68. At all times relevant defendants POLICE OFFICER PEDRO FIGUEROA, Shield No. 14953, Police Officer CARLOS FERNANDEZ, Shield No. 10266; Sergeant JUAN TERRERO, Shield No. 2985, and NYPD Defendants John & Jane Doe 1 through 10 (“Doe Defendants”) were police officers, detectives or supervisors employed by the NYPD. 69. That at all times hereinafter mentioned the defendants, either personally or through their employees, were acting under color of state law and/or in compliance with the official rules, regulations, laws, statutes, customs, usages and/or practices of the State or City of New York.

70. Each and all of the acts of the defendants alleged herein were done by said defendants while acting within the scope of their employment by defendant THE CITY OF NEW YORK.

71. Each and all of the acts of the defendants alleged herein were done by said defendants while acting in furtherance of their employment by defendant THE CITY OF NEW YORK.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

72. On or about April 21, 2016 at or around 4:55 P.M., PLAINTIFF was lawfully within the vicinity of St. Nicholas Ave, between West 177 St. & West 178 St., New York, New York.

73. PLAINTIFF had permission and authority to operate the vehicle that he was driving, and police had no reason to believe otherwise.

74. Notwithstanding, several unidentified New York City Police Officers, including defendants FIGUEROA, FERNANDEZ, TERRERO, and the DOE defendants, unlawfully stopped the vehicle that was driven by PLAINTIFF.

75. PLAINTIFF pulled over, turned off the vehicle and placed keys on top of the car.

76. The officers unlawfully searched PLAINTIFF and the vehicle, despite the fact that they had no reasonable suspicion or other lawful basis to do so.

77. Defendants recovered no contraband from PLAINTIFF or from inside the vehicle.

78. Notwithstanding the fact that defendants had no probable cause to believe that PLAINTIFF had committed any crimes or offenses, defendants placed PLAINTIFF into handcuffs and under arrest.

79. Unaware why he was being detained, PLAINTIFF asked defendants why he was being arrested.

80. Defendants gave no response to PLAINTIFF'S questioning.

81. Instead, defendant officers grabbed PLAINTIFF and began to repeatedly punch him, while he was handcuffed, despite the fact that defendants lacked any justification to do so.

82. PLAINTIFF was punched in the face repeatedly by the defendant officers.

83. After being handcuffed, PLAINTIFF'S face was slammed in the concrete by defendants.

84. While handcuffed, PLAINTIFF was also punched in back of head by defendants.

85. Defendant officers' assault on PLAINTIFF caused him to suffer great pain and physical injuries.

86. PLAINTIFF was subsequently transported to the police precinct and that is when he was informed that he was arrested for grand larceny.

87. At the precinct the officers, including defendant FIGUEROA, FERNANDEZ, and TERRERO and falsely informed employees of the New York County District Attorney's Office ("DA's Office") that they had observed PLAINTIFF commit various crimes/offenses.

88. Neither FIGUEROA, FERNANDEZ, and TERRERO nor the DOE defendants observed PLAINTIFF violate any laws / ordinances.

89. In order to justify their use of excessive force on PLAINTIFF, defendants claimed that PLAINTIFF was resisting arrest and assaulted a police officer. The allegations made by defendants to the DA's Office were false, and the defendants knew them to be false at the time the defendants made the allegations.

90. The defendants then forwarded these false allegations to the DA's Office in order to justify their use of excessive force and the unlawful arrest of PLAINTIFF and to persuade the DA's Office to commence and/ or continue the criminal prosecution of PLAINTIFF.

91. The defendants knew and understood that the DA's Office was relying on the truthfulness of defendants' claims and statements in order to evaluate whether to commence a criminal prosecution against the PLAINTIFF. Defendants were aware that the DA's Office assumed that all of the factual statements, claims and allegations that defendants relayed to the DA's Office were truthful in all material respects.

92. From the precinct, PLAINTIFF was then transported to New York Presbyterian Hospital for the injuries that he sustained as a result of the officers' use of excessive force.

93. While at the hospital, PLAINTIFF was treated, among other things, for a broken nose, for a head injury and received stitches in his lip.

94. Upon release from the hospital, PLAINTIFF was then transported to Central Booking, and was subsequently arraigned.

95. After being arraigned, PLAINTIFF was remanded to Rikers Island.

96. PLAINTIFF was released after spending approximately approximately six (6) months in custody.

97. PLAINTIFF appeared in court as required, and on December 20, 2018, PLAINTIFF's criminal case was subsequently dismissed in its entirety.
