Plaintiff was maliciously prosecuted and denied his right to fair trial, until the Bronx County District Attorney moved to unconditionally dismiss all charges against Plaintiff on May 13, 2019, which resulted in the termination of the criminal proceeding in favor Mr. Pineda by Hon. Wanda Licitra of the Bronx County Criminal Court.

3. At all times here mentioned, Defendants were acting under color of state law, to wit, under color of the statutes, ordinances, regulations, policies, customs and usages of the City and State of New York.

FACTUAL CHARGES

17. On, or about, June 2, 2018, at approximately 4:30 a.m., in the vicinity of Webster Avenue and East 180th Street, within the County of Bronx, City and State of New York, Plaintiff was lawfully driving his vehicle that was occupied by himself and two (2) male Hispanic or Latino passengers.

18. Defendants, including DARRYL SCHWARTZ, CLIFFORD HOLLYWOOD, JOSHUA MARTINEZ and IAN CHIKEI, proceeded to illegally conduct a stop of Plaintiff and his vehicle without probable cause or reasonable suspicion, as Plaintiff had not committed any crimes, nor violated of any traffic laws.

19. Defendants, including DARRYL SCHWARTZ, CLIFFORD HOLLYWOOD, JOSHUA MARTINEZ and IAN CHIKEI, falsely claimed to have observed plaintiff driving at a velocity above the posted limit of twenty-five (25) miles per hour (MPH).

20. Plaintiff never operated his motor vehicle at any speed above the posted limit of twenty-five (25) miles per hour (MPH).

21. Defendants, including DARRYL SCHWARTZ, CLIFFORD HOLLYWOOD, JOSHUA MARTINEZ and IAN CHIKEI, then falsely reported to have observed plaintiff with blood-shot, watery eyes, to be unsteady on his feet and to be emanating a strong odor of alcoholic beverage from his breath.

22. Plaintiff vehemently asserts that his eyes were clear, he was perfectly steady on his feet and that no discernible odor of alcoholic beverage was emanating from his breath.

23. Defendants, including DARRYL SCHWARTZ, CLIFFORD HOLLYWOOD, JOSHUA MARTINEZ and IAN CHIKEI, then falsely alleged that plaintiff admitted to drinking a “couple of beers,” at the location of his arrest.

24. Plaintiff never admitted to drinking any amount of beers at the location of his arrest.

25. Plaintiff was then unlawfully ordered out of his vehicle by Defendants, including, DARRYL SCHWARTZ, CLIFFORD HOLLYWOOD, JOSHUA MARTINEZ and IAN CHIKEI, who proceeded to unlawfully search and handcuff plaintiff.

26. Defendants, including DARRYL SCHWARTZ, CLIFFORD HOLLYWOOD, JOSHUA MARTINEZ and IAN CHIKEI, never observed plaintiff operate his vehicle above the posted speed limit or exhibit any indicia of alcoholic intoxication, including those referenced previously in ¶ 21.

27. Defendants, including DARRYL SCHWARTZ, CLIFFORD HOLLYWOOD, JOSHUA MARTINEZ and IAN CHIKEI, then forwarded said fabrications to prosecutors, so that a criminal prosecution would be initiated against Mr. Pineda.

28. Defendants, including DARRYL SCHWARTZ, CLIFFORD HOLLYWOOD, JOSHUA MARTINEZ and IAN CHIKEI, physically restrained plaintiff by extending their outstretched arms towards plaintiff, grabbing his body, arms and wrists and then violently contorting his arms behind his back before rear handcuffing him in an excessively tight fashion, which caused plaintiff to suffer substantial pain and physical discomfort to his wrists and back..

29. Defendants, including DARRYL SCHWARTZ, CLIFFORD HOLLYWOOD, JOSHUA MARTINEZ and IAN CHIKEI, then proceeded to criminally process plaintiff, which included fingerprinting, retina scans and various invasive bodily searches.

30. Defendants, including DARRYL SCHWARTZ, CLIFFORD HOLLYWOOD, JOSHUA MARTINEZ and IAN CHIKEI, falsely informed prosecutors that plaintiff was observed driving his vehicle over the posted speed limit and that he was visibly intoxicated at the time he was initially stopped, despite their full and complete knowledge that such observations never occurred and defendants did not possess probable cause or a reasonable suspicion to effect the subject car stop or the subsequent arrest of plaintiff.

31. Defendant DARRYL SCHWARTZ signed, executed and submitted the accusatory instrument (A/K/A the Criminal Court Complaint) against plaintiff, thereby commencing the criminal proceeding.

32. After plaintiff's arraignment, he was compelled to return to court for almost one-year to contest the egregiously false criminal charges alleged against him by defendants, including DARRYL SCHWARTZ, CLIFFORD HOLLYWOOD, JOSHUA MARTINEZ and IAN CHIKEI.

33. After being maliciously prosecuted and denied his right to fair trial for nearly one (1) year, the criminal proceeding was unambiguously terminated in Mr. Pineda's favor, when Hon. Wanda Licitra, of the Bronx County Criminal Court, granted the Bronx County District Attorney's motion for an unconditional dismissal of all charges against Mr. Pineda.

34. Defendants, including DARRYL SCHWARTZ, CLIFFORD HOLLYWOOD, JOSHUA MARTINEZ and IAN CHIKEI, arrested and attempted cause a criminal prosecution to be initiated against plaintiff, because of their desires to use plaintiff's arrest and criminal prosecution to incur additional overtime compensation, benefits and career favor from the superior officers, to avoid adverse consequences associated with failing to meet NYPD departmental arrest quotas and also to conceal their egregious violations of proper police procedures and gross misconduct, including their fabrications of non-existent observations, evidence and information.

35. Defendants, including DARRYL SCHWARTZ, CLIFFORD HOLLYWOOD, JOSHUA MARTINEZ and IAN CHIKEI, unlawfully targeted and decided to stop and effect unlawful seizures of plaintiff and his vehicle due to solely to his status as a male Hispanic or Latino and the presence of two (2) additional male Hispanics or Latinos in plaintiff's vehicle.

36. Defendants, including DARRYL SCHWARTZ, CLIFFORD HOLLYWOOD, JOSHUA MARTINEZ and IAN CHIKEI, engaged in a conspiracy to falsely arrest and maliciously prosecute plaintiff by personally conferring with each other, regarding the fabrication of the aforementioned non-existent evidence and observations, as well the manner and means by which said fabrications would be forwarded to the District Attorney's Office.

37. Plaintiff asserts that the Defendants, including DARRYL SCHWARTZ, CLIFFORD HOLLYWOOD, JOSHUA MARTINEZ and IAN CHIKEI, who violated plaintiff's civil rights, are part of a larger pattern and practice of similar misconduct, which is so widespread, pervasive and consistent throughout the NYPD and the City of New York that the commission such constitutionally violative behavior has become tantamount to an official policy or custom within the NYPD and City of New York or, at the very least, conclusive evidence that the City and the NYPD have either tacitly approved of such egregious wrongdoings or that they have become deliberately indifferent to the civil rights of those who may come into contact with their police officers.

38. The individually named defendants herein, as well as other officers serving in the employ of the NYPD and City of New York, have blatantly, shamelessly, consistently and repeatedly engaged in conduct violative of the civil rights guaranteed and protected by Constitution of the United States, in addition to the laws and Constitution of the State of New York, all without incurring any ramifications for such misconduct and, ostensibly, with the full and complete blessing of the NYPD, the City of New York and their respective policymakers and supervisors.

39. The New York Times, as well as numerous other reputable journalistic enterprises, have reported on the widespread corruption within the NYPD and City of New York, particularly the incredibly disconcerting proclivity of many NYPD officers to lie about subject matters that are materially relevant to criminal prosecutions, including the complete fabrication of arrest evidence and witnesses. Also detailed, is the NYPD's obstinate refusal to effectuate corrective or preventive measures to combat the inevitable recurrence of such misdeeds, and perhaps most troubling, the NYPD's alarming tendency to, instead, reward and promote these officers, including those who were inculcated via some incontrovertible form of evidence.

40. On March 18, 2018, The New York Times published an explosive article, entitled "Promotions, Not Punishments for Officers Accused of Lying," written by Joseph Goldstein. Mr. Goldstein shines a light on the multitude of flaws within the CCRB and the NYPD, highlighting the fact that the substantiation of a claim against an officer will invariably rely on the presence of incontrovertible proof against the officer. Due to the rarity availability of this type of evidence, an alarmingly small percentage of officer misconduct claims are substantiated. The CCRB is further handicapped by a terribly designed system that requires evidence of a virtually indisputable nature to substantiate any claim against an officer. The article also details the NYPD's persistent reluctance to investigate or discipline officers who lie and even posits that this reluctance is a significant cause of the lying pandemic within the NYPD. The article references various officers and detectives who were the subject of credible accusations relating to the officers' intentionally false statements, with some allegations coming from federal and state judges.

41. On September 12, 2019, The New York Times published another article by Joseph Goldstein, entitled "Officers Said They Smelled Pot. The Judge Called Them Liars." Unsurprisingly, this article dealt with the unusually high frequency of officers using the odor of marijuana to excuse a search that conspicuously does not result in the recovery of any marijuana. It should not require an article in The New York Times to call attention to such patently disingenuous tactics, but has become necessary for a variety of reasons, including the NYPD's failure to correct such behavior, the willingness of prosecutors and judges to credit the lying officers and the increasing rate of occurrence.

42. On April 24, 2019, The New York Times published an article, entitled "Detective's Lies Sent Three People to Prison, Prosecutors Charge," by Sean Piccolo, detailing the lies of NYPD Second Grade Detective Joseph Franco and how those lies resulted in the imprisonment of at least three innocent people. The article described how Det. Franco lied about observing drug transactions on at least three separate occasions, lies that were only uncovered through contradictory video evidence. Det. Franco's lies resulted in the innocent individuals each being sentenced to prison terms in excess of one-year.

43. Other articles include: (i) "Testilying' by Police: A Stubborn Problem.," by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, March 18, 2018; (ii) "New York Detective Charged with Faking Lineup Results," by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, February 17, 2018; (iii) "He Excelled as a Detective, Until Prosecutors Stopped Believing Him," by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, October 17, 2017; (iv) "Review Board Notes Rise in New York Police Officers' False Statement," by J. David Goodman, The New York Times, May 14, 2015; (v) "In Brooklyn Gun Cases, Suspicion Turns to the Police,” by Stephanie Clifford, The New York Times, December 11, 2014; (vi) “Detective is Found Guilty of Planting Drugs,” by Tim Stelloh, The New York Times, November 1, 2011; and (vii) “The Drugs? They Came From the Police,” by Jim Dwyer, The New York Times, October 13, 2011.

44. The NYPD has a longstanding and ignominious record of failing to discipline its officers, or even entertaining allegations of wrongdoing against them. On June 26, 2019, The New York Times published an article, entitled “2,495 Reports of Police Bias. Not One Was Deemed Valid by the N.Y.P.D.” This article reported that within the last five (5) years, almost 2,500 separate individuals have filed formal complaints with the NYPD alleging that an officer acted with bias toward them, with not a single one being substantiated by the NYPD. Such a finding is plainly incredible and obviously the result of deliberately poor or nonexistent investigatory protocols. The report further impugned the NYPD’s commitment to combat the prejudices and the biases exhibited by many of its officers.

45. Upon information and belief, the NYPD, the City of New York, and their respective policymakers, officials or supervisors have imposed, tacitly approved or acquiesced to policies, customs, or patterns and practices within the NYPD that resulted in plaintiff’s arrest without probable cause.

46. Upon information and belief, the NYPD, the City of New York, and their respective policymakers or supervisors have failed to provide adequate training regarding the identification of probable cause, reasonable suspicion or the appropriate amount of force to be used.

47. Defendants’ actions, pursuant to plaintiff’s underlying arrest, which occurred without even the semblance of probable cause, were so blatantly violative of plaintiff’s civil rights that the tacit approval of identical or similar acts by the policymakers or supervisors of the NYPD and the City of New York, as well as their deliberate indifference towards the rights of any individuals who may come into contact with defendants, should be inferred, because such flagrant deprivations of constitutionally protected rights could not and would not occur without the tacit approval or deliberate indifference regarding the commission of such violations by the policymakers or supervisors of the NYPD and City of New York.

48. Upon information and belief, further details and facts, relating to the unlawful policies, customs or patterns and practices of the NYPD, City of New York and their respective policymakers, supervisors, police officers or employees, will become known after the completion of discovery, as such information is presently within the exclusive possession of defendants, the NYPD and City of New York.

49. Upon information and belief, the personnel files, records and disciplinary histories of the officer defendants will reveal a history of Constitutional violations indicative of defendant City's knowledge that the individual officer defendants were unfit for employment as NYPD officers, or for employment in general, and that the probability of the individually named defendants committing similar violations in the future was extremely high.

50. Upon information and belief, said personnel files, records and disciplinary histories will conclusively show that the City and the NYPD were fully aware of defendants' past constitutional violations, the unacceptably high probability for the recurrence of similar transgressions, the unreasonably dangerous situations that were likely to result from their hiring or retention, as well as their unsuitability for employment as law enforcement officers, or for employment in general, and that the NYPD and City of New York failed to engage in any preventive or corrective action intended to diminish the likelihood of recurrence for such violations, which is tantamount to the City's tacit approval of such misconduct or the City's deliberate indifference towards the civil rights of those who may interact with its employees, including Defendants, DARRYL SCHWARTZ, CLIFFORD HOLLYWOOD, JOSHUA MARTINEZ and IAN CHIKEI.

51. Upon information and belief, the individually named defendants have combined to be named as defendants in numerous lawsuits that have accused them of committing violations similar or identical to those alleged herein, all of which have resulted no disciplinary or corrective action of any kind.

52. Upon information and belief, the NYPD and City of New York and have failed, or outright refused, to correct the individually named defendants' predilections to engage in unconstitutional behavior or attempt to prevent the recurrence of such misconduct

53. The aforementioned acts of Defendants, including DARRYL SCHWARTZ, CLIFFORD HOLLYWOOD, JOSHUA MARTINEZ and IAN CHIKEI, directly or proximately resulted in the deprivation or violation of plaintiff's civil rights, as guaranteed and protected by the Fourth, Fifth, Sixth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, as well as the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.

54. As a direct or proximate result of said acts, plaintiff was caused to suffer the loss of his liberty, irreparable reputational harm, loss of earnings and potential earnings, physical injury, as well as severe and permanent emotional distress, including fear, embarrassment, humiliation, traumatization, frustration, extreme inconvenience, and anxiety.
