn.

17. After plaintiff sounded her horn, a defendant officer approached plaintiff's vehicle, ordered her out of her vehicle, handcuffed plaintiff and informed her that she was under arrest.

18. Thereafter, a female defendant officer escorted plaintiff into 131 Skyline Drive and ordered her into the bathroom of said location.

19. Inside the bathroom, the female officer ordered plaintiff to fold down her pants and lift up her shirt and brassier.

20. Although plaintiff BRANDICE WILLIAMS did not reside at 131 Skyline Drive, and did not possess any contraband, the defendant officers imprisoned plaintiff in a police vehicle and transported her to the 120th police precinct.

21. The defendants imprisoned plaintiff until her release, on May 15, 2009, at approximately 4:00 p.m., after her arraignment in Richmond County Criminal Court on baseless charges filed under docket number 2009RI004857; said charges having been filed based on the false allegations of the defendant officers.

22. The defendants initiated said prosecution with malice, and otherwise caused said prosecution to be commenced against plaintiff for the purpose of obtaining a collateral objective outside the legitimate ends of the legal process, to wit: to cover up the above mentioned abuse of authority.

23. The malicious prosecution compelled plaintiff to return to Richmond County Criminal Court on approximately eight occasions until March 15, 2010, when all purported charges levied against plaintiff, based on the false allegations of the defendants, were dismissed and sealed.

24. Defendant DWAYNE BREWSTER held a supervisory rank, and at all times herein, supervised defendants GERARD DELPRETE, DWAYNE BREWSTER, BRENDAN O'BRIEN, MICHAEL FRIEDMAN, PATRICK FLAHERTY, CARL WATSON, ANDREW

FAGO, NELVA CENTENO, LEONARD CIURICINA, and JOHN and JANE DOE 1 through 10, and approved of, oversaw, and otherwise participated in the arrest and prosecution of the plaintiff.

25. The defendant officers GERARD DELPRETE, BRENDAN O'BRIEN, MICHAEL FRIEDMAN, PATRICK FLAHERTY, CARL WATSON, ANDREW FAGO, NELVA CENTENO, LEONARD CIURICINA, and JOHN and JANE DOE 1 through 10 either directly participated in and/or failed to intervene in the illegal conduct described herein.

26. All of the above occurred as a direct result of the unconstitutional policies, customs or practices of the City of New York, including, without limitation, a custom or practice of falsification, of arresting everyone present at the scene of search warrant executions notwithstanding the absence of probable cause to do so, the inadequate screening, hiring, retaining, training and supervising of its employees; and due to discrimination against plaintiff due to her race and/or nationality.

27. The aforesaid event is not an isolated incident. Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK is aware (from lawsuits, notices of claims, and complaints filed with the NYPD's Internal Affairs Bureau, and the CITY OF NEW YORK'S Civilian Complaint Review Board) that many NYPD officers, including the defendants, are insufficiently trained regarding; the execution of search warrants; the investigations of criminal activity; and, the treatment of innocent and/or uninvolved individuals present at the location of the execution of a search warrant, and that falsification is widespread.

28. Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK is further aware that such improper training has often resulted in a deprivation of civil rights. Despite such notice, defendant CITY OF NEW YORK has failed to take corrective action. This failure caused the officers in the present case to violate the plaintiff's civil rights.

29. Moreover, upon information and belief, defendant CITY OF NEW YORK was aware, prior to the incident, that the individual defendants lacked the objectivity, temperament, maturity, discretion, and disposition to be employed as police officers. Despite such notice, defendant CITY OF NEW YORK has retained these officers, and failed to adequately train and supervise them.

30. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff sustained, inter alia, physical injuries, emotional distress, embarrassment, humiliation, and deprivation of her constitutional rights.
