Plaintiff, by his attorney, Jonathan L. Gleit, Esq., complaining of the Defendants, respectfully alleges, upon information and belief, as follows:

AS AND FOR A FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION ON BEHALF OF THE PLAINTIFF RICHARD ROBINSON

1. At the time of the commencement of this action, plaintiff RICHARD ROBINSON was and still is a resident of the County of Rockland and State of New York.
2. That the causes of action alleged herein arose in the County of Bronx, City and State of New York.
3. That at all times herein mentioned, Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK was, and still is, a Municipal Corporation and body politic, duly formed, organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of New York.

4. That the CITY OF NEW YORK maintains a Police Department.
5. That on and about May 18, 2019, P.O. KYRON DELAROSA was employed by the CITY OF NEW YORK and THE NEW YORK POLICE DEPARTMENT.
6. That on and about May 18, 2019, at approximately 8:50 A.M. P.O. KYRON DELAROSA was working and acting within the scope of his employment as a Police Officer, and under the color of law.
7. That on and about May 18, 2019, P.O. RYAN DUFFANY was employed by the CITY OF NEW YORK and THE NEW YORK POLICE DEPARTMENT.
8. That on and about May 18, 2019, at approximately 8:50 A.M., P.O. RYAN DUFFANY was working and acting within the scope of his employment as a Police Officer, and under the color of law.
9. That on and about May 18, 2019, OFFICERS JOHN AND/OR JAMES DOE, whose names are presently unknowable by Plaintiff but necessarily known by Defendants due to their participation in the arrest of Plaintiff, were employed by the CITY OF NEW YORK and THE NEW YORK CITY POLICE DEPARTMENT.
10. That on or about May 18, 2019 at approximately approximately 8:50 A.M., at or near the front of 1356 Hicks Street, Bronx, New York, the plaintiff RICHARD ROBINSON was improperly stopped, detained, questioned, assaulted, confined and arrested and without knowledge of warrant, without privilege, proper authority or justification, having no reason in law or in fact to arrest or confine RICHARD ROBINSON.

11. That at the above time and place plaintiff was lawfully operating and present in a vehicle he owned, on Hicks Street near Seymor Avenue, Bronx, New York.

12. That Plaintiff is a member of a racial minority, being of person of color.

13. That the named officers did conduct a stop of Plaintiff's automobile without any reasonable suspicion that a crime or violation had occurred.

14. That the named officers did conduct an automobile stop of Plaintiff due to his being a person of color.

15. Upon conducting the aforesaid automobile stop, while Plaintiff was complying with the requests for his license and registration, one of the above named Officers did open Plaintiff's car door, and proceeded to pull Plaintiff out of his vehicle.

16. Plaintiff, while attempting to comply with the Officers unreasonable actions, and fearing for his well being and safety, was pushed against a parked car and then violently thrown to the ground, where upon a taser was utilized against the Plaintiff by one of the named Officers.

17. That the named defendants then arrested the plaintiff RICHARD ROBINSON without any basis in law or fact and without reasonable, probable or just cause or justification.
18. That the defendants, their agents, servants and/or employees arrested the plaintiff RICHARD ROBINSON without any basis in law or fact, by making false accusations against him, when they knew, or in the exercise of reasonable care, should have known they were false.
19. That the defendants P.O. KYRON DELAROSA and P.O. RYAN DUFFANY, did, during the aforesaid arrest of plaintiff, utilize unjustified, unnecessary excessive force.
20. That the defendants P.O. KYRON DELAROSA and P.O. RYAN DUFFANY, did, during the aforesaid wrongful arrest of plaintiff, assault and batter Plaintiff.
21. That the defendants P.O. KYRON DELAROSA and P.O. RYAN DUFFANY did undertake these actions, thereby depriving Plaintiff of constitutionally guaranteed rights, individually, and as State actors in the course of their employment with the CITY OF NEW YORK.
22. That the defendants, their agents, servants and/or employees unlawfully arrested, assaulted, detained, imprisoned and searched the plaintiff RICHARD ROBINSON, who was aware of his unlawful detention and confinement and took his property without any basis in law or fact, thereby causing fright, shock, emotional distress and physical consequences.

23. That the defendants, their agents, servants and/or employees undertook these actions against the plaintiff due to racism and prejudice and without any basis in law or fact.

24. That all criminal charges brought against plaintiff, which were brought under docket number 2019BX013677 in the Criminal Court of the City of New York, Bronx County regarding the incidents of May 18, 2019, were dismissed forthwith on August 8, 2019.

25. That the CITY OF NEW YORK allowed, condoned, permitted and caused a policy and procedure of repeatedly arresting innocent citizens, and engaging in a policy and procedure of arresting persons without individualized reasonable or probable cause for nefarious, unlawful reasons, including to satisfy arrest quotas, to obtain overtime pay and/or for employment advancement and/or to attempt to justify their own wrongful conduct, and without probable or reasonable cause, and repeatedly providing false information and testimony without reprimand to the offending officers.

26. That said illegal and unlawful arrests of innocent persons without reasonable or probable cause and conducting searches in public and while in custody are a matter of policy and record and openly acknowledged or known by the defendants and their supervisors, yet condoned without any reprimand of the offending officers, referral to the District Attorney or Federal Law Enforcement officials for criminal prosecution, or even bone fide internal investigation to deter actions like those complained of herein and evidenced by the large amount of dismissals of criminal charges under similar circumstances.

27. Said policy, practice and procedure of having arrest quotas and/or productivity goals which results in the false arrests of innocent persons is exhibited, for instance, in the November 1, 2011 conviction of New York Police Department Det. Jason Arbeeney, whereat Justice Gustin Reichbach commented on the evidence presented by several witnesses that officers were expected to make certain arrest goals.

28. Additionally in the case of Floyd, et al. v. City of New York, et al., In the Southern District of New York Case 08 Civ.1034, New York City Police Officer Adhil Polanco testified in open court and under oath that the NEW YORK CITY POLICE DEPARTMENT routinely arrest primarily minority populations without a legal reason to do so, and are required or expected to do so, to satisfy arrest quotas. Said arrest quotas, euphemistically known under such terms as 'productivity goals', lead to a practice and procedure of, for instance, arresting persons for conduct that is not criminal.

29. Additionally, Officer Craig Matthews presented evidence in federal court that he was subject to retaliation for reporting said quota system in 2009 and Officers Pedro Serrano and Adrain Schoolcraft presented evidence in recorded form of the use of arrest quotas by the New York City Police Department..

30. Furthermore the CITY OF NEW YORK allowed, condoned, permitted and caused a policy and procedure of arresting innocent persons for such charges as resisting arrest and obstructing governmental administration in ill-fated attempts at justifying their own misconduct, or in retaliation for legal behaviors perceived as disrespect, and in an effort to subjugate certain minority male populations as an excuse for selectively enforcing supposed 'quality of life' violations.

31. Said practice and procedure of falsely arresting innocent persons on such charges as d obstructing governmental administration or resisting arrest is well evidence by defendants' own compstat and other statistical tabulations, as well as those of the district attorney, the civilian complaint review board and the bureau of internal affairs.

32. For instance, statistical analysis of the 51,503 criminal cases in New York City from 2009 through 2014 charging resisting arrest show that 5% of officers account for 40% of resisting arrest charges and 15% of officers account for nearly 75% of such cases and 60% of officers made arrests while never charging resisting arrest, evincing, among other things, the violent nature of only certain officers, including the named offers herein.

33. Moreover, patterns of such the aforesaid conduct of arresting persons for such charges as resisting arrest in an ill fated attempt at justifying defendants' unnecessary unjustified excessive force and without individualized reasonable or probable cause of such charges is demonstrated because multiple individuals have been subject to the same unjustified and fabricated charges, to wit, as a sample and small example:

ANTHONY COOPER was wrongfully subject to similar charges after being assaulted by arresting officer on June 7, 2009 in front of 841 East 227th Street, Bronx, New York; ESHAWN SUTTON was wrongfully subject to similar charges after being assaulted by P.O. JOEY RODRIGUEZ on or about August 17, 2010 at approximately 1:55 P.M., in front of 500 East 165th Street, Bronx, New York ; ARAMIS RODRIGUEZ was wrongfully subject to similar charges after being assaulted by Det. LISANDRO RIVERA on or about April 10, 2009 at approximately 2:30 P.M., at the southeast corner of Faile Street and Westchester Ave. , Bronx, New York; JUAN VALDIVIA was wrongfully subject to similar charges after being assaulted by P.O. JAIRO GONZALEZARANGO and P.O. ROBERT, GAZSY on or about January 16, 2010 at approximately 7:15 P.M., in front of 106 West 143rd Street, New York, New York; BENETIO MYTON was wrongfully subject to similar charges after being assaulted by P.O. ELEANOR WALSH and P.O. BRANDON RAVELO on or about March 30, 2010 at approximately 8:45 P.M., at or near the intersection of East 220th Street and White Plains Road, Bronx, New York, ANTOINE LEARY was wrongfully subject to similar charges after being assaulted by Det. DANIXON CABRERA inside 916 Stebbins Avenue, Bronx, New York; CHRISTINA ROSAS, JORGE ROSAS BETSY CAMILLO wrongfully subject to similar charges after being assaulted by officers of the NYPD on June 6, 2011; TODD WILSON was wrongfully subject to similar charges after being assaulted by officers of the NYPD on April 11, 2014; ISAIAH STEWART was wrongfully subject to similar charges after being assaulted by officers of the NYPD on April 28, 2017, and a significant number of other similarly situated individuals whom defendants are necessarily aware of by virtue of the claims, causes of action and complaints brought against defendants in both state and federal courts and through CITY OR NEW YORK agencies and departments.

34. Additionally on October 1, 2015 the New York City Department of Investigation Office of the Inspector General for the NYPD issued a report, which is incorporated herein and can be found at <http://www.nyc.gov/html/oignypd/assets/downloads/>

pdf/oig_nypd_use_of_force_report_-_oct_1_2015.pdf . That report determined that the New York City Police Department routinely fails to discipline officers who have engaged in misconduct, and fails to adequately track instances of abuse of power, and fails to properly train officers, and despite those findings, and perfunctory attempts at remediation, the practice continues unabated, and was evidenced by the The Report of the Independent Panel on the Disciplinary System of the New York City Police Department, found at <https://www.independentpanelreportnypd.net> and incorporated herein.

35. That no negligence or actions on the part of the plaintiff RICHARD ROBINSON contributed to the occurrences alleged herein in any manner whatsoever.

36. The herein above described actions and omissions, engaged in under the color of law by the defendants and their supervisors and commanders, including the CITY OF NEW YORK, sued as a person within the meaning of Title 42 U.S.C. 1983, et seq., and the named defendants' supervisors, including policy makers, by policy, institutionalized procedure and act, deprived the plaintiff RICHARD ROBINSON of rights secured by the Constitution and laws of the United States, including, but not limited to the First Amendment right of freedom of expression, the Fourth Amendment right to be free from unlawful seizures of his person, the Fifth Amendment rights of due process of law and to equal protection of the laws, including the right to be free from unjustified confinement utilized by the police, the Eighth Amendment right to be free from cruel and unusual punishment, and under Title 42 U.S.C. 1983, et seq.

41. At least thirty (30) days have elapsed prior to the commencement of this action since the service of such Notices of Claim as aforesaid and adjustment of payment thereof has been neglected or refused by the defendant.

45. That at all times herein mentioned, Defendants, their agents, servants and / or employees, deprived the plaintiff RICHARD ROBINSON of Due Process under Law.

46. That the acts of the Defendants, CITY OF NEW YORK, their agents, servants and / or employees, NEW YORK CITY POLICE DEPARTMENT, P.O. KYRON DELAROSA, P.O. RYAN DUFFANY and OFFICERS JOHN AND/OR JAMES DOE were acts of discrimination, were racist, and improper, and that the defendants' actions
