VERIFIED COMPLAINT

Index No.

Plaintiff, PAUL KEENAN, by and through the undersigned attorneys, SIM & DEPAOLA, LLP, as and for his complaint against the Defendants, CITY OF NEW YORK, DEBRA COTTER, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, alleges and states as follows:

1. This is a civil rights action, in which Plaintiff seeks relief, vis-à-vis 42 U.S.C. §§ 1981, 1983, 1985, 1986 and 1988, the laws of the City and State of New York, in addition to the self-executing clauses or implied private causes of action within the constitution of the State of New York, for the violations of his civil rights and the deprivations to his liberties, as enumerated and promulgated by the First, Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States, as well as the laws and constitution of the State of New York.
2. The following claims arose on or about March 12, 2021 when Defendants, acting under color of state law, unlawfully stopped, questioned, searched, arrested and detained Plaintiff in the vicinity of the intersection of East 194th Street and Valentine Avenue, Bronx New York. As a result, Plaintiff was deprived of his liberty and suffered various physical, emotional and psychological injuries.
3. Plaintiff was wrongfully detained for over the course approximately twelve (12) hours after which he was maliciously prosecuted, denied his right to due process and compelled to return to court until all criminal charges against Plaintiff were dismissed and sealed.

4. At all times here mentioned, Defendants were acting under color of state law, to wit, under color of the statutes, ordinances, regulations, policies, customs and usages of the City and State of New York.

5. Plaintiff timely served his Notice of Claim upon the New York City Comptroller's Office in compliance with the General Municipal Law.

6. Over thirty (30) days have elapsed since the service of said notice, and this matter has not been settled or otherwise disposed of.

7. Plaintiff has complied with municipal Defendant's request for an oral examination, pursuant to Section 50-h of the New York General Municipal Law.

8. The claims herein are being commenced within one-year-and-ninety-days of the dates they arose.

9. Plaintiff seeks monetary damages (compensatory and punitive) against Defendants, an award of costs and reasonable attorneys' fees, and such other and further relief as this Court may deem just and proper.

PARTIES

10. At all relevant times herein, Plaintiff, Paul Keenan ("Mr. Keenan"), is an adult male, who resides in Bronx, New York.

11. At all relevant times herein, Defendant, City of New York ("City"), is a municipal corporation duly organized and existing under the laws of the State of New York.

12. At all relevant times herein, the New York City Police Department ("NYPD") is a wholly owned subsidiary, which is further wholly operated, managed, maintained, and controlled by Defendant City.

13. At all relevant times herein, Defendant City, acting through its NYPD, was responsible for the policy, practice, supervision, implementation, and conduct of all NYPD matters and was responsible for the appointment, screening, hiring, training, supervision, discipline, retention and conduct of all NYPD personnel, including police officers, detectives, investigators, sergeants, lieutenants and other supervisory officers or officials, as well as the individually named NYPD Defendants herein.

14. At all relevant times herein, Defendant, City, was responsible for enforcing the rules or regulations of the NYPD, and for ensuring that the NYPD personnel obey the laws and constitutions of the United States and the State of New York. At all relevant times herein, Defendant DEBRA COTTER (“COTTER”) was a police officer, detective, supervisor, policymaker or official employed by the NYPD, or City of New York, under Tax Id. No. 943384, and NYPD Shield No. 16806. As such, COTTER was acting in the scope of her duties as an agent, servant and employee of the City of New York, or the NYPD. This Defendant is being sued in her individual and official capacities.

15. At all relevant times herein, Defendants JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10 were acting as agents, servants and employees of the City of New York, or the NYPD. Defendants JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10 are being sued in their individual and official capacities. The names JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10 are fictitious and are being as placeholders for the officers who (1) falsely arrested Plaintiff, (2) relayed fabricated observations that plaintiff was engaged in criminal activity, (3) subjected to Plaintiff to a cavity inspection on the street, (4) subjected Plaintiff to a humiliating strip search including a cavity inspection where Plaintiff was forced to completely disrobe, squat to expose his anus and cough, (5) initiated or continued a prosecution against Plaintiff without probable cause from which malice can be inferred, who (6) aided, abetted, assisted, and acted in concert with the other Defendants to do the same, and who (7) failed to intervene to prevent the complained-of acts and constitutional violations from being perpetrated by other NYPD employees.

16. At all relevant times herein, Defendants were acting under color of state law, to wit, under color of the statutes, ordinances, regulations, policies, customs and usages of the City or State of New York.

FACTUAL CHARGES

17. On or about March 12, 2021, at approximately 4:15 a.m., Mr. Keenan was lawfully present and walking in the vicinity of the intersection of East 194th Street and Valentine Avenue, Bronx New York.

18. Mr. Keenan was aggressively approached by defendants, including DEBRA COTTER, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, who grabbed Plaintiff, informing him that there had been thefts from mailboxes in the area. Without any reasonable suspicion or probable cause that Plaintiff had engaged in any criminal activity including regarding mailbox thefts, Defendants, including DEBRA COTTER and JOHN and/or JANE DOE 1-10 began to pay Plaintiff down, search through Plaintiff's pockets, and even conducted a humiliating and debasing on scene strip search and cavity inspection of Plaintiff in open public view.

19. Defendants, then violently grabbed and contorted plaintiff's arms behind his back and applied metal handcuffs to his wrists in an excessively tight fashion.

20. Defendants, including DEBRA COTTER, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, then removed Mr. Keenan against his will to the 50th NYPD Precinct, where said Defendants fingerprinted, photographed and searched Mr. Keenan.

21. Defendants including DEBRA COTTER, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10 subjected Plaintiff to a second humiliating strip search in which they forced Plaintiff to completely disrobe, squat to expose his anus, and cough. At no time did any of the Defendants have any individualized suspicion or reason to believe that Plaintiff had secreted contraband into a body cavity or orifice.

22. Defendants, including DEBRA COTTER, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, never observed Mr. Keenan committing any crime or violation of the law, nor in possession of any contraband or stolen property, or any act that could reasonably be suspected as such.

23. Defendants, including DEBRA COTTER, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, had no probable cause or reasonable suspicion to justify their stop, seizure, search, questioning, detention, arrest or subsequent prosecution of Mr. Keenan, as defendants did not possess any credible evidence that would lead a reasonable officer to believe that plaintiff has committed any crime or violation of the law.

24. Defendants, including DEBRA COTTER, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, engaged in the fabrication of evidence in the form of their observations Plaintiff's commission or involvement of the aforesaid acts.

25. Defendants, including DEBRA COTTER, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, forwarded said false claims to prosecutors so that plaintiff would be arrested, detained and criminally prosecuted, despite the absence of any probable cause to support such gratuitous impingements to Plaintiff's civil rights and liberties.

26. Defendants, including DEBRA COTTER, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, suppressed exculpatory evidence, and engaged in conduct undertaken in bad faith, namely the fabrication of said false allegations against plaintiff to justify their wrongful arrest and malicious prosecution against plaintiff, in addition to defendants' destruction, concealment, sabotage or other form of evidence suppression, including defendants' body cam recordings, so that said recordings could not be used to exonerate plaintiff.

27. Defendants, including DEBRA COTTER, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, therefore caused a criminal prosecution to be initiated against plaintiff, despite the clear lack of any probable cause to believe Plaintiff was guilty or that one would succeed.

28. Defendants, DEBRA COTTER, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, maliciously prosecuted Plaintiff on patently false charges, and denied him his right to fair trial until all criminal charges were ultimately dismissed outright which constituted a termination of the criminal proceedings in favor of the accused.

29. Defendants, including DEBRA COTTER, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, arrested, intentionally caused a criminal prosecution to be initiated against Plaintiff, because of their desires to use Plaintiff's arrest and criminal prosecution as leverage to obtain information related to actual crimes, to incur additional overtime compensation, benefits and career favor from the superior officers, to avoid adverse consequences associated with failing to meet NYPD departmental arrest quotas and also to conceal their egregious violations of proper police procedures and gross misconduct, including their fabrications of non-existent observations, evidence and information.

30. Defendants, DEBRA COTTER, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, engaged in a conspiracy to falsely arrest and maliciously prosecute Plaintiff by personally conferring with each other regarding the fabrication of the aforementioned non-existent evidence, the suppression of exculpatory evidence, as well as the manner and means by which said fabrications could be used to deprive Plaintiff of his liberties and civil rights.

31. Mr. Falah asserts that Defendants, including DEBRA COTTER, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, illegally approached, stopped, searched, and then falsely arrested him, due to their discriminatory prejudices, their intent to use the instant arrest as leverage against Mr. Keenan, so that he would provide defendants with information regarding other crimes or criminal suspects, their desires to fulfill an unconstitutional arrest quota, and to benefit from increased overtime compensation.

32. Defendants, including DEBRA COTTER, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, possessed no valid reason to stop, question, search or arrest plaintiff, which gives rise to the strong inference that such conduct resulted from defendants' unjust motivations or proclivities.

33. Plaintiff asserts that the Defendants, including DEBRA COTTER, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, who violated Plaintiff's civil rights, are part of a larger pattern and practice of similar misconduct, which is so widespread, pervasive and consistent throughout the NYPD and the City of New York that the commission such constitutionally violative behavior has become tantamount to an official policy or custom within the NYPD and City of New York or, at the very least, conclusive evidence that the City and the NYPD have either tacitly approved of such egregious wrongdoings or that they have become deliberately indifferent to the civil rights of those who may come into contact with their police officers.

34. The individually named defendants herein, as well as other officers serving in the employ of the NYPD and City of New York, have blatantly, shamelessly, consistently and repeatedly engaged in conduct violative of the civil rights guaranteed and protected by Constitution of the United States, in addition to the laws and Constitution of the State of New York, all without incurring any ramifications for such misconduct and, ostensibly, with the full and complete blessing of the NYPD, the City of New York and their respective policymakers and supervisors.

35. The New York Times, as well as numerous other reputable journalistic enterprises, have reported on the widespread corruption within the NYPD and City of New York, particularly the incredibly disconcerting proclivity of many NYPD officers to lie about subject matters that are materially relevant to criminal prosecutions, including the complete fabrication of arrest evidence and witnesses. Also detailed, is the NYPD's obstinate refusal to effectuate corrective or preventive measures to combat the inevitable recurrence of such misdeeds, and perhaps most troubling, the NYPD's alarming tendency to, instead, reward and promote these officers, including those who were inculpated via incontrovertible evidence, such as video evidence.

36. On March 18, 2018, The New York Times published an explosive article, entitled "Promotions, Not Punishments for Officers Accused of Lying," written by Joseph Goldstein. Mr. Goldstein shines a light on the multitude of flaws within the CCRB and the NYPD, highlighting the fact that the substantiation of a claim against an officer will invariably rely on the presence of incontrovertible proof against the officer. Due to the rarity availability of this type of evidence, an alarmingly small percentage of officer misconduct claims are substantiated. The CCRB is further handicapped by a terribly designed system that requires evidence of a virtually indisputable nature to substantiate any claim against an officer. The article also details the NYPD's persistent reluctance to investigate or discipline officers who lie and even posits that this reluctance is a significant cause of the lying pandemic within the NYPD. The article references various officers and detectives who were the subject of credible accusations relating to the officers' intentionally false statements, with some allegations coming from federal and state judges.

37. On September 12, 2019, The New York Times published another article by Joseph Goldstein, entitled "Officers Said They Smelled Pot. The Judge Called Them Liars." Unsurprisingly, this article dealt with the unusually high frequency of officers using the odor of marijuana to excuse a search that conspicuously does not result in the recovery of any marijuana. It should not require an article in The New York Times to call attention to such patently disingenuous tactics, but has become necessary for a variety of reasons, including the NYPD's failure to correct such behavior, the willingness of prosecutors and judges to credit the lying officers and the increasing rate of occurrence.

38. On April 24, 2019, The New York Times published an article, entitled “Detective’s Lies Sent Three People to Prison, Prosecutors Charge,” by Sean Piccolo, detailing the lies of NYPD Second Grade Detective Joseph Franco and how those lies resulted in the imprisonment of at least three innocent people. The article described how Det. Franco lied about observing drug transactions on at least three separate occasions, lies that were only uncovered through contradictory video evidence. Det. Franco’s lies resulted in the innocent individuals each being sentenced to prison terms in excess of one-year.

39. Other articles include: (i) “Testilying’ by Police: A Stubborn Problem,” by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, March 18, 2018; (ii) “New York Detective Charged with Faking Lineup Results,” by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, February 17, 2018; (iii) “He Excelled as a Detective, Until Prosecutors Stopped Believing Him,” by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, October 17, 2017; (iv) “Review Board Notes Rise in New York Police Officers’ False Statement,” by J. David Goodman, The New York Times, May 14, 2015; (v) “In Brooklyn Gun Cases, Suspicion Turns to the Police,” by Stephanie Clifford, The New York Times, December 11, 2014; (vi) “Detective is Found Guilty of Planting Drugs,” by Tim Stelloh, The New York Times, November 1, 2011; and (vii) “The Drugs? They Came From the Police,” by Jim Dwyer, The New York Times, October 13, 2011.

40. The NYPD has a longstanding and ignominious record of failing to discipline its officers, or even entertaining allegations of wrongdoing against them. On June 26, 2019, The New York Times published an article, entitled “2,495 Reports of Police Bias. Not One Was Deemed Valid by the N.Y.P.D.” This article reported that within the last five (5) years, almost 2,500 separate individuals have filed formal complaints with the NYPD alleging that an officer acted with bias toward them, with not a single one being substantiated by the NYPD. Such a finding is plainly incredible and obviously the result of deliberately poor or nonexistent investigatory protocols. The report further impugned the NYPD's commitment to combat the prejudices and the biases exhibited by many of its officers.

41. Upon information and belief, the NYPD, the City of New York, and their respective policymakers, officials or supervisors have imposed, tacitly approved or acquiesced to policies, customs, or patterns and practices within the NYPD that resulted in Plaintiff's arrest without probable cause.

42. Upon information and belief, the NYPD, the City of New York, and their respective policymakers or supervisors have failed to provide adequate training regarding the identification of probable cause, reasonable suspicion or the appropriate amount of force to be used.

43. Defendants' actions, pursuant to Plaintiff's underlying arrest, which occurred without even the semblance of probable cause, were so blatantly violative of Plaintiff's civil rights that the tacit approval of identical or similar acts by the policymakers or supervisors of the NYPD and the City of New York, as well as their deliberate indifference towards the rights of any individuals who may come into contact with Defendants, should be inferred, because such flagrant deprivations of constitutionally protected rights could not and would not occur without the tacit approval or deliberate indifference regarding the commission of such violations by the policymakers or supervisors of the NYPD and City of New York.

44. Upon information and belief, further details and facts, relating to the unlawful policies, customs or patterns and practices of the NYPD, City of New York and their respective policymakers, supervisors, police officers or employees, will become known after the completion of discovery, as such information is presently within the exclusive possession of Defendants, the NYPD and City of New York.

45. Upon information and belief, the personnel files, records and disciplinary histories of the officer Defendants will reveal a history of Constitutional violations indicative of defendant City's knowledge that the individual officer Defendants were unfit for employment as NYPD officers, or for employment in general, and that the probability of the individually named Defendants committing similar violations in the future was extremely high.

46. Upon information and belief, said personnel files, records and disciplinary histories will conclusively show that the City and the NYPD were fully aware of Defendants' past constitutional violations, the unacceptably high probability for the recurrence of similar transgressions, the unreasonably dangerous situations that were likely to result from their hiring or retention, as well as their unsuitability for employment as law enforcement officers, or for employment in general, and that the NYPD and City of New York failed to engage in any preventive or corrective action intended to diminish the likelihood of recurrence for such violations, which is tantamount to the City's tacit approval of such misconduct or the City's deliberate indifference towards the civil rights of those who may interact with its employees, including Defendants, DEBRA COTTER, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10.

47. Upon information and belief, the individually named Defendants have combined to be named as Defendants in numerous lawsuits that have accused them of committing violations similar or identical to those alleged herein, all of which have resulted no disciplinary or corrective action of any kind.

48. Upon information and belief, the NYPD and City of New York and have failed, or outright refused, to correct the individually named Defendants' predilections to engage in unconstitutional behavior or attempt to prevent the recurrence of such misconduct.

49. The aforementioned acts of Defendants, including DEBRA COTTER, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, directly or proximately resulted in the deprivation or violation of Plaintiff's civil rights, as guaranteed and protected by the First, Fourth, Fifth, and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, as well as the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.

50. As a direct or proximate result of said acts, Plaintiff was caused to suffer the loss of his liberty, irreparable reputational harm, loss of earnings and potential earnings, physical injury, as well as severe and permanent emotional distress, including fear, embarrassment, humiliation, traumatization, frustration, extreme inconvenience, and anxiety.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Protected Speech or Activity Retaliation Claim Under
New York State Law

51. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth.

52. Plaintiff engaged in speech and activities that were protected by Art. I, § 8, of the New York State Constitution.

53. Defendants committed impermissible or unlawful actions against plaintiff that were motivated or substantially caused by Plaintiff's constitutionally protected speech or activities.

54. Defendants' retaliatory actions against Plaintiff resulted in the deprivation of his liberty and the initiation of criminal charges against him.

55. Defendants' retaliatory actions adversely affected Plaintiff's protected speech or activities by physically or procedurally preventing him from further pursuing said protected speech or activities or by chilling his desire to further participate or engage in such protected speech or activities.

56. Accordingly, Plaintiff's right to engage in protected speech and activities, guaranteed and protected by Art. I, § 8, of the New York State Constitution, was violated by defendants.

57. Defendant City, as employer of the individual Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoings, under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

58. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

First Amendment Retaliation Claim Under
42 U.S.C. § 1983 Against Individual Defendants

59. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth.

143. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

144. Defendants engaged in a conspiracy against Plaintiff to deprive Plaintiff of his rights to engage in protected speech or activities, to be free from unreasonable searches and seizures, to be afforded a fair trial, to not be deprived of his liberty or property without due process of law, or of the privileges and immunities under the laws and constitutions of the United States and of the State of New York.

145. Defendants committed overt acts in furtherance of their conspiracy against Plaintiff.

146. As a result, Plaintiff sustained injuries to his person, was deprived of his liberty or was deprived of rights or privileges of citizens of the United States.

147. Defendants' conspiracy was motivated by a desire to deprive Plaintiff of his civil rights or because of some racial, otherwise class-based, invidious or discriminatory animus.

148. The Defendants that did not engage or participate in the conspiracy to interfere with Plaintiff's civil rights, had knowledge that acts in furtherance of the conspiracy were about to be committed or in process of being committed, possessed the power to prevent or aid in the prevention of the conspiratorial objective, and neglected to do so.

149. Accordingly, defendants violated Plaintiff's rights, pursuant to the First, Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States.

150. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

SIXTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Victims of Violent Crime Protection Act under
New York City Law

151. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

152. Defendants' acts or series of acts constituted a misdemeanor or felony against Plaintiff, as defined in state or federal law which presented a serious risk of physical injury to Plaintiff, whether or not such acts have actually resulted in criminal charges, prosecution or conviction.

153. Accordingly, Defendants committed a crime of violence against Plaintiff and violated plaintiff's rights, pursuant to the N.Y.C. Admin. Code § 10-403.

154. Defendant City, as employer of the individual Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

155. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

SEVENTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Intervene Under
New York State Law

156. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

157. Those Defendants that were present but did not actively participate in the aforementioned unlawful conduct, observed such conduct, had an opportunity to prevent such conduct, had a duty to intervene and prevent such conduct, and failed to intervene.

158. Defendant City, as employer of the individual Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

159. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

EIGHTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Intervene Under
42 U.S.C. § 1983 Against Individual Defendants

160. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

161. Those Defendants that were present but did not actively participate in the aforementioned unlawful conduct observed such conduct, had an opportunity to prevent such conduct, had a duty to intervene and prevent such conduct, and failed to intervene.

162. Accordingly, the Defendants who failed to intervene violated the Fourth, Fifth, and Fourteenth Amendments.

163. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

NINETEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligent Hiring, Training, Retention & Supervision Under
New York State Law

164. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth.

165. Defendant City owed a duty of care to Plaintiff to adequately hire, train, retain and supervise its employee defendants.

166. Defendant City breached those duties of care.

167. Defendant City placed defendants in a position where they could inflict foreseeable harm.

168. Defendant City knew or reasonably should have known of its employee defendants' propensity for violating the individual rights granted under the United States Constitution and the laws of the State of New York, prior to the injuries incurred by Plaintiff.

169. Defendant City failed to take reasonable measures in hiring, training, retaining and supervising its employee defendants that would have prevented the aforesaid injuries to Plaintiff.

170. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

TWENTIETH CAUSE OF ACTION

Municipal “Monell” Liability Under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 Against Defendant City

171. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth.

172. Defendant City maintained a policy or custom that caused Plaintiff to be deprived of his civil rights, tacitly approved of such violative conduct or was deliberately indifferent toward the potential exposure of individuals, such as Plaintiff, to such violative behavior.

173. Defendant City’s employee police officers have engaged in an illegal pattern and practice of misconduct, so consistent and widespread that it constitutes a custom or usage, of which a supervisor or policymaker must have been aware of.

174. Defendant City and its policymakers failed to provide adequate training or supervision to their subordinates to such an extent that is tantamount to a deliberate indifference toward the rights of those who may come into contact with defendant City’s employees.

175. Defendant City’s employees engaged in such egregious and flagrant violations of plaintiff’s Constitutional rights that the need for enhanced training or supervision is obvious and equates to a display of deliberate indifference by defendant City and its policymakers toward the rights of individuals, who may come into contact with defendant City’s employees.

176. Defendant City’s repeated refusal or failure to install or apply corrective or preventive measures constitutes the tacit approval of such violative behavior or a deliberate indifference to the rights of those who may be affected by such behavior.

TWENTY-FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Due Process/Fabrication of Evidence Claim Under
42 U.S.C. § 1983 Against Individual Defendants

177. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

178. Those Defendants deliberately fabricated evidence against the Plaintiff and that as a result of this evidence being used against him, he was deprived of his constitutional right without due process of law.

179. As a result, Plaintiff sustained injuries to his person, was deprived of his liberty or was deprived of rights or privileges of citizens of the United States

180. The Defendants fabricated evidence in order to support their false arrest, detention and prosecution of the Plaintiff. The Defendants used this fabricated evidence and informed the prosecution that the fabricated evidence was true and accurate despite the fact that knew that the fabricated evidence was not true, As a result, the Plaintiff was deprived of his constitutional rights.

181. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

182. Defendant City's conduct caused the violation of Plaintiff's civil rights, pursuant to Constitution of the United States.

183. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests judgment against Defendants, jointly and severally, as follows:
