Re: CCRB Case No. 202310466 (Incident Date: October 23, 2023) regarding Detective Nolan Connor, Tax No. 963927 (PODS Case No. C-032071)

Dear Mr. Darche:

The Police Commissioner has reviewed the recommendation of the Civilian Complaint Review Board (CCRB) regarding the disciplinary matter involving Detective Nolan Connor and has determined that his actions do not warrant disciplinary action.

After reviewing the facts and circumstances of this matter and the relevant video footage, Detective Connor observed the complainant push an on-duty undercover officer and, as a result, proceeded to attempt to place him under arrest. However, the complainant resisted by tensing his arms and body, and pulling his arms in front of himself. Detective Connor utilized a series of hand strikes to gain compliance and overcome active resistance. It has been determined that Detective Connor's actions were proper and complied with Department guidelines. Detective Connor used reasonable force to gain control of the complainant in order to place him under arrest.

Therefore, based on the foregoing, Detective Connor will not receive any disciplinary action for the alleged misconduct.

Sincerely,

Michael P. Baker
Deputy Chief
Commanding Officer
Police Commissioner's Office
