VERIFIED COMPLAINT

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

Plaintiff CARDIN NELSON, by his attorneys, Shulman-Hill, PLLC, as and for his Verified Complaint herein, alleges upon information and belief as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. This is a civil rights action to recover money damages arising out of defendants' violation of Plaintiff's rights as secured by the Civil Rights Act, 42 U.S.C. Sections 1983 and 1988, and of rights secured by the Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, and the common law and the laws of the State of New York. On November 28, 2021, at approximately 5:00 p.m., Plaintiff Cardin Nelson, while lawfully in the vicinity of 241 Taffee Place, County of Kings, New York, was subject to an unlawful arrest, and detention by defendant Police Officers. Plaintiff was deprived of his constitutional, common law and statutory rights when the individual defendants unlawfully arrested, detained, passed along false accusations to prosecuting attorneys and engaged in the malicious prosecution of Plaintiff, in violation of the Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, the common law and the laws of the State of New York. Plaintiff was deprived of his rights under 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 8802 and his constitutional, common law and statutory rights when the individual defendants unlawfully stopped, detained, assaulted, battered, subjected to excessive force, passed along false accusations to prosecuting attorneys and engaged in the malicious prosecution of Plaintiff, in violation of the Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, the common law and the laws of the State of New York

PARTIES

20. Plaintiff has sustained damages in an amount in excess of the jurisdictional limits of all the lower Courts of the State of New York.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

21. On November 28, 2021, at approximately 5:00 p.m., Plaintiff Cardin Nelson, while lawfully in the vicinity of 241 Taffee Place, County of Kings, New York, State of New York, when the Defendant Police Officers unlawfully detained and arrested Plaintiff without legal justification.
22. Defendant Officers pulled up to the building and asked for Plaintiff's name and Identification.
23. Plaintiff was working as the overnight security guard at an LGBT homeless shelter.
24. There are strict rules for allowing anyone inside the LGBT shelter, especially at night, because of the nature of the shelter in the community.
25. Defendant officers despite being informed that they did not have consent or a warrant forced their way inside the premises.
26. Defendants then unlawfully placed Plaintiff in handcuffs and arrested him.
27. Plaintiff did not resist arrest.

28. The Defendant officers placed the handcuffs extremely tight on Plaintiff, and he continually asked for them to be loosened.
29. The Defendant Officer refused to loosen the handcuffs, causing Plaintiff's pinky to go numb, resulting in physical pain and injury.
30. Plaintiff was transported to the 79th precinct where he remained for approximately 4 hours.
31. Plaintiff remained in handcuffs for 45 minutes at the precinct.
32. Plaintiff was transferred to Central booking where he remained for approximately 22 hours.
33. While Plaintiff was in custody, the Defendant police officers provided the Kings County District Attorney's Office with false, misleading and/or incomplete information that Plaintiff committed a crime.
34. Specifically, the defendant police officers falsely stated to the Kings County District Attorney's Office that Plaintiff obstructed governmental administration.
35. After 28 hours of unlawful custody, Plaintiff was released from Central Bookings with no charges.
36. Plaintiff was released on November 30, 2021, as the People had declined to prosecute the case because no crime occurred.
37. At no time relevant herein did Plaintiff commit a crime or violate the law in any way, nor did the police officers have an objective reason to accuse Plaintiff of committing a crime or violating the law in any way.
38. At no point did Defendant Officers recover any drugs, weapons, graffiti instruments, or other illegal contraband from Plaintiff or from a location that was in Plaintiff's possession, custody, or control.
39. Nevertheless, Plaintiff was unlawfully arrested and handcuffed by defendant officers without legal justification or probable cause, unlawfully fingerprinted, photographed and searched, and unlawfully detained.
40. Some of the police officer defendants observed the violation of Plaintiff's rights under the Constitution of the United States and New York State Law and did nothing to prevent their fellow officers from unjustifiably assaulting, battering, and using excessive force against Plaintiff.
41. The unlawful assault, battery, and use of excessive force by the individually named defendants caused Plaintiff to sustain physical, psychological and emotional trauma.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligence

42. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
43. Defendants owed a duty of care to Plaintiff.
44. Defendant Officer's breached that duty of care by deliberately restraining and injuring Plaintiff.
45. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, Defendant officers deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.
46. All of the foregoing occurred without any fault or provocation by Plaintiff.
47. Defendants officers were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
48. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.
49. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION Unlawful Stop, Question, and Search

50. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.
51. The illegal approach, pursuit, stop and grab employed by defendants herein terminated Plaintiff's freedom of movement through means intentionally applied.
52. The conduct of defendants in approaching, stopping, and grabbing Plaintiff was performed under color of law and without any reasonable suspicion of criminality or other constitutionally required grounds.
53. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.
54. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

55. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment Rights: Unlawful Seizure and Deprivation of Liberty

56. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.
57. The individually named police officer defendants, while acting in concert and within the scope of their authority, caused Plaintiff to be seized, unlawfully searched, falsely arrested, and falsely imprisoned, and maliciously prosecuted without reasonable suspicion and/or probable cause, in violation of Plaintiff's right to be free of an unreasonable seizure under the Fourth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.
58. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional and psychological injuries.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

False Imprisonment

59. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.
60. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute false arrest and false imprisonment under the laws of the State of New York. Defendants intended to confine Plaintiff and, in fact, confined Plaintiff, and Plaintiff was conscious of the confinement. In addition, Plaintiff did not consent to the confinement and the confinement was not otherwise privileged.
61. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York and the United States Constitution.
62. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
63. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.
64. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to loss of liberty, emotional and psychological injuries.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligent Infliction of Emotional Distress

65. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
66. By the actions described herein, defendants, each acting individually and in concert with each other, engaged in extreme and outrageous conduct, conduct utterly intolerable in a civilized community, which negligently caused severe emotional distress to Plaintiff. The acts and conduct of the defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to Plaintiff and violated Plaintiff's statutory and common law rights as guaranteed by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.
67. The acts and conduct of the defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to Plaintiff and violated Plaintiff's statutory and common law rights as guaranteed Plaintiff by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.
68. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.
69. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
70. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.
71. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTIONNegligent Hiring, Retention, Training and Supervision

72. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
73. The City of New York and its employees, servants and/or agents acting within the scope of their employment did negligently hire, retain, train and supervise defendants, individuals who were unfit for the performance of police duties on the aforementioned dates at the aforementioned locations.
74. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional and psychological injuries.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTIONFailure to Intervene

75. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
76. The defendants that did not physically touch Plaintiff, but were present when other officers violated Plaintiff's Constitutional Rights had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of Plaintiff, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other officers.
77. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein.
78. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff's liberty was restricted for an extended period of time, he was put in fear of his safety, his property was damaged, and he was humiliated and subject to other physical constraints.
79. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.
80. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
81. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.
82. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Fourth And Fourteenth Amendment Rights: Denial of Right to Fair Trial/Due Process

83. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.
84. Defendants, individually and collectively, manufactured and/or withheld false evidence and forwarded this false evidence to prosecutors in the Bronx County District Attorney's Office.
85. Defendants filled out false and misleading police reports and forwarded them to prosecutors in the Bronx County District Attorney's Office.
86. Defendants signed false and misleading criminal court affidavits and forwarded them to prosecutors in the Bronx County District Attorney's Office.
87. In withholding/creating false evidence against Plaintiff, and in providing/withholding information with respect thereto, Defendants violated Plaintiff's constitutional right to due process and fair trial under the New York State Constitution and under the Due Process

Clause of the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States and to be free to deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution.

88. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff sustained, inter alia, loss of the right to due process and a fair trial, loss of liberty, emotional distress, embarrassment and humiliation, and deprivation of his constitutional rights.
89. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
90. The City, as the employer of the officer Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.
91. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of Defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries including, but not limited to: economic, emotional, and psychological injuries.

ELEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Article I, § 12 of the New York State Constitution

92. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and, re-alleges each and every allegation contained in the above paragraphs with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein.
93. Such conduct breached the protections guaranteed to plaintiff by the New York State Constitution, including but not limited to, Article 1, §§ 1, 6, 8, 9, 11, and 12, and including the following rights:
