Plaintiff, JEREMY DELEON, by his attorneys, Jacobs & Hazan, LLP, as and for his Verified Complaint herein, alleges upon information and belief as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. This is a civil rights action to recover money damages arising out of defendants' violation of plaintiff's rights as secured by the Civil Rights Act, 42 U.S.C. Section 1983, and of rights secured by the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution. On August 13, 2015, at approximately 1:30 a.m., plaintiff Jeremy DeLeon was subjected to an unlawful stop, frisk, search, detention, false imprisonment, and false imprisonment while lawfully present in the vicinity of Third Avenue and East 136th Street, Bronx, New York. Additionally, the defendant police officers subjected plaintiff to excessive force when they, amongst other things, punched plaintiff in the face and struck him with police batons. Thereafter, the defendant police officers denied plaintiff the right to a fair trial by forwarding false information to the District Attorney's Office. Plaintiff was deprived of his constitutional rights when the individual defendants unlawfully stopped, questioned, frisked, searched, unlawfully arrested, used excessive force, and denied the plaintiff the right to a fair trial in violation of the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution and in violation of New York State Law.

PARTIES

20. Defendant City of New York is a municipal entity created and authorized under the laws of the State of New York. It is authorized by law to maintain a police department which acts as its agent in the area of law enforcement and for which it is ultimately responsible. The defendant City of New York assumes the risks incidental to the maintenance of a police force and the employment of police officers as said risks attach to the public consumers of the services provided by the New York City Police Department.

21. This action falls within one or more of the exceptions as set forth in CPLR Section 1602, involving intentional actions, as well as the defendant, and/or defendants, having acted in reckless disregard for the safety of others, as well as having performed intentional acts.

22. Plaintiff has sustained damages in an amount in excess of the jurisdictional limits of all the lower Courts of the State of New York.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

23. On August 13, 2015, at approximately 1:30 a.m., plaintiff was lawfully standing in the vicinity of 3rd Avenue and 136th Street, Bronx, New York when the defendant police officers unlawfully approached plaintiff without reasonable suspicion or probable cause.

24. At no time prior to being stopped by the officers did plaintiff commit a crime or behave in a manner that gave the police officers a reasonable and objective basis to believe he had committed or was committing a crime.

25. Suddenly, without any provocation or legal justification, the defendant police officers forcibly grabbed plaintiff and threw him down to the ground and began punching plaintiff in the face and head and hit him all over his body with batons causing plaintiff to suffer serious physical causing plaintiff to suffer injuries to face, eyes, body, and right elbow.

26. At no point in time did plaintiff resist arrest in any way.

27. The defendant police officers then unlawfully handcuffed plaintiff, forcibly lifted him off the ground, placed him in the back seat of the police vehicle, and transported him to the 40th precinct.

28. At the 40th precinct, plaintiff was fingerprinted, photographed, and unlawfully detained in a holding cell.

29. While at the precinct, EMS was called and arrived at the 40th precinct to treat plaintiff for the physical injuries inflicted by the defendant police officers.

30. On August 13, 2015, at approximately 3:30 a.m., plaintiff was transported via EMS to Lincoln Hospital to receive further medical treatment for the injuries inflicted by the defendant police officers.

31. Plaintiff was treated at Lincoln Hospital for numerous injuries inflicted by the defendant police officers, including but not limited to, injuries to his face, eyes, head, arms, knees, and elbows.

32. Thereafter, on August 13, 2015, at approximately 1:30 p.m., plaintiff was discharged from Lincoln Hospital and transported to Bronx Central Booking.

33. The defendant police officers falsely stated to the Bronx County District Attorney's Office that plaintiff had committed a crime despite knowing that they lacked a legal and a factual basis to allege that plaintiff committed any crime.

34. On August 14, 2015, at approximately 1:00 p.m., after approximately 36 hours in police custody, plaintiff was arraigned in Bronx Criminal Court and the Judge set bail.

35. On August 14, 2015, at approximately 1:00 p.m., plaintiff was able to post bail and was released from the courthouse.

36. Plaintiff was unlawfully charged with Assault, Disorderly Conduct, Obstructing Governmental Administration and Harassment.

37. Thereafter, on August 14, 2015, after plaintiff was released from custody, plaintiff was forced to seek out further medical treatment at Mt. Sinai Medical Center for the injuries inflicted by the defendant police officers.

38. Plaintiff complained to the medical staff that his right elbow and face among other things that were injured by the defendant police officers.

39. Thereafter, plaintiff was forced to appear in Court on approximately 15 occasion before all charges against plaintiff were dismissed and sealed on or about November 9, 2017.

40. As a result of the injuries inflicted by the defendant police officers, plaintiff was unable to work at his job at On the Lam Moving from August 2015 until April 2016 and as a result lost approximately $58,000 in wages.

41. Some of the police officer defendants observed the violation of plaintiff's rights under the Constitution of the United States and New York State Law and did nothing to prevent the unjustifiable stop, question, frisk, search, seizure, false arrest, denial of fair trial, and excessive force used against plaintiff.

42. The unlawful stop, question, frisk, search, false arrest, false imprisonment, unlawful seizure, denial of fair trial, and excessive force against plaintiff by the individually named defendants caused plaintiff to sustain physical, psychological and emotional trauma.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

51. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 50 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

52. The illegal approach, pursuit, stop, questioning and frisk employed by defendants herein terminated plaintiff's freedom of movement through means intentionally applied.

53. The conduct of defendants in stopping, frisking, and searching, plaintiff were performed under color of law and without any reasonable suspicion of criminality or other constitutionally required grounds.

54. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York and the United States Constitution

55. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

56. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

57. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, economic, emotional and psychological injuries.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Unlawful Search

58. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 57 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

59. The illegal approach, pursuit, stop and search inside plaintiff's, pockets, inside of the waistband of his pants and underneath his clothing employed by defendants herein terminated plaintiff's freedom of movement through means intentionally applied.

60. Defendants lacked probable cause to search plaintiff.

61. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York and the United States Constitution.

62. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

63. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

64. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Denial of Right to Fair Trial

65. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs numbered 1 through 64 with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein.

66. Defendants, individually and collectively, manufactured and/or withheld false evidence and forwarded this false evidence to prosecutors in the Bronx County District Attorney's Office.

67. Defendants filled out false and misleading police reports and forwarded them to prosecutors in the Bronx County District Attorney's Office.

68. Defendants signed false and misleading criminal court affidavits and forwarded them to prosecutors in the Bronx County District Attorney's Office.

69. In withholding/creating false evidence against plaintiff Jeremy DeLeon and in providing/withholding information with respect thereto, defendants violated plaintiff's constitutional right to a fair trial under the New York State Constitution and under the Due Process Clause of the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments of the United States Constitution.

70. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff Jeremy DeLeon, sustained, inter alia, loss of liberty, emotional distress, embarrassment and humiliation, lost earnings and deprivation of his constitutional rights.

71. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

72. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Plaintiff's Fourth And Fourteenth Amendment

Rights

73. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 72 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

74. The use of excessive force by defendants by grabbing plaintiff without his consent, and throwing him down to the ground, punching him in the face and hitting him all over his body with batons causing him to suffer serious physical injuries was an objectively unreasonable physical seizure of plaintiff in violation of his rights under the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

75. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of his employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for his conduct.

76. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional, psychological and economic injuries.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTIONFailure to Intervene

77. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 78 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

78. Defendants had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of plaintiff, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other officers.

79. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein.

80. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff's liberty was restricted for an extended period of time, he was put in fear of his safety, and he was humiliated and subject to other physical constraints.

81. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

82. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

JURY DEMAND

83. Plaintiff hereby demands trial by jury of all issues properly triable thereby.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, plaintiff Jeremy DeLeon demands judgment against the defendants on each cause of action in amounts to be determined upon the trial of this action which exceeds the jurisdiction of lower courts, inclusive of punitive damages and attorneys' fees inclusive of costs and disbursements of this action, interest and such other relief as is appropriate under the law. That the plaintiff recover the cost of the suit herein, including reasonable attorney's fees pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1988.
