22. Plaintiff was attending a peaceful memorial for his friend when dozens of NYPD officers showed up.

23. Defendant Officers pushed Plaintiff to the ground, for absolutely no reason.

26. The Defendants beat Plaintiff so badly that he lost consciousness and had to be removed by ambulance to Harlem Hospital to be treated for his injuries.

27. Plaintiff was placed in handcuffs while unconscious on the ground, bleeding, and injured.

28. The entire incident was caught on video surveillance.

29. At no time relevant herein did Plaintiff commit a crime or violate the law in any way, nor did the police officers have an objective reason to accuse Plaintiff of committing a crime or violating the law in any way.
