Plaintiff seeks compensatory and punitive damages, declaratory relief, an award of costs and attorney's fees and such other relief as the Court deems just and proper.

PARTIES

2. Plaintiff is a resident of Kings County, State of New York.
3. Defendant City of New York is a municipal corporation organized under the laws of the State of New York, which violated plaintiff's rights as described herein.

9. Police Officers John and Jane Doe #'s 2-12 are being sued in his/her individual capacity and official capacity.
10. At all times relevant herein, the individual defendants were acting under color of state law in the course and scope of their duties and functions as agents, servants, employees and officers of the New York City Police Department, and otherwise performed and engaged in conduct incidental to the performance of their lawful functions in the course of their duties. They were acting for and on behalf of the New York City Police Department at all times relevant herein, with the power and authority vested in them as officers, agents, and employees of the New York City Police Department and incidental to the lawful pursuit of their duties as officers, employees and agents of the New York City Police Department.

11. Defendant City of New York is a municipal entity created and authorized under the laws of the State of New York. It is authorized by law to maintain a police department which acts as agents in the area of law enforcement and for which it is ultimately responsible. The defendant City of New York assumes the risks incidental to the maintenance of a police force and the employment of police officers as said risks attach to the public consumers of the services provided by the New York City Police Department.
12. Plaintiff in furtherance of his State causes of action filed a timely Notice of Claim upon the City of New York in compliance with Municipal Law Section 50.
13. More than thirty (30) days have elapsed since service of said Notice of Claim was filed and the City of New York has failed to pay or adjust the claim.
14. The City of New York held a 50(h) hearing examination of Plaintiff on April 29, 2021.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

15. On January 5, 2021 at approximately 5:03 p.m. at 1489 East 48th Street, Kings County, New York, numerous police officers from the 63rd Precinct, and other unknown police commands, including upon information and belief, defendant NYPD Officer Ali Alomaisi (Shield. # 23797) and P.O. John and Jane Does #1-12, and other as yet unknown police officers, at times acting in concert and at times acting independently, committed the following illegal acts against Plaintiff.
16. On January 5, 2021, Plaintiff was driving his vehicle with his son as a passenger. Plaintiff heard sirens and pulled to the side to allow the vehicles to pass. Instead of passing him and continuing, the NYPD vehicle parked behind him and approached the vehicle. The moment officers approach the vehicle, Plaintiff was not free to leave.

17. Defendant officers, including defendant officer Alomaisi, asked for Plaintiff's license and registration. Plaintiff provided the documents to defendant officers. The license and registration were both valid and unexpired.
18. Defendant officer, including defendant officer Alomaisi, informed Plaintiff that his license plate was fraudulent. Defendant officers made this allegation without checking their computer to validate his license or registration. Plaintiff explained to defendant officers that the license plate was in fact a valid, temporary plate.
19. The temporary plate on his vehicle was valid lawfully purchased from ABS Services in Brooklyn, NY. The Vehicle Identification Number on the plate matched the Vehicle Identification Number on Plaintiff's car insurance. Upon information and belief, defendant NYPD Officers, including Officer Alomaisi, never attempted to validate the VIN number on the license plate.
20. At the time of his arrest, Plaintiff also possessed valid car insurance.
21. Plaintiff was charged with improper tints on his vehicle and later alleged that the tints were the reason for the stop. In reality, defendant officers never mentioned the tints on Plaintiff's windows to him at the time of his arrest or during his processing at the precinct and central booking.
22. Moreover, upon information and belief, defendant officers never measured the tint on Plaintiff's car windows.
23. In the alternative, NYPD defendant officers measured the window tint on Plaintiff's car windows subsequent to his arrest.
24. Despite Plaintiff's valid temporary plates, car insurance, registration, and license, defendant officers placed Plaintiff under arrest and transported him to the 63rd precinct.
25. While in custody at the 63rd Precinct, NYPD defendants falsely and maliciously told the Kings County District Attorney's office that Plaintiff did not have valid car insurance, that the temporary plate was invalid, and that he was driving with excessive tints on the vehicle. Defendants knew these allegations to be false based on the lack of any material evidence that Plaintiff had committed any crime and evidence that he possessed valid car registration and temporary plates. There was no evidence that Plaintiff committed any fraud and defendant officers had never measured the tints on his car.

26. As a result of these malicious and false allegations, Plaintiff was incarcerated for approximately 33 hours.
27. Plaintiff was released on his own recognizance on January 7, 2021.
28. After his release, Plaintiff attended multiple court appearances before all charges were dismissed and sealed on April 26, 2021.
29. Plaintiff's arrest and detention took place during a peak period of the ongoing Covid-19 Pandemic. Thus, the actions of Defendant NYPD Officers, including defendant NYPD Officer Alomaisi (Shield. # 23797) in illegally arresting Plaintiff and causing a criminal proceeding against him to commence directly jeopardized Plaintiff's health as he was detained for 33 hours inside of squalid and unventilated NYPD and New York State Court facilities, which were utterly lacking in proper protections and protocols to prevent the spread of Covid-19.
30. Defendant NYPD Officers confiscated $300 from Plaintiff's wallet and never returned the money to him.
31. Plaintiff's vehicle was scratched while in NYPD custody.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTIONFALSE ARREST AND FALSE IMPRISONMENT

32. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and re-alleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 31 as if fully set forth herein.
33. The acts and conduct of the defendants, including defendant NYPD Officer Alomaisi (Shield. # 23797) constitute false arrest and false imprisonment under the laws of the State of New York. Plaintiff committed no crime as charged under the penal law. Defendant officers had no reason to believe Plaintiff was intoxicated prior to his arrest. Rather, there was ample evidence he had been assaulted by a group of people and attempted to flee the scene for his own safety.
34. Defendants intended to confine Plaintiff and, in fact, confined Plaintiff, and Plaintiff was conscious of the confinement. In addition, Plaintiff did not consent to the confinement and the confinement was not otherwise privileged.
35. The individually named defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
36. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTIONMALICIOUS PROSECUTION

37. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and re-alleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 36 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
38. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute malicious prosecution under the laws of the State of New York.

39. Defendants commenced and continued a criminal proceeding against Plaintiff with malice and without probable cause, caused him a serious deprivation of liberty as a result, and Plaintiff obtained a favorable termination on the fabricated charges.
40. Defendants commenced and continued a criminal proceeding against Plaintiff.
41. There was actual malice and an absence of probable cause for the criminal proceeding against Plaintiff and for each of the charges for which he was prosecuted. Defendant officers were aware that there was no evidence Plaintiff was intoxicated at the time of his arrest. Defendant officers alleged Plaintiff attempted to flee the scene of an accident when, in reality, they knew he voluntarily remained at the scene of the accident.
42. The prosecution and criminal proceedings terminated favorably to Plaintiff on April 26, 2021.
43. Plaintiff was subjected to a post-arraignment deprivation of liberty sufficient to implicate his state constitutional and tort rights because he remained in custody for approximately 33 hours.
44. The individually named Defendant Police Officers were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTIONFAILURE TO INTERVENE

47. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and re-alleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 46 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

49. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein despite having had a reasonable opportunity to do so, and full knowledge of the unlawful conduct.
50. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff was subjected to illegal search and undue force upon his person over the course of his false arrest.
51. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York, the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
52. The City, as the employer of defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTIONCONVERSION

53. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and re-alleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 52 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
54. The City of New York and its employees, servants and/or agents acting within the scope of their employment did intentionally interfere with Plaintiff's exclusive right to $300 in cash in his wallet.

55. Plaintiff had the exclusive right of possession of these items, but this possession was interfered with and/or terminated when defendant NYPD officers and other NYPD employees removed them from Plaintiff's person at the time of his arrest and it remained in the sole possession and custody of NYPD employees, and were not returned to Plaintiff when Plaintiff again took custody of his vehicle, or at any point thereafter.
56. Plaintiff did not give permission or consent to defendant NYPD officers or any other NYPD employee to take the sole, exclusive, and permanent possession of the aforementioned items.
