POLICE COMMISSIONER'S PENALTY DEPARTMENT

Re: CCRB Case No. 202100292 regarding Lieutenant Favio Quizhpi, Tax No. 948119
(DADS No. 2022-25932)

Dear Mr. Darche:

The Police Commissioner has reviewed the facts and circumstances in this matter and determined that Lieutenant Quizhpi will receive a Schedule "A" Command Discipline rather a Schedule "B" Command Discipline.

In this case, Lieutenant Quizhpi and several officers stopped a vehicle and engaged in enforcement activity involving the driver of the vehicle. Under the Department's procedures and the Right to Know Act, Lieutenant Quizhpi was required to offer the driver of the vehicle a business card, and he failed to do so. While Lieutenant Quizhpi did provide his name, rank and command to the driver, this did not negate the separate requirement that he also offer his business card. In his interview with CCRB, Lieutenant Quizhpi exhibited a failure to understand the requirements of the Right-to-Know Act, and therefore, he will also be directed to attend formalized training in both these requirements and the associated Department procedures.

Therefore, Lieutenant Quizhpi will be issued a Schedule "A" Command Discipline with the forfeiture of three (3) vacation days, the presumptive penalty under the Disciplinary System Penalty Guidelines, and also receive formalized training to ensure future compliance.
