POLICE COMMISSIONER'S PENALTY DEPARTURE

Re: CCRB Case No. 202311575 (Incident Date: December 8, 2023) regarding Sergeant Joel Manou,
Tax No. 940415 (PODS Case No. C-034128)

Dear Mr. Darche:

The Police Commissioner has reviewed the recommendation of the Civilian Complaint Review Board (CCRB) regarding the disciplinary matter involving Sergeant Joel Manou and has determined that the allegation regarding the stop does not warrant disciplinary action.

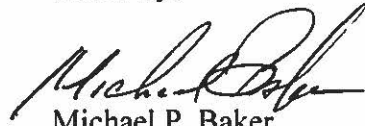

In this matter, Sergeant Manou was working a paid detail at a retail store. According to Sergeant Manou, during his shift, he received a radio transmission on a radio provided to him by the store. The transmission indicated that an individual may have been stealing merchandise and hiding it in his jacket. Just as he received the information, the complainant exited the store with a noticeable bulge in the mid-section of his jacket. Sergeant Manou stated that he immediately noticed the individual based on the employee's description over the radio. He subsequently stopped and questioned the individual, and once it was determined that the individual was not secreting store merchandise, he was permitted to leave. The entire stop was approximately twenty (20) seconds. CCRB concluded the stop was improper and cited a store report that indicated Sergeant Manou was not instructed by team members to approach the individual and that he was acting on his own volition. This employee was never interviewed by CCRB, therefore there is no way to confirm their basis of knowledge to support their conclusions. Furthermore, no other store employee was interviewed to confirm if they sent Sergeant Manou a radio transmission. Additionally, the complainant told CCRB that another store employee was standing with Sergeant Manou when the complainant entered, exited and was stopped. This individual was also not interviewed by CCRB, therefore, they could not confirm or deny whether a radio transmission came over.

Therefore, based on the foregoing, Sergeant Manou will not receive any disciplinary action for the stop. However, Sergeant Manou will be issued a Schedule "A" Command Discipline with formalized training for failing to provide a business card when required to do so.
