Plaintiff DANTE BENNETT, by his attorneys, Caitlin Robin & Associates, PLLC, as and for his Verified Complaint herein, alleges upon information and belief as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. This is a civil rights action to recover money damages arising out of defendants' violation of Plaintiff's rights as secured by the Civil Rights Act, 42 U.S.C. Sections 1983 and 1988, and of rights secured by the Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, and the common law and the laws of the State of New York. On December 31, 2019, at approximately 11:30pm, Plaintiff DANTE BENNETT, while lawfully in the vicinity of 831 Hicks Street, in Brooklyn, New York, was subject to an unlawful stop, question, frisk, search, false arrest, and false imprisonment by the defendants NYPD Officers Jared Martinez (Shield No. 13394) and Cory T. Sutherland (Shield No. 10977), and other fellow NYPD Officers and Sergeants. In addition, Plaintiff was subjected to unnecessary force, assault, and battery and was denied medical treatment, and has thus suffered emotional and psychological distress as result of the above-mentioned violations. Plaintiff was then unlawfully imprisoned at the 76th Precinct and Kings Central Bookings for approximately 30 hours until plaintiff was arraigned in Criminal Court, charged with crimes he did not commit, and released on his own recognizance. Plaintiff was denied the right to due process and a fair trial until the resisting arrest charges against Plaintiff were dismissed and sealed on or about January 31, 2020. Plaintiff was deprived of his constitutional and common law rights when the individual defendants unlawfully stopped, questioned, frisked, searched, confined, falsely arrested, falsely imprisoned, and denied plaintiff the right to due process and a fair trial in violation of the Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, the common law and the laws of the State of New York.

PARTIES

2. Plaintiff DANTE BENNETT is a resident of the State of New York.
3. POLICE OFFICER JARED MARTINEZ, Shield No. 13394, is and was at all times relevant herein, an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.
4. NYPD POLICE OFFICER JARED MARTINEZ, Shield No. 13394, was at all times relevant herein, assigned to the PSA 1 Precinct.
5. NYPD POLICE OFFICER JARED MARTINEZ, Shield No. 13394, is being sued in his individual and official capacity.
6. POLICE OFFICER CORY T. SUTHERLAND, Shield No. 10977, is and was at all times relevant herein, an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.
7. NYPD POLICE OFFICER CORY T. SUTHERLAND, Shield No. 10977, was at all times relevant herein, assigned to the PSA 1 Precinct.
8. NYPD POLICE OFFICER CORY T. SUTHERLAND, Shield No. 10977, is being sued in his individual and official capacity.
9. New York City Police Officers John/Jane Does are and were at all times relevant herein officers, employees, and agents of the New York City Police Department.
10. Police Officers John/Jane Does are being sued in their individual and official capacities.
11. At all times relevant herein, the individual defendants were acting under color of state law in the course and scope of their duties and functions as agents, servants, employees and officers of the New York City Police Department, and otherwise performed and engaged in conduct incidental to the performance of their lawful functions in the course of their duties. They were acting for and on behalf of the New York City Police Department at all times relevant herein, with the power and authority vested in them as officers, agents and employees of the New York City Police Department and incidental to the lawful pursuit of their duties as officers, employees and agents of the New York City Police Department.
12. Defendant City of New York is a municipal entity created and authorized under the laws of the State of New York. It is authorized by law to maintain a police department, which acts as its agent in the area of law enforcement and for which it is ultimately responsible. The defendant City of New York assumes the risks incidental to the maintenance of a police force and the employment of police officers as said risks attach to the public consumers of the services provided by the New York City Police Department.

13. Plaintiff in furtherance of his causes of action brought pursuant to New York State law filed a timely Notice of Claim against the CITY OF NEW YORK in compliance with the Municipal Law Section 50 and in accordance with New York State law.

14. In accordance with New York State law and General Municipal Law Section 50, plaintiff testified at a hearing held pursuant to General Municipal Law Section 50-H on October 26, 2020.

15. More than thirty (30) days have elapsed since service of said Notice of Claim was filed and THE CITY OF NEW YORK has failed to pay or adjust the claims.

16. This action falls within one or more of the exceptions as set forth in CPLR Section 1602, involving intentional actions, as well as the defendant, and/or defendants, having acted in reckless disregard for the safety of others, as well as having performed intentional acts.

17. Plaintiff has sustained damages in an amount in excess of the jurisdictional limits of all the lower Courts of the State of New York.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

18. On December 31, 2019, at approximately 11:30pm, Plaintiff was lawfully present in the vicinity of 831 Hicks Street in Brooklyn, New York, when the defendant police officers unlawfully stopped, questioned, assaulted, battered, frisked, and falsely arrested Plaintiff without probable cause or legal justification.

19. Plaintiff was walking on Hicks Street with three friends when an NYPD car pulled up to the curb and stopped, at which time Plaintiff observed Defendant Officers Martinez, Sutherland, and others exit the vehicle and begin to approach himself and his friends.

20. Defendant Officers asked one of Plaintiff's friends for ID and instructed Plaintiff and the others to step back behind an imaginary line.

21. Plaintiff obeyed Officers by standing back and not attempting to interfere while they questioned his friend, who was not arrested or charged with any wrongdoing.

22. Plaintiff then asked Officers on what grounds they were being stopped and questioned, which was met by verbal assault and provocation from the Defendant Officers.

23. Plaintiff was still standing back when the Defendant Officers dared him to cross an imaginary line, threatening arrest if he were to do so.

24. Plaintiff placed his foot on the imaginary line but did not cross it, at which time Plaintiff was pushed to the ground by a Defendant Officer.

25. Plaintiff got himself up from the ground and put his foot back at the imaginary line, at which time a Defendant Officer ran at him, tackled him to the ground, and proceeded to arrest him.

26. Defendant Officers began punching the Plaintiff while he was on the ground and yelling at him not to resist arrest, even though Plaintiff was making no attempts to resist.

27. After Plaintiff was punched multiple times by Defendants, including in his face, he was then unlawfully handcuffed by Defendant Officers.

28. At no time relevant herein did Plaintiff commit a crime or violate the law in any way, nor did the police officers have an objective reason to accuse Plaintiff of committing a crime or violating the law in any way.

29. Nevertheless, Plaintiff was unlawfully arrested and handcuffed by defendant officers without legal justification or probable cause.

30. At no point did Plaintiff resist arrest.

31. Plaintiff was then searched by Defendants Officers, and no contraband was found.

32. At no point did Defendant Officers recover any drugs, weapons, or other illegal contraband from Plaintiff or from a location that was in Plaintiff's possession, custody or control.

33. Defendants then transported Plaintiff to the 76th Precinct police station against his will, where Plaintiff was unlawfully photographed, fingerprinted and detained in a holding cell.

34. Plaintiff requested medical attention once at the 67th Precinct and was told, "No," by the Defendant Officers.

35. The excessively tight handcuffing caused pain and physical injury to the Plaintiff's wrists and he experienced lesions and numbness in his hands as a result.

36. Plaintiff repeatedly asked what he was being arrested for, but the Defendants refused to tell him.

37. Plaintiff was then transported from the 76th Precinct to Kings County Central Bookings.

38. Once at Central Bookings, Plaintiff again requested medical attention, at which time he was transported to SUNY Downstate Hospital for treatment.

39. Plaintiff was treated for a black eye as well as for lesions/contusions on his hands and wrists.

40. The defendant police officers provided the District Attorney's Office with the false, misleading and/or incomplete information that Plaintiff committed a crime.

41. Specifically, the defendant police officers falsely stated to the District Attorney's Office that the plaintiff was engaged in Obstructing Governmental Administration.

42. On January 2, 2020 after approximately 30 hours in unlawful custody, Plaintiff was arraigned in Kings County Criminal Court, charged with crimes that the defendant officers had no basis to allege that he committed, and was released from custody.

43. Thereafter, on or about January 31, 2020, Plaintiff returned to court and all criminal charges against Plaintiff were dismissed and sealed in their entirety.

44. Some of the police officer defendants observed the violation of Plaintiff's rights under the Constitution of the United States and New York State Law and did nothing to prevent their fellow officers from unjustifiably searching, seizing, assaulting, battering, using excessive force, falsely arresting and imprisoning, and denying Plaintiff the right to due process and a fair trial.

45. The unlawful, search, seizure, assault, battery, use of excessive force, false arrest and imprisonment, and denial of Plaintiff's right to a fair trial by the individually named defendants caused Plaintiff to sustain physical, psychological and emotional trauma.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Plaintiff's Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment Rights

46. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 45 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

47. The individually named police officer defendants, while acting in concert and within the scope of their authority, caused Plaintiff to be seized, unlawfully searched, falsely arrested, and falsely imprisoned, and maliciously prosecuted without reasonable suspicion and/or probable cause, in violation of Plaintiff's right to be free of an unreasonable seizure under the Fourth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

48. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional, psychological and economic injuries.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

False Arrest and False Imprisonment

49. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 48 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

50. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute false arrest and false imprisonment under the laws of the State of New York. Defendants intended to confine Plaintiff and, in fact, confined Plaintiff, and Plaintiff was conscious of the confinement. In addition, Plaintiff did not consent to the confinement and the confinement was not otherwise privileged.

51. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York and the United States Constitution.

52. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

53. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

54. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, economic, emotional, and psychological injuries.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

Unlawful Stop, Question, and Frisk

55. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 54 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

56. The illegal approach, pursuit, stop, questioning and frisk employed by defendants herein terminated Plaintiff's freedom of movement through means intentionally applied.

57. The conduct of defendants in stopping, frisking, and searching Plaintiff was performed under color of law and without any reasonable suspicion of criminality or other constitutionally required grounds.

58. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

59. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

60. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Unlawful Search

61. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 60 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

62. The illegal approach, pursuit, stop and search employed by defendants herein terminated Plaintiff's freedom of movement through means intentionally applied.

63. Defendants lacked probable cause to search Plaintiff.

64. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

65. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

66. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

67. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Plaintiff's Fifth and Fourteenth Amendment Rights

Denial of Right to Fair Trial/Due Process

68. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 67 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein

69. Defendants, individually and collectively, manufactured and/or withheld false evidence and forwarded this false evidence to prosecutors in the Kings County District Attorney's Office.

70. Defendants filled out false and misleading police reports and forwarded them to prosecutors in the Kings County District Attorney's Office.

71. Defendants signed false and misleading criminal court affidavits and forwarded them to prosecutors in the Kings County District Attorney's Office.

72. In withholding/creating false evidence against Plaintiff DANTE BENNETT, and in providing/withholding information with respect thereto, defendants violated plaintiff's constitutional right to due process and fair trial under the New York State Constitution and under the Due Process Clause of the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States and to be free to deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution.

73. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff DANTE BENNETT sustained, inter alia, loss of the right to due process and a fair trial, loss of liberty, emotional distress, embarrassment and humiliation, lost earnings and deprivation of his constitutional rights.

74. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

75. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

76. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligence

77. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 76 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

78. Defendants owed a duty of care to Plaintiff.

79. To the extent defendants claim that the injuries to Plaintiff by the defendant police officers was unintentionally caused and that the force used by the defendants against him was unintentional, then the defendants breached that duty of care by tightly handcuffing him causing injury to both wrists.

80. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

81. All of the foregoing occurred without any fault or provocation by Plaintiff.

82. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

83. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

84. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Plaintiff's Fourth And Fourteenth Amendment Rights

85. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 84 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

86. The use of excessive force by defendants by, amongst other things, by pushing him, tightly handcuffing him, constituted objectively unreasonable physical seizures of Plaintiff in violation of his rights under the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

87. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of his employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Assault

88. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 87 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

89. Defendants, their agents, servants and employees, acting within the scope of their employment, intentionally, willfully and maliciously assaulted Plaintiff in that they had the real or apparent ability to cause imminent harmful and/or offensive bodily contact and intentionally did a violent and/or menacing act which threatened such contact to the plaintiff, that such acts caused apprehension of such contact in the Plaintiff.

90. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

91. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

92. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

93. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Battery

94. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 93 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

95. Defendants, their agents, servants and employees, acting within the scope of their employment, intentionally, willfully and maliciously battered Plaintiff, when they, in a hostile and/or offensive manner tackled Plaintiff to the ground and repeatedly punched him, with the intention of causing harmful and/or offensive bodily contact to the Plaintiff and caused such battery.

96. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

97. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

98. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

99. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional, and psychological injuries.

TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Malicious Prosecution

100. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 99 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

101. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute malicious prosecution under the laws of the State of New York and New York State common law.

102. Defendants commenced and continued a criminal proceeding against Plaintiff.

103. There was actual malice and an absence of probable cause for the criminal proceeding against Plaintiff and for the charges for which they were prosecuted.

104. The prosecution and criminal proceedings terminated in Plaintiff's favor on the aforementioned dates.

105. Plaintiff was subjected to a post-arraignment deprivation of liberty sufficient to implicate Plaintiff's Fourth Amendment rights.

106. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York and the United States Constitution.

107. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

108. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

ELEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligent Infliction of Emotional Distress

109. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 108 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

110. By the actions described herein, defendants, each acting individually and in concert with each other, engaged in extreme and outrageous conduct, conduct utterly intolerable in a civilized community, which negligently caused severe emotional distress to Plaintiff, DANTE BENNETT. The acts and conduct of the defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to Plaintiff and violated Plaintiff's statutory and common law rights as guaranteed by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.

111. The acts and conduct of the defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to Plaintiff and violated Plaintiff's statutory and common law rights as guaranteed Plaintiff by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.

112. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

113. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

114. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

115. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

TWELFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligent Hiring, Retention, Training and Supervision

116. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 115 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

117. The City of New York and its employees, servants and/or agents acting within the scope of their employment did negligently hire, retain, train and supervise defendants, individuals who were unfit for the performance of police duties on the aforementioned dates at the aforementioned locations.

118. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional, and psychological injuries.

THIRTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Intervene

119. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 118 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

120. The defendants that did not physically touch Plaintiff, but were present when other officers violated Plaintiff's Constitutional Rights had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of Plaintiff, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other officers.

121. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein.

122. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff's liberty was restricted for an extended period of time, he was put in fear of his safety, and he was humiliated and subject to other physical constraints.

123. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

124. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

125. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

126. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

JURY DEMAND

127. Plaintiff hereby demands trial by jury of all issues properly triable thereby.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff DANTE BENNETT demands judgment against the defendants on each cause of action in amounts to be determined upon the trial of this action which exceeds the jurisdiction of lower courts, inclusive of punitive damages and attorneys' fees inclusive of costs and disbursements of this action, interest and such other relief as is appropriate under the law. That the Plaintiff recover the cost of the suit herein, including reasonable attorney's fees pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1988.
