Jury Trial Demanded

Plaintiffs Amparo Alvarez, Gil Alvarez, and Francisco Alvarez, by and through their counsel, Michael O. Hueston, Esq., upon information and belief, allege as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. This is a civil rights, common law, and tort action in which plaintiffs seeks relief for the violation of plaintiffs' rights secured by 42 U.S.C. § 1983; and the Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution; and the laws of the State of New York. Plaintiffs' claims arise from an incident that arose on or about June 25, 2015 through August 25, 2015. During the incident, the City of New York, and members of the New York City Police Department ("NYPD") subjected plaintiffs to, among other things: unlawful search and seizure; false arrest; assault; battery; unreasonable force; failure to intervene; conspiracy; denial of a fair trial; malicious prosecution; conversion/trespass of chattels; implementation and continuation of an unlawful municipal policy, practice, and custom; and respondeat superior liability. Plaintiffs seek compensatory and punitive damages, declaratory relief, an award of costs and attorney's fees, pursuant 42 U.S.C. § 1988, and such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

JURISDICTION & VENUE

2. Within 90 days of the incidents alleged in this complaint, plaintiffs served upon defendant City of New York Notices of Claim setting forth the name and post office address of plaintiffs, the nature of the claims, the time when, the place where and the manner in which the claims arose, and the items of damages or injuries claimed.

3. More than 30 days have elapsed since plaintiffs' demands and/or claims were presented to defendant City of New York for adjustment and/or payment thereof, and the defendant has neglected and/or refused to make any adjustment and/or payment.

4. Defendant City of New York has not requested a physical examination of Plaintiffs. Plaintiffs have participated in 50-H hearings. Plaintiffs have satisfied all conditions precedent for the filing of this action. This action is being commenced within one year and ninety days of the date of the occurrences herein.

5. Venue is proper in the Supreme Court of the State New York, Bronx County, because the acts in question occurred in the State of New York, Bronx County, and the City of New York and individual defendants are subject to personal jurisdiction in Supreme Court of the State New York, Bronx County; and jurisdiction is proper because the Supreme Court of the State New York, Bronx County has jurisdiction over plaintiffs' state law causes of actions, and plaintiffs' federal causes of action pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983.

PARTIES

6. Plaintiff Amparo Alvarez is a resident of the State of New York, Bronx County, living at 1944 Andrews Avenue, Apt. # 21B, Bronx, New York 10453.

7. Plaintiff Francisco Alvarez is a resident of the State of New York, Bronx County, living at 1944 Andrews Avenue, Apt. # 21B, Bronx, New York 10453.

8. Plaintiff Gil Alvarez is a resident of the State of New York, Bronx County, living at 1944 Andrews Avenue, Apt. # 21B, Bronx, New York 10453.

9. At all times herein, defendant City of New York is a municipal corporation organized under the laws of the State of New York, which violated plaintiffs' rights as described herein.

10. At all times relevant, defendant City of New York maintained a police department known as the NYPD, which employed the individual defendants.

11. At all times alleged herein, defendants Detective Kieron Ramdeen, Shield # 6963, and P.O. John Does # 1-15 were employed as police officers with 46th Precinct and/or Narcotics Borough Bronx, located in Bronx County, New York, or other as yet unknown NYPD assignment, who violated plaintiffs' rights as described herein.

12. The individual defendants are sued in their individual and official capacities.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

Incident

13. On June 25, 2015, several police officers operating from the 46th Precinct and/ Narcotics Borough Bronx located in Bronx County, New York, including upon information and belief, the individual defendants Det. Ramdeen and P.O. John Does # 1-15 ("the police"), at times acting in concert and at times acting independently, committed the following illegal acts against plaintiffs.

14. The police acted in concert in committing the illegal acts against plaintiffs.

15. On June 25, 2015 at approximately 6:30 a.m. at and in the vicinity of 1944 Andrews Avenue, Apt. # 21B, Bronx, New York, the police without either consent, an arrest warrant, a lawful search warrant, probable cause, or reasonable suspicion that plaintiffs had committed a crime unlawfully arrested plaintiffs.

16. 1944 Andrews Avenue, Apt. # 21B, Bronx, New York ("the apartment") is an residential apartment.

17. Plaintiffs were tenants in the apartment.

18. The police broke into the apartment.

19. Upon information and belief, the police were looking for an individual other than plaintiffs.

20. Upon information and belief, any warrant the police obtained was issued upon the basis of extremely unreliable information, the unreliability of which was withheld from the issuing magistrate.

21. Upon information and belief, any warrant the police had was obtained by failing to properly supervise and verify the reliability of any informant before obtaining the warrant and this fact was withheld from the issuing magistrate.

22. Upon information and belief, any warrant the police had was executed beyond the scope of the warrant.

23. Once the police entered plaintiffs' apartment, plaintiffs were not free to disregard the defendants' questions, walk away or leave the scene.

24. The police pointed firearms at plaintiffs.

25. The police shoved plaintiff Amparo Alvarez.

26. The police forced plaintiff Amparo Alvarez down.

27. The police slammed plaintiff Francisco Alvarez to the floor.
28. The police dragged plaintiff Francisco Alvarez across the floor.
29. The police struck plaintiff Francisco Alvarez.
30. The police hit plaintiff Francisco Alvarez in the testicles.
31. The police placed excessively tight handcuffs on plaintiff Francisco's wrists.
32. The police grabbed plaintiff Gil Alvarez's beard.
33. The police punched plaintiff Gil Alvarez in the face.
34. The police placed excessively tight handcuffs on plaintiff Francisco's wrists.
35. The police were abusive and rude to the plaintiffs.
36. The police found no basis to arrest to plaintiffs.
37. Nevertheless, the police transported plaintiffs Francisco Alvarez and Gil Alvarez to the 46th Precinct for arrest processing.
38. Plaintiff Amparo was not taken from her home and eventually released from custody without charges.
39. The police transported plaintiff Francisco Alvarez to the hospital for medical treatment regarding his injuries and then back to the 46th Precinct.
40. The police transported plaintiffs Francisco Alvarez and Gil Alvarez to Manhattan Central Booking for arraignment.
41. The police took plaintiffs personal property, including United States currency and failed to voucher plaintiffs' personal property.

42. Upon information and belief, in order to cover up their illegal actions, the police, pursuant to a conspiracy, initiated by police reports, false sworn complaint(s) and/or conversations, falsely and maliciously told the New York County District Attorney's Office that plaintiffs Francisco Alvarez and Gil Alvarez had committed various crimes, and the District Attorney prosecuted plaintiffs for various charges, including criminal possession of a controlled substance.

43. At arraignment, plaintiffs Francisco Alvarez and Gil Alvarez were released on their own recognizance.

44. Plaintiffs Francisco Alvarez's and Gil Alvarez's cases were dismissed in their entirety on August 25, 2015, terminating in their favor.

45. Plaintiffs were humiliated and embarrassed by the experience.

46. Plaintiffs suffered physical injuries.

General Allegations

47. Plaintiffs did not resist arrest at any time during the above-described incidents.

48. Plaintiffs did not violate any law, regulation, or administrative code; commit any criminal act; or act in a suspicious or unlawful manner prior to or during the above-described incident.

49. The individual defendants did not observe plaintiffs violate any law, regulation, or administrative code; commit any criminal act; or act in a suspicious or unlawful manner prior to or during the above-described incident.

50. The individual defendants acted under pretense and color of state law and their individual and official capacities and within the scope of their employment. Said acts by said defendants were beyond the scope of their jurisdiction, without authority or law, and in abuse of their powers, and said defendants acted willfully, knowingly, and with the specific intent to deprive plaintiffs of their rights.

51. As a direct and proximate result of defendants' actions, plaintiffs experienced personal and physical injuries, pain and suffering, fear, an invasion of privacy, psychological pain, emotional distress, mental anguish, embarrassment, humiliation, and financial loss.

52. Plaintiffs are entitled to receive punitive damages from the individual defendants because the individual defendants' actions were motivated by extreme recklessness and indifference to plaintiffs' rights.

FIRST CLAIM

(UNLAWFUL SEARCH AND SEIZURE UNDER FEDERAL LAW)

53. Plaintiffs repeat and reallege all the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

54. Defendants unlawfully searched and seized plaintiffs without a lawful warrant, cause, consent, and/or beyond the scope of any warrant.

55. Accordingly, defendants are liable to plaintiffs for unlawful search and seizure under 42 U.S.C. § 1983; and the Fourth and Fifth Amendments to the United States Constitution.

SECOND CLAIM

(UNLAWFUL SEARCH AND SEIZURE UNDER STATE LAW)

56. Plaintiffs repeat and reallege all the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

57. Defendants unlawfully searched and seized plaintiffs without a lawful warrant, cause, consent, and/or beyond the scope of any warrant.

58. Accordingly, defendants are liable to plaintiffs for unlawful search and seizure under New York State law.

THIRD CLAIM

(FALSE ARREST UNDER FEDERAL LAW)

59. Plaintiffs repeat and reallege all the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

60. Defendants falsely arrested plaintiffs without consent, an arrest warrant, probable cause, or reasonable suspicion that plaintiffs had committed a crime.

61. Accordingly, defendants are liable to plaintiffs for false arrest under 42 U.S.C. § 1983; and the Fourth Amendment to the United States Constitution.

FOURTH CLAIM

(FALSE ARREST UNDER STATE LAW)

62. Plaintiffs repeat and reallege all the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

63. Defendants falsely arrested plaintiffs without consent, an arrest warrant, probable cause, or reasonable suspicion that plaintiffs had committed a crime.

64. Accordingly, defendants are liable to plaintiffs for false arrest under New York State law.

FIFTH CLAIM

(UNREASONABLE FORCE)

65. Plaintiffs repeat and reallege all the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

66. The individual defendants' use of force upon plaintiffs was objectively unreasonable.

67. The individual defendant officers did not have an objective and/or reasonable basis to use any degree of force against plaintiffs.

68. Those defendants who did not touch plaintiffs, witnessed these acts, but failed to intervene and protect plaintiffs from this conduct.

69. Accordingly, the defendants are liable to plaintiffs for using unreasonable force, pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983; and the Fourth Amendment to the United States Constitution.

SIXTH CLAIM

(ASSAULT)

70. Plaintiffs repeat and reallege all the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

71. Among other things as described above, individual defendants' battery, false arrest, and unreasonable use of force against plaintiffs placed them in fear of imminent harmful and offensive physical contacts.

72. Accordingly, defendants are liable to plaintiffs under New York State law for assault.

SEVENTH CLAIM

(BATTERY)

73. Plaintiffs repeat and reallege all the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

74. Among other things as described above, the individual defendants' false arrest, and use of force against plaintiffs were illegal physical contacts.

75. Accordingly, defendants are liable to plaintiffs under New York State law for battery.

EIGHTH CLAIM

(FAILURE TO INTERVENE)

76. Plaintiffs repeat and reallege all the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

77. Defendants had a reasonable opportunity to prevent the violations of plaintiffs' constitutional rights, but they failed to intervene.

78. Accordingly, the defendants are liable to plaintiffs for failing to intervene to prevent the violation of plaintiffs' constitutional rights under 42 U.S.C. § 1983; and the Fourth Amendment to the United States Constitution.

NINTH CLAIM

(CONSPIRACY)

79. Plaintiffs repeat and reallege all the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

80. Defendants are liable to plaintiffs because they agreed to act in concert to inflict an unconstitutional injury; and committed an overt act done in furtherance of that goal causing damage to plaintiffs under 42 U.S.C. § 1983.

TENTH CLAIM

(DENIAL OF A FAIR TRIAL)

81. Plaintiffs repeat and reallege all the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

82. The individual defendants are liable to plaintiffs because they intentionally conspired to fabricate evidence against plaintiffs, including omitting and/or manipulating evidence, and suppressing exculpatory evidence and forwarded that false evidence to police officers, prosecutors, and the court.

83. The individual defendants violated the law by either testifying falsely, providing false information, and/or drafting and signing false criminal court complaints and/or false police reports and forwarding them to police officers, prosecutors and the court.

84. The individual defendants were on notice that creating fabricated evidence is a clear violation of law because it is well established that individuals who knowingly use false evidence to obtain a conviction act unconstitutionally, depriving plaintiffs of liberty without due process of law or a fair trial, and the harm occasioned by such unconscionable actions are redressable in an action for damages under 42 U.S.C. § 1983, the Fair Trial Clause of the Sixth Amendment to the United States Constitution, and the Due Process Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution.

ELEVENTH CLAIM

(MALICIOUS PROSECUTION STATE LAW)

85. Plaintiffs repeat and reallege all the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

86. The individual defendants are liable to plaintiffs for malicious prosecution because, pursuant to a conspiracy and acting with malice, the defendants initiated a malicious prosecution(s) against plaintiffs by knowingly, intentionally, and maliciously providing false statements in complaints and police reports to police officers, prosecutors and/or the court(s), which alleged plaintiffs had committed various crimes.

87. The individual defendants lacked probable cause to believe the above-stated malicious prosecution could succeed.

88. The individual defendants initiated the above-stated malicious prosecution in retaliation and to cover up their illegal and unconstitutional conduct.

89. The above-stated malicious prosecution caused a sufficient post-arraignment liberty restraint on plaintiff.

TWELFTH CLAIM

(MALICIOUS PROSECUTION STATE LAW)

90. Plaintiffs repeat and reallege all the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

91. The individual defendants are liable to plaintiffs for malicious prosecution because, pursuant to a conspiracy and acting with malice, the defendants initiated a malicious prosecution(s) against plaintiffs by knowingly, intentionally, and maliciously providing false statements in complaints and police reports to police officers, prosecutors and/or the court(s), which alleged plaintiffs had committed various crimes.

92. The individual defendants lacked probable cause to believe the above-stated malicious prosecution could succeed.

93. The individual defendants initiated the above-stated malicious prosecution in retaliation and to cover up their illegal and unconstitutional conduct.

THIRTEENTH CLAIM

(MONELL CLAIM)

94. Plaintiffs repeat and reallege all the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

95. Defendant City of New York, through a policy, practice and custom, directly caused the constitutional violations suffered by plaintiffs.

96. Defendant City of New York through the NYPD and its officers, committed the following unconstitutional practices, customs and policies against plaintiffs: (1) improperly entering premises; (2) unlawfully obtaining and executing warrants; (3) arresting innocent persons in order to meet productivity goals and without cause; (4) using unreasonable force on individuals; and (5) fabricating evidence against innocent persons.

97. Upon information and belief, defendant City of New York, at all relevant times, was aware that the defendants were unfit officers who have previously committed the acts alleged herein, have a propensity for unconstitutional conduct, or have been inadequately trained.

98. Nevertheless, defendant City of New York exercised deliberate indifference by failing to take remedial action. The City failed to properly train, retrain, supervise, discipline, and monitor the individual defendants and improperly retained and utilized them. Moreover, upon information and belief, defendant City of New York failed to adequately investigate prior complaints filed against the individual defendants.

99. Further, defendant City of New York was aware prior to the incident that the individual defendants (in continuation of its illegal custom, practice and/or policy) would stop, arrest and prosecute innocent individuals, based on pretexts and false evidence.

100. The existence of the aforesaid unconstitutional customs and policies may be inferred from repeated occurrences of similar wrongful conduct involving the individual defendants, placing the defendant City of New York on notice of the individual defendants' propensity to violate the rights of individuals.

101. The foregoing customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of the City of New York and the NYPD were the moving force behind the constitutional violations suffered by plaintiffs as alleged herein.

102. The City's failure to act resulted in the violation of plaintiffs' constitutional rights as described herein.

FOURTEENTH CLAIM

(CONVERSION/TRESSPASS OF CHATTELS)

103. Plaintiffs repeat and reallege all the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

104. Plaintiffs had clear legal ownership to possession of the property described above and defendants converted plaintiffs' property by damaging and allowing items to be stolen.

105. Accordingly, defendants are liable to plaintiffs for damages that resulted from the conversion under New York State law.

FIFTEENTH CLAIM

(RESPONDEAT SUPERIOR)

106. Plaintiffs repeat and reallege all the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

107. The individual defendants were acting within the scope of their employment when they committed the above-described acts against plaintiffs, including falsely arresting, assaulting, battering, and maliciously prosecuting plaintiffs.

108. The City of New York is therefore vicariously liable to plaintiffs under New York State law for the aforesaid torts.

WHEREFORE, plaintiffs demand a jury trial and the following relief jointly and severally against the defendants; and demands judgment and compensatory damages, individually and/or collectively in an amount that exceeds the jurisdiction of all lower courts that would otherwise have jurisdiction as to the above-stated cause of action against all defendants; punitive damages in an amount to be determined at trial as and for the above-stated causes of action against the individual defendants; together with costs and disbursements of this action and legal fees pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1988.

VERIFICATION

MICHAEL O. HUESTON, ESQ., an attorney at law, duly admitted to the Bar of the State of New York, affirms under penalties of perjury pursuant to CPLR § 2106 to the truth of the following:

I am the attorney for plaintiffs Amparo Alvarez, Francisco Alvarez, and Gil Alvarez. I have read the forgoing complaint and know the contents thereof; the same is true to my own knowledge, except as to the matters therein stated to be alleged on information and belief, as to those matters I believe them to be true. I make this verification instead of the plaintiffs pursuant to CPLR § 3020 because the plaintiffs reside in a different county than where I maintain my office.

The grounds for my belief as to all matters in the complaint not stated to be upon my knowledge are based upon conversations with plaintiffs, and a review of records related to this action.
