VERIFIED COMPLAINT

Plaintiffs, by their attorney, NORA CONSTANCE MARINO, ESQ. complaining of the Defendants herein, respectfully show this Court, and allege as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. That at all times hereinafter mentioned, the Plaintiff CLEVELAND WHITE ("WHITE") was and still is a resident of the County of Queens, State of New York.
2. That at all times hereinafter mentioned, defendant CITY OF NEW YORK ("CITY") was and still is a municipal corporation, duly organized and existing under and by virtue of the law of the State of New York.
3. That at all times hereinafter mentioned, defendant NEW YORK CITY POLICE DEPARTMENT ("NYPD") was and still is a municipal corporation and/or municipal police department, duly organized and existing under and by virtue of the law of the State of New York.

4. That at all times hereinafter mentioned defendant P.O. HOSSAIN ("HOSSAIN") was an agent, servant, and/or employee of defendants City and NYPD; was a member of the NYPD; and was acting for, upon, and in course of and in furtherance of the business of his employers and within the scope of his employment for defendants City and NYPD.

5. That at all times hereinafter mentioned, defendants John Does 1-10, names being fictitious as names are unknown at this time, were agents, servants, and/or employees of defendants City and NYPD; were members of the NYPD; and were acting for, upon, and in course of and in furtherance of the business of their employers and within the scope of their employment for defendants City and NYPD.

6. That all times hereinafter mentioned defendants City and NYPD employed police officers and jailors and others hereafter mentioned in this complaint.

7. That at all times hereinafter mentioned, defendants City and NYPD owned, maintained, supervised, managed, operated, inspected and controlled the various jails, police, facilities, police stations, police precincts, police equipment, police vehicles, all hereinafter mentioned in the complaint.

8. That at all times hereinafter mentioned, all of the actions of the officers allege herein were done within the scope and course of their employment with defendants City and NYPD and under color of the state law.

9. That prior to the commencement of this action, and within ninety (90) days after the happening of the incident herein, plaintiff herein served a Notice of Claim in writing upon the defendants THE CITY OF NEW YORK.

10. That a 50-H hearing was held for plaintiff/claimant.

11. That this action is commenced within one (1) year and ninety (90) days of the date when the incident occurred to the plaintiff.

FACTS

12. On October 17, 2017, at approximately 3:30 pm, plaintiff, while operating his motor vehicle at or near E. Fordham Road between Webster and Marion Avenue, County of Bronx, State of New York, and acting lawfully and peacefully, while operating a motor vehicle, was wrongfully stopped without justification, authorization, provocation or cause by defendant P.O. HOSSAIN, who was acting in the scope of his employment and in furtherance of the business of the CITY OF NEW YORK AND THE NYPD.

13. After stopping plaintiff and advising plaintiff that he would be getting a ticket, defendant HOSSAIN departed without issuing any violations or tickets prior thereto. Plaintiff then proceeded to drive to his residence located at 3064 Albany Crescent, Bronx, New York.

14. Approximately thirty minutes later, seven police officers (JOHN DOES 1-7) arrived at plaintiff's residence and informed plaintiff that he was being arrested for hitting, kicking and spitting at a police officer, none of which occurred. Plaintiff was detained, arrested, summonsed, ticketed, violated, frisked, searched, assaulted, touched, battered, without justification, authorization, provocation or cause, by the respondents herein, who were acting in the scope of their employment and in furtherance of the business of the CITY OF NEW YORK AND THE NYPD.

15. Plaintiff was arrested for no apparent reason; plaintiff had been merely stopped in his vehicle at a green light waiting to make a turn at an intersection. Plaintiff had not violated any law in any manner, and he was subsequently unjustly and inexcusably arrested, detained, imprisoned, falsely arrested, and maliciously prosecuted.

16. Plaintiff was improperly held for almost 24 hours before being seen by a judge and released.

17. Moreover, plaintiff, who was on parole at the time, was then violated with respect to his parole, and later taken into custody, due solely to the unlawful arrest and malicious prosecution set forth above, and has suffered and continues to suffer damages as a result thereof.

18. Plaintiff was subsequently charged with nothing more than "obstructing traffic at an intersection", a violation clearly not warranting arrest.

19. That the wrongful, unjust, and unlawful apprehension, arrest and detention were carried out without probable cause.

20. That the wrongful, unjust, and unlawful apprehension, arrest and detention were carried out without reasonable suspicion.

21. That the wrongful, unjust, and unlawful apprehension, arrest and detention were carried out without cause of any sort.

22. That the wrongful, unjust, and unlawful apprehension and detention were carried out without any justifiable reason whatsoever.

23. That at all relevant times, defendants acted forcibly in detaining plaintiff.

24. That thereafter, after the unlawful detention, plaintiff was unlawfully arrested by defendants and was taken to a police precinct or some other type of holding area.

25. That throughout this period of time, plaintiff was wrongfully unlawfully and unjustifiably held under arrest, deprived of his liberty.

26. That by reason of the foregoing, plaintiff suffered damages.

27. Defendants used excessive force, handcuffed, deprived plaintiff of his liberty, freedom, and constitutional rights, despite the fact that plaintiff had not committed a crime or violation.

28. That despite the fact that defendants knew that there was no probable cause to believe that plaintiff committed any crime, one or more than one of the defendants authorized and approved the formal arrest of the plaintiff.

29. That at all times, the officers acted within the scope of their employment of defendants City and NYPD and under the authority of color of state law as police officers.

30. Although the defendants knew that detaining and arresting Plaintiff when they had no right to do so, in violation of Plaintiff' constitutional rights, the Defendants processed Plaintiff generating misleading and false accusatory instruments in order to lay charges against plaintiff even though defendants knew or had reason to know that they were making an illegal arrest.

31. That said arrest constituted a false arrest and false imprisonment and deprived plaintiff of their personal freedom and civil rights, and led to a malicious prosecution.

32. That Defendants, their officers, agents, servants and/or employees were responsible for plaintiff' arrest, assault and detention during this period of time.

33. That defendant violated plaintiff's first, fourth, fifth, and fourteenth amendments of the United States Constitution and the New York State Constitution, and New York State law.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION
FALSE ARREST

34. Plaintiffs repeats, reiterates, and realleges all of the allegations set forth above.

35. Defendants used excessive force, assaulted, punched, kicked, handcuffed, threatened, and deprived plaintiffs of his liberty, freedom, and constitutional rights, despite the fact that plaintiff had not committed a crime or violation.

36. That the defendant officers arrested plaintiff despite the fact that they knew that the no crimes or violations were committed and that there was no probable cause or justification for such an arrest and/or detention and/or videotaping.

37. That at all times, the officers acted within the scope of their employment of defendants NYPD and under the authority of color of state law as police officers.

38. The aforescribed constitutional violations are all actionable under and pursuant to New York State Law, the New York State and Federal Constitution.

39. Although the defendants knew that detaining and arresting plaintiffs when they had no right to do so, in violation of plaintiffs' constitutional rights, the defendants criminally processed the plaintiff, generating misleading and false accusatory instruments in order to lay charges against plaintiff, even though defendants knew or had reason to know that they were making an illegal arrest.

40. The direct and proximate results of the defendants' acts are that plaintiffs suffered severe and permanent injuries of a physical and psychological nature.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION
NEGLIGENT HIRING, TRAINING, SUPERVISION, AND RETENTION UNDER NEW YORK STATE LAW

41. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges all of the allegations set forth above.

42. Defendant NYPD negligently hired, trained, supervised, and retained the defendant officers; Defendant NYPD was careless and reckless in the hiring, training, supervision, overseeing, and retention of Defendant officers.

43. As a result of this negligent hiring, training, supervision, overseeing, and retention, plaintiff has suffered and continues to suffer damages, constitutional violations, as well as other damages.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION
MONELL CLAIM PURSUANT TO 42 U.S.C § 1981, 1983, 1985, 1986
AND RESPONDEAT SUPERIOR

44. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained herein as if fully set forth at length herein.

45. All of the acts and omissions by the individual defendants, described above were carried out pursuant to overlapping policies and practices of the NYPD which were in existence at the time of the conduct alleged herein and were engaged in with the full knowledge, consent and cooperation and under the supervisory authority of defendant NYPD.

46. Defendant NYPD, by their policy-making agents, servants and employees, authorized sanctioned and/or ratified the individual Defendants' wrongful acts and/or failed to prevent or stop those acts and/or allowed those acts to continue.

47. Defendants detained, arrested, assaulted, battered, and victimized plaintiff in the absence of any evidence of probable cause or reasonableness to do so, notwithstanding their knowledge that said assault and battery would jeopardize Plaintiff's liberty, well-being, safety and constitutional rights.

48. Defendant NYPD has grossly failed to train and adequately supervise its police officers in the fundamental law of use of reasonable detention and/or arrest.

49. The direct and proximate results of the defendants' acts are that plaintiff suffered severe and permanent injuries of a physical and psychological nature.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION
MUNICIPAL AND/OR GOVERNMENTAL LIABILITY

50. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and realleges all of the allegations set forth above.

51. That defendant NYPD, its employees, agents and/or servants, failed to take any necessary steps to prevent this occurrence; failed to properly train its employees, agents and/or servants in arrest procedures; failed to control and supervise its employees, agents and/or servants; failed to prevent the aforesaid detention, incarceration, violation of constitutional rights, and permanent psychological injuries to the plaintiffs; and were otherwise reckless, careless, and negligent.

52. That as a result of the above referenced negligence; Plaintiffs were caused to sustain damages and their constitutional rights were violated.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION
EXCESSIVE FORCE

53. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and realleges all of the allegations set forth above.

54. Plaintiff did not resist the orders during the above described incident and did not take any actions necessitating the use of excessive physical force by defendants.

55. As a direct and proximate result of the unlawful excessive force used against plaintiff by defendants deprived plaintiff of his Constitutional rights in violation of the Fourth, Eighth and Fourteenth Amendments of the Constitution and are liable to Plaintiff pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983.

56. Defendant officers used excessive force against plaintiff with knowledge that plaintiff did not commit a crime and that the arrest and force used to effectuate the arrest was excessive, unnecessary and without cause or grounds therefore.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION MALICIOUS PROSECUTION

57. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges all of the allegations set forth above.

58. That one of or more than one of the defendant officers prepared formal accusatory instruments, with the knowledge that no crime or violation had occurred.

59. That one of or more than one of the defendant officers prepared and filed charges against plaintiffs with malice and the intent of depriving plaintiff of his liberty and right to not have their person seized knowing they had no cause or grounds to do so.

60. That one of or more than one of the Defendant officers prepared and filed these charges against Plaintiffs with the intent to deprive Plaintiffs of their constitutional rights.

61. That defendant NYPD, its employees, agents and/or servants, failed to take any necessary steps to prevent this occurrence; failed to properly train its employees, agents and/or servants in arrest procedures; failed to control and supervise its employees, agents and/or servants; failed to prevent the aforesaid pain and suffering, defamation, incarceration and permanent psychological injuries to the plaintiffs; and were otherwise reckless, careless and negligent.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION
ABUSE OF PROCESS

62. Plaintiffs repeats, reiterates, and realleges all of the allegations set forth above.

63. Without plaintiff's consent, one or more of the defendant officers harmfully and offensively touched Plaintiffs by grabbing them, restraining them, handcuffing them, and unlawfully and unconstitutionally deprived the plaintiffs of their liberty and freedom.

64. That one or more of the defendant officers threatened plaintiff without justification, provocation or cause.

65. The defendants abused their authority and abused their position; Defendants abused and violated the public trust and in particular the trust of plaintiff. Defendants had no right under the laws of the land to detain, arrest, harass, incarcerate, or prosecute the plaintiffs, yet they chose to regardless. The defendant officers who did not detain, arrest, harass, incarcerate, or prosecute the Plaintiff, should there be any, are liable to plaintiff for their failure to protect and intervene, and a violation of their duty to intervene, safeguard, and protect the Plaintiff.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION
NEGLIGENT INFLICTION OF EMOTIONAL DISTRESS

66. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and realleges all of the allegations set forth above.

67. Defendants negligently and carelessly inflicted emotional distress upon plaintiff by improperly and/or maliciously detaining him, assaulting him, restraining him, handcuffing him, falsely arresting him, threatening him; and depriving the plaintiff of his liberty and freedom, and in abusing plaintiff.

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION
INTENTIONAL INFLICTION OF EMOTIONAL DISTRESS

68. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and realleges all of the allegations set forth above.

69. Defendants intentionally and deliberately inflicted emotional distress upon plaintiff; by improperly and/or maliciously detaining him, assaulting him, restraining him, handcuffing him, falsely arresting him, threatening him; and depriving the plaintiff of his liberty and freedom, and in abusing plaintiff.

TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION
NEGLIGENCE

70. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and realleges all of the allegations set forth above.

71. That the aforesaid defendants, without cause or provocation, negligently, carelessly, and recklessly detained, arrested, and threatened the plaintiff despite knowing that no laws, rules, or regulations were violated, without grounds, and without cause.

ELEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION
PUNITIVE DAMAGES

72. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and realleges all of the allegations set forth above.

73. The acts, conduct and behavior of the defendants warrant punitive damages.

As a result of defendants' actions, plaintiff suffered damages.

WHEREFORE, plaintiff demands judgment against defendants, and each of them, on all of the foregoing causes of action, in the form of compensatory damages for his pain and suffering, loss of enjoyment of life, economic loss, and other losses and damages, in an amount that exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts that otherwise would have jurisdiction in the matter, and plaintiff further demands punitive damages on all causes of action, in an amount to be determined by the trier of fact, together with attorney's fees, costs, and disbursements.
