AS AND FOR A FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION
(FALSE ARREST)

1. The Plaintiff, SHIQUAWN BOWMAN, at all times herein mentioned was and is a resident of the County of Kings in the State of New York.
2. At all times herein mentioned, defendant THE CITY OF NEW YORK (hereinafter the "CITY"), was and still is a municipal corporation, created, organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of New York.
3. That at all times mentioned herein, defendant CITY operated, maintained, managed, and controlled the Police Department of the City of New York.
4. That the Police Department of the City of New York is an agency, instrumentality, department of defendant CITY, and/or defendant CITY derived benefit from the activities of the Police Department of the City of New York.

5. At all times herein mentioned the defendant, P.O. "JOHN" ALEXANDER, first name being fictitious and unknown to the Plaintiff (hereinafter "ALEXANDER"), was employed by the Police Department of the City of New York as a police officer.

6. That at all times mentioned herein, defendant P.O. ALEXANDER was acting within the scope of his employment as a police officer employed by the Police Department of the City of New York.

7. That at all times mentioned herein, defendant P.O. ALEXANDER was acting under color of law and authority as a police officer employed by the Police Department of the City of New York.

8. At all times herein mentioned the defendant, P.O. "JOHN DOE," first and last names being fictitious and unknown to the Plaintiff was employed by the Police Department of the City of New York as a police officer.

9. That at all times mentioned herein, defendant P.O. "JOHN DOE," first and last names being fictitious and unknown to the Plaintiff was acting within the scope of his employment as a police officer employed by the Police Department of the City of New York.

10. That at all times mentioned herein, defendant P.O. "JOHN DOE," first and last names being fictitious and unknown to the Plaintiff, was acting under color of law and authority as a police officer employed by the Police Department of the City of New York.

11. That the District Attorney is a policymaker of and for the CITY regarding the management, supervision, and training of Assistant District Attorneys in the Office of the District Attorney for the County of Kings, State of New York.

12. That the DA and/or the CITY effectively promulgated policy, practices and/or customs, amounting to the deliberate indifference to, and impacting upon, the Plaintiffs' civil rights, including but not limited to, those guaranteed by the Federal and State Constitutions, within the County of Kings.

13. That said policy, practices, and/or customs, include stopping, frisking and detaining individuals, especially those of the Plaintiff's ethnic background, without probable cause, the use of excessive and unreasonable force, the fabrication of criminal complaints, the coercion and manipulation of witnesses, the arrest and detention of individuals known to have not committed any criminal wrong doing, and a failure to properly instruct, train and/or supervise employees, including P.O. ALEXANDER, and P.O. "JOHN DOE," first and last names being fictitious and unknown to the Plaintiff, and others involved in the investigation and prosecution of Plaintiff in the underlying criminal action that is the subject hereof.

14. That the DA, and the CITY, perpetuated, or failed to take steps to terminate, said policy, practices and/or customs, did not discipline or otherwise properly supervise the individual personnel who were allowed to and did engage in them, did not effectively instruct, train and/or supervise such personnel, including individual police officers and Asst. District Attorneys, with regard to the proper constitutional and statutory requirements in the exercise of their authority, but instead ignored, condoned and/or sanctioned the offending policies, practices and/or customs with a deliberate indifference to their effect on the individual constitutional rights of the Plaintiff and persons similarly situated.

15. That according to the New York City Department of Investigation, Office of the Inspector General for the NYPD, the NYPD has maintained and continues to maintain a policy of allowing and condoning misconduct by its officers and, in particular, the violation of the civil rights of civilians and the use and application of excessive force in making arrests. See OIG-NYPD, Police Use of Force in New York City: Findings and Recommendations on NYPD's Policies and Practices, Oct. 1, 2015. Further, OIG-NYPD has specifically found that the NYPD maintains a policy of failing to discipline officers for misconduct including, but not limited to, the violation of the civil rights of civilians and/or the use of excessive force in making arrests. Id. In fact, in a sampling of 92 substantiated cases of misconduct, the NYPD departed downward from the CCRB's disciplinary recommendations - or imposed no disciplinary action whatsoever approximately 67.4% of the time. Id. Further, OIG-NYPD concluded that the NYPD as a matter of policy fails to discipline its officers even where they are provided with evidence of misconduct and, in particular, the violation of the civil rights of civilians. Id.

16. In addition, on information and belief, the Defendants have allowed, condoned, and are deliberately indifferent to, a culture of misconduct at the 67th Precinct whereby police officers fabricate acts of criminal conduct against civilians to allow them to make arrests to meet arrest targets and/or quotas.

17. That the Plaintiff has served notice, in accordance with applicable statutes, on the Defendants and that at least 30 days have elapsed since the service of such notice and that adjustment or payment thereof has been neglected or refused.

18. That the Plaintiff has fully complied with defendants demand for examination or that said demand has been otherwise waived.

19. That their action is being commenced within one year and ninety days after the happening of the event upon which the claim is based.

20. On or about June 18, 2015, Plaintiff was unlawfully stopped, assaulted, frisked, handcuffed, detained, arrested and imprisoned by agents, servants and/or employees of defendant CITY including Defendants P.O. ALEXANDER.

21. That the aforesaid arrest and imprisonment was malicious, unlawful and not based upon a warrant, probable cause, and/or any other justification, and was therefore a false arrest and imprisonment.

22. That defendant CITY, through its agents, servants and/or employees, including defendant P.O. ALEXANDER, acted in bad faith and without probable cause in committing the aforesaid arrest and imprisonment of the Plaintiff.

23. On information and belief, that the conduct of the defendant CITY's agents, servants and/or employees, in the New York City Police Department, including P.O. ALEXANDER, in investigating the criminal allegations made against the Plaintiff did deviate so egregiously from acceptable police activity as to demonstrate an intentional or reckless disregard for proper police procedure.

24. On information and belief, the defendant CITY's agents, servants and/or employees, in the New York City Police Department, including defendant P.O. ALEXANDER, in investigating the criminal allegations made against the Plaintiff did fail to make further inquiry into the allegations set forth against the Plaintiff although a reasonable person would have done so and thereby established a lack of probable cause against the Plaintiff.

25. At the time of their unlawful arrest and imprisonment, the Plaintiff had not committed or attempted to commit any illegal act.

26. At the time of the Plaintiff's unlawful arrest and imprisonment, the defendants knew or should have known, through the exercise of proper procedure and reasonable investigation, that the aforementioned arrest and imprisonment was false and without probable cause.

27. That the aforesaid arrest and imprisonment was made with knowledge of and/or negligent and/or reckless disregard of the material falseness of the criminal complaint(s).

28. The aforesaid false arrest and imprisonment caused Plaintiff to suffer severe physical injuries, emotional and psychological distress, anguish, anxiety, fear, humiliation, loss of freedom, loss of wages, legal expenses, and damage to their reputation.

29. The defendants' conduct was willful, wanton, reckless, malicious and/or exhibited a gross indifference to, and a callous disregard for human life, safety and the rights of others, and more particularly, the rights, life and safety of the Plaintiff, and was motivated by consideration of profit, financial advantage, monetary gain, economic aggrandizement and/or cost avoidance, to the virtual exclusion of all other considerations.

30. Due to defendants' negligence, Plaintiff is entitled to damages and punitive damages in a sum which exceeds the jurisdictional limit of all lower Courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction.

AS AND FOR A SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION (MALICIOUS PROSECUTION)

31. Plaintiff repeats and reiterates the allegations contained in the paragraphs numbered above as if fully set forth herein.

32. The Defendants intentionally, knowingly, recklessly, negligently and with malice caused the commencement of a criminal prosecution against the Plaintiff in the Criminal Court of the City of New York, County of Kings, upon the filing of an accusatory instrument without probable cause, under Arr. No. K156455002. Said malicious prosecution continued until July 31, 2015, when the matter was dismissed by the District Attorney's office.

33. In commencing and continuing the said malicious prosecution, defendants caused the Plaintiff to be falsely charged with acts in violation of the Penal Law of the State of New York.

34. The Plaintiff had not committed or attempted to commit any illegal act(s).

35. The Plaintiff had not given defendant CITY, its agents, servants and/or employees, including defendants P.O. ALEXANDER, probable cause to believe that he had committed the falsely charged illegal acts.

36. The Defendants knew, or should have known through the exercise of reasonable care and proper police procedure, that the said investigation into this matter was flawed and incomplete.

37. That the Defendants maliciously, knowingly, and intentionally caused and were otherwise deliberately indifferent to, the presentation of materially false testimony and evidence which resulted in the criminal complaint(s) being filed against the Plaintiff.

38. The defendant CITY, its agents, servants and/or employees, including defendants P.O. ALEXANDER, wilfully, negligently and wrongfully accused the Plaintiff of having committed acts in violation of the Penal Law of the State of New York.

39. The defendant CITY, its agents, servants and/or employees, including defendants P.O. ALEXANDER, wilfully, negligently and wrongfully continued to prosecute the Plaintiff for alleged violations of the Penal Law of the State of New York, even though the defendants knew or should have known of facts and circumstances that would have lead a reasonable person to conclude that the criminal complaint, upon which said criminal prosecution was based, contained material falsehoods and was otherwise improper, and that the continued prosecution of the Plaintiff was, therefore, improper under the circumstances.

40. That, on information and belief, the Defendants did negligently, willfully and maliciously fabricate inculpatory evidence and withhold exculpatory evidence and did manipulate, intimidate, and/or coerce witnesses to improperly implicate the Plaintiff in the underlying criminal action.

41. That, on information and belief, the Defendants did negligently, willfully and maliciously fabricate official records and documents, and did wrongfully file the same to cause, and in support of, the arrest and prosecution of the Plaintiff.

42. That the DA and/or the CITY effectively promulgated policy, practices and/or customs, amounting to the deliberate indifference to, and impacting upon, the Plaintiff's civil rights, including but not limited to, those guaranteed by the Federal and State Constitutions, within the County of Kings, and said policies include, but are not limited to, the withholding of exculpatory evidence by ADAs and employees and members of the New York City Police Department, stopping, frisking, handcuffing and detaining individuals, especially those of the Plaintiff's ethnic background, without probable cause, the use of excessive and unreasonable force, the fabrication of criminal complaints, the arrest and detention of individuals known to have not committed any criminal wrong doing, the manipulation, coercion and intimidation of witnesses and the countenance of acts of misbehavior by employees and members of the New York City Police Department and the Office of District Attorney, Kings County, including the violation of the civil rights of the Plaintiff and persons similarly situated, and the failure to properly instruct, train and/or supervise employees, including defendants P.O. ALEXANDER, and others involved in the investigation and prosecution of Plaintiff in the underlying criminal action that is the subject hereof.

43. That the DA and/or the CITY effectively promulgated policy, practices and/or customs, amounting to the deliberate indifference to, and impacting upon, the Plaintiff's civil rights, including but not limited to, those guaranteed by the Federal and State Constitutions, within the County of Kings, and said policies include, but are not limited to, the filing of knowingly false and/or fabricated criminal complaints by ADAs and/or employees and members of the New York City Police Department, to allow members of the New York City Police Department to meet arrest targets and quotas.

44. That the DA, and the CITY, perpetuated, or failed to take steps to terminate, said policy, practices and/or customs, did not discipline or otherwise properly supervise their personnel who were allowed to and did engage in them, did not effectively instruct, train and/or supervise such personnel, including defendants P.O. ALEXANDER with regard to the proper constitutional and statutory requirements in the exercise of their authority, but instead sanctioned the offending policies, practices and/or customs with a deliberate indifference to their effect on the individual constitutional rights of the Plaintiffs and persons similarly situated.

45. As a result of the malicious prosecution, the Plaintiff was caused to suffer and continue to suffer severe emotional and psychological distress, anguish, anxiety, fear, humiliation, loss of wages, legal expenses and damage to their reputations.

46. The defendants' conduct was willful, wanton, reckless, malicious and/or exhibited a gross indifference to, and a callous disregard for human life, safety and the rights of others, and more particularly, the rights, life and safety of the Plaintiff; and was motivated by consideration of profit, financial advantage, monetary gain, economic aggrandizement and/or cost avoidance, to the virtual exclusion of all other considerations.

47. Due to defendants' negligence, the Plaintiff is entitled to damages and punitive damages in a sum which exceeds the jurisdictional limit of all lower Courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction.

AS AND FOR A THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

50. Defendants acted with the desire and intent to cause Plaintiff emotional distress or acted under circumstances known to them which made it substantially certain that they would cause such emotional distress.

51. Defendants intentionally, knowingly, wilfully, recklessly, negligently and wrongfully caused Plaintiffs emotional distress or acted under circumstances known to them which made it substantially certain that they would cause such emotional distress.

52. Defendants acted with utter disregard of the consequences of their actions.

53. As a result, Plaintiff was caused to suffer the infliction of emotional distress.

54. The Defendants' conduct was willful, wanton, reckless, malicious and/or exhibited a gross indifference to, and a callous disregard for human life, safety and the rights of others, and more particularly, the rights, life and safety of the Plaintiff; and was motivated by consideration of profit, financial advantage, monetary gain, economic aggrandizement and/or cost avoidance, to the virtual exclusion of all other considerations.

55. Due to defendants' negligence, the Plaintiff is entitled to damages and punitive damages in a sum which exceeds the jurisdictional limit of all lower Courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction.

62. That the defendants, their agents, servants, and/or employees were otherwise, and in general, careless, reckless and negligent under the circumstances existing as previously described.

63. All of the causes of action of their complaint are specifically excepted under C.P.L.R. § 1602.
