JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

Defendant.

----- X

Plaintiff, Khiry Bennett, by his attorneys, Caitlin Robin & Associates, PLLC, as and for his Verified Complaint herein, alleges upon information and belief as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. This is a civil rights action to recover money damages arising out of defendants' violation of plaintiff's rights as secured by the Civil Rights Act, 42 U.S.C. Section 1983, and of rights secured by the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution. On May 30, 2020, at approximately 11 P.M. in the vicinity of 234 West 114th Street, County of New York, State of New York, the Plaintiff was arrested without probable cause by Police Officer Mark Hummel, Shield # 23029, Police Officer Walter Mancilla, Shield # 26247, Sergeant Francisco Garcia, Shield # 4765 of the 28th Precinct, along with multiple other John and Jane Doe NYPD Police Officers and Sergeants. On this date and time, the NYPD officers unlawfully stopped and searched Claimant without probable cause. The NYPD officers then handcuffed and unlawfully arrested claimant for no valid reason. The Officers also pushed, punched, and kicked Claimant causing physical injury. The Officers then falsely charged Claimant with Obstructing Governmental Administration in the absence of probable cause. Plaintiff spent approximately 48 hours unlawfully in police custody. All charges were dismissed and sealed against Plaintiff. Thereafter, the defendant police officers denied plaintiff the right to a fair trial by forwarding false information to the District Attorney's Office. Plaintiff was deprived of his constitutional rights when the individual defendants unlawfully stopped, questioned, frisked, searched, unlawfully arrested, used excessive force, and denied the plaintiff the right to a fair trial in violation of the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution and in violation of New York State Law.

VENUE

2. Venue is proper before this Court because the police misconduct and civil rights violations giving rise to this action occurred in Kings County.

PARTIES

3. Plaintiff KHIRY BENNETT is a resident of the State of New York.

4. POLICE OFFICER MARK HUMMEL, Shield # 23029, is and was at all times relevant herein, an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.

5. On the date of the subject incident, POLICE OFFICER MARK HUMMEL, Shield # 23029, was assigned to the 28th Precinct.

6. POLICE OFFICER MARK HUMMEL, Shield # 23029, is being sued in his individual and official capacities.

7. POLICE OFFICER WALTER MANCILLA, Shield # 26247, is and was at all times relevant herein, an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.

8. On the date of the subject incident, POLICE OFFICER WALTER MANCILLA, Shield # 26247, was assigned to the 28th Precinct.

9. POLICE OFFICER WALTER MANCILLA, Shield # 26247, is being sued in his individual and official capacities.

10. SERGEANT FRANCISCO GARCIA, Shield # 4765, is and was at all times relevant herein, an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.

11. On the date of the subject incident, SERGEANT FRANCISCO GARCIA, Shield # 4765, was assigned to the 28th Precinct.

12. SERGEANT FRANCISCO GARCIA, Shield # 4765 is being sued in his individual and official capacities.

13. POLICE OFFICER JOHN AND JANE DOE 1-10, is and was at all times relevant herein, an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.

14. On the date of the subject incident, POLICE OFFICER JOHN AND JANE DOE 1-10, was assigned to the 28th Precinct.

15. POLICE OFFICER JOHN AND JANE DOE 1-10, is being sued in his individual and official capacities.

16. At all times relevant herein, the individual defendants were acting under color of state law in the course and scope of their duties and functions as agents, servants, employees and officers of the New York City Police Department, and otherwise performed and engaged in conduct incidental to the performance of their lawful functions in the course of their duties. They were acting for and on behalf of the New York City Police Department at all times relevant herein, with the power and authority vested in them as officers, agents and employees of the New York City Police Department and incidental to the lawful pursuit of their duties as officers, employees and agents of the New York City Police Department.

17. Defendant City of New York is a municipal entity created and authorized under the laws of the State of New York. It is authorized by law to maintain a police department, which acts as its agent in the area of law enforcement and for which it is ultimately responsible. The defendant City of New York assumes the risks incidental to the maintenance of a police force and the employment of police officers as said risks attach to the public consumers of the services provided by the New York City Police Department.

18. Plaintiff in furtherance of his causes of action brought pursuant to New York State law filed a timely Notice of Claim against the CITY OF NEW YORK in compliance with the Municipal Law Section 50 and in accordance with New York State law.

19. In accordance with New York State law and General Municipal Law Section 50, plaintiff testified at a hearing held pursuant to General Municipal Law Section 50-H on December 15, 2020.

20. More than thirty (30) days have elapsed since service of said Notice of Claim was filed and THE CITY OF NEW YORK has failed to pay or adjust the claims.

21. This action falls within one or more of the exceptions as set forth in CPLR Section 1602, involving intentional actions, as well as the defendant, and/or defendants, having acted in reckless disregard for the safety of others, as well as having performed intentional acts.

22. Plaintiff has sustained damages in an amount in excess of the jurisdictional limits of all the lower Courts of the State of New York.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

23. On May 30, 2020, at approximately 11:00 p.m., plaintiff was lawfully standing in the vicinity of 234 West 114th Street in New York, New York when the defendant police officers unlawfully approached plaintiff without reasonable suspicion or probable cause.

24. Plaintiff was attending a peaceful memorial for his friend when dozens of NYPD officers showed up.

25. Suddenly, without any provocation or legal justification, the defendant police officers forcibly grabbed plaintiff and threw him down to the ground and began pushing, punching, and kicking the plaintiff in the body causing plaintiff to suffer serious physical causing plaintiff to suffer injuries to face, head, eyes, body, legs, and knees.

26. At no time prior to being stopped by the officers did plaintiff commit a crime or behave in a manner that gave the police officers a reasonable and objective basis to believe he had committed or was committing a crime.

27. At no point in time did plaintiff resist arrest in any way.

28. Plaintiff was then searched by Defendants Officers, and no contraband was found.

29. At no point did Defendant Officers recover any drugs, weapons, or other illegal contraband from Plaintiff or from a location that was in Plaintiff's possession, custody or control.

30. The defendant police officers then unlawfully handcuffed plaintiff, forcibly lifted him off the ground, placed him in the back seat of the police vehicle, and began to transport him to the 28th precinct.

31. At the 28th precinct, plaintiff was fingerprinted, photographed, and unlawfully detained in a holding cell.

32. The defendant police officers provided the District Attorney's Office with the false, misleading and/or incomplete information that Plaintiff committed a crime.

33. Specifically, the defendant police officers falsely stated to the District Attorney's Office that the plaintiff was engaged in Obstructing Governmental Administration.

34. On June 1, 2020 after approximately 48 hours in unlawful custody, Plaintiff was arraigned in New York County Criminal Court, charged with crimes that the defendant officers had no basis to allege that he committed, and was released from custody.

35. On or about August 1, 2020, all criminal charges were dismissed and sealed against Plaintiff.

36. Plaintiff is still in pain and has trouble doing everyday functions because of the injuries inflicted by Defendants.

37. As a result of the injuries inflicted by the defendant police officers, plaintiff was unable to work at his job during for two weeks because of the injuries he sustained to his body.

38. Some of the police officer defendants observed the violation of plaintiff's rights under the Constitution of the United States and New York State Law and did nothing to prevent the unjustifiable stop, question, frisk, search, seizure, false arrest, denial of fair trial, and excessive force used against plaintiff.

39. The unlawful stop, question, frisk, search, false arrest, false imprisonment, unlawful seizure, denial of fair trial, and excessive force against plaintiff by the individually named defendants caused plaintiff to sustain physical, psychological and emotional trauma.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Plaintiff's Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment Rights

40. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 39 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

41. The individually named police officer defendants, while acting in concert and within the scope of their authority, caused Plaintiff to be seized, unlawfully searched, falsely arrested, and falsely imprisoned, and maliciously prosecuted without reasonable suspicion and/or probable cause, in violation of Plaintiff's right to be free of an unreasonable seizure under the Fourth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

42. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional, psychological and economic injuries.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

False Arrest and False Imprisonment

43. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 42 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

44. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute false arrest and false imprisonment under the laws of the State of New York. Defendants intended to confine Plaintiff and, in fact, confined Plaintiff, and Plaintiff was conscious of the confinement. In addition, Plaintiff did not consent to the confinement and the confinement was not otherwise privileged.

45. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York and the United States Constitution.

46. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

47. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

48. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, economic, emotional, and psychological injuries.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

Unlawful Stop, Question, and Frisk

49. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 48 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

50. The illegal approach, pursuit, stop, questioning and frisk employed by defendants herein terminated Plaintiff's freedom of movement through means intentionally applied.

51. The conduct of defendants in stopping, frisking, and searching Plaintiff was performed under color of law and without any reasonable suspicion of criminality or other constitutionally required grounds.

52. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

53. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

54. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Unlawful Search

55. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 54 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

56. The illegal approach, pursuit, stop and search employed by defendants herein terminated Plaintiff's freedom of movement through means intentionally applied.

57. Defendants lacked probable cause to search Plaintiff.

58. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

59. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

60. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

61. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Plaintiff's Fifth and Fourteenth Amendment Rights

Denial of Right to Fair Trial/Due Process

62. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 61 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

63. Defendants, individually and collectively, manufactured and/or withheld false evidence and forwarded this false evidence to prosecutors in the New York County District Attorney's Office.

64. Defendants filled out false and misleading police reports and forwarded them to prosecutors in the New York County District Attorney's Office.

65. Defendants signed false and misleading criminal court affidavits and forwarded them to prosecutors in the New York County District Attorney's Office.

66. In withholding/creating false evidence against Plaintiff KHIRY BENNETT, and in providing/withholding information with respect thereto, defendants violated plaintiff's constitutional right to due process and fair trial under the New York State Constitution and under the Due Process Clause of the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States and to be free to deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution.

67. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff KHIRY BENNETT sustained, inter alia, loss of the right to due process and a fair trial, loss of liberty, emotional distress, embarrassment and humiliation, lost earnings and deprivation of his constitutional rights.

68. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

69. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

70. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligence

71. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 70 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

72. Defendants owed a duty of care to Plaintiff.

73. To the extent defendants claim that the injuries to Plaintiff by the defendant police officers was unintentionally caused and that the force used by the defendants against him was unintentional, then the defendants breached that duty of care pushing, punching, and smashing his body into the ground.

74. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

75. All of the foregoing occurred without any fault or provocation by Plaintiff.

76. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

77. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

78. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Plaintiff's Fourth And Fourteenth Amendment Rights

79. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 78 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

80. The use of excessive force by defendants by, amongst other things, by pushing him, tightly handcuffing him, constituted objectively unreasonable physical seizures of Plaintiff in violation of his rights under the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

81. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of his employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Assault

82. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 81 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

83. Defendants, their agents, servants and employees, acting within the scope of their employment, intentionally, willfully and maliciously assaulted Plaintiff in that they had the real or apparent ability to cause imminent harmful and/or offensive bodily contact and intentionally did a violent and/or menacing act which threatened such contact to the plaintiff, that such acts caused apprehension of such contact in the Plaintiff.

84. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

85. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

86. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

87. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Battery

88. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 87 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

89. Defendants, their agents, servants and employees, acting within the scope of their employment, intentionally, willfully and maliciously battered Plaintiff, when they, in a hostile and/or offensive manner tackled Plaintiff to the ground and repeatedly punched him, with the intention of causing harmful and/or offensive bodily contact to the Plaintiff and caused such battery.

90. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

91. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

92. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

93. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional, and psychological injuries.

TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Malicious Prosecution

94. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 93 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

95. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute malicious prosecution under the laws of the State of New York and New York State common law.

96. Defendants commenced and continued a criminal proceeding against Plaintiff.

97. There was actual malice and an absence of probable cause for the criminal proceeding against Plaintiff and for the charges for which they were prosecuted.

98. The prosecution and criminal proceedings terminated in Plaintiff's favor on the aforementioned dates.

99. Plaintiff was subjected to a post-arraignment deprivation of liberty sufficient to implicate Plaintiff's Fourth Amendment rights.

100. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York and the United States Constitution.

101. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

102. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

ELEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION
Negligent Infliction of Emotional Distress

103. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 102 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

104. By the actions described herein, defendants, each acting individually and in concert with each other, engaged in extreme and outrageous conduct, conduct utterly intolerable in a civilized community, which negligently caused severe emotional distress to Plaintiff, KHIRY BENNETT. The acts and conduct of the defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to Plaintiff and violated Plaintiff's statutory and common law rights as guaranteed by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.

105. The acts and conduct of the defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to Plaintiff and violated Plaintiff's statutory and common law rights as guaranteed Plaintiff by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.

106. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

107. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

108. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

109. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

TWELFTH CAUSE OF ACTION
Negligent Hiring, Retention, Training and Supervision

110. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 109 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

111. The City of New York and its employees, servants and/or agents acting within the scope of their employment did negligently hire, retain, train and supervise defendants, individuals who were unfit for the performance of police duties on the aforementioned dates at the aforementioned locations.

112. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional, and psychological injuries.

THIRTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Intervene

113. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 112 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

114. The defendants that did not physically touch Plaintiff, but were present when other officers violated Plaintiff's Constitutional Rights had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of Plaintiff, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other officers.

115. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein.

116. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff's liberty was restricted for an extended period of time, he was put in fear of his safety, and he was humiliated and subject to other physical constraints.

117. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

118. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

119. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

120. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

JURY DEMAND

117. Plaintiff hereby demands trial by jury of all issues properly triable thereby.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, plaintiff KHIRY BENNETT demands judgment against the defendants on each cause of action in amounts to be determined upon the trial of this action which exceeds the jurisdiction of lower courts, inclusive of punitive damages and attorneys' fees inclusive of costs and disbursements of this action, interest and such other relief as is appropriate under the law. That the plaintiff recover the cost of the suit herein, including reasonable attorney's fees pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1988.
