Plaintiff MYQUAN JONES, by his attorney, ILISSA BROWNSTEIN, ESQ., as and for the Complaint herein, alleges upon information and belief as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. This is a civil rights action to recover money damages arising out of defendants' violation of plaintiffs' rights as secured by the Civil Rights Act, 42 U.S.C. Section 1983, the rights secured by the First, Fourth, and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution and the laws of the State of New York. Plaintiffs were unlawfully arrested by the defendants. Plaintiff was deprived of his federal constitutional and state constitutional and common law rights when the individually named police officer defendants unlawfully confined plaintiff, caused the unjustifiable arrest of plaintiff.

PARTIES

2. MYQUAN JONES is a citizen of the United States and a resident of New York, New York.
3. LIEUTENANT MATTHEW GLYNN is and was at all times relevant herein an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.
4. LIEUTENANT MATTHEW GLYNN is being sued in his individual capacity and official capacity.
5. THOMAS BAY (Shield #13631) is and was at all times relevant herein an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.
6. THOMAS BAY (Shield #13631) is being sued in his individual capacity and official capacity.

7. Police Officer John Doe Number 1 is and was at all times relevant herein an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.
8. Police Officer John Doe #1 is being sued in his individual capacity and official capacity.
9. New York Police Officers John and Jane Doe #'s 2-8 are and were at all times relevant herein an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.
10. Police Officers John Doe #2-8 are being sued in his/her individual capacity and official capacity.
11. At all times relevant herein, the individual defendants were acting under color of state law in the course and scope of their duties and functions as agents, servants, employees and officers of the New York City Police Department, and otherwise performed and engaged in conduct incidental to the performance of their lawful functions in the course of their duties. They were acting for and on behalf of the New York City Police Department at all times relevant herein, with the power and authority vested in them as officers, agents, and employees of the New York City Police Department and incidental to the lawful pursuit of their duties as officers, employees and agents of the New York City Police Department.
12. Defendant City of New York is a municipal entity created and authorized under the laws of the State of New York. It is authorized by law to maintain a police department which acts as agents in the area of law enforcement and for which it is ultimately responsible. The defendant City of New York assumes the risks incidental to the maintenance of a police force and the employment of police officers as said risks attach to the public consumers of the services provided by the New York City Police Department.
13. Plaintiff in furtherance of all of his state law causes of action filed a timely Notice of Claim upon the City of New York
14. More than thirty (30) days have elapsed since service of said Notice of Claim was filed and the City of New York has failed to pay or adjust the claim.
15. The City of New York held a 50(h) hearing examination of the Plaintiff on March 26, 2021.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

16. On April 25, 2020 at approximately 8:00pm, Mr. Jones was unlawfully chased by Police Officer Thomas Bay, Lieutenant Matthew Glynn and other members of the NYPD with no reasonable suspicion that he committed a crime.
17. Police Officer Thomas Bay, Lieutenant Matthew Glynn and other members of the NYPD slammed Mr. Jones into a car.
18. Mr. Jones was unlawfully arrested for gambling and gambling related charges as well as obstruction of governmental administration. Mr. Jones denies all charge, he did not gamble. He was never observed exchanging money in the context of a game of dice or the like.
19. Police claims they could see inside of a circle containing 10-15 people, this is false.
20. The police purposely kept their cameras off because their allegations did not match their actual observation. According to the Decline to Prosecute Report, the body cameras were not shared due to "technical difficulties".
21. Mr. Jones was declined to prosecute and was released from the central bookings.
22. Mr. Jones was incarcerated for approximately 21 hours.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

FALSE ARREST AND FALSE IMPRISONMENT

23. Plaintiff repeats and alleges paragraphs 1 through 22 as if fully set forth herein.
24. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute false arrest and false imprisonment under the laws of the State of New York. Defendants Police Officer Thomas Bay, Lieutenant Matthew Glynn and other members of the NYPD intended to confine plaintiff and, in fact, confined plaintiff, and plaintiff was conscious of the confinement. In addition, plaintiff did not consent to the confinement and the confinement was not otherwise privileged.
25. The individually named defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
26. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

NEGLIGENT HIRING, RETENTION, TRAINING AND SUPERVISION

27. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 26 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
28. The City of New York and its employees, servants and/or agents acting within the scope of their employment did negligently hire, retain, train and supervise the individually named defendants, individuals who were unfit for the performance of NYPD duties.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

FAILURE TO INTERVENE

29. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 28 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
30. Defendants had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of plaintiff, whose constitutional rights was being violated in their presence by other members of the NYPD.
31. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein despite having had a reasonable opportunity to do so, and full knowledge of the unlawful conduct.
32. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff was subjected to an illegal search and undue force upon their person over the course of the false arrest.
33. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of his employment by the City of New York, the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
34. The City, as the employer of defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

NEGLIGENCE

35. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 34 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
36. Defendants owed a duty of care to plaintiff.
37. Defendants breached that duty of care by subjecting them to an illegal search and undue force and unprivileged deprivation of their liberty without sufficient or any cause to do so.

38. As a direct and proximate cause of this unlawful conduct, plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.
39. All of the foregoing occurred without any fault by plaintiff.
40. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

NEGLIGENT INFLICTION OF EMOTIONAL DISTRESS

41. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 40 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
42. By the actions described herein, the individually named police officer defendants, each acting individually and in concert with one another, engaged in extreme and outrageous conduct, conduct utterly intolerable in a civilized community, which negligently caused severe emotional distress to plaintiffs. The acts and conduct of the defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to plaintiff and violated plaintiff's statutory and common law rights as guaranteed by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.
43. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff was deprived of liberty and sustained great emotional injuries.
44. The City, as the employer of the defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat behavior.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

42 U.S.C. § 1983 and 42 U.S.C. 1988

Violation of Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments of US Constitution pursuant to Court's concurrent jurisdiction over Plaintiffs' federal false-arrest/excessive-force/unlawful-search c/denial of a fair trial claims.

45. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 44 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
46. Defendants Police Officer Thomas Bay, Lieutenant Matthew Glynn and other members of the NYPD, while acting under color of state law, engaged in conduct that violated Plaintiff's federal constitutional rights as protected by 42 USC Section 1983.
47. New York State courts have concurrent jurisdiction to hear federal claims such as Plaintiff's Section 1983 ones here.

48. Plaintiff's federal constitutional claims—brought pursuant to 42 USC 1983 and 1988—allege the violation of their Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendment rights.
49. In particular, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants' retaliatory and harassing false arrest, unlawful search and fabrication of evidence violated their Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendment rights insofar as Defendants had no cause or legal privilege to submit Plaintiff to deprivation of his liberty, seizure and search of his person, and other constitutional injuries, yet they did so with malice and retaliatory intent.
50. Insofar as Plaintiff's federal claims, brought pursuant to the court's concurrent jurisdiction over them, mirror state constitutional tort and tort elements, Plaintiff repeats and reiterates the above allegations in support of the federal claims here.
51. In the event Plaintiff prevails at trial on one, some or all of their 42 USC Section 1983 claims pursuant to the court's concurrent jurisdiction, each one also seeks reasonable fees and costs as prevailing party pursuant to 42 USC Section 1988.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Municipal liability pursuant to 42 USC Section 1983

52. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 51 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
53. Defendants, collectively and individually, while acting under color of state law, engaged in conduct that constituted a custom, usage, practice, procedure or rule of defendant City of New York, which is forbidden by the Constitution of the United States.
54. The aforementioned customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of defendant City of New York and the New York Police Department included, but were not limited to policies, customs and practices wherein New York City Police officers arrest individuals without probable cause and create false versions of events to justify their actions to achieve remunerative ends through overtime, to achieve professional advancement through arrest numbers, and to satisfy personal whims through retaliatory use of their authority.
55. The aforementioned customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of defendant City of New York and the New York Police Department were the moving force behind the violation of plaintiffs' constitutional rights as described herein. As a result of the failure of defendant City of New York and the New York City Police Department to properly recruit, screen, train, discipline, and supervise its officers, including the individual defendants, defendant City of New York has tacitly authorized, ratified, and has been deliberately indifferent to, the acts and conduct complained of herein.
56. Similarly, the City of New York is on notice of the obvious risk that their failure to train, discipline and supervise its officers—and in particular these specific Defendants who discovery will show to

57. The foregoing customs, policies, usages, practices, and procedures and rules of defendant City of New York and the New York City Police Department were the moving force behind the Constitutional violations suffered by plaintiff as alleged herein.
58. As a result of the foregoing customs, policies, usages, practices, and procedures and rules of defendant City of New York and the New York City Police Department, the plaintiff was unlawfully arrested, subjected to undue force and unlawful search, and prosecuted.
59. Defendants collectively and individually, while acting under color of state law were directly and actively involved in violating plaintiff's constitutional rights.
