STATEMENT OF FACTS

15. On November 5, 2021, at approximately 2:00 a.m., Plaintiff was lawfully present in the vicinity of Park Avenue and Nostrand Avenue, County of Kings, New York, when the defendant police officers unlawfully arrested Plaintiff without probable cause or legal justification.

16. At the aforementioned place and time, Plaintiff was sitting inside her lawfully parked vehicle, waiting for her friend, who had her car keys.

17. A police vehicle approached the car from behind, and two (2) uniformed defendant officers exited the vehicle and approached Plaintiff.

18. The defendant officers asked Plaintiff for identification, which she provided.

19. For reasons unbeknownst to Plaintiff, defendant officers immediately and without provocation or probable cause, began to arrest Plaintiff, subjecting her to unlawful pat-down search and tightly restraining her with metal handcuffs causing pain.

20. At no time relevant herein did Plaintiff commit a crime or violate the law in any way, nor did the defendant officers have an objective or credible basis to accuse Plaintiff of committing a crime or violating the law in any way.

21. At no point did defendant officers recover any drugs, weapons, graffiti instruments, or other illegal contraband from Plaintiff or from a location that was within Plaintiff's possession, custody, or control.

22. Plaintiff did not resist arrest at any point relevant herein.

23. Nevertheless, Plaintiff was unlawfully arrested and tightly handcuffed by the defendant officers without legal justification or probable cause, placed in the back of an NYPD vehicle and transported against her will to a nearby NYPD Precinct; upon information and belief, the 88th Precinct.

24. Upon her arrival at the Precinct, the defendant officers pulled Plaintiff from the back of the vehicle so forcefully that she fell to the pavement, injuring her arms, legs, back, and hips.

25. Plaintiff requested medical attention for her injuries and as she lie on the ground waiting for an ambulance to arrive, defendant officers laughed and ridiculed her wildly.

26. About 10 minutes later an ambulance transported Plaintiff to the Brooklyn Hospital Center, where she received x-rays and was prescribed medicine for her pain.

27. Plaintiff remained tightly handcuffed and shackled for the duration of her examination and treatment at the emergency room.

28. After approximately 12 hours at Brooklyn Hospital Center, Plaintiff was transported to Kings County Central Bookings, where she was unlawfully fingerprinted, photographed, and placed in a holding cell.

29. While Plaintiff was in custody, the defendant police officers provided the Kings County District Attorney's Office with the false, misleading, and/or incomplete information that Plaintiff committed a crime.

30. Specifically, the defendant officers falsely represented to the Kings County District Attorney's Office that Plaintiff was engaged in Possession of a Forged Instrument, Aggravated Unlicensed Operation of a Vehicle, Drinking Alcohol in a Motor Vehicle, and other related charges.

31. After approximately 24 hours in unlawful custody, Plaintiff was arraigned in criminal court, charged with the crimes she had not committed, and released on her own recognizance.

32. After her release from custody, Plaintiff sought further medical treatment from Brookdale Hospital for her still-aching and swollen arms and back. She was diagnosed with bone bruises and given medication to treat the pain.

33. All charges against Plaintiff were dismissed and sealed in their entirety on February 7, 2022.

34. Some of the defendant officers observed the violation of Plaintiff's rights under the Constitution of the United States and New York State Law and did nothing to prevent their fellow officers from unjustifiably arresting, confining, and using excessive force against Plaintiff.
