Re: CCRB Case No. 202311532 (Incident Date: October 12, 2023) regarding Police Officer Casey Haft, Tax No. 971985 (POS Case No. C-033407)

Dear Mr. Darche:

The Police Commissioner has reviewed the request for Charges and Specifications in connection with CCRB Case No. 202311532, pertaining to Police Officer Casey Haft. Having analyzed the facts and circumstances of this matter, the Police Commissioner has determined that to pursue Charges and Specifications against Police Officer Haft would be detrimental to the Police Department's disciplinary process.

After a review of the available evidence, the Police Commissioner agrees with the CCRB's findings. However, a mitigated penalty is more appropriate given Officer Haft's relative lack of experience at the time of the incident, her lack of formal disciplinary history, lack of prior substantiated CCRB cases, and absence of malicious intent.

Therefore, as provided for within the 2012 Memorandum of Understanding between the CCRB and the New York City Police Department, the Police Commissioner, in the interest of justice and to retain jurisdiction over this matter, intends to direct the issuance of a Schedule "A" Command Discipline with the forfeiture of five (5) vacation days for the substantiated allegations.

Sincerely,

for Michael P. Baker

Commanding Officer

RE: CCRB Case No. 202311532 (Incident Date: October 12, 2023)
regarding Police Officer Casey Haft, Tax No. 971985

Commissioner Tisch:

I am writing in response to the letter from Deputy Chief Michael P. Baker, dated April 4, 2025 informing the Civilian Complaint Review Board (hereinafter referred to as “CCRB”) of your intent to retain jurisdiction over this matter against Police Officer (hereinafter “PO”) Casey Haft and impose Schedule A Command Discipline and a forfeiture of five (5) penalty days. Pursuant to Paragraph 2 of the April 2, 2012, Memorandum of Understanding (hereinafter referred to as the “MOU”) between CCRB and the New York City Police Department. I am responding to Deputy Chief Baker’s notification.

Deputy Chief Baker stated that “the Police Commissioner agrees with the CCRB’s findings. However, a mitigated penalty is more appropriate given Officer Haft’s relative lack of experience at the time of the incident, her lack of formal disciplinary history, lack of prior substantiated CCRB cases, and absence of malicious intent.” CCRB disagrees with this determination.

In this matter, at the time of the incident PO Haft was a member of the service for over two years. That is more than sufficient time for PO Haft to know about a citizen’s most fundamental constitutional right against improper entry and searches of their home.

Based upon the foregoing, and in the interest of justice, it is respectfully requested that you permit CCRB to pursue Charges and Specifications against PO Haft in this matter.

Respectfully submitted,

Andre D. Applewhite

Re: CCRB Case No. 202311532 (Incident Date: October 12, 2023) regarding Police Officer Casey Haft, Tax No. 971985 (PODS Case No. C-033407)

Dear Mr. Darche:

The Police Commissioner has reviewed your letter, dated April 8, 2025, concerning the Civilian Complaint Review Board ("CCRB") case involving Police Officer Casey Haft, and nevertheless maintains that it would be detrimental to the Police Department's disciplinary process to allow the Civilian Complaint Review Board to continue its prosecution of Police Officer Haft for the reasons expressed in my April 4, 2025 letter.

Therefore, the Police Commissioner affirms her decision to exercise Provision Two of the Memorandum of Understanding and now directs the issuance of a Schedule "A" Command Discipline against Police Officer Haft with the forfeiture of five (5) vacation days for the substantiated misconduct.

Sincerely,

Michael P. Baker
