Defendants.

-----X

Plaintiff Tafari Henry, through his counsel, for his complaint, states the following upon information and belief:

PARTIES

1. Plaintiff Tafari Henry is an individual who resides in Queens County, New York State.

2. Defendant THE CITY OF NEW YORK (hereinafter "CITY") is a municipal corporation organized under the laws of the State of New York, in and as the City of New York.

3. Defendant Anthony Vargas is an individual whose residence is unknown to Plaintiff. He is a New York City Police Department officer who works in Queens County.

4. Defendant JOHN DOES # 1-4 are New York City Police Department officers whose names and addresses are presently unknown to Plaintiff.

5. The individual Defendants (that is, the individual police officers) are being sued both in their individual capacity and in their official capacity as police officers employed by Defendant CITY.

PREREQUISITES TO SUIT AGAINST THE CITY OF NEW YORK FOR STATE-LAW CAUSES OF ACTION

6. Plaintiff has served a timely notice of claim(s) upon Defendant CITY within 90 days after Plaintiff was falsely arrested and detained and otherwise wronged, as described in this complaint.

7. At least 30 days have elapsed since the service of such notice of claim(s), and the adjustment or payment has been neglected or refused.

FACTS

8. On July 27, 2023, at about 3:00 A.M., Plaintiff was lawfully at his home at 115-30 224th Street, Cambria Heights, NY 11411 (in Queens County).

9. On July 27, 2023, Defendant Anthony Vargoas and JOHN DOEs # 1 - 4 were New York City Police Department officers (all collectively will be hereinafter referred to as "Defendant Police Officers.")

10. On July 27, 2023, while Plaintiff, who is black, was arrested for no reason by Defendant Police Officers.

11. A reasonable person or police officer should have known that Plaintiff had committed no crime, violation, or infraction.

12. Defendant Police Officers had no warrant to arrest Plaintiff.

13. Defendant Police Officers otherwise had no other lawful reasons to arrest Plaintiff.

14. Notwithstanding, Defendant Police Officers arrested and handcuffed Plaintiff.

15. Before being handcuffed, Plaintiff attempted to inform Defendant Police Officers that he had committed no crime and did not want to be handcuffed and go to jail, but Plaintiff went peacefully and submitted without resistance to the false arrest.

16. Upon arrival at the jail, the police subjected Plaintiff to a humiliating search and confiscated all his money and personal belongings.

17. Plaintiff was then incarcerated in a cell with criminals.

18. Eventually, Plaintiff was released from jail after about 1 day and 13 hours (37 hours) in custody.

19. Defendant police officers also stole Client's property, including, but not limited to, Plaintiff's computer and tools.

20. After being released from jail, a criminal proceeding may have been brought against Plaintiff; however, the Plaintiff was given does not indicate the docket number and if one was brought, then all charges against Plaintiff were dismissed because they had no merit.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of 42 U.S.C § 1983)

21. Plaintiff repeats and re-alleges every allegation in this complaint.

22. Defendant Police Officers intended to confine and completely confined Plaintiff.

23. Plaintiff was cognizant of the confinement.

24. Plaintiff voiced objections to the confinement to which he did not consent.

25. Defendant Police Officers were not justified, privileged, or provoked into confining Plaintiff in any way.

26. Defendant Police Officers acted under color of law as is defined in 42 U.S.C. § 1983 in confining and incarcerating Plaintiff and in violating Plaintiff's rights and, discriminating against him and profiling him because of his race.

27. Defendant Police Officers violated Plaintiff's civil liberties and rights under the United States Constitution, including, but not limited to, the Bill of Rights, the Fourth Amendment, the Sixth Amendment, and the Fourteenth Amendment.

28. Pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983, Plaintiff is entitled to damages from Defendant Police Officers for violating Plaintiff's constitutionally protected civil rights.

29. Defendant CITY has maintained a system of review of police conduct that is so untimely and cursory as to be ineffective and has the policy to permit and tolerate the unreasonable and excessive use of force and lack of discretion in making arrests by police officers.

30. The acts, omissions, systemic flaws, policies, and customs of Defendant CITY caused Defendant Police Officers to believe that the excessive and unreasonable use of force and falsely arresting individuals, such as Plaintiff, based upon, among other things, racial motives, would not be aggressively, honestly, and properly investigated, with the foreseeable result that officers are more likely to use excessive or unreasonable force and against Plaintiff and in falsely arresting Plaintiff and others in the future.

31. Consequently, pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983, Plaintiff is also entitled to damages from Defendant CITY for violations of Plaintiff's constitutionally protected civil rights.

32. Finally, all Defendants are liable for paying Plaintiff an award of counsel fees in an amount to be determined by this Court, pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1988.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

(False arrest/imprisonment)

33. Plaintiff repeats and re-alleges every allegation in this complaint.

34. Defendant Police Officers intended to confine and completely confined Plaintiff.

35. Plaintiff was cognizant of the confinement.

36. Plaintiff voiced objections to the confinement to which he did not consent.

37. Defendant Police Officers were not justified, privileged, or provoked into confining Plaintiff.

38. Defendant Police Officers acted within the scope of their duties as police officers for the CITY and in the interest of the CITY when they confined and falsely arrested and imprisoned Plaintiff.

39. Defendant CITY is, therefore, vicariously liable for falsely arresting and imprisoning Plaintiff.

40. Thus, all Defendants are liable for falsely arresting and imprisoning Plaintiff.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION(Battery)

41. Plaintiff repeats and re-alleges every allegation in this complaint.
42. Defendant Police Officers' acts were intentional.
43. Defendant Police Officers' conduct resulted in harmful, offensive, and nonconsensual bodily contact with Plaintiff, amounting to the civil tort of battery.
44. Defendant Police Officers acted within the scope of their duties as police officers for the CITY and in the interest of the CITY when they battered Plaintiff.
45. Defendant CITY, therefore, is vicariously liable for the battery that Defendant police officers inflicted upon Plaintiff.
46. Thus, all Defendants are liable for the tort of battery.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION(Negligence)

47. Plaintiff repeats and re-alleges every allegation in this complaint.
48. Defendant Police Officers had a duty to protect and not arrest citizens who do not commit crimes.
49. Defendant Police Officers breached that duty by failing to exercise reasonable care and judgment in determining whether to arrest Plaintiff.
50. The actions of Defendant Police Officers caused Plaintiff to suffer damages.
51. Consequently, Defendant Police Officers are liable for negligence.
52. Defendant Police Officers acted within the scope of their duties as police officers for Defendant CITY and in the interest of the CITY when they arrested Plaintiff.

53. Defendant CITY, therefore, is vicariously liable for the actions of Defendant Police Officers, who acted within their scope of employment as police officers.

54. Thus, all Defendants are liable for negligence.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Negligent Hiring and Retention)

55. Plaintiff repeats and re-alleges every allegation in this complaint.

56. Defendant CITY had a duty to hire and retain competent police officers.

57. Defendant CITY knew or should have known that Defendant Police Officers were unfit to be hired and retained as police officers of the New York City Police Department.

58. Defendant CITY breached its duty to hire and retain competent police officers.

59. Due to the CITY's breach, Plaintiff suffered damages.

60. Thus, Defendant CITY is liable for the negligent hiring and retention of Defendant police officers.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Malicious Prosecution)

61. Plaintiff repeats and re-alleges every allegation in this complaint.

62. If Defendants brought a prior criminal proceeding against Plaintiff, then that proceeding terminated in favor of Plaintiff (where Plaintiff was named a criminal defendant).

63. Defendant Police Officers lacked probable cause to handcuff, arrest, imprison, and prosecute Plaintiff.

64. Defendant Police Officers had malice in prosecuting Plaintiff in the prior criminal proceedings.

65. Defendant CITY is vicariously liable for the actions of Defendant Police Officers, who acted within their scope of employment as New York City Police Department officers.

66. Thus, all Defendants are liable for malicious prosecution.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Conversion)

67. Plaintiff repeats and re-alleges every allegation in this complaint.

68. Defendant Police Officers confiscated and did not return Plaintiff's property, including, but not limited to, a computer and tools.

69. Defendant Police Officers had no right to do so because Plaintiff was the lawful owner of the property.

70. Accordingly, Defendant Police Officers are jointly and severally liable for conversion.

71. Defendant CITY is vicariously liable for the actions of Defendant Police Officers, who acted within their scope of employment as New York City Police Department officers.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff demands judgment as follows:

- (a) on the First Cause of Action (42 U.S.C § 1983), actual and punitive damages in the amount of $2 million and, pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1988, attorney's fees against all Defendants;
