VERIFIED COMPLAINT

-against-

CITY OF NEW YORK, Individually and in their capacities
as Police Officers, ROBERT KONNER, ESTAFANI
CERDA and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10,

Defendants.
-----X

Plaintiff, Jose Figueroa, by his attorneys, Sim & DePaola, LLP, for his complaint against the above Defendants, alleges as follows:

1. The claim arises from an August 9, 2017 incident in which defendants, acting under color of state law, unlawfully arrested and detained Mr. Figueroa. Mr. Figueroa was subsequently charged with Attempted Murder in the 2nd Degree, Assault in the 1st Degree, Criminal Use of a Firearm in the 1st Degree, and other related charges. As a result, Mr. Figueroa was deprived of his liberty and suffered physical injuries. Mr. Figueroa was wrongfully incarcerated over the course of fifteen (15) days, until he was released on or about August 23, 2017. Mr. Figueroa was maliciously prosecuted for said incident from the date of arraignment on August 11, 2017 until the dismissal of charges on February 15, 2018 by the Hon. B. Pitt of the Bronx County Criminal Court.
2. Plaintiff seeks monetary damages (compensatory and punitive) against Defendants, as well as an award of costs and attorneys' fees, and such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

PARTIES

3. Plaintiff Jose Figueroa ("Mr. Figueroa") resides at 2186 Reeds Mill Lane, Apt. 3, Bronx County, State of New York.
4. The Defendant City of New York (or "the City") is a municipal corporation organized under the laws of the State of New York.
5. At all times relevant hereto, Defendant City, acting through the New York City Police Department (or "NYPD") was responsible for the policy, practice, supervision, implementation, and conduct of all NYPD matters and was responsible for the appointment, training, supervision, discipline and retention and conduct of all NYPD personnel, including police officers, detectives and supervisory officers as well as the individually named Defendants herein.
6. In addition, at all times here relevant, Defendant City was responsible for enforcing the rules of the NYPD, and for ensuring that the NYPD personnel obey the laws of the United States and the State of New York.
7. Defendant Police Officer Robert Konner ("Konner") was, at all times here relevant, a police officer employed by the NYPD and as such was acting in the capacity of an agent, servant and employee of the City of New York. Defendant Konner was, at the time relevant herein, a Police Officer under Shield #3724, Tax ID #938787 in the 47th Precinct, located at 4111 Laconia Avenue, Bronx, New York 10466. Defendant Konner is sued in his individual and official capacities.
8. Defendant Police Officer Estefani Cerda ("Cerda") was, at all times here relevant, a police officer employed by the NYPD and as such was acting in the capacity of an agent, servant and employee of the City of New York. Defendant Cerda was, at the time relevant herein, a Police Officer under Shield #2394, Tax ID #939988 in the Evidence Collection Division, located at 850 Washington Avenue, Bronx, New York 10451. Defendant Cerda is sued in her individual and official capacities.

9. At all times relevant Defendants John and Jane Doe 1 through 10 were police officers, detectives, supervisors, policy makers and/or officials employed by the NYPD. At this time, Plaintiff does not know the true names and/or tax registration numbers of Defendants John and Jane Doe 1 through 10 but is within knowledge of the defendants.
10. At all times relevant herein, Defendants John and Jane Doe 1 through 10 were acting as agents, servants and employees of the City of New York, the NYPD. Defendants John and Jane Doe 1 through 10 are sued in their individual and official capacities.
11. At all times here mentioned Defendants were acting under color of state law, to wit, under color of the statutes, ordinances, regulations, policies, customs and usages of the City and State of New York.
12. Within 90 days of accrual dates for these claims, Plaintiff timely filed a written notice of claim on May 7, 2018 with the New York City Office of the Comptroller
13. Over 30 days have elapsed since the filing of this notice, and this matter has not been settled or otherwise disposed of.
14. Plaintiff has complied with municipal defendant's request for an oral examination pursuant to Section 50-H of the New York General Municipal Law.
15. This action has been commenced within one year and ninety days from the relevant accrual dates.

FACTUAL CHARGES

16. On August 9, 2017, at approximately 7:00 a.m., Mr. Figueroa was sleeping at his home located at 2186 Reeds Mill Lane, Apt. 3, Bronx, NY 10475 when several New York City Police officers knocked on the door.
17. Mr. Figueroa's mother answered the door and several New York City Police Officers, including defendants Konner and Cerda, pushed their way into the apartment without permission, consent or displaying a warrant.
18. Mr. Figueroa was unlawfully placed in handcuffs and then taken in an unmarked police vehicle to the 47 Precinct where he was processed.
19. The Defendants had no probable cause or reasonable suspicion to arrest, detain or question Mr. Figueroa, as Mr. Figueroa had not committed any crime or violation of the law.
20. Defendants alleged that on August 1, 2017, in front of 3475 Bivona Street, Bronx, New York, they observed Mr. Figueroa engage in firing a loaded firearm in the direction of his own brother striking him in the abdomen, when they knew such claims to be untrue and complete fabrications.
21. At no time did Mr. Figueroa ever possess any firearms or fire any firearms at that location.
22. Defendants, including Konner and Cerda, were fully aware that Mr. Figueroa did not engaged in any illegal activity, but knowingly and intentionally chose to state that they observed Mr. Figueroa in possession of and firing a loaded firearm, to justify and excuse an otherwise invalid arrest.
23. Mr. Figueroa was never in actual, constructive or statutory possession of any firearm.

24. Mr. Figueroa had multiple assaults and batteries committed to his person including but not limited to being placed in handcuffs too tight.
25. Mr. Figueroa was taken to Riker's Island Correctional facility and subjected to multiple illegal strip searches with cavity inspection at the Riker's Island Jail.
26. Mr. Figueroa was released after being in police custody for over the course of fifteen (15), on or about August 23, 2017.
27. Defendants, including Konner and Cerda, intentionally provided said false information to the Bronx County District Attorney's Office, so that a criminal prosecution would be initiated against Mr. Figueroa, namely that Mr. Figueroa was observed to firing a loaded firearm, striking his brother in the abdomen.
28. Defendant Konner signed the criminal court complaint, knowingly and falsely accusing Mr. Figueroa of Attempted Murder, Assault, Criminal Use of a Firearm, Criminal Possession of a Weapon, and other related charges.
29. At no point were the defendants, including Konner and Cerda, ever told by any witnesses that Mr. Figueroa committed any crime or violation of the law.
30. The defendants, including Konner and Cerda had no probable cause or reasonable suspicion to arrest, detain or stop Mr. Figueroa.
31. Defendants, including Konner and Cerda, never possessed probable cause to believe a prosecution would succeed against Plaintiff, or that Plaintiff was guilty of any crime.
32. Defendants, including Konner and Cerda, falsely claimed that had conducted an official investigation involving witnesses. Said Defendants did not have any relevant witnesses and their actions grossly deviated from normal police practice.

33. Defendants, including Konner and Cerda, falsely claimed they had an official investigation involving a video surveillance of plaintiff committing the aforementioned crimes. Said defendants never had any surveillance video showing plaintiff committing any crimes and their actions grossly deviated from normal police practice.
34. Defendants, including Konner and Cerda, improperly interrogated plaintiff and lied to him about the defendants having a surveillance video of plaintiff committing the aforementioned crimes.
35. While Plaintiff was unlawfully detained, Defendants, including Konner and Cerda acting with malice, conveyed the aforementioned false, misleading and incomplete information to prosecutors in order to have Plaintiff prosecuted for Attempted Murder in the 2nd Degree, Assault in the 1st Degree, Criminal Use of a Firearm in the 1st Degree, Criminal Possession of a Weapon in the 2nd Degree and other related charges.
36. Defendants, including Konner and Cerda, suppressed evidence and engaged in conduct undertaken in bad faith, namely fabricating false accounts that Mr. Figueroa was fired a loaded firearm at his brother.
37. Defendants have displayed a pattern and practice of falsely alleging contraband to be in plain view to justify otherwise unwarranted arrests.
38. Defendants have displayed a pattern and practice of falsely arresting individuals present inside of locations where no contraband is observed in plain view and where the arrestees do not reside.
39. During all of the events described, the Defendants, including Konner and Cerda, acted maliciously and with intent to injure Plaintiff.

40. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants, including Konner and Cerda were involved in the decision to arrest Plaintiff without probable cause or failed to intervene when they observed others arresting Plaintiff without probable cause.
41. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants, including Konner and Cerda, engaged in fraud, perjury, the suppression of evidence and other actions conducted in bad faith, or failed to intervene when defendants observed others doing so, all in furtherance of Plaintiff's criminal prosecution.
42. As a direct and proximate result of the acts of Konner and Cerda, Plaintiff suffered the following injuries and damages: violations of his rights pursuant to the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment of the United States Constitution, violations of New York State law, physical injury, physical pain and suffering, emotional trauma and suffering, including fear, embarrassment, humiliation, emotional distress, frustration, extreme inconvenience, anxiety, loss of liberty and harm to reputation.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

False Arrest and False Imprisonment Under
New York State Law

43. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth.
44. Defendants subjected Plaintiff to false arrest, false imprisonment, and deprivation of liberty without probable cause.
45. Plaintiff was conscious of his confinement.
46. Plaintiff did not consent to his confinement.
47. Plaintiff's arrest and false imprisonment was not otherwise privileged.

48. Defendant City, as employer of the individual Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.
49. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.
50. By reason of the above, the amount of damages sought on this cause of action exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower Courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

False Arrest and False Imprisonment Under
42 U.S.C. § 1983 Against Individual Defendants

51. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth.
52. The Defendants violated the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the U.S. Constitution by wrongfully and illegally arresting, detaining and imprisoning Plaintiff.
53. The wrongful, unjustifiable, and unlawful apprehension, arrest, detention, and imprisonment of Plaintiff was carried out without a valid warrant, without Plaintiff's consent, and without probable cause or reasonable suspicion.
54. At all relevant times, Defendants acted forcibly in apprehending, arresting, and imprisoning Plaintiff.
55. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.
56. By reason of the above, the amount of damages sought on this cause of action exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower Courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTIONAssault and Battery Under
New York State Law

57. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth.
58. Defendants made plaintiff fear for his physical well-being and safety and placed him in apprehension of immediate harmful and/or offensive touching.
59. Defendants engaged in and subjected plaintiff to immediate harmful and/or offensive touching and battered him without his consent.
60. Defendant City, as employer of the individual Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.
61. As a direct and proximate result of this breach, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.
62. By reason of the above, the amount of damages sought on this cause of action exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower Courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTIONExcessive Force Under
42 U.S.C. § 1983 Against Individual Defendants

63. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth.
64. The Defendants, acting under color of state law, violated Plaintiff's rights under the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments, because they used unreasonable force without Plaintiff's consent.
65. Defendants engaged in and subjected Plaintiff to immediate harmful and/or offensive touching and battered him without his consent.

66. As a direct and proximate result of this breach, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

67. By reason of the above, the amount of damages sought on this cause of action exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower Courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Malicious Prosecution Under
New York State Law

68. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth.

69. Defendants initiated the prosecution against Plaintiff.

70. Defendants lacked probable cause to believe Plaintiff was guilty or that a prosecution would succeed.

71. Defendants acted with malice.

72. The prosecution was terminated in Plaintiff's favor when the criminal charge was dismissed and sealed.

73. Defendant City, as employer of the individual Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

74. As a direct and proximate result of this breach, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

75. By reason of the above, the amount of damages sought on this cause of action exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower Courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Malicious Prosecution Under
42 U.S.C. § 1983 Against Individual Defendants

76. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth.
77. Defendants, acting under color of state law, initiated the prosecution against Plaintiff.
78. Defendants lacked probable cause to believe Plaintiff was guilty or that a prosecution would succeed.
79. Defendants acted with malice.
80. The prosecution was terminated in Plaintiff's favor when he was acquitted of all charges.
81. Accordingly, Defendants violated Plaintiff's Fourth Amendment rights.
82. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.
83. By reason of the above, the amount of damages sought on this cause of action exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower Courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Malicious Abuse of Process Under
New York State Law

84. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth.
85. Defendants arrested, detained and caused a criminal prosecution to be initiated against Plaintiff to compel the compliance or forbearance of some act.
86. Defendants had no excuse or justification to forcibly detain or initiate a prosecution against Plaintiff, especially with the absence of any cognizable probable cause.
87. Defendants intended to inflict substantial harm upon Plaintiff.

88. Defendants acted to achieve a collateral purpose, beyond or in addition to Plaintiff's criminal prosecution.

89. Defendant City, as employer of the individual Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

90. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

91. By reason of the above, the amount of damages sought on this cause of action exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower Courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Malicious Abuse of Process Under
42 U.S.C. § 1983 Against Individual Defendants

92. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth.

93. Defendants, acting under color of state law, arrested, detained and caused a criminal prosecution to be initiated against Plaintiff to compel the compliance or forbearance of some act.

94. Defendants had no excuse or justification to forcibly detain and initiate a prosecution against Plaintiff, especially with the absence of any cognizable probable cause.

95. Defendants intended to inflict substantial harm upon Plaintiff.

96. Defendants acted to achieve a collateral purpose, beyond or in addition to Plaintiff's criminal prosecution.

97. Defendants' actions deprived Plaintiff of his right to free from illegal searches and seizures, as well as his right not to be deprived of his liberty without due process of law.

98. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

99. By reason of the above, the amount of damages sought on this cause of action exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower Courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction.

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Intervene Under
New York State Law

100. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth.

101. Those Defendants that were present but did not actively participate in the aforementioned unlawful conduct, observed such conduct, had an opportunity to prevent such conduct, had a duty to intervene and prevent such conduct and failed to intervene.

102. Defendant City, as employer of the individual Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

103. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

104. By reason of the above, the amount of damages sought on this cause of action exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower Courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction.

TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Intervene Under
42 U.S.C. § 1983 Against Individual Defendants

105. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth.

106. Those Defendants that were present but did not actively participate in the aforementioned unlawful conduct observed such conduct, had an opportunity to prevent such conduct, had a duty to intervene and prevent such conduct and failed to intervene.
107. Accordingly, the Defendants who failed to intervene violated the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments.
108. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.
109. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.
110. By reason of the above, the amount of damages sought on this cause of action exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower Courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction.

ELEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligent Hiring, Retention and Supervision Under
New York State Law

111. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth.
112. Defendant City owed a duty of care to Plaintiff to adequately hire, retain and supervise its employee defendants.
113. Defendant City breached that duty of care.
114. Defendant City placed defendants in a position where they could inflict foreseeable harm.

115. Defendant City knew or should have known of its employee defendants' propensity for violating the individual rights granted under the United States Constitution and the laws of the State of New York, prior to the injuries incurred by Plaintiff.
116. Defendant City failed to take reasonable measures in hiring, retaining and supervising its employee defendants that would have prevented the aforesaid injuries to Plaintiff.
117. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.
118. By reason of the above, the amount of damages sought on this cause of action exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower Courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction.

TWELFTH CAUSE OF ACTION
Municipal "Monell" Liability Under
42 U.S.C. § 1983 Against Defendant City

119. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth.
120. Defendant City maintained a policy, custom or practice that caused Plaintiff to be deprived of his Constitutional right to free from illegal searches and seizures.
121. Defendant City's illegal practice is so consistent and widespread that it constitutes a custom or usage of which a supervising policy maker must have been aware of.
122. Defendant City and its policymakers failed to provide adequate training or supervision to subordinates to such an extent that it is tantamount to their deliberate indifference towards the rights of those who come into contact with Defendant City's employees.

123. Defendant City's employees engaged in such egregious and flagrant violations of Plaintiff's Constitutional rights that the need for enhanced supervision and training is obvious and therefore tantamount to a display of deliberate indifference by Defendant City and its policymakers towards the rights of individuals who come into contact with defendant City's employees.

124. Defendant City's conduct violated Plaintiff's rights under the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution.

125. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

126. By reason of the above, the amount of damages sought on this cause of action exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower Courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests judgment against Defendants, jointly and severally, as follows:

- a) On the First Cause of Action, in a sum of money having a present value which exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction of this matter;
- b) On the Second Cause of Action, in a sum of money having a present value which exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction of this matter;

- c) On the Third Cause of Action, in a sum of money having a present value which exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction of this matter;
- d) On the Fourth Cause of Action, in a sum of money having a present value which exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction of this matter;
- e) On the Fifth Cause of Action, in a sum of money having a present value which exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction of this matter;
- f) On the Sixth Cause of Action, in a sum of money having a present value which exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction of this matter;
- g) On the Seventh Cause of Action, in a sum of money having a present value which exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction of this matter;
- h) On the Eighth Cause of Action, in a sum of money having a present value which exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction of this matter;
- i) On the Ninth Cause of Action, in a sum of money having a present value which exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction of this matter;

- j) On the Tenth Cause of Action, in a sum of money having a present value which exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction of this matter;
- k) On the Eleventh Cause of Action, in a sum of money having a present value which exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction of this matter;
- l) On the Twelfth Cause of Action, in a sum of money having a present value which exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction of this matter;
- m) Awarding Plaintiff punitive damages in an amount to be determined by a jury on all causes of action set forth herein;
- n) Awarding Plaintiff reasonable attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1988;

Together with the costs and disbursements of this action
