VERIFIED COMPLAINT

THE CITY OF NEW YORK, POLICE OFFICER BRIAN
MULLARKEY and POLICE OFFICER JOHN DOE, Defendants.

-----X

EON STRUTHERS AND VINCENT WILLIAMS (hereinafter "plaintiffs"), by their attorney(s), THE LAW OFFICES OF WALE MOSAKU, P.C., complaining of the defendants THE CITY OF NEW YORK, POLICE OFFICER BRIAN MULLARKEY¹ and POLICE OFFICER JOHN DOE (collectively referred to as "the defendants"), upon information and belief, alleges as follows:

NATURE OF THE ACTION

1. This is an action at law to redress the deprivation of rights secured to the plaintiffs under color of statute, ordinance, regulation, custom; and/or to redress the deprivation of rights, privileges, and immunities secured to the plaintiffs by the Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States, and by Title 42 U.S.C. §§ 1982, 1983 and 1985; and arising under the law and statutes of the City and/or State of New York.

THE PARTIES

2. At all times material to this complaint, plaintiffs were, and they still are, residents of the City of New York, who at all times material and relevant to this complaint resided, and still reside, in Richmond County, City and State of New York. Each plaintiff is an African American male of full age.

¹ The shield number of this officer is "3595".

3. At all relevant times, defendants POLICE OFFICER BRIAN MULLARKEY and POLICE OFFICER JOHN DOE (collectively referred to as "defendant officers"), of the New York City Police Department (hereinafter "NYPD"), upon information and belief, were, and still are, law enforcement officers in the employ of the NYPD, and assigned, upon information and well-founded belief, to the NYPD's 120th precinct.
4. At all times herein, the defendant officers were employed as law enforcement officers of the NYPD, and were acting under the color of their official capacity, and their acts were performed under color of the statutes and ordinances of the City of New York and/or the State of New York. The defendant officers were the servants, agents, and employees of their co-defendant, the City of New York, so that their acts are imputed to the City of New York and the NYPD.
5. At all relevant times, the defendant City of New York was/is a municipal corporation of the State of New York, and was/is the employer of the defendant officers, through its Police Department, namely the NYPD, and the actions of the defendant officers complained of herein were done as part of the custom, practice, usage, regulation and/or direction of the City of New York.
6. The plaintiffs sue all defendants in their individual and official capacities.

SATISFACTION OF THE PROCEDURAL PREREQUISITES FOR SUIT

7. All conditions precedent to filing of this action have been complied with; on April 3, 2013, within ninety days after the malicious prosecution claims alleged in this complaint arose, a written notice of claim, sworn to by each plaintiff and/or his representative, were served upon the defendant City of New York by personal delivery of the notice in duplicate, to the person designated by law as one to whom a summons issued against such party may be delivered in an action in the applicable Courts. Plaintiff Eon Struthers' claim was assigned Claim No. 2013PI009045. Plaintiff Vincent Williams' claim was assigned Claim No. 2013PI009047.

8. At least thirty days have elapsed since the service of the above-mentioned notices of claim, and adjustment or payment of the claims have been neglected or refused.
9. This action, pursuant to New York State and City Law, has been commenced within one year and ninety days after the happening of the event upon which the claims are based.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

10. On or about October 30, 2012, at approximately 10:00 p.m., on Roff Street, at or close to its intersection with Bowen Street, in Richmond County, New York City and State (hereinafter "subject location"), the plaintiffs were illegally and unlawfully arrested without probable cause by the defendant officers.
11. That prior to the time of the plaintiffs' arrests, the defendant officers were within an NYPD vehicle. That prior to the time of the plaintiffs' arrests, the defendant officers had a member of the public within their vehicle, who, upon information and well-founded belief, had recently been the victim of a crime ("victim").
12. That upon information and well-founded belief, the defendant officers were canvassing the vicinity of the subject location with the victim in order to attempt to apprehend the perpetrators of the crime upon the victim.
13. That prior to the time of the plaintiffs' arrests, the defendant officers had ordered the plaintiffs to stop, and informed them that they fit the description of persons who had been involved in the crime against the victim.
14. That upon being stopped as set forth above, in the presence of the plaintiffs, the defendant officers then asked the victim if he recognized the plaintiffs as the perpetrators of the crime against him.

The victim, in the presence of the plaintiffs, responded in sum and substance "I don't know", "I'm not sure".

15. At that juncture, the defendant officers started to yell at the victim, stating, in sum and substance, "we just stopped three guys and you were not fucking sure, make sure it is these guys because they have a red hoodie and a black hoodie".
16. That after making that statement, PO Mullarkey took the victim to the side. That the plaintiffs heard the victim continue to tell PO Mullarkey that he did not know if the plaintiffs were the perpetrators of the crime against him, because he did not really get a good look at the perpetrators.
17. At that juncture, another NYPD vehicle pulls up to the scene. Within said vehicle were two other presently unidentified police officers. One of two other presently unidentified police officers asked Police Officer John Doe what was going on. Police Officer John Doe informed the two other presently unidentified police officers that they had received a robbery call. One of the two other presently unidentified police officers then asked the plaintiffs, "you robbed the guy?" The plaintiffs responded that they had not robbed anybody.
18. At that juncture PO Mullarkey told the other officers to "take them". The plaintiffs were then placed in one of the NYPD vehicles.
19. The plaintiffs were taken to the NYPD 120th Police precinct and processed.
20. On or about November 1, 2012, the plaintiffs were arraigned before a Judge of Richmond County Criminal Court on the following charges: Robbery in the 1st Degree - P.L. 160.15(4); Robbery in the 2nd Degree - P.L. 160.10(1); Robbery in the 2nd Degree - P.L. 160.10(2)(a); Robbery in the 2nd Degree - P.L. 160.10(2)(b); Robbery in the 3rd Degree - P.L. 160.05; and Assault in the 3rd Degree - P.L. 120.00(1).

21. PO Mullarkey signed the criminal complaint against the plaintiffs, and alleged that he had been informed by "an individual known to the District Attorney's Office", that the plaintiffs had robbed the victim in a store located at 137 Osgood Avenue, in Staten Island, New York.
22. Said allegations were false and completely untrue, as the victim had made it clear to the defendant officers, in the presence of the plaintiffs, that he could not identify the plaintiffs as the perpetrators of the crime upon him.
23. Bail was set for each plaintiff in an amount that they could not afford to post. As such, they were each remanded to the Rikers Island Correctional Facility, where they remained until November 9, 2012, on which date they were released upon their own recognizance when, upon information and well-founded belief, the Staten Island District Attorney did not timely present the case to a grand jury, or was unable to obtain an indictment against the plaintiffs.
24. The criminal action against the plaintiffs was dismissed on February 8, 2013. The Richmond County Criminal Court Docket number for plaintiff Vincent Williams was 2012RI009796. The Richmond County Criminal Court Docket number for plaintiff Eon Struthers was 2012RI009797.
25. That following the plaintiffs arrests, the defendant officers provided information to newspapers and/or media outlets, including but not limited to the "Staten Island Advance" and the "New York Post", which then published articles in their newspapers, within which the names and addresses of the plaintiffs were contained, and the spurious allegations against the plaintiffs were publicized.

CAUSE(S) OF ACTION: FALSE ARREST AND FALSE IMPRISONMENT UNDER 42 U.S.C § 1983/NEW YORK STATE LAW

26. By this reference, the plaintiffs incorporate each and every allegation and averment set forth in paragraphs 1 through 25 of this complaint as though fully set forth herein.

27. The above-described respective arrest, detention and imprisonment of each plaintiff by the defendant officers was/were without just or probable cause and without any warrant or legal process directing or authorizing each plaintiff's arrest or subsequent detention.
28. As a result of each plaintiff's above-described false arrest and detention by the defendant officers, each plaintiff has been caused to suffer humiliation, great mental and physical anguish, embarrassment and scorn among those who know him, was prevented from attending to his necessary affairs, and has been caused to incur legal expenses, and has been otherwise damaged in his character and reputation.
29. Consequently, each plaintiff has been damaged and hereby demands compensatory and punitive damages in an amount to be proven at trial against each of the defendants, individually and severally.
30. The defendant officers were at all material times acting within the scope of their employment, and as such, the defendant City is vicariously liable for the defendant officers acts as described above.
31. This action falls within one or more of the exceptions of the New York State Civil Practice Law and Rules §1602.

CAUSE OF ACTION: MALICIOUS PROSECUTION UNDER 42 U.S.C
§ 1983/NEW YORK STATE LAW

32. By this reference, each plaintiff incorporates each and every allegation and averment set forth in paragraphs 1 through 31 of this complaint as though fully set forth herein.
33. The commencement and continued prosecution of the criminal judicial proceeding against plaintiff, including the arrest, the imprisonment, and the charges against each plaintiff were committed by or at the insistence of the defendant officers without probable cause or legal justification, and with malice.
34. That the defendant officers were directly involved in the initiation of criminal proceedings against each plaintiff.

35. That the defendant officers lacked probable cause to initiate criminal proceedings against each plaintiff.
36. That the defendant officers acted with malice in initiating criminal proceedings against each plaintiff.
37. That the defendant officers were directly involved in the continuation of criminal proceedings against each plaintiff.
38. That the defendant officers lacked probable cause in continuing criminal proceedings against each plaintiff.
39. That the defendant officers acted with malice in continuing criminal proceedings against each plaintiff.
40. That the defendant officers misrepresented and falsified evidence throughout all phases of the criminal proceeding.
41. That the defendant officers misrepresented and falsified evidence to the prosecutors in the Richmond County District Attorney's office.
42. That the defendant officers withheld exculpatory evidence from the prosecutors in the Richmond County District Attorney's office.
43. That the defendant officers did not make a complete statement of facts to the prosecutors in the Richmond County District Attorney's office.
44. That the defendant officers misrepresented and falsified evidence before a Richmond County Grand Jury panel.
45. That the defendant officers withheld exculpatory evidence from a Richmond County Grand Jury panel.
46. That the defendant officers did not make a complete statement of facts to a Richmond County Grand Jury panel, thus misleading them.
47. The criminal judicial proceeding initiated against each plaintiff was dismissed on February 8, 2013, and terminated in each plaintiff's favor.
48. The arrest, imprisonment and prosecution of each plaintiff was malicious and unlawful, because neither plaintiff had committed a crime, and there was no probable cause to believe either plaintiff had committed any crime.

49. The defendant officers actions were intentional, unwarranted and in violation of the law. The defendant officers had full knowledge that the charges made before the Court against each plaintiff were false and untrue.

50. As a consequence of the malicious prosecution by the defendant officers, each plaintiff suffered a significant loss of liberty, humiliation, mental anguish, depression, loss of wages from work, and his constitutional rights were violated. Each plaintiff hereby demands compensatory damages and punitive damages, in the amount of to be determined at trial, against each of the defendants, individually and severally.

51. The defendant officers were at all material times acting within the scope of their employment, and as such, the defendant City is vicariously liable for the defendant officers acts as described above.

CAUSE OF ACTION: UNLAWFUL SEARCH UNDER 42 U.S.C § 1983

52. By this reference, each plaintiff incorporates each and every allegation and averment set forth in paragraphs 1 through 51 of this complaint as though fully set forth herein.

53. Following each plaintiff's arrest, the defendants searched and/or caused each plaintiff and/or his property to be searched, without any individualized reasonable suspicion that he was concealing weapons or contraband.

54. As a result of the foregoing, each plaintiff and/or his property was subjected to an illegal and improper search.

55. The foregoing unlawful search violated each plaintiff's constitutional right to privacy, as guaranteed by the Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution.

CAUSE OF ACTION: FAILURE TO INTERVENE UNDER 42 U.S.C § 1983

56. By this reference, each plaintiff incorporates each and every allegation and averment set forth in paragraphs 1 through 55 of this complaint as though fully set forth herein.
57. Each and every individual defendant had an affirmative duty to intervene on each plaintiff's behalf to prevent the violation to his constitutional rights, as more fully set forth above.
58. The individual defendants failed to intervene on each plaintiff's behalf to prevent the violation of his constitutional rights, despite having had a realistic and reasonable opportunity to do so.
59. As a consequence of said defendants' actions, each plaintiff suffered loss of liberty, humiliation, mental anguish, depression, loss of wages from work, and his constitutional rights were violated. Each plaintiff hereby demands compensatory damages and punitive damages, in the amount of to be determined at trial, against each of the defendants, individually and severally.

CAUSE OF ACTION: DENIAL OF A CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHT TO A FAIR TRIAL UNDER 42 U.S.C § 1983 DUE TO THE FABRICATION OF EVIDENCE

60. By this reference, each plaintiff incorporates each and every allegation and averment set forth in paragraphs 1 through 59 of this complaint as though fully set forth herein.
61. The individual defendants created false evidence against each plaintiff.
62. The individual defendants forwarded false evidence and false information to the prosecutors in the Richmond County District Attorney's office.
63. That said defendants were directly involved in the initiation of criminal proceedings against each plaintiff.
64. That said defendants lacked probable cause to initiate criminal proceedings against each plaintiff.

65. That said defendants acted with malice in initiating criminal proceedings against each plaintiff.
66. That said defendants were directly involved in the continuation of criminal proceedings against each plaintiff.
67. That said defendants lacked probable cause in continuing criminal proceedings against each plaintiff.
68. That said defendants acted with malice in continuing criminal proceedings against each plaintiff.
69. That said defendants misrepresented and falsified evidence throughout all phases of the criminal proceeding.
70. That said defendants misrepresented and falsified evidence to the prosecutors in the Richmond County District Attorney's office.
71. That said defendants withheld exculpatory evidence from the prosecutors in the Richmond County District Attorney's office.
72. That said defendants did not make a complete statement of facts to the prosecutors in the Richmond County District Attorney's office.
73. By creating false evidence against each plaintiff; forwarding false evidence and information to the prosecutors; and by providing false and misleading testimony throughout the criminal proceedings, the defendants violated each plaintiff's constitutional right to a fair trial under the Due Process Clause of the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution.
74. As a consequence of said defendants' actions, each plaintiff suffered loss of liberty, humiliation, mental anguish, depression, loss of wages from work, and his constitutional rights were violated. Each plaintiff hereby demands compensatory damages and punitive damages, in an amount to be determined at trial, against each of the defendants, individually and severally.

CAUSE OF ACTION: MUNICIPAL LIABILITY UNDER 42 U.S.C §

75. By this reference, each plaintiff incorporates each and every allegation and averment set forth in paragraphs 1 through 74 of this complaint as though fully set forth herein.
76. The defendants officers arrested and incarcerated the plaintiffs in the absence of any evidence of criminal wrongdoing, notwithstanding their knowledge that said arrest and incarceration would jeopardize each plaintiff's liberty, well-being, safety and constitutional rights.
77. The acts complained of were carried out by the individual defendants in their capacities as police officers and officials, with all the actual and/or apparent authority attendant thereto.
78. The defendant officers acted under color of law, in their official capacity, and their acts were performed pursuant to the customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of the City of New York and its police department.
79. The aforementioned customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of the City of New York and its police department include, but are not limited to the following unconstitutional practices:
 - a. Wrongfully arresting individuals on a pretext;
 - b. manufacturing evidence against individuals; and
 - c. and arresting innocent persons in order to meet "productivity" goals (i.e. arrest quotas).
80. The aforesaid event was not an isolated incident. The City and its police commissioner has been aware for some time, from lawsuits, notices of claim, complaints filed with the Civilian Complaint Review Board, and judicial rulings suppressing evidence and finding officers incredible as a matter of law, that a disturbing number of their police officers unlawfully search and seize citizens, bring charges against citizens with no legal basis, perjure themselves in charging instruments and testimony, and fail to intervene in and report the obviously illegal actions of their fellow officers.

Nevertheless, the City and its police commissioner have allowed policies and practices that allow the aforementioned to persist.

81. For example, the well documented failures of the Civilian Complaint Review Board (“the CCRB”), a City agency, to substantiate obviously meritorious citizen complaints have gone uncorrected. The CCRB regularly finds complainants lack credibility based on the fact that such complainants have also brought lawsuits to remedy the wrongs they have experienced, a practice that often results in not substantiating the most serious charges brought to them. In addition, the CCRB virtually never initiates their own findings of false statements against officers who have made false statements to the CCRB in their own defense, nor do they initiate findings that officers have failed to report their fellow officers’ misconduct; thus, officers have no real incentive to come forward, or to testify truthfully at the CCRB. The CCRB has no enforcement mechanisms upon making a finding against an officer; it can only make recommendations to the NYPD, once finding misconduct by an officer.
82. The NYPD, upon receiving a substantiated complaint by the CCRB, fails to adequately discipline officers for misconduct. The NYPD Department Advocate, which is endowed with the responsibility of following up on substantiated CCRB charges, is understaffed and under-utilized. Furthermore, in the extraordinarily rare event that the CCRB substantiates a complaint and the Department Advocate proves the case in an internal trial against an officer, the police commissioner still maintains the power to reduce the discipline against such an officer, which has been done on many occasions.
83. Further, the City and its police commissioner have no procedure to notify individual officers or their supervisors of unfavorable judicial review of their conduct. Without this notification, improper practices and incredible testimony go uncorrected.

84. Additionally, according to a report of the New York City Bar Association issued in 2000, the City and Kelly have isolated their law department from the discipline of police officers, so that civil suits against police officers for actions taken in their capacity as police officers have no impact on the officers' careers, regardless of the outcome of the civil actions. Alan Hevesi, as New York City Comptroller, in 1999 reported that there was a "a total disconnect" between the settlements of even substantial civil claims and police department action against officers.
85. The existence of the aforesaid unconstitutional customs and policies may also be inferred from the admission by Deputy Commissioner Paul J. Browne, as reported by the media on January 20, 2006, that commanders are permitted to set "productivity goals".
86. The aforementioned customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of the City of New York, constituted a deliberate indifference to the safety, well-being and constitutional rights of all defendants, including but not limited to the plaintiff; were the proximate cause of, and moving force behind, the constitutional violations suffered by the plaintiff as alleged herein, and deprived plaintiff of the following rights, privileges and immunities secured to him by the Constitution of the United States:
- (a) The right of each plaintiff to be secure in his person and effects against unreasonable search and seizure under the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States.
 - (b) The right of each plaintiff not to be deprived of life, liberty, or property without due process of law, and the right to the equal protection of the laws, secured to him by the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States.
 - (c) The right to be free from unreasonable detention and/or continued detention without probable cause in that each plaintiff was detained.

As a result of the actions of the defendants, each plaintiff was deprived of his rights, privileges, and immunities secured by the United States Constitution, in particular, the Fourth, Fifth, and Fourteenth Amendments, in contravention of 42 USC §1983 and the laws of New York State, and New York City without just or legal cause when defendant City, by its employees and/or agents unlawfully arrested and imprisoned each plaintiff thereby depriving him of his liberty without due process of law.

87. The defendant officers were the actual agents of the defendant City of New York and were following the customs, practices, ordinances and/or regulations of the City of New York when they violated each plaintiff's constitutional and civil rights, and the City of New York is therefore responsible for their acts, and liable to each plaintiff for the damages he suffered.
88. The actual principal/agent relationship between defendant City and the defendant officers was created by the fact they were employees of defendant City, and the City had the right to, and it did indeed regulate and control the activities and conduct of the defendant officers.
89. The defendant officers actions were vicious, wicked, cold-hearted, intentional, malicious, unwarranted and in violation of the law. The individual defendants had full knowledge that the charges made before the Court against the plaintiff were false and untrue.

WHEREFORE, each plaintiff prays for judgment against the defendants, individually and severally, as follows: for compensatory damages against each defendant in an amount to be proven at trial; for exemplary and punitive damages against each defendant in an amount to be proven at trial; for costs and expenses of suit herein, including each plaintiff's reasonable attorney's fees; for pre-judgment and post-judgment interest; all in a sum of money that exceeds the jurisdiction of all lower Courts, and for such other and further relief as this court deems just and appropriate.
