Tax No. 949550 (DADS No. 2021-23395) / CCRB Case No. 201901922 (Incident Date: April 11, 2019) involving Police Officer Ariel Eusebio, Tax No. 958565 (DADS No. 2020-201800538 (Incident Date: January 17, 2018) involving Detective Tomor Berisha, Tax No. 953678 (DADS No. 2019-20140) and Detective John Echevarria, Tax No. 95383 (DADS No. 20141) / CCRB Case No. 201907401 (Incident Date: August 18, 2019) involving Detective Manney, Tax No. 949938 (DADS No. 2021-23950)

Dear Mr. Darche:

The Police Commissioner has reviewed the recommendations of the Civilian Complaint Review Board (CCRB) regarding the disciplinary matters involving the above officers. The CCRB recommendations of "Training" are appropriate in this matter. How training will properly address the substantiated allegations and is appropriate under the System Penalty Guidelines, the imposition of charges and specifications are not warranted. If an appropriate penalty is formalized training.

Therefore, the Police Commissioner intends to dismiss the charges and disciplinary matters and Police Officer Eusebio, Detectives Berisha and Echevarria, and Lieutenant Rivera will receive the formalized training appropriate in connection with the substantiated allegations.

Yours truly,

Lourdes Soto
Deputy Chief
Commanding Office
Police Commissioner

Re: CCRB Case No. 201903406 (Incident Date: April 11, 2019) involving Lieutenant Jonathan Rivera, Tax No. 949550 (DADS No. 2021-23395) I CCRB Case No. 201901922 (Incident Date: March 4, 2019) involving Police Officer Ariel Eusebio, Tax No. 958565 (DADS No. 2020-22200) / CCRB Case No. 201800538 (Incident Date: January 17, 2018) involving Detective Tomor Berisha, Tax No. 953678 (DADS No. 2019-20140) and Detective John Echevarria, Tax No. 953836 (DADS No. 2019-20141) I CCRB Case No. 201907401 (Incident Date: August 18, 2019) involving Sergeant Frederick Manney, Tax No. 949938 (DADS No. 2021-23950)

Dear Commissioner Sewell:

I am writing in response to the letter from Deputy Chief Lourdes Soto, dated April 21, 2023, informing the Civilian Complaint Review Board (hereinafter referred to as “CCRB”) of your intent to dismiss the Charges and Specifications in these matters. Pursuant to Paragraph 6 of the April 2, 2012, Memorandum of Understanding between CCRB and the New York City Police Department (hereinafter referred to as the “MOU”), I am responding to Deputy Chief Soto’s notification.

Deputy Chief Soto stated that after reviewing the recommendation of CCRB, you determined that the recommended penalty of “Training” was appropriate but did not require the imposition of charges & specifications against all five respondents.

At the time this plea was agreed to, the CCRB was not resolving APU cases for disciplines other than charges. Today, the CCRB is permitted to resolve APU cases for levels of discipline below that of Charges and Specifications. If the CCRB were to resolve these cases today, and the respondents were to accept responsibility for the misconduct, the CCRB would have moved to dismiss the charges itself.

Respectfully submitted,

THIRD ENDORSEMENT

First Deputy Commissioner to Police Commissioner, June 30, 2022. Contents noted. I reviewed the negotiated plea in Disciplinary Case No. 2020-22200, CCRB No.201901922 against Police Officer Ariel Eusebio, Tax No. 958565, with the recommendation of a Reprimand. Assistant Deputy Commissioner, Trials Jeff Adler, reviewed the case and made a favorable recommendation pertaining to the proposed settlement; I do not concur.

Charges and Specifications is an egregious penalty in regard to this case. It is disingenuous to recommend a Reprimand while not also recommending the dismissal of the Charges and Specifications. The Respondent's record should not be tarnished with Charges and Specifications, when CCRB is recommending a Reprimand (Training) and he is accepting it. Furthermore, the Respondent was acting in good faith. The Respondent had no malicious intent and did not recklessly rush into someone's home. The Respondent responded to a fellow officer's call for assistance. The Respondent chased after § 87(2)(b) into the apartment building and observed him going onto § 87(2)(b) floor. The Respondent conducted an investigation and determined what apartment § 87(2)(b) entered, Therefore, the undersigned recommends the dismissal of Charges and Specifications and Training in Warrantless entries..

RECOMMEND APPROVAL.
