Plaintiff,

VERIFIED COMPLAINT

Index No.

CITY OF NEW YORK, MATTHEW FLYNN, AND
JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10,

Defendants.

-----X

Plaintiff, MATTHEW FLYNN, by and through the undersigned attorneys, Sim & DePaola, LLP, for his complaint against Defendants, CITY OF NEW YORK, MATTHEW FLYNN, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, alleges and states as follows:

1. This is a civil rights action, in which Plaintiff seeks relief and redress against defendants, vis-à-vis sections 1981, 1983, 1985, 1986 and 1988 of Title 42 to the Code of Laws of the United States, for the violations of his civil rights under the First, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States, the constitution of the State of New York, in addition to the laws of the City and State of New York.

2. The following claims arise from an incident that occurred on December 3, 2019, in which defendants, acting under color of state law, unlawfully stopped, searched and seized, battered and assaulted, detained, arrested Plaintiff in the vicinity of 375 Blake Avenue, within the County of Kings, City and State of New York. Plaintiff was subsequently held and illegally detained in police custody at the 69th Precinct he was transported against his will to Central Booking where he was further illegally detained until his release from physical custody after his criminal court arraignment. As a result, Plaintiff was deprived of his liberty and suffered various physical, emotional and psychological injuries. Plaintiff was wrongfully detained over the course of approximately two (2) days. Plaintiff was maliciously prosecuted and denied due process of law, until all adverse charges were dismissed and sealed pursuant to § 160.50 of New York Criminal Procedure Law on or about January 1, 2020.

3. At all times here mentioned, Defendants were acting under color of state law, to wit, under color of the statutes, ordinances, regulations, policies, customs and usages of the City and State of New York.

4. Within ninety (90) days of the accrual dates of the state law claims herein, Plaintiff served the New York City Comptroller's Office with written notice of said claims.

5. More than thirty (30) days have elapsed since the service of said notice, and this matter has not been settled or otherwise disposed of.

6. Plaintiff has complied with the municipal Defendant's demand for an oral examination, pursuant to section 50-h of the General Municipal Law or no such demand has been noticed within the time permitted by law.

7. This action and associated claims have been timely commenced within three years after the occurrences upon which they are based.

8. Plaintiff seeks monetary damages (compensatory and punitive) against Defendants, an award of costs and reasonable attorneys' fees, and such other or further relief as this Court may deem just and proper.

PARTIES

9. Plaintiff, DARRIAN DELOACH ("Plaintiff"), is an adult African American or black male, who resides in Brooklyn, New York.

10. Defendant, CITY OF NEW YORK ("CITY"), is a municipal corporation organized under the laws of the State of New York.

11. At all times relevant hereto, Defendant CITY, acting through the New York City Police Department (“NYPD”), was responsible for the policy, practice, supervision, implementation, and conduct of all NYPD matters and was responsible for the appointment, training, supervision, discipline and retention and conduct of all NYPD personnel, including police officers, detectives, and supervisory officers, including the individually named Defendants herein.

12. In addition, at all times here relevant, Defendant CITY was responsible for enforcing the rules of the NYPD, and for ensuring that the NYPD personnel, including the individually named defendants herein, obey the laws of the United States, as well as the City and State of New York.

13. At all relevant times, Defendant MATTHEW FLYNN (“FLYNN”) was a police officer, detective, sergeant, supervisor, policymaker or official employed by the NYPD under Shield No. 3385. At this time, Plaintiff is unaware of said Defendant’s Tax Id No. as such knowledge is within the exclusive possession of defendants. Defendant FLYNN is currently assigned to the NYPD 69th Precinct as a Sergeant. Defendant FLYNN is being sued in his individual and official capacities.

14. At all relevant times, Defendants, JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, were police officers, detectives, supervisors, policymakers or officials employed by the NYPD. At this time, Plaintiff is not aware of the true names, tax registry numbers, and shield numbers of JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, as such knowledge is within the exclusive possession of defendants.

15. At all relevant times herein, Defendants, JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, were acting as agents, servants and employees of the City of New York or the NYPD. Defendants, JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, are being sued in their individual and official capacities.

16. At all relevant times herein, Defendants, including JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10 were acting under color of state law, to wit, under color of the statutes, ordinances, regulations, policies, customs and usages of the City and State of New York.

FACTUAL CHARGES

17. On December 3, 2019, at approximately 11:00 p.m., in the vicinity of 375 Blake Avenue, within the County of Kings, City and State of New York, County of Kings, City and State of New York. Plaintiff was unlawfully stopped, seized and searched, battered and assaulted, detained, and arrested by, or at the direction of, Defendants, including FLYNN and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10.

18. On said date and time, Plaintiff was lawfully present outside his residence after taking a short walk to cool down after a non-violent argument with his girlfriend in the vicinity of this complained-of-incident.

19. On said date and time, Defendants, including FLYNN and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, arrived in the vicinity of this complained-of-incident, and then illegally approached, stopped, and questioned Plaintiff without probable cause, reasonable suspicion, valid search or arrest warrant, or any legal justification whatsoever as to the commission of unlawful conduct on the part of Plaintiff.

20. Plaintiff then explained to Defendants, including FLYNN and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, that was not in possession of his keys and was locked out of his apartment, and said Defendants then knocked on the door to his residence.

21. After the door opened and before Plaintiff could enter his residence, Defendants, including FLYNN and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, then accused Plaintiff of a criminal offense, unlawfully seized and assaulted and battered him when they suddenly and forcibly grabbed Plaintiff's person with their outstretched hands, pushed him back to prevent him from entering the apartment, then punched him in the face with their closed, hardened fists while also aggressively throwing Plaintiff's person to ground, without probable cause, reasonable suspicion, a valid search or arrest warrant, any circumstances warranting tactical force, or any legal justification whatsoever.

22. Defendants, including FLYNN and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, then continued to batter and assault Plaintiff's person by forcibly holding him down against the ground in the fetal position and shoving the weight of their knees upon his ribs, without probable cause, reasonable suspicion, a valid search or arrest warrant, any circumstances warranting tactical force, or any legal justification whatsoever.

23. During the above conduct by Defendants, including FLYNN and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, Plaintiff's girlfriend pleaded with them to be stop and be careful because Plaintiff had a medical condition but said Defendants ignored her pleas.

24. As a result of the above conduct by Defendants, including FLYNN and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, Plaintiff was caused to suffer substantial pain, bruises and scrapes to his face and arms, to come into forced contact with the ground, the aggravation of a pre-existing medical condition, an inability to breathe, shock, and extreme emotional distress.

25. Defendants, including FLYNN and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, then proceeded to physically restrain Plaintiff by grabbing him by his body and limbs, despite possessing no legal basis to do, as defendants did not possess any credible evidence against Plaintiff regarding the commission of any crime or offense.

26. Defendants, including FLYNN and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10 then began violently contorting his arms behind his back before finally affixing metal handcuffs to Plaintiff's wrists in an excessively tight fashion, which caused Plaintiff to sustain substantial physical pain and injuries to his arms, hands, and wrists.

27. Plaintiff complained to Defendants, including FLYNN and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, that the handcuffs were too tight and causing Plaintiff to suffer substantial pain but said defendants either ignored or outright refused Plaintiff's requests to loosen the handcuffs.

28. Plaintiff was then transported to and illegally detained at the 69th Precinct by Defendants, including FLYNN and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, where he was fingerprinted, photographed, searched or strip-searched, denied medical attention for injuries sustained due to said defendants, and then placed in a dank and dirty cell for approximately eight (8) hours before being transported to Central Booking where Plaintiff was again fingerprinted, photographed, searched or strip searched and illegally detained throughout various dank and dirty cells for approximately ten (10) or more hours until he was released from physical custody after his criminal court arraignment. As a result, Plaintiff was caused to be unlawfully, involuntarily, and continuously detained by Defendants, including FLYNN and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, over the course of two (2) days until his release from physical custody on or about December 4, 2019.

29. Defendants, including FLYNN and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, lacked any probable cause or reasonable suspicion to stop, seize or arrest Plaintiff, because defendants never observed Plaintiff commit any crime or violation of the law and were never informed that Plaintiff committed any crime or violation of the law.

30. Due to the lack of probable cause for the searches or seizures of Plaintiff's person or property, the aforementioned conduct constituted the completed torts of assault and battery by defendants, including FLYNN and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10.

31. Prior to Plaintiff being arraigned in criminal court, Defendants, including FLYNN and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10 signed and forwarded the criminal court complaint against Plaintiff in Kings County Criminal Court, which falsely accused Plaintiff of committing a criminal offense.

32. Defendants, including FLYNN and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, knowingly, maliciously and intentionally engaged in the fabrication of false and fictitious evidence, observations, events and occurrences, which defendants falsely attributed to Plaintiff before forwarding to prosecutors of the Kings County District Attorney's Office.

33. Defendants, including FLYNN and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10 engaged in fraud, the suppression of evidence, perjury, the gross deviation from acceptable police conduct and other conduct undertaken in bad faith, including the withholding of other video surveillance recordings, witness statements or accounts, an abject lack of inculpatory evidence, and other governmental issued forms, which all directly contradict the false allegations against him by defendants, including FLYNN and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10.

34. Plaintiff asserts that defendants, including FLYNN and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, falsely arrested, wrongfully detained and maliciously prosecuted Plaintiff with the full knowledge that he had committed no crime or violation of the law.

35. Plaintiff, therefore, asserts that due to the clear absence of any viable probable cause to warrant the initiation or continuation of his criminal prosecution, at any point, he was maliciously prosecuted and denied his rights to Fair Trial and Due Process by defendants, including FLYNN and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, who never possessed probable cause to believe that Plaintiff was guilty of any crime or offense, or that the prosecution would succeed, until the underlying criminal court proceeding under Kings County Criminal Court Docket No. CR-042600-19KN was terminated in favor of Plaintiff on or about January 1, 2020, when all adverse charges were summarily and unconditionally dismissed and sealed, upon consideration of the merits thereof, pursuant to §§ 160.50 or 160.60 of the New York Criminal Procedure Law.

36. At all times relevant hereto, the Defendants, including FLYNN and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, were involved in the decision to stop, seize, arrest and prosecute Plaintiff without reasonable suspicion or probable cause, or failed to intervene when they observed others doing so in the absence of any reasonable suspicion or probable cause.

37. At all times relevant hereto, the defendants, including FLYNN and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, subjected Plaintiff to excessive force, or failed to intervene when they observed others subjecting Plaintiff to excessive force.

38. Plaintiff asserts that the aforementioned unlawful acts committed by defendants are representative of a pervasive policy, custom or pattern and practice within the City of New York and the NYPD in particular.

39. Defendants, including FLYNN and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, subjected Plaintiff to disparate treatment compared to other individuals similarly situated, because defendants did not stop, accuse, search, seize, arrest or cause criminal prosecutions to be initiated against any accused persons, who were engaged in activity identical or substantially similar to the kind that resulted in the illegal search, seizure, detention, and prosecution of Plaintiff, namely being accused of criminal offense with an abject lack of facts and circumstances establishing probable cause of such, in the vicinity of the above-referenced location at the above-referenced time, while in obedience of all local, state and federal laws.

40. Defendants, including FLYNN and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, unlawfully stopped, questioned, searched, seized, arrested, and maliciously prosecuted Plaintiff, because of their improper and pernicious desires to prevent Plaintiff from exerting his First Amendment right to engage in protected speech and activities, such as Plaintiff's right to refuse to yield to defendants' unreasonably coercive demands to utter false confessions or assist defendants in the fabrication of evidence against defendants' true suspects or other persons of interest.

41. Defendants, including FLYNN and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10 engaged in a conspiracy to falsely arrest and maliciously prosecute Plaintiff by personally conferring with each other, regarding the fabrication of the aforementioned nonexistent evidence, the suppression of exculpatory evidence, as well the manner and means by which said fabrications would be forwarded to prosecutors.

42. Plaintiff asserts that the defendants, including FLYNN and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, who violated his civil rights, are part of a larger pattern and practice of similar misconduct, which is so widespread, pervasive and consistent throughout the NYPD and the City of New York that the commission of such constitutionally violative behavior has become tantamount to an official policy or custom within the NYPD and City of New York or, at the very least, conclusive evidence that the City and the NYPD have either tacitly approved of such egregious wrongdoings or that they have become deliberately indifferent to the civil rights of those who may come into contact with their police officers, including the individually named defendants herein.

43. The individually named defendants herein, as well as other officers serving in the employ of the NYPD and City of New York, have blatantly, shamelessly, consistently and repeatedly engaged in conduct violative of the civil rights guaranteed and protected by Constitution of the United States, in addition to the laws and constitution of the State of New York, all without incurring any ramifications for such misconduct and, ostensibly, with the full and complete blessing of the NYPD, the City of New York and their respective policymakers and supervisors.

44. The New York Times, as well as numerous other reputable journalistic enterprises, have reported on the widespread corruption within the NYPD and City of New York, particularly the incredibly disconcerting proclivity of many NYPD officers to lie about subject matters that are materially relevant to criminal prosecutions, including the complete fabrication of arrest evidence and witnesses. Also detailed, is the NYPD's obstinate refusal to effectuate corrective or preventive measures to combat the inevitable recurrence of such misdeeds, and perhaps most troubling, the NYPD's alarming tendency to, instead, reward and promote these officers, including those who were inculcated via incontrovertible evidence, such as video evidence.

45. The constitutionally repugnant behavior that persists within the ranks of the NYPD results from the NYPD's own policies, rules and procedures, namely the NYPD's incredibly flawed and illegal use of arrest quotas. Despite its illegality, such policies remain systemic throughout the NYPD and its individual commands. The NYPD, however, was not content in compelling its officers to effect as many arrests as possible, regardless of the presence of any legal right to do, it promulgated various subsets of quotas, which are predicated on race, color or ethnicity. Additionally, the NYPD, its supervisors or policymakers would assign varying point values to arrests, which were, again, impermissibly based upon the arrestee's race, color or ethnicity. Unsurprisingly, officers would be better rewarded for minority arrests or summonses. This egregious conduct has reported by numerous respected media outlets and publications and has even formed the basis for federal lawsuits against the City and the NYPD, which were commenced by its own employee officers.

46. On June 17, 2020, the New York Daily News published an article, by Graham Rayman, entitled "Brooklyn Cop Claims he was Punished for not Meeting Arrest Quotas, Refusing to Take Responsibility for Controversial Arrest in which he Wasn't Involved," describing allegations from an NYPD Police Officer, Terrence Dickerson, that he was retaliated against by the NYPD for refusing to adhere to mandatory racially based arrest quotas and for his refusal to accept responsibility for a controversial and publicized arrest via the excessive force, despite the fact that he was not even at the scene.

47. On March 18, 2018, The New York Times published an explosive article, entitled “Promotions, Not Punishments for Officers Accused of Lying,” written by Joseph Goldstein. Mr. Goldstein shines a light on the multitude of flaws within the CCRB and the NYPD, highlighting the fact that the substantiation of a claim against an officer will invariably rely on the presence of incontrovertible proof against the officer. Due to the rarity availability of this type of evidence, an alarmingly small percentage of officer misconduct claims are substantiated. The CCRB is further handicapped by a terribly designed system that requires evidence of a virtually indisputable nature to substantiate any claim against an officer. The article also details the NYPD’s persistent reluctance to investigate or discipline officers who lie and even posits that this reluctance is a significant cause of the lying pandemic within the NYPD. The article references various officers and detectives who were the subject of credible accusations relating to the officers’ intentionally false statements, with some allegations coming from federal and state judges.

48. On September 12, 2019, The New York Times published another article by Joseph Goldstein, entitled “Officers Said They Smelled Pot. The Judge Called Them Liars.” Unsurprisingly, this article dealt with the unusually high frequency of officers using the odor of marijuana to excuse a search that conspicuously does not result in the recovery of any marijuana. It should not require an article in The New York Times to call attention to such patently disingenuous tactics, but has become necessary for a variety of reasons, including the NYPD’s failure to correct such behavior, the willingness of prosecutors and judges to credit the lying officers and the increasing rate of occurrence.

49. On April 24, 2019, The New York Times published an article, entitled “Detective’s Lies Sent Three People to Prison, Prosecutors Charge,” by Sean Piccolo, detailing the lies of NYPD Second Grade Detective Joseph Franco and how those lies resulted in the imprisonment of at least three innocent people. The article described how Det. Franco lied about observing drug transactions on at least three separate occasions, lies that were only uncovered through contradictory video evidence. Det. Franco's lies resulted in the innocent individuals each being sentenced to prison terms in excess of one-year.

50. Other articles include: (i) "Testilying' by Police: A Stubborn Problem.," by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, March 18, 2018; (ii) "New York Detective Charged with Faking Lineup Results," by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, February 17, 2018; (iii) "He Excelled as a Detective, Until Prosecutors Stopped Believing Him," by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, October 17, 2017; (iv) "Review Board Notes Rise in New York Police Officers' False Statement," by J. David Goodman, The New York Times, May 14, 2015; (v) "In Brooklyn Gun Cases, Suspicion Turns to the Police," by Stephanie Clifford, The New York Times, December 11, 2014; (vi) "Detective is Found Guilty of Planting Drugs," by Tim Stelloh, The New York Times, November 1, 2011; and (vii) "The Drugs? They Came from the Police," by Jim Dwyer, The New York Times, October 13, 2011.

51. The NYPD has a longstanding and ignominious record of failing to discipline its officers, or even entertaining allegations of wrongdoing against them. On June 26, 2019, The New York Times published an article, entitled "2,495 Reports of Police Bias. Not One Was Deemed Valid by the N.Y.P.D." This article reported that within the last five (5) years, almost 2,500 separate individuals have filed formal complaints with the NYPD alleging that an officer acted with bias toward them, with not a single one being substantiated by the NYPD. Such a finding is plainly incredible and obviously the result of deliberately poor or nonexistent investigatory protocols. The report further impugned the NYPD's commitment to combat the prejudices and the biases exhibited by many of its officers.

52. Upon information and belief, the NYPD, the City of New York, and their respective policymakers, officials or supervisors have imposed, tacitly approved or acquiesced to policies, customs, or patterns and practices within the NYPD that resulted in the arrest and criminal prosecution of Plaintiff without probable cause.

53. Upon information and belief, the NYPD, the City of New York, and their respective policymakers or supervisors have failed to provide adequate training regarding the identification of probable cause, reasonable suspicion or the appropriate amount of force to be used.

54. Defendants' actions with respect to the underlying arrest of Plaintiff, which occurred without even the semblance of probable cause, were so blatantly violative of Plaintiff's civil rights that the tacit approval of identical or similar acts by the policymakers or supervisors of the NYPD and the City of New York, as well as their deliberate indifference towards the rights of any individuals who may come into contact with Defendants, should be inferred, because such flagrant deprivations of constitutionally protected rights could not and would not occur without the tacit approval or deliberate indifference regarding the commission of such violations by the policymakers or supervisors of the NYPD and City of New York.

55. Upon information and belief, further details and facts, relating to the unlawful policies, customs or patterns and practices of the NYPD, City of New York and their respective policymakers, supervisors, police officers or employees, will become known after the completion of discovery, as such information is presently within the exclusive possession of Defendants, the NYPD and City of New York.

56. Upon information and belief, the personnel files, records and disciplinary histories of the officer Defendants will reveal a history of Constitutional violations indicative of defendant City's knowledge that the individual officer Defendants were unfit for employment as NYPD officers, or for employment in general, and that the probability of the individually named Defendants committing similar violations in the future was extremely high.

57. Upon information and belief, said personnel files, records and disciplinary histories will conclusively show that the City and the NYPD were fully aware of Defendants' past constitutional violations, the unacceptably high probability for the recurrence of similar transgressions, the unreasonably dangerous situations that were likely to result from their hiring or retention, as well as their unsuitability for employment as law enforcement officers, or for employment in general, and that the NYPD and City of New York failed to engage in any preventive or corrective action intended to diminish the likelihood of recurrence for such violations, which is tantamount to the City's tacit approval of such misconduct or the City's deliberate indifference towards the civil rights of those who may interact with its employees, including FLYNN and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10.

58. Upon information and belief, the NYPD and City of New York and have failed, or outright refused, to correct the individually named Defendants' predilections to engage in unconstitutional behavior or attempt to prevent the recurrence of such misconduct.

59. The aforementioned acts of defendants, including FLYNN and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10 directly or proximately resulted in the deprivation or violation of Plaintiff's civil rights, as enumerated and set forth by the First, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States, the constitution of the State of New York and the laws of the City and State of New York.

60. As direct or proximate results of said acts, Plaintiff was caused to suffer the loss of his liberty, irreparable reputational harm, the loss of earnings and potential earnings, substantial and permanent physical and psychological injuries, as well as severe and permanent emotional distress, including fear, embarrassment, humiliation, traumatization, frustration, extreme inconvenience and anxiety.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

First Amendment Retaliation Claim Under
42 U.S.C. § 1983 Against Individual Defendants

61. The above paragraphs are hereby incorporated by reference as though fully set forth.
62. Plaintiff engaged in speech and activities that were protected by the First Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.
63. Defendants committed impermissible or unlawful actions against Plaintiff that were motivated or substantially caused by Plaintiff's Constitutionally protected speech or activities, under the First Amendment.
64. Defendants' retaliatory actions against Plaintiff resulted in deprivations to his liberty and the initiation of criminal charges against him in the absence of probable cause.
65. Defendants' retaliatory actions adversely affected Plaintiff's protected speech or activities by physically or procedurally preventing him from further pursuing said protected speech or activities, or by chilling his desires to further participate or engage in such protected speech or activities.
66. Accordingly, Plaintiff's right to engage in protected speech and activities, as guaranteed and protected by the First Amendment to the Constitution of the United States, was violated by defendants.
67. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

117. Defendants intended to inflict substantial harm upon Plaintiff.

118. Defendants acted to achieve a collateral purpose, beyond or in addition to the criminal prosecution initiated and thereafter maintained against Plaintiff.

119. Defendant City, as employer of the individual Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

120. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

TWELFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Malicious Abuse of Process Under
42 U.S.C. § 1983 Against Individual Defendants

121. The above paragraphs are hereby incorporated by reference as though fully set forth.

122. Defendants arrested, detained and a caused criminal prosecution to be initiated against Plaintiff to compel the compliance or forbearance of some act.

123. Defendants had no excuse or justification to forcibly detain or initiate criminal prosecution against Plaintiff, especially in the absence of any cognizable probable cause.

124. Defendants intended to inflict substantial harm upon Plaintiff.

125. Defendants acted to achieve a collateral purpose, beyond or in addition to the criminal prosecution initiated and thereafter maintained against Plaintiff.

126. Defendants' actions therefore resulted in deprivations to Plaintiff's rights, pursuant to the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States.

127. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

THIRTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Denial of Right to Due Process Under
New York State Law

128. The above paragraphs are hereby incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

129. Defendants fabricated false evidence to be used against Plaintiff that was likely to influence a jury's decision.

130. Defendants forwarded said fabrications and false information to prosecutors.

131. Defendants' actions resulted in deprivations to the liberty and freedom of movement of Plaintiff after legal process had attached following his arraignment in criminal court.

132. Accordingly, defendants violated Plaintiff's right to Due Process, pursuant to Article I, sections 1, 2 & 6, of the constitution of the State of New York, and Article II, Section 12, of the New York Civil Rights Law.

133. Defendant City, as employer of the individual Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

134. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

FOURTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Denial of Rights to Fair Trial & Due Process Under

42 U.S.C. § 1983 Against Individual Defendants

135. The above paragraphs are hereby incorporated by reference as though fully set forth.

136. Defendants engaged in the fabrication of evidence likely to influence a jury's decision.

137. Defendants forwarded said fabrications and false information to prosecutors.

138. Defendants' actions resulted in deprivations to the liberty and freedom of movement of Plaintiff after legal process had attached following his arraignment in criminal court.

139. Accordingly, defendants violated Plaintiff's rights, pursuant to the Fourth, Fifth, Sixth and Fourteenth Amendments to Constitution of the United States.

140. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

FIFTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTIONViolation of Victims of Violent Crime Protection Act Under
New York City Law

141. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

142. Defendants' acts or series of acts constituted the commission of a misdemeanor or felony against Plaintiff, as defined in state or federal law, which presented a serious risk of physical injury to Plaintiff, regardless of whether said acts actually resulted in criminal charges, prosecutions or convictions.

143. Accordingly, defendants committed crimes of violence against Plaintiff and violated Plaintiff's rights, pursuant to section 10-403 of the Administrative Code of the City of New York.

144. Defendant City, as employer of the individual Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

145. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

SIXTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Conspiracy to Interfere with Civil Rights & Failure to Prevent the Conspiracy Under 42 U.S.C. §§ 1983, 1985 & 1986 Against Individual Defendants

146. The above paragraphs are hereby incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

147. Defendants engaged in a conspiracy against Plaintiff to deprive him of his rights to engage in protected speech or activities, to be free from unreasonable searches and seizures, to be afforded a fair trial, and to not be deprived of their liberty or property without Due Process of Law, in addition to Plaintiff's Constitutionally guaranteed privileges and immunities under the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States.

148. Defendants committed overt acts in furtherance of their conspiracy against Plaintiff.

149. As a result, Plaintiff sustained injuries to his person, was deprived of his liberty, rights or privileges as a citizen of the United States.

150. Defendants' conspiracy was motivated by a desire to deprive Plaintiff of his civil rights or because of some racial or otherwise class-based, invidious or discriminatory animus.

151. The Defendants that did not engage or participate in the conspiracy to interfere with Plaintiff's civil rights, had knowledge that acts in furtherance of the conspiracy were about to be committed or in the process of being committed, possessed the power to prevent or aid in the prevention of the conspiratorial objective, and neglected to do so.

152. Accordingly, defendants violated Plaintiff's rights, pursuant to the First, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States.

153. Defendant City, as employer of the individual Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

154. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

SEVENTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Intervene Under
New York State Law

155. The above paragraphs are hereby incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

156. Those Defendants that were present but did not actively participate in the aforementioned unlawful conduct, observed such conduct, had an opportunity to prevent such conduct, had a duty to intervene and prevent such conduct, and failed to intervene.

157. Defendant City, as employer of the individual Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

158. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

EIGHTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Intervene Under
42 U.S.C. § 1983 Against Individual Defendants

159. The above paragraphs are hereby incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

160. Those Defendants that were present but did not actively participate in the aforementioned unlawful conduct observed such conduct, had an opportunity to prevent such conduct, had a duty to intervene and prevent such conduct, and failed to intervene.

161. Accordingly, the Defendants who failed to intervene violated the First, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States.

162. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

NINETEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligent Hiring, Training, Retention & Supervision Under
New York State Law

163. The above paragraphs are hereby incorporated by reference as though fully set forth.

164. Defendant City owed a duty of care to Plaintiff to adequately hire, train, retain and supervise its employee defendants.

165. Defendant City breached those duties of care.

166. Defendant City placed the individually named defendants herein in a position where they could inflict foreseeable harm.

167. Defendant City knew or should have known of the individual named defendants' propensities for violating the individual civil rights of those they interacted with prior to the injuries incurred by Plaintiff.

168. Defendant City failed to take reasonable measures in hiring, training, retaining or supervising the individually named defendants, which would have prevented or mitigated the aforesaid injuries suffered by Plaintiff.

169. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

TWENTIETH CAUSE OF ACTION

Municipal "Monell" Liability Under
42 U.S.C. § 1983 Against Defendant City

170. The above paragraphs are hereby incorporated by reference as though fully set forth.

171. Defendant City maintained a policy or custom that caused Plaintiff to be deprived of their civil rights, tacitly approved of such violative conduct or was deliberately indifferent toward the potential exposure of those who may interact with the individually named defendants to such Constitutionally repugnant behavior, such as Plaintiff.

172. Defendant City's employee police officers have engaged in an illegal pattern and practice of misconduct, so consistent and widespread that it constitutes a custom or usage, of which a supervisor or policymaker must have been aware of.

173. Defendant City and its policymakers failed to provide adequate training or supervision to their subordinates to such an extent that is tantamount to their deliberate indifference toward the rights of those who may come into contact with the defendant City's employee police officers, including the individually named police officers herein.

174. Defendant City's employee police officers engaged in such egregious and flagrant violations of Plaintiff's Constitutional rights that the need for enhanced training or supervision is obvious and equates to the exhibition of deliberate indifference by defendant City and its officials, policymakers or supervisors toward the rights of individuals, who may come into contact with defendant City's employee police officers, including the individually named defendants herein.

175. Defendant City's repeated willful refusals or unexcused failures to install or apply corrective or preventive measures constitutes its tacit approval or deliberate indifference with respect to violations of the civil or Constitutional rights of those who may come into contact with NYPD officers, including the individually named defendants herein.

176. Defendant City's conduct resulted in violations of Plaintiff's civil rights, under the First, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States.

177. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

TWENTY-FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Free Speech Retaliation Claim Under
New York State Law

178. The above paragraphs are hereby incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

179. Plaintiff engaged in speech and activities that were protected by Article I, Section 8, of the New York State Constitution.

180. Defendants committed impermissible or unlawful actions against Plaintiff that were motivated or substantially caused by Plaintiff's constitutionally protected speech or activities.

181. Defendants' retaliatory actions against Plaintiff resulted in the deprivation of his liberty and the initiation of criminal charges against him.

182. Defendants' retaliatory actions adversely affected Plaintiff's protected speech or activities by physically or procedurally preventing him from further pursuing said protected speech or activities or by chilling his desire to further participate or engage in such protected speech or activities.

183. Accordingly, Plaintiff's right to engage in protected speech and activities, guaranteed and protected by Article I, Section 8, of the New York State Constitution, was violated by defendants.

184. Defendant City, as employer of the individual Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoings, under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

185. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests judgment against Defendants, jointly and severally, as follows:

- a) On the First Cause of Action, in a sum of money having a present value which exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction of this matter;
- b) On the Second Cause of Action, in a sum of money having a present value which exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction of this matter;
