33. Defendants PO Rivera, Sgt Ingles, PO Badia, Sgt Nolasco, individually and collectively, within the scope of their employment and authority and under color of State Law, engaged in conduct that constituted customs, policies, procedures, rules, or usages of the City and which were in violation of the rights, privileges, and immunities of Plaintiff, a citizen of the United States and resident of the State of New York, as secured by the United States Constitution.

34. The aforesaid customs, policies, procedures, rules, or usages included but were not limited to: failure to properly investigate before effecting an arrest; utilizing unnecessary and excessive force; failure to ensure that use of force by police officers is properly reported and investigated; failure to appropriately discipline police officers who utilize unnecessary and excessive force, as well as those who supervise said officers; failure to implement measures to ensure that officers are appropriately supervised by qualified and well-trained staff; and failure to intervene when employees, officers, agents, and/or contractors violate well-established statutory and constitutional rights.

35. The aforesaid unlawful policies and practices in tolerating such misconduct resulted in the subject Arrest rendering Defendant City liable to Plaintiff pursuant to Monell v. City of New York, 436 U.S. 658 (1978), and under 42 U.S.C. §1983.

36. The aforesaid conduct was consistent with the institutionalized practices of Defendant NYPD, which were known and previously sanctioned by Defendant City.

41. As a direct and proximate cause of Defendants' acts and/or omissions, Plaintiff was caused to suffer great pain and mental anguish, great humiliation and fear, and further pecuniary damages and legal costs in an amount that exceeds the jurisdictional limitation of all lower courts and in an amount to be determined at a trial of the action.
