Case Summary

On August 12, 2010, § 87(2)(b) called the IAB Command Center and filed the following complaint on behalf of her son, § 87(2)(b) (encl. 8). § 87(2)(b) did not witness the incident. IAB referred the complaint under Log #10-40940 to the CCRB on August 17, 2010 (encl. 9A-B).

On August 12, 2010, at 2:30 p.m., at § 87(2)(b) in Queens, Sgt. Sonia Christian and PO Matthew Vorraro of the 113th Precinct attempted to apprehend § 87(2)(b) who had an open warrant. The following allegations resulted:

- Allegation A – Force: Sgt. Sonia Christian used physical force against § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(g).
§ 87(2)(b) it is thus recommended that Allegation A be closed as exonerated.
- Allegation B – Discourtesy: An officer spoke obscenely to § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(g).
Therefore, it is recommended that Allegation B be closed as unfounded.
- Allegation C – Force: PO Michael Moran used pepper spray against § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(g).
§ 87(2)(b) it is recommended that Allegation C be closed as exonerated.
- Allegation D – Force: PO Matthew Vorraro used physical force against § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(g).
it is thus recommended that Allegation D be closed as exonerated.

Results of Investigation

Civilian Statements

Victim: § 87(2)(b)

- § 87(2)(b) is a § 87(2)(b) black male, § 87(2)(b), with black hair and dark brown eyes.

CCRB Testimony

§ 87(2)(b) was interviewed at the CCRB on August 24, 2010 (encl. 10A-D). On August 12, 2010, at approximately 2:30 p.m., he was headed to the store with his friend, § 87(2)(b) lives at § 87(2)(b) in Queens and had only passed by the house next door when he saw two plainclothes officers drive by in an unmarked blue Chevy sedan. These officers were identified through the investigation as Sgt. Sonia Christian and PO Matthew Vorraro.

§ 87(2)(b) decided to go back in his house in order to avoid getting arrested or harassed. § 87(2)(b) did not go inside when § 87(2)(b) did. § 87(2)(b) had been inside for about two minutes when he heard the officers talking to his grandmother, § 87(2)(b). § 87(2)(b)'s aunt, § 87(2)(b) his cousin, § 87(2)(b) and his friend § 87(2)(b) were inside the house. § 87(2)(b) was inside the house at that point, too.

The officers were telling § 87(2)(b) that they wanted to show § 87(2)(b) some pictures in order to identify the person who was shooting at the house two or three days prior. § 87(2)(b) walked into the living room and sat down on the couch. Sgt. Christian told him they wanted him to look at pictures to identify the person who shot at the house; however, she then said that they were there to arrest him for a warrant.

Sgt. Christian and PO Vorraro grabbed § 87(2)(b)'s left arm and attempted to twist it behind his back. They turned him over and pushed him on his stomach, against the couch. Sgt. Christian and PO Vorraro were trying to get his other arm, which was underneath his body as a result of being placed on his stomach. Sgt. Christian punched § 87(2)(b) in the left forehead and right cheek, one time each. They handcuffed § 87(2)(b). He denied resisting arrest.

Approximately five uniformed white male officers he was unable to describe responded to the house. PO Vorraro pushed § 87(2)(b)'s face into the couch for about ninety seconds. When § 87(2)(b) said that he could not breathe, an unknown officer told him, "I don't give a fuck." The lower part of § 87(2)(b)'s body was off the couch but he never kicked his legs. An unknown officer pepper-sprayed § 87(2)(b) while an unknown officer stood on the outsides of both of § 87(2)(b)'s ankles for about a minute. He could not tell who cursed at or pepper-sprayed him.

§ 87(2)(b) was taken to the 113th Precinct and then to Queens Central Book, where he learned he was there in connection with a § 87(2)(b) arrest. He never sought medical attention.

Witness: § 87(2)(b)

- § 87(2)(b) is a § 87(2)(b) black male, § 87(2)(b), with black hair and brown eyes.

CCRB Testimony

§ 87(2)(b) was interviewed at the CCRB on August 24, 2010 (encl. 11A-C). On August 12, 2010, approximately 2:30 p.m., § 87(2)(b) and his friend, § 87(2)(b) were walking to the store and were in the vicinity of § 87(2)(b)'s house, § 87(2)(b) in Queens. § 87(2)(b) forgot something in his house so he walked home.

As § 87(2)(b) arrived at his house, a black unmarked car pulled up there. Two plainclothes officers identified through the investigation as Sgt. Sonia Christian and PO Matthew Vorraro exited the car and called out to § 87(2)(b) but he walked into the house. Sgt. Christian and PO Vorraro followed § 87(2)(b) into the house. § 87(2)(b)'s grandmother, § 87(2)(b) asked the two officers what they wanted. They responded that they wanted to question § 87(2)(b) about a shooting that occurred a few days prior.

§ 87(2)(b) called § 87(2)(b) downstairs and § 87(2)(b) sat on the couch. Sgt. Christian and PO Vorraro informed § 87(2)(b) that he was wanted and was under arrest. They each grabbed one of § 87(2)(b)'s arms in order to handcuff him, but § 87(2)(b) asked why he was being arrested and denied doing anything wrong. Sgt. Christian and PO Vorraro were trying to get § 87(2)(b) onto his stomach, but he would not allow the officers to do that and would not let the officers to get both of his hands. Sgt. Christian told § 87(2)(b) three or four times to give her his "fucking" hands, while she punched him approximately six times in his forehead or temple area. § 87(2)(b) did not give his hands.

Sgt. Christian and PO Vorraro had called for additional officers, so by that time, more officers arrived at the house. There were approximately eight to ten plainclothes officers who responded. An unknown male officer pepper-sprayed § 87(2)(b) in the face. § 87(2)(b) was standing behind the officers and could not tell who did that.

After § 87(2)(b) was pepper-sprayed, he began squirming and complaining about his eyes. Officers pinned him down on the couch in order to handcuff him. § 87(2)(b) was half on the couch and half on the ground. Because § 87(2)(b) kept squirming around, PO Vorraro stood on the back of his right calf for about a minute. Other than Sgt. Christian telling § 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(b) to give her his “fucking” hands, § 87(2)(b) did not recall hearing Sgt. Christian or any other officers curse at § 87(2)(b).

§ 87(2)(b) was handcuffed and officers started to take him of the house. § 87(2)(b) asked what § 87(2)(b) was wanted for. Officers told her to mind her own business and shut up, and pushed her out of the way.

Witness: § 87(2)(b)

- § 87(2)(b) is a § 87(2)(b) black female.

CCRB Testimony

§ 87(2)(b) provided telephone statements on August 18, 2010 and September 21, 2010 (encl. 12A-B). On August 12, 2010, at 2:30 p.m., she was home at § 87(2)(b) in Queens. Her grandson, § 87(2)(b) had just left the house but returned right away because he forgot something. Shortly after, two plainclothes officers identified through the investigation as Sgt. Sonia Christian and PO Matthew Vorraro came to the door. Sgt. Christian and PO Vorraro told § 87(2)(b) that they needed to talk to § 87(2)(b) about something that happened the other night.

§ 87(2)(b) yelled out to § 87(2)(b) and he came downstairs and to the door. Sgt. Christian and PO Vorraro immediately told him he was under arrest. They claimed they had a warrant, but § 87(2)(b) asked them both to see it but they ignored her. However, § 87(2)(b) also stated that when § 87(2)(b) came downstairs, he sat on the couch, on his hands. Sgt. Christian told him that he was under arrest and began pulling on his arms and shoulders. Sgt. Christian beat § 87(2)(b) in the head with her fist at least a dozen times.

PO Vorraro called for back-up and approximately eight to ten officers arrived. One of the officers, a white male in plainclothes, stood on § 87(2)(b)'s leg [between the ankle and knee] for anywhere from seconds to five minutes. § 87(2)(b) was moving around when the officer stood on his leg. § 87(2)(b), § 87(2)(b), § 87(2)(b), § 87(2)(b), and a female named § 87(2)(b) were inside the house during the incident. § 87(2)(b) did not see § 87(2)(b) get pepper-sprayed but heard people coughing after it happened.

§ 87(2)(b) was standing near the door, inside of her house, when officers escorted § 87(2)(b) outside. As the officers were walking him out, PO Vorraro told § 87(2)(b) to get the hell out of the way and shoved her in the chest.

Witnesses Not Interviewed

- The civilians stated that § 87(2)(b), § 87(2)(b), § 87(2)(b), and § 87(2)(b) witnessed the incident. § 87(2)(g)

NYPD Statements:

Subject Officer: SGT. SONIA CHRISTIAN

- § 87(2)(b) black female, § 87(2)(b), with brown hair and brown eyes.
- On the date of the incident, working as the 113th Precinct anti-crime team supervisor. On August 12, 2010, she worked from 9:26 a.m. until 6:10 p.m., was partnered with PO Matthew Vorraro, was dressed in plainclothes, and was assigned to a black unmarked car § 87(2)(e).

Memo Book

At 2:30 p.m., § 87(2)(b) was stopped at § 87(2)(b) in Queens, for an open criminal complaint report § 87(2)(b). At 2:35 p.m., a 10-85 was reported in regards. At 2:40 p.m., PO Schmidt had § 87(2)(b) under arrest.

CCRB Testimony

Sgt. Christian was interviewed at the CCRB on December 10, 2010 (encl. 14A-B). On August 12, 2010, at 2:30 p.m., Sgt. Christian and PO Vorraro were driving in the vicinity of § 87(2)(b) in Queens because a shooting occurred there the night before. Sgt. Christian and PO Vorraro drove by § 87(2)(b) who was on a bicycle and was hanging out on the corner with a couple of other males. Sgt. Christian and PO Vorraro recognized him and knew he is the subject of an open criminal complaint § 87(2)(b). When § 87(2)(b) saw the officers, he rode his bicycle over to his house and ran inside.

Sgt. Christian and PO Vorraro drove around the block in order to pass by § 87(2)(b) again. As they drove up to the address she saw § 87(2)(b) standing outside in front of the house. Sgt. Christian and PO Vorraro parked their car and § 87(2)(b) ran back into his house.

They walked up to the house and, seeing the front door open, Sgt. Christian yelled out “police” and asked if anyone was home. Less than a minute passed before § 87(2)(b)s grandmother, § 87(2)(b) came to the vestibule. Sgt. Christian explained why she and PO Vorraro were there; they had an open criminal complaint for § 87(2)(b) and wanted to talk to him about a shooting that occurred there the night before. § 87(2)(b) called into the house for § 87(2)(b) and told the officers they could walk into the living room.

Sgt. Christian and PO Vorraro walked into the living room and saw § 87(2)(b) sitting on the couch. They asked him to come outside and talk to them. § 87(2)(b) refused and demanded that the officers come over to him on the couch if they wanted to speak with him. Sgt. Christian and PO Vorraro walked over to the couch. Sgt. Christian explained that they were there to ask about the shooting and were going to arrest him for the open criminal complaint § 87(2)(b). § 87(2)(b) told them he was not going “any fucking where” and refused to leave the house.

Sgt. Christian reached to grab § 87(2)(b)s hand but he grabbed onto her wrist and pulled her down, causing her to fall on the couch. Sgt. Christian and PO Vorraro tried to handcuff him. However, § 87(2)(b) turned onto his stomach and was putting his hands into the couch cushions. He locked his arms together under the couch, and Sgt. Christian could not tell if he was grabbing for a weapon in the couch. § 87(2)(b) kicked his legs and flailed his body to resist arrest. Sgt. Christian kept trying to get § 87(2)(b)s arms so he could be handcuffed. In an attempt to gain § 87(2)(b)s compliance, she punched him a couple of times somewhere on his body. This tactic was not effective and they struggled to arrest § 87(2)(b) for a couple of minutes before PO Vorraro called for additional assistance [10-85].

A male, two females, and § 87(2)(b) surrounded the couch during the struggle and cursed at the officers. The civilians said “fuck” this, get the “fuck” out of the house, and said to grab a video camera. PO Ronald Schmidt and PO Michael Moran, other anti-crime officers, were the first to respond as back-up. PO Schmidt kept the civilians back and PO Moran assisted her and PO Vorraro. § 87(2)(b) still continued to resist arrest and kicked Sgt. Christian off of the couch. PO Moran pepper-sprayed him and about a minute after they were able to handcuff him. Sgt. Christian did not see any officers restrain § 87(2)(b)s legs or hear any officers curse at him.

As the officers started to walk out of the house with § 87(2)(b) in handcuffs, § 87(2)(b) tried to stand in the doorway to prevent them from exiting. PO Vorraro told § 87(2)(b) to get out of the way and pushed her out of the way. § 87(2)(b) punched PO Vorraro in the back. Sgt. Christian saw this so she grabbed § 87(2)(b) and told § 87(2)(b) she was not allowed to hit officers. § 87(2)(b) was not arrested or summonsed because of her age § 87(2)(b)

Subject Officer: PO MATTHEW VORRARO

- § 87(2)(b) white male, § 87(2)(b), with brown hair and brown eyes.
- On the date of the incident, assigned to the 113th Precinct anti-crime team. On August 12, 2010, he worked from 9:30 a.m. until 6:05 p.m., was partnered with Sgt. Christian, was dressed in plainclothes, and was assigned to a black unmarked car § 87(2)(e)

Memo Book

At 2:30 p.m., PO Vorraro and Sgt. Christian were at § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) in Queens, for an open criminal complaint (encl. 15A-C). At 2:35 p.m., a 10-85 was reported in regards. At 2:39 p.m., PO Schmidt had § 87(2)(b) under arrest.

CCRB Testimony

PO Vorraro was interviewed at the CCRB on December 10, 2010 (encl. 16A-B). On August 12, 2010, at 2:30 p.m., PO Vorraro and Sgt. Christian were driving in the vicinity of § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) in Queens because a shooting occurred there the night before. PO Vorraro and Sgt. Christian drove by § 87(2)(b) who was on a bicycle on the corner. PO Vorraro recognized him and knew he is the subject of an open criminal complaint report § 87(2)(b)

PO Vorraro and Sgt. Christian drove around the block in order to pass by § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) again so they could arrest him. As they drove up to the address he saw § 87(2)(b) standing outside in front of the house. § 87(2)(b) ran into his house when he saw the officers.

Sgt. Christian walked up to the house first, with PO Vorraro following behind her. Sgt. Christian spoke to § 87(2)(b)'s grandmother, § 87(2)(b) on the stoop. § 87(2)(b) let the officers walk into the house. When they entered they saw § 87(2)(b) sitting on the couch in the small living room. Sgt. Christian informed § 87(2)(b) that he was under arrest. § 87(2)(b) responded that they were not going to take him out of the house and that there was no "fucking" way he was going with them.

Sgt. Christian went to grab § 87(2)(b)'s left wrist but fell onto the couch. PO Vorraro could not tell if § 87(2)(b) had pulled her down or if she fell, because they began to grapple on the couch. § 87(2)(b) tried to push Sgt. Christian off of him. Sgt. Christian swung two or three times at § 87(2)(b)'s upper chest and the area above his upper chest. PO Vorraro could not tell if Sgt. Christian made contact with him. PO Vorraro tried grabbing § 87(2)(b)'s right arm. § 87(2)(b) began to put his hands into the couch, towards the back of the cushions. PO Vorraro did not know if he was trying to prevent being handcuffed or if he was reaching for a weapon in the couch. § 87(2)(b) aggressively fought the officers. He kicked his legs, swung his arms, and twisted his body back and forth. § 87(2)(b) kicked PO Vorraro a few times in the legs, but did not injure him. PO Vorraro put his hips against § 87(2)(b)'s legs to stop him from kicking. During the struggle, PO Vorraro and Sgt. Christian yelled at him to stop resisting, to give them his hands, and to stop fighting. § 87(2)(b) did not heed their instructions.

PO Vorraro was not able to devote all of his attention towards § 87(2)(b) because several family members appeared in the living room. There was § 87(2)(b) two other females, and one or two males. PO Vorraro kept looking behind at the family members to make sure they did not interfere. They were telling the officers to get off of § 87(2)(b) and to get out of their house. PO Vorraro radioed for assistance [10-85] and PO Moran and PO Schmidt responded shortly afterwards. PO Schmidt held the family members back while PO Moran tried to grab § 87(2)(b)'s arms. However, PO Moran was also unable to gain § 87(2)(b)'s compliance, so he pepper-sprayed § 87(2)(b). § 87(2)(b) then stopped violently fighting the officers and they were able to handcuff him. PO Vorraro did not hear an officer curse at § 87(2)(b).

As the officers started to walk out with § 87(2)(b), § 87(2)(b) blocked the front door. PO Vorraro moved her aside with his arm. § 87(2)(b) punched him in the back. However, they did not arrest § 87(2)(b) because of her age and then to aggravate the situation further by arresting her.

Subject Officer: PO MICHAEL MORAN

- § 87(2)(b) white male, § 87(2)(g), with brown hair and blue eyes.
- On the date of the incident, assigned to the 113th Precinct anti-crime team. He worked from 9:30 a.m. until 6:00 p.m., was partnered with PO Ronald Schmidt, was dressed in plainclothes, and was assigned to an unmarked vehicle § 87(2)(e). He has no memo book entries regarding the incident (encl. 17A-C).

CCRB Testimony

PO Moran was interviewed by the CCRB on January 18, 2011 (encl. 18A-B). On August 12, 2010, at approximately 2:30 p.m., PO Moran's sergeant, Sgt. Sonia Christian, and her partner, PO Matthew Vorraro, reported a 10-85 [need additional unit] inside of § 87(2)(b) in Queens, where they were attempting to make an arrest. When PO Moran and PO Schmidt arrived and entered the house, PO Moran saw Sgt. Christian and PO Vorraro struggling with an individual § 87(2)(b) on the couch. § 87(2)(b) was lying with his chest on the couch and he was reaching into the seat cushions. His legs were on the floor.

Sgt. Christian and PO Vorraro were each trying to grab one of § 87(2)(b)'s arms, but he kept sticking them into the couch. Sgt. Christian and PO Vorraro were also giving him multiple instructions to give them his hands, but he did not comply. PO Moran also tried to handcuff § 87(2)(b) by grabbing an arm he had stuffed into the couch. PO Moran did not know if § 87(2)(b) had a weapon in the couch he was trying to get. PO Moran also told him more than once to give up his hands, but he did not comply.

After a couple of minutes, the three of them were still unable to handcuff him. Because they were unable to effect the arrest, PO Moran pepper-sprayed § 87(2)(b) once in the face. Then they were able to arrest § 87(2)(b) who subdued after being sprayed. PO Moran did not see § 87(2)(b) kick or move his legs and denied seeing an officer stand on his legs.

PO Schmidt did not assist with § 87(2)(b)'s arrest and instead tried to keep the family members back. PO Moran did not remember how many family members were there but heard them screaming at the officers.

As they were walking § 87(2)(b) out of the house, the family members were still irate and § 87(2)(b)'s grandmother punched PO Vorraro in the back. It did not appear that PO Vorraro felt the punch. PO Moran told her to back off. The grandmother was not arrested though.

Officer Not Interviewed

- § 87(2)(g) [REDACTED].

NYPD Documents

SPRINT Report and Communications CD

According to SPRINT #§ 87(2)(b) a female § 87(2)(b) called 911 at 2:39 p.m. on August 12, 2010, and reported that officers were assaulting her grandson § 87(2)(b) at § 87(2)(b).

§ 87(2)(b) in Queens (encl. 19A-D). Officers assigned to the 113th Precinct anti-crime team had one arrest at 2:40 p.m.

Although the SPRINT report does not reflect this, the police radio communications CD confirmed that a male officer assigned to the 113th Precinct anti-crime team, working with the sergeant, radioed a 10-85 [need additional unit] at § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) in Queens. The portion of the CD for § 87(2)(b)'s 911 call confirmed that loud, inaudible shouting could be heard in the background.

Command Log

At 2:45 p.m. on August 12, 2010, § 87(2)(b) was logged into the 113th Precinct command log as an arrest by PO Schmidt (encl. 20). At 2:35 p.m., he was arrested § 87(2)(b) at § 87(2)(b) in Queens.

Civilian CCRB Histories

- § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) have no prior CCRB complaints (encls. 6 and 7).

Officer CCRB History

- Sgt. Christian has been a member of the service for ten years and has one substantiated CCRB allegation against her (encl. 3).
 - § 87(2)(g), § 87(4-b)
- PO Vorraro and PO Moran, members of the service for five and ten years, respectively, have no substantiated allegations against them (encls. 4 and 5).

Conclusion

Identification of Subject Officer

- Sgt. Christian acknowledged that she punched § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(g).
- § 87(2)(b) was unable to tell who cursed at him, § 87(2)(g).
- PO Moran acknowledged that he pepper-sprayed § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(g).
- PO Vorraro acknowledged that he restrained § 87(2)(b)'s legs § 87(2)(g).

Allegations Not Pleaded

- § 87(2)(b) alleged that Sgt. Christian told § 87(2)(b) three or four times to give her his “fucking” hands. § 87(2)(g).

- § 87(2)(b) alleged that as the officers were escorting § 87(2)(b) out of the house, an officer pushed her out of the way. § 87(2)(g)

Investigative Findings and Recommendations

Allegation A – Sgt. Sonia Christian used physical force against § 87(2)(b)

Allegation D – PO Matthew Vorraro used physical force against § 87(2)(b)

It is not disputed that Sgt. Christian punched § 87(2)(b) PO Vorraro also admitted to using his body to hold down § 87(2)(b)'s legs. § 87(2)(g)

According to Patrol Guide Procedure 203-11, officers are primarily concerned with preserving human life and that they may only use the amount of force necessary to overcome resistance and to effect an arrest (encl. 1A-D) § 87(2)(g) it is thus recommended that Allegations A and D be closed as exonerated.

Allegation B – An officer spoke obscenely to § 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(g) Therefore, it is recommended that Allegation B be closed as unfounded.

Allegation C – PO Michael Moran used pepper spray against § 87(2)(b)

It is not disputed that PO Moran pepper-sprayed § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(g)

According to Patrol Guide Procedure 212-95, an officer may pepper-spray an individual in order to effect an arrest or establish physical control an individual who is resisting arrest (encl. 2A-B). § 87(2)(g)

It is therefore recommended that Allegation C be closed as exonerated.
