----- X

Plaintiff, GARLAND QUINCE, by his attorneys, Caitlin Robin & Associates, PLLC, as and for his Verified Complaint herein, alleges upon information and belief as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. This is a civil rights action to recover money damages arising out of defendants' violation of plaintiff's rights as secured by the Civil Rights Act, 42 U.S.C. Section 1983, and of rights secured by the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution. On July 4, 2019, at approximately 10:30 p.m., plaintiff GARLAND QUINCE was subjected to an unlawful stop, frisk, search, detention, and false imprisonment, while lawfully present in the vicinity of 523 Putnam Avenue, in Brooklyn, New York. Additionally, the defendant police officers subjected plaintiff to excessive force when they, amongst other things, pushed, tackled, and dragged Plaintiff, causing him to seek medical attention at a local hospital. Thereafter, the defendant police officers denied plaintiff the right to a fair trial by forwarding false information to the District Attorney's Office. Plaintiff was deprived of his constitutional rights when the individual defendants unlawfully stopped, questioned, frisked, searched, unlawfully arrested, used excessive force, and denied the plaintiff the right to a fair trial in violation of the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution.

PARTIES

2. Plaintiff GARLAND QUINCE is a resident of the State of New York.

3. POLICE OFFICER KEVIN J DORAN, Shield No. 9423,, is and was at all times relevant herein, an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.

4. On the date of the subject incident POLICE OFFICER KEVIN J DORAN, Shield No. 9423, was assigned to the 79th Precinct.

5. POLICE OFFICER KEVIN J DORAN, Shield No. 9423, is being sued in his individual and official capacities.

6. POLICE OFFICER MICHAEL SWEIFLER, Shield No. 961483, is and was at all times relevant herein, an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.

7. On the date of the subject incident, POLICE OFFICER MICHAEL SWEIFLER, Shield No. 961483, was assigned to the 79th Precinct.

8. POLICE OFFICER MICHAEL SWEIFLER, Shield No. 961483, is being sued in his individual and official capacities.

9. POLICE OFFICER JOHN AND JANE DOES 1-10, are and were at all times relevant herein, an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.

10. On the date of the subject incident, POLICE OFFICER JOHN AND JANE DOES 1-10, were assigned to the 79th Precinct.

11. POLICE OFFICER JOHN AND JANE DOES 1-10, are being sued in their individual and official capacities.

12. At all times relevant herein, the individual defendants were acting under color of state law in the course and scope of their duties and functions as agents, servants, employees and officers of the New York City Police Department, and otherwise performed and engaged in conduct incidental to the performance of their lawful functions in the course of their duties. They were acting for and on behalf of the New York City Police Department at all times relevant herein, with the power and authority vested in them as officers, agents and employees of the New York City Police Department and incidental to the lawful pursuit of their duties as officers, employees and agents of the New York City Police Department.

13. At all times relevant hereto, defendant CITY OF NEW YORK, operated, maintained managed, supervised and controlled the New York City Police Department ("NYPD") as part of and in conjunction with its municipal function.

14. Defendant City of New York is a municipal entity created and authorized under the laws of the State of New York. It is authorized by law to maintain a police department which acts as its agent in the area of law enforcement and for which it is ultimately responsible. The defendant City of New York assumes the risks incidental to the maintenance of a police force and the employment of police officers as said risks attach to the public consumers of the services provided by the New York City Police Department.

15. This action falls within one or more of the exceptions as set forth in CPLR Section 1602, involving intentional actions, as well as the defendant, and/or defendants, having acted in reckless disregard for the safety of others, as well as having performed intentional acts.

16. Plaintiff has sustained damages in an amount in excess of the jurisdictional limits of all the lower Courts of the State of New York.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

17. On July 4, 2019, at approximately 10:30 p.m., plaintiff was lawfully in the vicinity of 523 Putnam, in Brooklyn, New York when the defendant police officers unlawfully approached plaintiff without reasonable suspicion or probable cause.

18. At no time prior to being stopped by the officers did plaintiff commit a crime or behave in a manner that gave the police officers a reasonable and objective basis to believe he had committed or was committing a crime.

19. Suddenly, without any provocation or legal justification, the defendant police officers forcibly grabbed plaintiff and tackled him to the ground.

20. Defendant police officers then unlawfully pushed, kicked, and dragged Plaintiff, causing plaintiff to suffer physical injuries to face, head, mouth, lip, arms, nose, body, and knees.

21. At no point in time did plaintiff resist arrest in any way.

22. Plaintiff was bleeding from his nose, arms, and lips.

23. The defendant police officers then transported Plaintiff to the 79th Precinct.

24. During the ride to the 79th Precinct, Plaintiff repeatedly asked to go to the hospital and the Defendants refused to take Plaintiff to the hospital.

25. Plaintiff was eventually taken to Woodhull hospital to be treated for his injuries sustained at the hands of the Defendant Officers.

26. Plaintiff was then taken back to the 79th precinct, where plaintiff was fingerprinted, photographed, and unlawfully detained in a holding cell.

27. Thereafter Plaintiff was transferred to Kings County Central Booking.

28. The defendant police officers falsely stated to the King's County District Attorney's Office that plaintiff had committed the crime of Obstructing Governmental Administration, despite knowing that they lacked a legal and a factual basis to allege that plaintiff committed any crime.

29. On July 5, 2019, at approximately 10:00 p.m., after approximately 24 hours in police custody, plaintiff was arraigned in King's County Criminal Court and the Judge released Mr. Quince on his own recognizance.

30. All criminal charges were subsequently dismissed and sealed by the Kings County District Attorneys office.

31. Plaintiff went to Mount Sinai Hospital for follow up treatment for his shoulder and back pain caused by the Defendant Officers.

32. Some of the police officer defendants observed the violation of plaintiff's rights under the Constitution of the United States and did nothing to prevent the unjustifiable stop, question, frisk, search, seizure, false arrest, denial of fair trial, and excessive force used against plaintiff.

33. The unlawful stop, question, frisk, search, false arrest, false imprisonment, unlawful seizure, denial of fair trial, and excessive force against plaintiff by the individually named defendants caused plaintiff to sustain physical, psychological and emotional trauma.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Plaintiff's Fourth Amendment, Fifth Amendment, and Fourteenth Amendment Rights

34. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 33 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

35. The individually named police officer defendants while acting in concert and within the scope of their authority, caused plaintiff to be unlawfully stopped, questioned, frisked, seized, unlawfully searched, falsely arrested, falsely imprisoned, subjected to denial of his due process rights and denied the right to a fair trial without probable cause in violation of plaintiff's right to be free of an unreasonable seizure and denial of due process under the Fourth and Fifth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

False Arrest and False Imprisonment

36. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 35 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

37. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute false arrest and false imprisonment under the laws of the State of New York. Defendants intended to confine plaintiff and, in fact, confined plaintiff, and plaintiff was conscious of the confinement. In addition, plaintiff did not consent to the confinement and the confinement was not otherwise privileged.

38. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the United States Constitution.

39. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

40. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

41. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, economic, emotional and psychological injuries.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

Unlawful Stop, Question, and Frisk

42. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 41 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

43. The illegal approach, pursuit, stop, questioning and frisk employed by defendants herein terminated plaintiff's freedom of movement through means intentionally applied.

44. The conduct of defendants in stopping, frisking, and searching, plaintiff were performed under color of law and without any reasonable suspicion of criminality or other constitutionally required grounds.

45. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the United States Constitution

46. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

47. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

48. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, economic, emotional and psychological injuries.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Unlawful Search

49. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 48 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

50. The illegal approach, pursuit, stop and search inside plaintiff's, pockets, inside of the waistband of his pants and underneath his clothing employed by defendants herein terminated plaintiff's freedom of movement through means intentionally applied.

51. Defendants lacked probable cause to search plaintiff.

52. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the United States Constitution.

53. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

54. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

55. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Denial of Right to Fair Trial

56. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs numbered 1 through 55 with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein.

57. Defendants, individually and collectively, manufactured and/or withheld false evidence and forwarded this false evidence to prosecutors in the King's County District Attorney's Office.

58. Defendants filled out false and misleading police reports and forwarded them to prosecutors in the King's County District Attorney's Office.

59. Defendants signed false and misleading criminal court affidavits and forwarded them to prosecutors in the King's County District Attorney's Office.

60. In withholding/creating false evidence against plaintiff GARLAND QUINCE and in providing/withholding information with respect thereto, defendants violated plaintiff's constitutional right to a fair trial under the Due Process Clause of the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments of the United States Constitution.

61. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff GARLAND QUINCE, sustained, inter alia, loss of liberty, emotional distress, embarrassment and humiliation, lost earnings and deprivation of his constitutional rights.

62. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

63. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Plaintiff's Fourth And Fourteenth Amendment Rights

64. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 63 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

65. The use of excessive force by defendants by grabbing plaintiff without his consent, and tackling him, kicking him, and hitting him all over his body with causing him to suffer physical injuries was an objectively unreasonable physical seizure of plaintiff in violation of his rights under the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

66. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of his employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for his conduct.

67. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional, psychological and economic injuries.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Intervene

68. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 67 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

69. Defendants had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of plaintiff, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other officers.

70. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein.

71. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff's liberty was restricted for an extended period of time, he was put in fear of his safety, and he was humiliated and subject to other physical constraints.

72. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

73. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Malicious Prosecution

74. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 73 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

75. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute malicious prosecution under the United States Constitution.

76. Defendants commenced and continued a criminal proceeding against plaintiff.

77. There was actual malice and an absence of probable cause for the criminal proceeding against plaintiff and for each of the charges for which they were prosecuted.

78. The prosecution and criminal proceedings terminated in plaintiff's favor on the aforementioned dates.

79. Plaintiff was subjected to a post-arraignment deprivation of liberty sufficient to implicate plaintiff's Fourth Amendment rights.

80. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the United States Constitution.

81. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

82. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

JURY DEMAND

83. Plaintiff hereby demands trial by jury of all issues properly triable thereby.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, plaintiff GARLAND QUINCE demands judgment against the defendants on each cause of action in amounts to be determined upon the trial of this action which exceeds the jurisdiction of lower courts, inclusive of punitive damages and attorneys' fees inclusive of costs and disbursements of this action, interest and such other relief as is appropriate under the law. That the plaintiff recover the cost of the suit herein, including reasonable attorney's fees pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1988.
