Plaintiff ALFREDO GRULLON, by his attorneys, Caitlin Robin & Associates, PLLC, as and for his Verified Complaint herein, alleges upon information and belief as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. This is a civil rights action to recover money damages arising out of defendants' violation of Plaintiff's rights as secured by the Civil Rights Act, 42 U.S.C. Sections 1983 and 1988, and of rights secured by the Fourth, Fifth, and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, and the common law and the laws of the State of New York. On April 23rd, 2020, at approximately 8:00 a.m., plaintiff ALFREDO GRULLON, while lawfully in his home at 390 Wadsworth Avenue in Manhattan, New York, was subject to an unlawful stop, question, frisk, search, false arrest, and false imprisonment by the defendant New York City police officers. Plaintiff was then unlawfully imprisoned at the 41st Precinct Police Station and Bronx County Central Bookings for approximately 40 hours before he was arraigned the following day before a Bronx County judge and released on his own recognizance. Plaintiff was denied the right to due process and a fair trial for the false charges of Burglary in the 3rd degree, which were eventually dismissed and sealed as Plaintiff committed no crime. Plaintiff was deprived of his constitutional and common law rights when the individual defendants unlawfully stopped, questioned, frisked, searched, confined, falsely arrested, falsely imprisoned, and denied plaintiff the right to due process and a fair trial in violation of the Fourth, Fifth, and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, the common law and the laws of the State of New York.

At all times relevant herein, the individual defendants were acting under color of state law in the course and scope of their duties and functions as agents, servants, employees and officers of the New York City Police Department, and otherwise performed and engaged in conduct incidental to the performance of their lawful functions in the course of their duties. They were acting for and on behalf of the New York City Police Department at all times relevant herein, with the power and authority vested in them as officers, agents and employees of the New York City Police Department and incidental to the lawful pursuit of their duties as officers, employees and agents of the New York City Police Department.
13. Defendant City of New York is a municipal entity created and authorized under the laws of the State of New York. It is authorized by law to maintain a police department, which acts as its agent in the area of law enforcement and for which it is ultimately responsible. The defendant City of New York assumes the risks incidental to the maintenance of a police

STATEMENT OF FACTS

19. On April 23rd, 2020, at approximately 8:00 A.M., Plaintiff was lawfully present in his home at 390 Wadsworth Avenue in Manhattan, New York, when the defendant police officers unlawfully stopped, questioned, searched, and falsely arrested Plaintiff without probable cause or legal justification.

20. Plaintiff was at home with his mother and aunt when defendant officers knocked on the door, wearing plain clothes but identifying themselves as NYPD officers.

21. When Plaintiff came to the door, defendant officers informed him they were there to pick him up on an alleged criminal burglary charge in the Bronx and began an unlawful pat-down search of the plaintiff's person.

22. When no illegal contraband was found, Plaintiff was escorted downstairs by defendant officers.

23. It was at this point that the defendant NYPD officers began to unlawfully arrest the plaintiff, restraining him with metal handcuffs.

24. At no time relevant herein did Plaintiff commit a crime or violate the law in any way, nor did the police officers have an objective reason to accuse Plaintiff of committing a crime or violating the law in any way.

25. Nevertheless, Plaintiff was unlawfully arrested and handcuffed by defendant officers without legal justification or probable cause.

26. Plaintiff did not resist arrest.

27. The Defendant Officers then placed the Plaintiff in the back of an NYPD vehicle and transported him against his will to the 41st Precinct, where he was unlawfully fingerprinted, photographed, and placed in a holding cell.

28. After being unlawfully detained at the 41st Precinct, Plaintiff was taken to a private room for interrogation.

29. At this time, Plaintiff was told by a defendant officer they had arrested him for a burglary that had occurred at a bodega in The Bronx approximately a week prior, and then showed Plaintiff a photo of the suspect.

30. The photo of the suspect was from video surveillance, and it was clearly not the Plaintiff.

31. Defendant Kaloudakis claimed that he personally recognized the photo from the video surveillance as matching the Plaintiff.

32. Only Defendant Kaloudakis accused Plaintiff of this crime, no one else.

33. Plaintiff maintained that he did not commit this crime, it was not him in the photo, and in fact he had not even been to The Bronx in years; Plaintiff was never part of a lineup, was never asked to volunteer a DNA sample, and was never made aware of any eyewitness evidence against him.

34. Nevertheless, Plaintiff was taken to Central Bookings where he was detained overnight.

35. The defendant police officers provided the Bronx County District Attorney's Office with the false, misleading and/or incomplete information that Plaintiff committed a crime.

36. Specifically, the defendant police officers falsely stated to the Bronx County District Attorney's Office that the plaintiff was guilty of Burglary in the Third Degree.

37. On April 24, 2020, Plaintiff was arraigned and released on his own recognizance after approximately 40 hours in custody.

38. DNA was left at the crime scene at the bodega, which was tested by the Bronx District Attorneys Office.

39. Plaintiff voluntarily gave his DNA to the Defendants, and the DNA was not a match, and excluded Plaintiff as a contributor.

40. On November 19, 2020, all criminal charges were dismissed and sealed by motion of the Bronx District Attorneys office.

41. Some of the police officer defendants observed the violation of Plaintiff's rights under the Constitution of the United States and New York State Law and did nothing to prevent their fellow officers from unjustifiably searching, seizing, using excessive force, falsely arresting and imprisoning, humiliating, and denying Plaintiff the right to due process and a fair trial.

42. The unlawful search, seizure, use of excessive force, false arrest and imprisonment, and denial of Plaintiff's right to a fair trial by the individually named defendants caused Plaintiff to sustain physical, psychological and emotional trauma.
