VENUE

4. Venue is properly laid in the Eastern District of New York under 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b), in that this is the District in which the claim arose.

JURY DEMAND

5. Plaintiff respectfully demands a trial by jury of all issues in this matter pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 38 (b).

PARTIES

6. Plaintiff GEORGE PRINGLE is a fifty-six year old African American man who resides in Staten Island, New York.

7. Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK was and is a municipal corporation duly organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of New York.

8. Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK maintains the New York City Police Department (hereinafter referred to as "NYPD"), a duly authorized public authority and/or police department, authorized to perform all functions of a police department as per the applicable sections of the aforementioned municipal corporation, CITY OF NEW YORK.

9. That at all times hereinafter mentioned, the individually named defendants, JONMICHAEL RAGGI, IGNAZIO CONCA, JOHN FAHIM, JOSEPH PERROTTO, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1 through 10 were duly sworn police officers of said department and were acting under the supervision of said department and according to their official duties. They are sued personally, except as to defendant Conca, who is sued in his personal and supervisory capacities.

10. That at all times hereinafter mentioned the defendants, either personally or through their employees, were acting under color of state law and/or in compliance with the official rules, regulations, laws, statutes, customs, usages and/or practices of the State of New York and/or the City of New York.

11. Each and all of the acts of the defendants alleged herein were done by said defendants while acting within the scope of their employment by defendant CITY OF NEW YORK.

FACTS

12. On February 2, 2011, at approximately 1:00 p.m., in front of 170 Broad Street, Staten Island, New York, the defendant officers unlawfully stopped, detained, searched and arrested plaintiff, despite lacking probable cause to believe plaintiff had committed any crime or offense.

13. The defendant officers thereafter imprisoned plaintiff in plaintiff's vehicle, in an NYPD vehicle, and in the NYPD's 120th Precinct stationhouse.

14. The defendants imprisoned plaintiff until February 3, 2011, at approximately 12:52 p.m., when plaintiff was arraigned in Richmond County Criminal Court, on baseless charges filed under docket number 2011RI001041; said charges having been filed based on the false allegations of defendant RAGGI that plaintiff possessed a controlled substance. Defendant initiated said prosecution with malice, and otherwise caused said prosecution to be commenced against plaintiff for the purpose of obtaining a collateral objective outside the legitimate ends of the legal process, to wit: to cover up the above mentioned abuse of authority, and to benefit himself personally and professionally.

15. The malicious prosecution compelled plaintiff to return to court on March 30, 2011, at which time all the purported charges filed against plaintiff by the defendants were dismissed and sealed in Richmond County Criminal Court.

16. Defendant CONCA supervised defendants RAGGI, FAHIM, PERROTTO, and JOHN and JANE DOE 1 through 10 and approved of, oversaw, and otherwise presided over the defendants' arrest and prosecution of the plaintiff.

17. Defendants RAGGI, FAHIM, PERROTTO, and JOHN and JANE DOE 1 through 10 participated in and/or failed to intervene in the illegal conduct described herein.

18. All of the above occurred as a direct result of the unconstitutional policies, customs or practices of the City of New York, including, without limitation, the inadequate screening, hiring, retaining, training, and supervising its employees, and due to discrimination against plaintiff due to his race and/or nationality.

19. The aforesaid event is not an isolated incident. Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK is aware (from lawsuits, notices of claims, and complaints filed with the NYPD's Internal Affairs Bureau, and the CITY OF NEW YORK's Civilian Complaint Review Board) that many NYPD officers are insufficiently trained on when to stop, detain, search and arrest individuals, and/or that they engage in falsification.

20. Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK is further aware that such improper training has often resulted in a deprivation of civil rights. Despite such notice, defendant CITY OF NEW YORK has failed to take corrective action. This failure caused the officers in the present case to violate the plaintiff's civil rights.

21. Moreover, upon information and belief, defendant CITY OF NEW YORK was aware, prior to the incident, that the individual defendants lacked the objectivity, temperament, maturity, discretion, and disposition to be employed as police officers. Despite such notice, defendant CITY OF NEW YORK has retained these officers, and failed to adequately train and supervise them.

22. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff GEORGE PRINGLE sustained, inter alia, physical injuries, emotional distress, embarrassment, and humiliation, and deprivation of his liberty and his constitutional rights.

AS AND FOR A FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

26. The acts complained of were carried out by the aforementioned individual defendants in their capacities as police officers, with the entire actual and/or apparent authority attendant thereto, and with the intent to discriminate on the basis of race.

27. The acts complained of were carried out by the aforementioned individual defendants in their capacities as police officers, pursuant to the customs, usages, practices, procedures, and the rules of the CITY OF NEW YORK and the New York City Police Department, all under the supervision of ranking officers of said department.

36. Defendants caused plaintiff GEORGE PRINGLE to be prosecuted in order to obtain a collateral objective outside the legitimate ends of the legal process, to wit: to cover up their abuse of authority, and for personal and professional benefits.

37. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff GEORGE PRINGLE, is entitled to compensatory damages in an amount to be fixed by a jury, and is further entitled to punitive damages against the individual defendants in an amount to be fixed by a jury, plus reasonable attorney's fees, costs and disbursements of this action.

AS AND FOR A FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION
(Malicious Prosecution under 42 U.S.C. § 1983)

arrest, and his liberty was restricted for an extended period of time, he was put in fear of his safety, and he was humiliated and subjected to handcuffing and other physical restraints, and detained and prosecuted without probable cause.

46.
