Civilian Statement(s)

Complainant: § 87(2)(b)

- § 87(2)(b) black female, § 87(2)(b) black hair, brown eyes.

CCRB Testimony

§ 87(2)(b) was interviewed at the CCRB on April 28, 2010 (encl.9A-F). On April 4, 2010, at approximately 11:50 p.m., § 87(2)(b) and her fiancée, § 87(2)(b) left their residence located at § 87(2)(b) in Brooklyn to look for § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) son (name unknown). She was wearing a green jacket. § 87(2)(b) observed a marked police car on § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) then a second marked police car heading toward § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) walked ahead of § 87(2)(b) Officers exited from the two vehicles and approached § 87(2)(b) PO1, whom § 87(2)(b) described as a 5'10" tall black male in uniform, who sported a full beard and seemed to be in charge, ordered § 87(2)(b) to stop. PO1 was identified through the investigation as Lt. Vernon Lewis.

§ 87(2)(b) informed § 87(2)(b) that the officers requested them to stop. Lt. Lewis approached § 87(2)(b) and asked her if she had anything on her. § 87(2)(b) asked Lt. Lewis what he meant, but he repeatedly asked if she had anything. PO2, whom § 87(2)(b) described as a 5'3" tall white male with reddish/blonde hair, between 20 and 30 years old, approached and asked § 87(2)(b) if she had anything sharp. PO2 was identified through the investigation as PO Thomas Reeder.

Before § 87(2)(b) could answer, PO Reeder began to search her pockets. § 87(2)(b) had two blunts for rolling marijuana in her pocket. PO Reeder removed the marijuana paraphernalia from her right jacket pocket. § 87(2)(b) told the officers that the marijuana blunts belonged to her son. The officers examined it then passed it to PO Joshua Bienvenue, who also approached § 87(2)(b). PO Bienvenue was identified through the roll call and officer statements. PO Bienvenue frisked § 87(2)(b).

§ 87(2)(b) asked why she was being stopped. Lt. Lewis told her that they had received a call that a female had a knife. § 87(2)(b) inquired about the call and then told the officers that since they did not find any knife on her she was going to leave. As § 87(2)(b) began walking away, Lt. Lewis told her that she could not leave. § 87(2)(b) told Lt. Lewis that she needed to leave because her children were home alone. Lt. Lewis asked § 87(2)(b) how old her children were and where she lived but § 87(2)(b) refused to answer. Lt. Lewis told § 87(2)(b) that she could be arrested and her children could be taken away. Lt. Lewis told § 87(2)(b) she was under arrest. PO Reeder went to handcuff § 87(2)(b) but she pulled away from him. PO Reeder grabbed her right arm and Lt. Lewis grabbed her left arm. Both PO Reeder and Lt. Lewis twisted § 87(2)(b) arms and placed her in handcuffs. § 87(2)(b) warned the officers that she had medical problems and had nerve damage. Lt. Lewis ordered PO Reeder to take § 87(2)(b) and put her in his vehicle. § 87(2)(b) threatened to sue Lt. Lewis.

Other officers spoke to § 87(2)(b) who was issued a summons at this point § 87(2)(a) 160.50 § 87(2)(b). The officers asked § 87(2)(b) to get § 87(2)(b) identification and go to the precinct because she was under arrest. Before being placed in the police vehicle, § 87(2)(b) tried to explain that she needed to get in the car in a certain way. PO Reeder told § 87(2)(b) "Get the fuck into the car." § 87(2)(b) responded, "Fuck you." Lt. Lewis asked § 87(2)(b) who § 87(2)(b) was and § 87(2)(b) said he was her husband. Lt. Lewis told § 87(2)(b) that if § 87(2)(b) brought her identification they would let her go.

One of the officers requested § 87(2)(b) information and told her that if she lied they would arrest her. The officers asked § 87(2)(b) to call her husband on the phone. An officer went into § 87(2)(b) pocket and removed her cell phone to contact § 87(2)(b). § 87(2)(b) spoke with § 87(2)(b). § 87(2)(b) came back to the location with § 87(2)(b) identification. § 87(2)(b) was released with a summons and her identification was returned.

§ 87(2)(b) stated that Lt. Lewis injured her left arm when he grabbed her to handcuff her. The next day she went to § 87(2)(b) because she was unable to lift her arm. She also suffered bruises on her right arm caused when PO Reeder handcuffed her.

Victim: § 87(2)(b)

- § 87(2)(b) black male, § 87(2)(b), black hair, brown eyes.

CCRB Testimony

§ 87(2)(b) was interviewed at the CCRB on Aril 28, 2010 (encl.8A-E). § 87(2)(g) § 87(2)(b) asked why he was getting a summons and said, "NYPD with their same old bullshit." § 87(2)(b) told Lt. Lewis that he should be out there stopping young kids with guns. Lt. Lewis and § 87(2)(b) began to argue and Lt. Lewis told § 87(2)(b) to “shut up.” Additional officers pulled § 87(2)(b) to the side to keep him away from § 87(2)(b). § 87(2)(b) was angry and admitted the officers made him yell.

§ 87(2)(b) refused to allow the officers to handcuff her and asked what she was being arrested for. Lt. Lewis said to § 87(2)(b) “I should lock your ass up and I should call ACS to go up stairs and get your kids.”

CCRB Testimony

Lt. Vernon Lewis was interviewed at the CCRB on July 20, 2010 (encl.20A-B). Lt. Lewis did not have complete recollection of this incident. On April 4, 2010, at approximately 11:55 p.m., Lt. Lewis and his operator, PO Edwin Exilhomme, resumed patrol and were driving around when they observed a group of approximately six to eight uniformed officers gathered in the vicinity of § 87(2)(b) in Brooklyn. He stopped to see what was happening. He indicated that when he arrived on the scene, the incident was almost over.

Upon approaching the officers at the scene, he spoke with an officer whom he did not recall, who informed him that they were investigating a dispute with a knife that was reported over the radio. Lt. Lewis did not recall the individuals who were apprehended at that time in regard. He recalled there was a black female in handcuffs. Lt. Lewis could not recognize § 87(2)(b) when her driver's license photo was shown to him.

Lt. Lewis indicated that his involvement in this incident was very minimal to almost none. He indicated that there was another supervisor already on the scene when he arrived, whose name he could not recall. Lt. Lewis remained on the scene for a short period of time. Neither Lt. Lewis nor his operator, PO Exilhomme, had any physical contact or verbal interaction with § 87(2)(b). Lt. Subject Officer: PO THOMAS REEDER

- § 87(2)(b) -old white male, § 87(2)(b), red hair, blue eyes.
- PO Reeder worked from 6:00 p.m. on April 4, 2010 to 2:35 a.m. on April 5, 2010. He was assigned to sector patrol in marked vehicle 9740. He was dressed in uniform and worked with PO Rodriguez Dufresne.

Memo Book

At 12:00 a.m., PO Reeder received a radio run for a dispute with a knife in front of § 87(2)(b) in Brooklyn. At 12:15 a.m., PO Reeder resumed patrol.

CCRB Testimony

PO Thomas Reeder was interviewed at the CCRB on July 20, 2010 (encl.17A-B). On April 4, 2010, at approximately 11:55 p.m., PO Reeder and PO Dufresne arrived at § 87(2)(b) in Brooklyn to back up foot post # 150, comprised of PO Bienvenue and PO Babiuch, in regard to a dispute with a knife at the § 87(2)(b). At the time, PO Bienvenue had stopped a black female, § 87(2)(b) who fit the description of the person who allegedly had a knife. PO Reeder did not recall whether there were any other officers on the scene at that point. § 87(2)(b) became agitated and irate because the officers stopped her. § 87(2)(b) started yelling unspecified language and tried to get away from the officers. § 87(2)(b) did not want to stop with police and did not want to talk to anyone, raising the officers' suspicion that she feared being found with a knife.

PO Bienvenue questioned § 87(2)(b) but PO Reeder could not recall any specifics of the questioning. Because the officers suspected § 87(2)(b) had a knife, they wanted to handcuff her for safety. When they asked her to turn around and place her hands behind her back, § 87(2)(b) turned around and firmly held on to a fence that was in front of her to prevent handcuffing. PO Reeder, assisted by other officers whom he did not recall, grabbed § 87(2)(b) by her wrists and her forearms, placed her arms behind her back and handcuffed her.

When asked about her whereabouts on the scene, § 87(2)(b) responded that she was outside and had to go back home to her children who were alone. An unknown officer asked § 87(2)(b) the ages of her children, where they were and who was with them. PO Reeder was not sure if § 87(2)(b) answered the questions. Because § 87(2)(b) was not cooperating with providing information about her children, an officer informed her that Child Protective Services could be contacted if they were alone. A frisk determined that § 87(2)(b) did not have a knife and she was released with a summons § 87(2)(a) 160.50 issued by PO Bienvenue. There was a male with § 87(2)(b) at the time, but PO Reeder did not interact with him. PO Reeder did not recall seeing Lt. Lewis on the scene. PO Reeder denied using any obscene language; specifically he denied telling § 87(2)(b) to "get the fuck in the vehicle." PO Reeder did not recall which officer placed § 87(2)(b) in the vehicle. PO Reeder did not recall if § 87(2)(b) was searched or who conducted the frisk.

CCRB Case # 201004448

Allegations not pleaded

- § 87(2)(b) told Lt. Lewis that her children were home alone and when he asked her about their age, she refused to say which allegedly prompted Lt. Lewis to tell § 87(2)(b) that the Administration for Children's Services could be contacted for her children. § 87(2)(g)
- Additionally, § 87(2)(b) alleged that the officers threatened to arrest her if she did not provide her identification. § 87(2)(g)

Identification of Subject Officer(s)

Both Lt. Lewis and PO Reeder acknowledged their involvement in this case. Lt. Lewis and PO Reeder matched the description of the subject officers provided by § 87(2)(b)

Investigative Findings and Recommendations

Allegation A – Abuse of Authority: Lt. Vernon Lewis stopped § 87(2)(b)

Allegation B - Abuse of Authority: PO Joshua Bienvenue stopped § 87(2)(b)

The SPRINT for this incident indicated a dispute involving a black female with a knife outside of § 87(2)(b) PO Bienvenue and PO Babiuch, Lt. Lewis and PO Exilhomme, arrived at the location almost simultaneously. § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) were at the location allegedly arguing with each other. § 87(2)(b) indicated that Lt. Lewis ordered her to stop, and PO Bienvenue admitted he stopped § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(g)

According to PO Babiuch, § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) were arguing when they arrived, which indicated to them they were the persons involved in the dispute. Lt. Lewis allegedly asked § 87(2)(b) whether she had anything on her and another officer asked her if she had anything “sharp” on her, referring to the knife. It is undisputed that § 87(2)(b) refused to cooperate with the officer's inquiry, raising their level of suspicion. § 87(2)(b) became boisterous and attempted to walk away. Criminal Procedure Law 140.50 states that “a police officer may stop a person in a public place...when he reasonably suspects that such person is committing, has committed or is about to commit a felony or a misdemeanor” (encl. 1A). § 87(2)(g) it is recommended that allegations A and B be closed as exonerated.

Allegation C – Abuse of Authority: PO Joshua Bienvenue frisked § 87(2)(b)

As discussed above, PO Bienvenue received a radio indicating that a black female was involved in a dispute and was carrying a knife at the location. When he and other officers arrived there, he encountered § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) arguing amongst each other. § 87(2)(b) fit the description given over the radio run, § 87(2)(g) Given that a knife was allegedly involved, PO Bienvenue proceeded to frisk § 87(2)(b) for any possible weapons. Patrol Guide Procedure 212-11 indicates that an officer may frisk an individual if he reasonably suspects that he or others are in danger of physical injury and that the purpose of a frisk is to “...protect uniformed members of the service from injury while conducting investigations...”(encl.2A-C). § 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(g)

It is therefore recommended that allegation C be closed as exonerated.

Allegation D – Abuse of Authority: PO Thomas Reeder searched § 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(b) alleged that PO Reeder searched her pockets and found two blunts for rolling marijuana. PO Reeder did not recall whether § 87(2)(b) was searched and denied searching her. He admitted that § 87(2)(b) was frisked but he did not recall the officer who frisked her. The officers interviewed for this case did not see a search occur. § 87(2)(g)

It is therefore recommended that allegation D be closed as unsubstantiated.

Allegation E – Force: Lt. Vernon Lewis used physical force against § 87(2)(b)

Allegation F – Force: PO Thomas Reeder used physical force against § 87(2)(b)

It is undisputed that § 87(2)(b) acted belligerent and uncooperative and attempted to walk away as the officers tried to investigate. She held on to a fence to prevent an effective investigation of the incident. § 87(2)(b) stated that PO Reeder and Lt. Lewis twisted her arms in an attempt to handcuff her, which caused her pain and a visit to the hospital. § 87(2)(g)

PO Reeder admitted he handcuffed § 87(2)(b) and that other officers assisted him. He added that he was concerned for safety given that the investigation was ongoing. Patrol Guide Procedure 203-11, states that an officer can use “that amount of force necessary to overcome resistance.” (encl.3A-B) § 87(2)(g)

It is therefore recommended that allegations E and F be closed as exonerated.

Allegation G – Discourtesy: PO Thomas Reeder spoke obscenely and/or rudely to § 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(b) alleged that PO Reeder told her, “Get the fuck into the car” as he was placing her in a police vehicle. § 87(2)(g)

It is therefore recommended that allegation G be closed as unsubstantiated.
