Plaintiff Lloyd Harris, by his attorney, SYDNEY O'HAGAN, ESQ., as and for the Complaint herein, alleges upon information and belief as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. This is a civil rights action to recover money damages arising out of defendants' violation of plaintiff's rights as secured by the Civil Rights Act, 42 U.S.C. Section 1983, the rights secured by the First, Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution and the laws of the State of New York. Plaintiff was unlawfully arrested by the defendants. Plaintiff was deprived of his federal constitutional and state constitutional and common law rights when the individually named police officer defendants unlawfully confined plaintiff, caused the unjustifiable arrest of plaintiff and malicious prosecution and denial of a fair trial of the plaintiff. Defendants additionally used excessive force in violation of Plaintiff's constitutional rights protected by the Eighth Amendment and the state tort laws.

PARTIES

2. Lloyd Harris is a resident of the State of New York, Kings County.
3. Defendant City of New York is a municipal corporation organized under the laws of the State of New York, which violated plaintiff's rights as described herein.
4. NYPD DETECTIVE CRAIG JACOB, assigned Shield # 5974, employed with the Strategic Response Group 1, is and was at all times relevant herein an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.
5. NYPD DETECTIVE CRAIG JACOB (Shield # 5974) is being sued in his individual capacity and official capacity.

6. Police Officer John Doe Number 1 is and was at all times relevant herein an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.
7. Police Officer John Doe #1 is being sued in his individual capacity and official capacity.
8. New York Police Officers John and Jane Doe #'s 2-8 are and were at all times relevant herein an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.
9. Police Officers John and Jane Doe #'s 2-8 are being sued in his/her individual capacity and official capacity.
10. At all times relevant herein, the individual defendants were acting under color of state law in the course and scope of their duties and functions as agents, servants, employees and officers of the New York City Police Department, and otherwise performed and engaged in conduct incidental to the performance of their lawful functions in the course of their duties. They were acting for and on behalf of the New York City Police Department at all times relevant herein, with the power and authority vested in them as officers, agents, and employees of the New York City Police Department and incidental to the lawful pursuit of their duties as officers, employees and agents of the New York City Police Department.
11. Defendant City of New York is a municipal entity created and authorized under the laws of the State of New York. It is authorized by law to maintain a police department which acts as agents in the area of law enforcement and for which it is ultimately responsible. The defendant City of New York assumes the risks incidental to the maintenance of a police force and the employment of police officers as said risks attach to the public consumers of the services provided by the New York City Police Department.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

12. On February 26, 2019 at approximately 9:30 p.m. in the vicinity of Old Broadway and West 125th and West 126th Street, New York, New York, several police officers operating from the Strategic Response Group 1 and the 26th Precinct, including upon information and belief, defendant NYPD Detective Craig Jacob, P.O. John and Jane Does #1-8, and other as yet unknown police officers, at times acting in concert and at times acting independently, committed the following illegal acts against Plaintiff Harris.
13. On February 26, 2019, at approximately 9:30 p.m., Plaintiff Lloyd was operating a motor vehicle in Upper Manhattan, when, without consent, an arrest warrant, a lawful search warrant, probable cause, or reasonable suspicion that plaintiff (or any third person) had committed a crime, the defendants unlawfully stopped and searched the vehicle and plaintiff's person.
14. Once the defendant officers stopped the vehicle, plaintiff was not free to walk away or leave the scene.

15. Defendants purported that plaintiff was driving a vehicle with a fraudulent license plate, however, plaintiff provided ample evidence, including auto loan information, insurance information, and temporary registration information at the time he was stopped and searched which proved objectively the validity of the plates. This proof clearly demonstrated that the license plates came directly from the car dealer and the car was owned by his cousin, Amin Junior.
16. Defendants disregarded this information and arrested plaintiff for possession of a forged instrument. Plaintiff denies this charge and provided testimony and objective proof at the time of his arrest demonstrating the validity of the plates.
17. During the arrest of the plaintiff, defendants committed excessive force against him by maliciously, gratuitously, and unnecessarily placing excessively tight handcuffs on plaintiff's wrists and bending his arms back awkwardly. Those who did not touch plaintiffs, witnessed these acts, but failed to intervene and protect plaintiff from this conduct.
18. The individual defendant officers did not have an objective and/or reasonable basis to use any degree of force against plaintiffs, since plaintiffs were unarmed, compliant, and did not resist arrest.
19. Plaintiff was physically injured as a result of the excessive use of force, and suffered numbness and marks to their wrists. Plaintiff also suffered shoulder pain because of the awkward manner in which he was cuffed.
20. Plaintiff asked the individual defendants to loosen the cuffs or use 2 pairs of handcuffs, but they did not.
21. Plaintiff was transported to the 26th precinct where plaintiff requested to make a phone call. Defendants denied and ignored this request. Plaintiff was then transferred to New York Central Booking.
22. While plaintiff was incarcerated at the 26th precinct and Central Booking, defendants falsely and maliciously told the New York County District Attorney's Office that plaintiff had committed the crime of a possession forged instrument in the third degree. Defendants knew this allegation to be false based on information provided at the time of plaintiff's arrest. Defendant's knowledge of the falseness of these claims is further evidenced by the fact that the police permitted plaintiff's cousin to pick up the vehicle in question and drive it home from the precinct, while bearing the allegedly fraudulent license plate.
23. Based on the defendant's false statements, the New York County District Attorney's office chose to prosecute plaintiff under docket 2019NY007246.
24. Plaintiff was incarcerated for approximately 15.5 hours. During his confinement he was subject to depraved, filthy and inhumane conditions.
25. Plaintiff Harris was released on his own recognizance at arraignment.

26. On September 4, 2019, the above-stated malicious prosecution terminated in plaintiff's favor when the case against him was dismissed and sealed in its entirety.
27. Prior to dismissal, plaintiff attended 6 court appearances.
28. Plaintiff Harris was suspended from work without pay for 30 days subsequent to the arrest and lost 2 additional days of wages as a result of the arrest. He expected to earn $4,000 during his work suspension between salary and overtime pay. Moreover, during his suspension, he had no health benefits. His wife was pregnant at the time and the loss of medical insurance prevented her from attending pre-natal visit to the doctor. Plaintiff Harris now attends a mental health therapy session every week to help him cope with his ongoing anxiety relating to the arrest.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

ASSAULT

29. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 28 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
30. Defendants their agents, servants and employees, acting within the scope of their employment, intentionally, willfully and maliciously assaulted plaintiff in that he had the real or apparent ability to cause imminent harmful and/or offensive bodily contact and intentionally did a violent and/or menacing act which threatened such contact to the plaintiff, and that such acts caused apprehension of such contact in the plaintiff. Plaintiff was assaulted by Detective Craig Jacob and other officers.
31. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York, the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
32. The City, as the employer of defendants is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

BATTERY

33. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 32 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
34. Defendants their agents, servants and employees, acting within the scope of his employment, intentionally, willfully and maliciously battered plaintiff, when they, in a hostile and/or offensive manner with the intention of causing harmful and/or offensive bodily contact to the plaintiff and caused such battery. Plaintiff was assaulted by police officers.

35. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of his employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
36. The City, as the employer of Defendants is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

FALSE ARREST AND FALSE IMPRISONMENT

37. Plaintiff repeats and alleges paragraphs 1 through 36 as if fully set forth herein.
38. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute false arrest and false imprisonment under the laws of the State of New York. Defendants intended to confine plaintiff and, in fact, confined plaintiff, and plaintiff was conscious of the confinement. In addition, plaintiff did not consent to the confinement and the confinement was not otherwise privileged.
39. The individually named defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
40. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

MALICIOUS PROSECUTION

41. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 40 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
42. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute malicious prosecution under the laws of the State of New York.
43. Defendants commenced and continued a criminal proceeding against Plaintiff with malice and without probable cause, caused him a serious deprivation of liberty as a result, and Plaintiff obtained a favorable termination on the fabricated charges.
44. Defendants commenced and continued a criminal proceeding against plaintiff.
45. There was actual malice and an absence of probable cause for the criminal proceeding against plaintiff and for each of the charges for which he was prosecuted.
46. The prosecution and criminal proceedings terminated favorably to plaintiff on September 4, 2019.

47. Plaintiff was subjected to a post-arraignment deprivation of liberty sufficient to implicate his state constitutional and tort rights.
48. The individually named defendant Police Officers were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

NEGLIGENT HIRING, RETENTION, TRAINING AND SUPERVISION

49. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 48 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
50. The City of New York and its employees, servants and/or agents acting within the scope of their employment did negligently hire, retain, train and supervise the individually named defendants, individuals who were unfit for the performance of NYPD duties.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

FAILURE TO INTERVENE

51. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 50 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
52. Defendants had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of plaintiff, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other members of the NYPD.
53. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein despite having had a reasonable opportunity to do so, and full knowledge of the unlawful conduct.
54. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff was subjected to an illegal search and undue force upon his person over the course of the false arrest.
55. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of his employment by the City of New York, the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
56. The City, as the employer of defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTIONNEGLIGENCE

- 57. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 56 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
- 58. Defendants owed a duty of care to plaintiff.
- 59. Defendants breached that duty of care by subjecting him to an illegal search and undue force and unprivileged deprivation of his liberty without sufficient or any cause to do so.
- 60. As a direct and proximate cause of this unlawful conduct, plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.
- 61. All of the foregoing occurred without any fault by plaintiff.
- 62. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTIONNEGLIGENT INFLICTION OF EMOTIONAL DISTRESS

- 63. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 62 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
- 64. By the actions described herein, the individually named police officer defendants, each acting individually and in concert with one another, engaged in extreme and outrageous conduct, conduct utterly intolerable in a civilized community, which negligently caused severe emotional distress to plaintiff. The acts and conduct of the defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to plaintiff and violated plaintiff's statutory and common law rights as guaranteed by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.
- 65. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff was deprived of liberty and sustained great emotional injuries.
- 66. The City, as the employer of the defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat behavior.

NINTH, TENTH, ELEVENTH, TWELFTH CAUSES OF ACTION42 U.S.C. § 1983 and 42 U.S.C. 1988

Violation of First, Fourth, Fifth, Eighth and Fourteenth Amendments of US Constitution pursuant to Court's concurrent jurisdiction over Plaintiff's federal first-amendment-retaliation claim (9th claim); false-arrest/excessive force/unlawful-search claims (10th claim); malicious-prosecution claim (11th claim) and deprivation-of-fair-trial claim (12th claim).

67. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 66 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
68. Defendants, while acting under color of state law, engaged in conduct that violated Plaintiff's federal constitutional rights as protected by 42 USC Section 1983.
69. New York State courts have concurrent jurisdiction to hear federal claims such as Plaintiff's Section 1983 ones here.
70. Plaintiff's federal constitutional claims—brought pursuant to 42 USC 1983 and 1988—allege the violation of his First, Fourth, Fifth, Eighth and Fourteenth Amendment rights.
71. In particular, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants' retaliatory and harassing false arrest, use of undue and excessive force upon him causing physical injury, unlawful search, malicious prosecution and fabrication of evidence violated his First, Fourth, Fifth, Eighth and Fourteenth Amendment rights insofar as Defendants had no cause or legal privilege to submit Plaintiff to deprivation of his liberty, seizure and search of his person, and other constitutional injuries, yet they did so with malice and retaliatory intent.
72. Insofar as Plaintiff's federal claims, brought pursuant to the court's concurrent jurisdiction over them, mirror state constitutional tort and tort elements, Plaintiff repeats and reiterates the above allegations in support of the federal claims here.
73. In the event Plaintiff prevails at trial on one, some or all of his 42 USC Section 1983 claims pursuant to the court's concurrent jurisdiction, he also seeks reasonable fees and costs as prevailing party pursuant to 42 USC Section 1988.

THIRTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Municipal liability pursuant to 42 USC Section 1983

74. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 73 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
75. Defendants, collectively and individually, while acting under color of state law, engaged in conduct that constituted a custom, usage, practice, procedure or rule of defendant City of New York, which is forbidden by the Constitution of the United States.

76. The aforementioned customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of defendant City of New York and the New York Police Department included, but were not limited to policies, customs and practices wherein New York City Police officers arrest individuals without probable cause and create false versions of events to justify their actions to achieve remunerative ends through overtime, to achieve professional advancement through arrest numbers, and to satisfy personal whims through retaliatory use of their authority.
77. The aforementioned customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of defendant City of New York and the New York Police Department were the moving force behind the violation of plaintiff's constitutional rights as described herein. As a result of the failure of defendant City of New York and the New York City Police Department to properly recruit, screen, train, discipline, and supervise its officers, including the individual defendants, defendant City of New York has tacitly authorized, ratified, and has been deliberately indifferent to, the acts and conduct complained of herein.
78. Similarly, the City of NY is on notice of the obvious risk that their failure to train, discipline and supervise its officers—and in particular these specific Defendants who discovery will show to have been the subject of misconduct allegations that went uncorrected—proximately caused the constitutional violations suffered by Plaintiff here.
79. The foregoing customs, policies, usages, practices, and procedures and rules of defendant City of New York and the New York City Police Department were the moving force behind the Constitutional violations suffered by plaintiff as alleged herein.
80. As a result of the foregoing customs, policies, usages, practices, and procedures and rules of defendant City of New York and the New York City Police Department, plaintiff was unlawfully arrested, subjected to undue force and unlawful search, and prosecuted.
81. Defendants collectively and individually, while acting under color of state law were directly and actively involved in violating plaintiff's constitutional rights.

WHEREFORE, LLOYD HARRIS, plaintiff, demands a judgment against the defendants on each cause of action in amounts to be determined upon the trial of this actions which exceeds the jurisdiction of lower courts, inclusive of punitive damages and attorney's fees inclusive of costs and disbursements of this action, interest and such other relief as appropriate under the law.
