Jury Trial Demanded

-----X

Plaintiff Tramava Thompson, by and through his counsel, Michael Hueston, Esq., upon information and belief, alleges as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. This is a civil rights, common law, and tort action in which plaintiff seeks relief for the violation of plaintiff's rights secured by 42 U.S.C. § 1983; and the Fourth, Sixth, and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution; and the laws of the State of New York;. Plaintiff's claims arise from an incident that arose on or about January 7, 2015. During the incident, the City of New York, and members of the New York City Police Department ("NYPD") subjected plaintiff to, among other things: false arrest; assault; battery; unreasonable force; failure to intervene; conspiracy; malicious prosecution; denial of a fair trial/fabricated evidence; and respondeat superior liability. Plaintiff seeks compensatory and punitive damages, declaratory relief, an award of costs and attorney's fees, pursuant 42 U.S.C. § 1988, and such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

JURISDICTION & VENUE

2. Within 90 days of the incident alleged in this complaint, plaintiff served upon defendant City of New York a Notice of Claim setting forth the name and post office addresses of plaintiff, the nature of the claims, the time when, the place where and the manner in which the claims arose, and the items of damages or injuries claimed.

3. More than 30 days have elapsed since plaintiff's demands and/or claims were presented to defendant City of New York for adjustment and/or payment thereof, and the defendant has neglected and/or refused to make any adjustment and/or payment.

4. Plaintiff has satisfied all conditions precedent for the filing of this action. This action is being commenced within one year and ninety days of the date of the occurrence herein.

5. Venue is proper in the Supreme Court of the State New York, Kings County, because the acts in question occurred in the State of New York, Kings County, and the City of New York is subject to personal jurisdiction in Supreme Court of the State New York, Kings County; and jurisdiction is proper because the Supreme Court of the State New York, Kings County has jurisdiction over plaintiff's state law causes of actions, and plaintiff's federal causes of action pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983.

PARTIES

6. Plaintiff Tramava Thompson is a resident of the State of New York, living at 111 Nostrand Avenue, Apt. # 6A, Brooklyn, New York 11206.

7. At all times herein, defendant City of New York is a municipal corporation organized under the laws of the State of New York, which violated plaintiff's rights as described herein.

8. At all times relevant, defendant City of New York maintained a police department known as the NYPD, which employed the individual defendants.

9. At all times alleged herein, defendants P.O. Rafal Korycki, Shield # 1607, and Police Officers John/Jane Does # 1-2 were employed as police officers with 79th Precinct, located in Kings County, New York, or other as yet unknown NYPD assignment, who violated plaintiff's rights as described herein.

10. The individual defendants are sued in their individual and official capacities.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

The Incident

11. On January 7, 2015, at and in the vicinity of Walworth Street between Park Avenue and Myrtle Avenue, Brooklyn, New York, several police officers operating from the 79th Precinct located in Kings County, New York, including upon information and belief, the individual defendants P.O. Rafal Korycki, Shield # 1607, and Police Officers John/Jane Does # 1-2 ("the police"), at times acting in concert and at times acting independently, committed the following illegal acts against plaintiff.

12. On January 7, 2015 at approximately 3:30 p.m. to 4:00 p.m., at and in the vicinity of Walworth Street between Park Avenue and Myrtle Avenue, Brooklyn, New York, the police without either consent, an arrest warrant, a lawful search warrant, probable cause, or reasonable suspicion that plaintiff (or any third person) had committed a crime unlawfully arrested plaintiff.

13. The police acted in concert in committing the above-described illegal acts against plaintiff.

14. Plaintiff was driving his car vicinity of Walworth Street between Park Avenue and Myrtle Avenue.

15. Plaintiff was driving in his car lawfully, obeying all traffic regulations.

16. Plaintiff's car was properly registered, insured and licensed.

17. Plaintiff's car displayed proper and correct registration and licensing.

18. The police stopped plaintiff.

19. The police were driving a police vehicle.

20. The police approached plaintiff in his car.

21. There was no cause or justification to detain plaintiff.

22. The police ordered plaintiff to produce his license, insurance and registration.

23. Plaintiff provided his license, insurance and registration to the police.

24. The police claimed that his license plate was not real and ordered him out of his car.

25. Plaintiff complied and got of his car.

26. The police handcuffed plaintiff without cause.

27. The handcuffs were excessively tight.

28. The police placed plaintiff in a police vehicle and transported him to the 79th Precinct for processing.

29. Plaintiff complained to the police about their conduct.

30. The police transported plaintiff to Brooklyn Central Booking for arraignment.

31. Plaintiff was detained at Central Booking.

32. In order to cover up their illegal actions, the police, pursuant to a conspiracy, initiated by false sworn complaint(s) and/or conversations, falsely and maliciously told the Kings County District Attorney's Office that plaintiff had committed various crimes, and the District Attorney prosecuted plaintiff for various charges, including improper display of plates, displaying improper plates, and criminal possession of a forged instrument.

33. Plaintiff was released at arraignment on his own recognizance.

34. All criminal charges against plaintiff were dismissed on April 9, 2015, and the criminal case against plaintiff terminated in plaintiff's favor.

35. The police also seized plaintiff's car.

36. The police damaged the car.

37. Plaintiff was humiliated and embarrassed by the experience.

38. Plaintiff suffered a post arraignment restraint on his liberty.

39. Plaintiff suffered financial loss.

General Allegations

40. Plaintiff did not resist arrest at any time during the above-described incidents.

41. Plaintiff did not violate any law, regulation, or administrative code; commit any criminal act; or act in a suspicious or unlawful manner prior to or during the above-described incident.

42. The individual defendants did not observe plaintiff violate any law, regulation, or administrative code; commit any criminal act; or act in a suspicious or unlawful manner prior to or during the above-described incident.

43. The individual defendants acted under pretense and color of state law and their individual and official capacities and within the scope of their employment. Said acts by said defendants were beyond the scope of their jurisdiction, without authority or law, and in abuse of their powers, and said defendants acted willfully, knowingly, and with the specific intent to deprive plaintiff of his rights.

44. As a direct and proximate result of defendants' actions, plaintiff experienced personal and physical injuries, pain and suffering, fear, an invasion of privacy, psychological pain, emotional distress, mental anguish, embarrassment, humiliation, and financial loss.

45. Plaintiff is entitled to receive punitive damages from the individual defendants because the individual defendants' actions were motivated by extreme recklessness and indifference to plaintiff's rights.

FIRST CLAIM

(FALSE ARREST UNDER FEDERAL LAW)

46. Plaintiff repeats and realleges all the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

47. Defendants falsely arrested plaintiff without consent, an arrest warrant, probable cause, or reasonable suspicion that plaintiff had committed a crime.

48. Accordingly, defendants are liable to plaintiff for false arrest under 42 U.S.C. § 1983; and the Fourth Amendment to the United States Constitution.

SECOND CLAIM

(FALSE ARREST UNDER STATE LAW)

49. Plaintiff repeats and realleges all the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

50. Defendants falsely arrested plaintiff without consent, an arrest warrant, probable cause, or reasonable suspicion that plaintiff had committed a crime.

51. Accordingly, defendants are liable to plaintiff for false arrest under New York State law.

THIRD CLAIM

(UNREASONABLE FORCE)

52. Plaintiff repeats and realleges all the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

53. The individual defendants' use of force upon plaintiff was objectively unreasonable.

54. The individual defendant officers did not have an objective and/or reasonable basis to use any degree of force against plaintiff.

55. Those defendants who did not touch plaintiff, witnessed these acts, but failed to intervene and protect plaintiff from this conduct.

56. Accordingly, the defendants are liable to plaintiff for using unreasonable force, pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983; and the Fourth Amendment to the United States Constitution.

FOURTH CLAIM

(ASSAULT)

57. Plaintiff repeats and realleges all the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

58. Among other things as described above, individual defendants' battery, false arrest, and unreasonable use of force against plaintiff placed him in fear of imminent harmful and offensive physical contacts.

59. Accordingly, defendants are liable to plaintiff under New York State law for assault.

FIFTH CLAIM

(BATTERY)

60. Plaintiff repeats and realleges all the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

61. Among other things as described above, the individual defendants' false arrest, and unreasonable use of force against plaintiff were illegal physical contacts.

62. Accordingly, defendants are liable to plaintiff under New York State law for battery.

SIXTH CLAIM

(FAILURE TO INTERVENE)

63. Plaintiff repeats and realleges all the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

64. Defendants had a reasonable opportunity to prevent the violations of plaintiff's constitutional rights, but they failed to intervene.

65. Accordingly, the defendants are liable to plaintiff for failing to intervene to prevent the violation of plaintiff's constitutional rights under 42 U.S.C. § 1983; and the Fourth Amendment to the United States Constitution.

SEVENTH CLAIM

(CONSPIRACY)

66. Plaintiff repeats and realleges all the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

67. Defendants are liable to plaintiff because they agreed to act in concert to inflict an unconstitutional injury; and committed an overt act done in furtherance of that goal causing damage to plaintiff under 42 U.S.C. § 1983.

EIGHTH CLAIM

(MALICIOUS PROSECUTION FEDERAL LAW)

68. Plaintiff repeats and realleges all the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

69. The individual defendants are liable to plaintiff for malicious prosecution because, pursuant to a conspiracy and acting with malice, the defendants initiated a malicious prosecution(s) against plaintiff by knowingly, intentionally, and maliciously providing false statements in complaints and police reports to police officers, prosecutors and/or the court(s), which alleged plaintiff had committed various crimes.

70. The individual defendants lacked probable cause to believe the above-stated malicious prosecution could succeed.

71. The individual defendants initiated the above-stated malicious prosecution to cover up their illegal and unconstitutional conduct.

72. The above-stated malicious prosecution caused a sufficient post-arraignment liberty restraint on plaintiff.

NINTH CLAIM

(MALICIOUS PROSECUTION STATE LAW)

73. Plaintiff repeats and realleges all the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

74. The individual defendants are liable to plaintiff for malicious prosecution because, pursuant to a conspiracy and acting with malice, the defendants initiated a malicious prosecution(s) against plaintiff by knowingly, intentionally, and maliciously providing false statements in complaints and police reports to police officers, prosecutors and/or the court(s), which alleged plaintiff had committed various crimes.

75. The individual defendants lacked probable cause to believe the above-stated malicious prosecution could succeed.

76. The individual defendants initiated the above-stated malicious prosecution to cover up their illegal and unconstitutional conduct.

TENTH CLAIM

(DENIAL OF A FAIR TRIAL/FABRICATION OF EVIDENCE)

77. Plaintiff repeats and realleges all the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

78. The individual defendants are liable to plaintiff because they intentionally conspired to fabricate evidence against plaintiff, including omitting and/or manipulating evidence, and suppressing exculpatory evidence and forwarded that false evidence to police officers, prosecutors, and the court.

79. The individual defendants violated the law by either testifying falsely, providing false information, and/or drafting and signing false criminal court complaints and/or false police reports and forwarding them to police officers, prosecutors and the court.

80. The individual defendants were on notice that creating fabricated evidence is a clear violation of law because it is well established that individuals who knowingly use false evidence to obtain a conviction act unconstitutionally, depriving plaintiff of liberty without due process of law or a fair trial, and the harm occasioned by such unconscionable actions are redressable in an action for damages under 42 U.S.C. § 1983, the Fair Trial Clause of the Sixth Amendment to the United States Constitution, and the Due Process Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution.

ELEVENTH CLAIM

(RESPONDEAT SUPERIOR)

81. Plaintiff repeats and realleges all the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

82. The individual defendants were acting within the scope of their employment when they committed the above described acts against plaintiff, including falsely arresting, assaulting, and battering plaintiff.

83. The City of New York is therefore vicariously liable under New York State law for the aforesaid torts.

WHEREFORE, plaintiff demands a jury trial and the following relief jointly and severally against the defendants; and demands judgment and compensatory damages, individually and/or collectively in an amount that exceeds the jurisdiction of all lower courts that would otherwise have jurisdiction as to the above-stated cause of action against all defendants; punitive damages in an amount to be determined at trial as and for the above-stated causes of action against the individual defendants; together with costs and disbursements of this action and legal fees pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1988.
