Case Summary

On August 4, 2023, § 87(2)(b) filed this complaint with the CCRB by phone.

On August 3, 2023, at approximately 10:05 p.m., outside of § 87(2)(b) in Brooklyn, Police Officers Anton Baird and Banyor Germosen, both of the 71st Precinct, damaged § 87(2)(b) license plate cover while issuing his vehicle a summons (Allegation A: Abuse of Authority – Property Damage, § 87(2)(g)) (Allegation B: Abuse of Authority – Property Damage, § 87(2)(g))

On August 4, 2023, at approximately 8:40 a.m., at the 71st Precinct stationhouse in Brooklyn, Police Officers Tetsola Santiago and Sandy Peralta, both of the 71st Precinct 9PO Peralta has since resigned), allegedly refused to process § 87(2)(b) civilian complaint (Allegation C: Abuse of Authority – Refusal to Process Civilian Complaint, § 87(2)(g)) (Allegation D: Abuse of Authority – Refusal to Process Civilian Complaint, § 87(2)(g)) Sergeant John Felicetti, of the 71st Precinct, refused to process § 87(2)(b) civilian complaint (Allegation E: Abuse of Authority – Refusal to Process Civilian Complaint, § 87(2)(g)) Sgt. Felicetti allegedly threatened to damage § 87(2)(b) plate cover and threatened to seize § 87(2)(b) vehicle (Allegation F: Abuse of Authority – Threat to Seize Property, § 87(2)(g)) Sgt. Felicetti allegedly called § 87(2)(b) stupid and a terrorist (Allegation G: Offensive Language – Disability, § 87(2)(g)) (Allegations H and I: Discourtesy – Word, § 87(2)(g)) Sgt. Felicetti told § 87(2)(b) that if he did not leave he would be arrested (Allegation J: Abuse of Authority – Threat of Arrest, § 87(2)(g)) Sgt. Felicetti allegedly failed to provide a business card to § 87(2)(b) (Allegation K: Abuse of Authority – Failure to Provide RTKA card, § 87(2)(g)) and allegedly called § 87(2)(b) “a piece of shit” (Allegation L: Discourtesy – Word, § 87(2)(g)) PO Santiago, Sgt. Felicetti, and PO Peralta improperly used their body-worn cameras (Allegations M and N: Abuse of Authority – Improper Use of Body-Worn Camera, § 87(2)(g)) (Allegation O: Abuse of Authority – Improper Use of Body-Worn Camera, § 87(2)(g))

On August 4, 2023, at approximately 9:30 a.m., § 87(2)(b) called the 71st Precinct stationhouse and PO Santiago allegedly hung up the phone on § 87(2)(b) (Allegation P: Discourtesy – Action, § 87(2)(g)) § 87(2)(b) then called Community Affairs at the 71st Precinct, where he allegedly spoke to an officer who refused to process a civilian complaint (Allegation Q: Abuse of Authority – Refusal to Process Civilian Complaint, § 87(2)(g)) § 87(2)(b) then called the 71st Precinct stationhouse again and an officer allegedly hung up the phone on him (Allegation R: Discourtesy – Action, § 87(2)(g)) § 87(2)(b) received a summons for obstructing the driveway, under #§ 87(2)(b) (BR 01).

The investigation obtained body-worn camera (BWC) video footage for PO Baird and PO Germosen (BR 02, BR 03) and stationhouse footage of the 71st Precinct (BR 04, BR 05, BR 06). The investigation received negative BWC results for the incident on August 4, 2023 (BR 07).

Findings and Recommendations

Allegation (A) Abuse of Authority: On August 03, 2023, at § 87(2)(b) in Brooklyn, Police Officer Anton Baird damaged § 87(2)(b) property.

Allegation (B) Abuse of Authority: On August 3, 2023, at § 87(2)(b) in Brooklyn, Police Officer Banyor Germosen damaged § 87(2)(b) property.

§ 87(2)(b) consistently stated (BR 09, BR 10) that after seeing that his vehicle had received a summons for blocking a driveway, he noticed that his license plate cover had been damaged.

In PO Baird’s BWC (BR 02), at 4:54, there is an intact cover obscuring the license plate on § 87(2)(b) car, which is parked in front of a driveway. At 5:09, PO Baird pulls on § 87(2)(b) plate cover. At 5:50, both PO Baird and PO Germosen pull on the plate cover to reveal the plate number. At 6:23, PO Baird pulls the plate cover on the front plate. At 6:53, the back plate cover is damaged. PO Germosen's BWC is consistent with PO Baird's.

PO Baird was not interviewed as his statement would not affect the disposition.

PO Germosen resigned pending permission as of November 10, 2023 (BR 11).

Per Patrol Guide procedure 209-07 (BR 12), when preparing a parking summons, the following are mandatory identification elements for the summons: specific location of parked vehicle, license plate number, license plate type, expiration date, make of vehicle, and model of vehicle.

According to Onderdonk v. State, 170 Misc. 2d 155 (1996) (BR 13), officers must give due respect to property and may only damage property if doing so is "reasonably necessary" to effectuate their duties.

It is undisputed that PO Baird and PO Germosen caused damage to § 87(2)(b) plate cover. § 87(2)(g)

Allegation (C) Abuse of Authority: On August 04, 2023, at the 71st Precinct stationhouse, Police Officer Tetsola Santiago did not process § 87(2)(b) complaint regarding an officer.

Allegation (D) Abuse of Authority: On August 04, 2023, at the 71st Precinct stationhouse, Police Officer Sandy Peralta did not process § 87(2)(b) complaint regarding an officer.

Allegation (E) Abuse of Authority: On August 04, 2023, at the 71st Precinct stationhouse, Sergeant John Felicetti did not process § 87(2)(b) complaint regarding an officer.

§ 87(2)(b) stated (BR 09) that he told PO Santiago that he wanted to press charges against the officer who issued him a summons for the damage to his license plate cover and to file a complaint against him. PO Santiago said she could not take a complaint and pointed to a poster to the left of the desk. § 87(2)(b) reiterated that he wanted to file a complaint and asked to speak with a supervisor. PO Peralta approached, and § 87(2)(b) told PO Santiago and PO Peralta that all he wanted to do was file a complaint and leave. PO Santiago and PO Peralta asked to see the damage, and he led them to his car.

After they returned to the stationhouse, PO Santiago went to speak to a supervisor and returned with Sgt. Felicetti. § 87(2)(b) asked Sgt. Felicetti to file a complaint against officers several times. Sgt. Felicetti never offered to take a complaint at the stationhouse and did not provide alternative methods to file a complaint against an officer.

In stationhouse video footage (BR 06), at 43:38, PO Santiago points at a CCRB poster posted on a column in the lobby of the stationhouse as she speaks with § 87(2)(b). At 45:00, § 87(2)(b) and PO Peralta exit the stationhouse. At 51:59, PO Peralta and § 87(2)(b) walk back into the stationhouse and speak briefly. PO Santiago is present. At 57:56, § 87(2)(b) speaks with someone out of frame while PO Peralta and PO Santiago are present. At 58:26, Sgt. Felicetti approaches § 87(2)(b) while PO Santiago and PO Peralta leave the frame.

PO Santiago (BR 14) stated that § 87(2)(b) explained that he received a summons for his vehicle and that the officer removed the plate covering. PO Santiago assumed that § 87(2)(b) wanted to make a complaint because he was upset about the summons, but § 87(2)(b) did not explicitly ask to do so. PO Santiago showed § 87(2)(b) the CCRB poster, described the four ways he could file a complaint, including in-person with her, over the phone with CCRB, online at the CCRB, and over text with the CCRB, and instructed him to photograph the poster. § 87(2)(b) did not state that he wanted to file a complaint and reiterated that he was upset with the damage to his vehicle. § 87(2)(b) then exited the stationhouse with PO Peralta. When § 87(2)(b) returned, he spoke to Sgt. Felicetti. PO Santiago left soon after and did not witness their conversation. She did not recall if § 87(2)(b) asked Sgt. Felicetti to file a complaint against an officer.

PO Peralta's statement (BR 15) was generally consistent with that of PO Santiago. PO Peralta saw PO Santiago speak with § 87(2)(b) but he did not hear their conversation. PO Peralta went with § 87(2)(b) to look at his plate covers, but they only discussed whether they were legal. PO Peralta thought that § 87(2)(b) was there to complain about the laws regarding plate covers and not any officer actions. When they returned to the stationhouse, Sgt. Felicetti approached, and PO Peralta left. § 87(2)(b) never asked PO Peralta to file a complaint.

Sgt. Felicetti stated (BR 16) that he first observed § 87(2)(b) yelling that he had received an unlawful parking summons and that the officers should not have moved his plate cover. Sgt. Felicetti did not see § 87(2)(b) interact with any other officers. He did not hear § 87(2)(b) ask to file a complaint with PO Santiago or PO Peralta and he did not observe any officer point out to him the CCRB poster. Sgt. Felicetti approached § 87(2)(b) and explained that the summons was lawful. § 87(2)(b) asked Sgt. Felicetti to file a complaint against the officer for the summons and the damage to his plate cover. Sgt. Felicetti determined that § 87(2)(b) did not have a valid complaint because he could fight the summons in court and the removal of the plate cover had been lawful. Sgt. Felicetti did not present § 87(2)(b) with alternate means of filing a complaint.

A request for civilian complaint reports yielded negative results (BR 17).

PO Peralta resigned pending permission as of April 1, 2024 (BR 29).

Patrol Guide procedure 207-28 (BR 18) states that when civilians wish to file a complaint in person, officers must interview the complainant, provide the civilian with a civilian complaint report, and assist or allow another person to assist the complainant with completing the report. Officers must also prepare a civilian complaint report and inform the Civilian Complaint Review Board.

§ 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(g)

It is undisputed that § 87(2)(b) asked Sgt. Felicetti to file a complaint, and he failed to do so. § 87(2)(g)

Allegation (F) Abuse of Authority: On August 04, 2023, at the 71st Precinct stationhouse, Sergeant John Felicetti threatened to seize § 87(2)(b) property.

Allegation (G) Offensive Language: On August 04, 2023, at the 71st Precinct stationhouse, Sergeant John Felicetti spoke offensively regarding § 87(2)(b) actual or perceived disability.

Allegation (H) Discourtesy: On August 04, 2023, at the 71st Precinct stationhouse, Sergeant John Felicetti spoke discourteously to § 87(2)(b)

Allegation (I) Discourtesy: On August 04, 2023, at the 71st Precinct stationhouse, Sergeant John Felicetti spoke discourteously to § 87(2)(b)

Allegation (J) Abuse of Authority: On August 04, 2023, at the 71st Precinct stationhouse, Sergeant John Felicetti threatened to arrest § 87(2)(b)

Allegation (K) Abuse of Authority: On August 04, 2023, at the 71st Precinct stationhouse, Sergeant John Felicetti failed to provide § 87(2)(b) with a business card.

Allegation (L) Discourtesy: On August 04, 2023, at the 71st Precinct stationhouse, Sergeant John Felicetti spoke discourteously to § 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(b) stated (BR 09) that Sgt. Felicetti told him that he was confused why the officer had only ripped the plate cover halfway and not removed it completely. Sgt. Felicetti said that if he had been there, he would have removed the plate covers and towed the vehicle. When § 87(2)(b) told Sgt. Felicetti that he could tow the vehicle if he wanted, Sgt. Felicetti said if he ever saw § 87(2)(b) vehicle, he would tow it. Sgt. Felicetti told § 87(2)(b) that he needed a license to operate a vehicle. § 87(2)(b) responded that he only needed a license if he were using the vehicle for state commerce or monetary gain. Sgt. Felicetti called § 87(2)(b) stupid and said that if he did not need a license, he should try to go to an airport, fly a plane around, and be a terrorist. Sgt. Felicetti then told § 87(2)(b) to leave the stationhouse and that if he did not, he would be arrested. Sgt. Felicetti made this threat three to four times. § 87(2)(b) did not leave and asked for Sgt. Felicetti's business card. Instead of providing a business card, Sgt. Felicetti wrote his name and shield number on a piece of paper. He did not include his command. When § 87(2)(b) told Sgt. Felicetti that he was required to show three means of identification and had refused to provide a business card, Sgt. Felicetti told § 87(2)(b) to get out of the stationhouse or he would arrest him. § 87(2)(b) asked why he could be arrested, and Sgt. Felicetti told him to leave again and called him a "piece of shit." § 87(2)(b) then left the stationhouse.

In stationhouse video footage (BR 06) at 1:00:19 Sgt. Felicetti hands § 87(2)(b) a piece of paper.

Both PO Santiago and PO Peralta stated (BR 14, BR 15) that they were unable to hear § 87(2)(b) conversation with Sgt. Felicetti because they left the lobby.

Sgt. Felicetti stated (BR 16) that § 87(2)(b) told him that he intended to always cover his license plate. Sgt. Felicetti explained that if his license plates and registration were not visible, his vehicle could be towed and the plate cover could be manipulated in order to issue a summons. Sgt. Felicetti never told § 87(2)(b) that he would personally tow his vehicle or call a tow company. Sgt. Felicetti repeatedly explained to § 87(2)(b) that the summons he had received was valid and that the license plate covers were not legal. Sgt. Felicetti told § 87(2)(b) that if he continued to yell, he would be asked to leave and could be arrested for trespassing if he did not comply. § 87(2)(b) refused to leave. Sgt. Felicetti told § 87(2)(b) that if he had no police business, he needed to leave. § 87(2)(b) asked for Sgt. Felicetti's name and shield number, which he wrote down and gave to § 87(2)(b). § 87(2)(b) never asked for a business card, and Sgt. Felicetti did not provide him with one.

Sgt. Felicetti denied ever using any profanity or making belittling statements towards § 87(2)(b). Sgt. Felicetti never called § 87(2)(b) "stupid," a "terrorist," or a "piece of shit."

According to Section 4-08 (j)(2) of the New York City Traffic Rules (BR 30), no person shall stand or park a vehicle required to bear a license plate unless such vehicle properly displays the current plate or plates issued to it. New York plates shall not be deemed properly displayed unless they are conspicuously displayed, one on the front and one on the rear of the vehicle, each securely fastened so as to prevent the same from swinging and placed, whenever reasonably possible, not higher than 48 inches and not lower than 12 inches from the ground, and they are kept clean and in a condition so as to be readable and shall not be covered by glass or any plastic material.

Section 4-08 (a)(9) of the New York City Traffic Rules (BR 30) states that any illegally parked vehicle found parked at any time upon any public highway in the City may, by or under the direction of any person authorized by the Commissioner, be immobilized in such manner as to prevent its operation, and thereafter may be removed to a tow pound as provided in these rules.

A person is guilty of Trespass when that person knowingly enters or remains unlawfully in or upon premises NYS CLS Penal Law § 140.05 (BR 20).

§ 87(2)(g)

It was undisputed that Sgt. Felicetti asked § 87(2)(b) to leave the stationhouse and that he did not do so immediately. § 87(2)(g)

Allegation (M) Abuse of Authority: On August 04, 2023, at the 71st Precinct stationhouse, Police Officer Tetsola Santiago improperly used her body-worn camera.

Allegation (N) Abuse of Authority: On August 04, 2023, at the 71st Precinct stationhouse, Sergeant John Felicetti improperly used his body-worn camera.

Allegation (O) Abuse of Authority: On August 04, 2023, at the 71st Precinct stationhouse, Police Officer Sandy Peralta improperly used their body-worn camera.

It was undisputed that § 87(2)(b) was upset when he arrived at the stationhouse and that the interaction between PO Santiago, PO Peralta, Sgt. Felicetti, and § 87(2)(b) was adversarial.

PO Santiago (BR 14) and PO Peralta (BR 15) stated that they did not activate their BWCs because they were not taking any police action.

Sgt. Felicetti (BR 16) stated that he did not activate his BWC because it was charging while he was performing administrative duties. When he went to speak to § 87(2)(b) he forgot to equip his BWC. There were no other reasons it was not activated.

A request for BWC regarding this incident yielded negative results (BR 07).

PO Peralta resigned pending permission as of April 1, 2024 (BR 29).

Patrol Guide procedure 212-123 (BR 21) states that officers must activate their BWCs prior to engaging in any police action and record any interactions that escalate to become adversarial or may hold evidentiary value.

It is undisputed that the interaction was adversarial and that PO Santiago and Sgt. Felicetti did not activate their BWC. § 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(g)

Allegation (P) Discourtesy: On August 04, 2023, over the phone, Police Officer Tetsola Santiago acted discourteously toward § 87(2)(b)

Allegation (O) Abuse of Authority: On August 04, 2023, over the phone, an officer did not process § 87(2)(b) complaint regarding an officer.

Allegation (R) Discourtesy: On August 04, 2023, over the phone, Sergeant John Felicetti acted discourteously toward § 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(b) stated (BR 09) that after he left, he called the stationhouse and spoke to PO Santiago. § 87(2)(b) asked for Sgt. Felicetti's tax ID number. PO Santiago said she could not provide that information and asked to whom she was speaking. Before § 87(2)(b) could answer PO Santiago hung up the phone. § 87(2)(b) then called the Community Affairs office. An officer with a male voice answered. § 87(2)(b) requested to speak to Sgt. Felicetti and that he be provided with his tax ID number. The officer said he could not provide the information. § 87(2)(b) asked to file a complaint against an officer, but the officer said that he could not take the complaint and instructed § 87(2)(b) to call the main number for the stationhouse. § 87(2)(b) called back the main line every 10 to 15 minutes. PO Santiago answered and hung up on § 87(2)(b) three more times.

When § 87(2)(b) called a final time, PO Santiago explained that the phone was not working properly and transferred the call to Sgt. Felicetti. § 87(2)(b) asked for his tax ID number, and Sgt. Felicetti said he could not provide that information. § 87(2)(b) asked to be transferred to the chief, and Sgt. Felicetti hung up the phone.

Roll Call confirmed (BR 22) that Sergeant Joshua Lewis, of the 71st Precinct, was assigned as the desk officer during the second tour on the incident date.

The investigation spoke to Lieutenant John Fernandez, of Community Affairs, who confirmed that Police Officer Viktoria Fiandola and Police Officer Jonathan Connors, both of Community Affairs, were the only members of service assigned to work out of the 71st Precinct stationhouse (BR 23).

PO Connors's memo book confirms that he was RDO on the incident date (BR 24).

PO Santiago stated (BR 14) that she received a call from § 87(2)(b) asking to speak to a supervisor. She did not recall anything else about the conversation. PO Santiago transferred the call to the desk officer, but she did not recall who was at the desk. She did not overhear his call with that officer. She did not recall if he called more than once. She did not hang up the phone on him. There were no issues with the phone system being inoperable and disconnecting calls.

Sgt. Felicetti stated (BR 16) that he did not know if § 87(2)(b) ever called the stationhouse or the Community Affairs office. He was unaware of any technical difficulties with the phone line, and no issues were reported to him. Sgt. Felicetti never spoke to § 87(2)(b) over the phone. Sgt. Felicetti never hung up the phone on § 87(2)(b) or placed a call to § 87(2)(b).

Sgt. Lewis stated (BR 31) had no independent recollection of this incident. Watching the stationhouse footage prior to going on the record did not refresh his independent recollection.

PO Fiandola stated (BR 25) that she did not answer any phone calls in the Community Affairs office during her tour. If an individual called the 71st Precinct and selected to speak with Community Affairs, the call would go to the two phones located in the Community Affairs office. PO Fiandola did not recall seeing or interacting with any other officer in the Community Affairs office. Officers who are not assigned to Community Affairs do not pick up calls in that office.
