FACTUAL CHARGES

13. On October 5, 2018 at approximately 10:15 P.M., Mr. Torres was in the vicinity of the 1121 Morrison Avenue, County of Bronx, State of New York.

14. On said date, time and location, Defendants, including Colon, and John or Jane Doe 1-10, illegally entered the above mentioned location.

15. On said date, time and location, Defendants, including Colon, and John or Jane Doe 1-10, illegally searched the said location.

16. At all relevant times, Defendants, including Colon, and John or Jane Doe 1-10, did not have arrest warrants for Mr. Torres.

17. At all relevant times, Defendants, including Colon, and John or Jane Doe 1-10, did not provide full and truthful facts, regarding the likely presence of marijuana, to the District Attorney's Office or the Presiding Judge to justify the issuing of a valid search warrant.

18. At all relevant times, Defendants, including Colon, and John or Jane Doe 1-10, intentionally provided said false or fabricated information that would be likely to influence a prosecutors employed by the District Attorney's Office to wrongfully prosecute the Plaintiff, namely that Mr. Torres was observed to be arrested and searched, so that a criminal prosecution would be initiated against Mr. Torres.

19. Defendants, including Colon, and John or Jane Doe 1-10, fabricated the fact that said illicit items were recovered at all or fabricated the locations where said items were recovered, so that they could falsely implicate Mr. Torres of various crimes that Defendants knew him to be innocent of.

20. Defendants, including Colon, and John or Jane Doe 1-10, entered said location with the intentions of finding any marijuana on Mr. Torres but however, failed to find anything illegal on his person or his reach.

21. Mr. Torres was not in actual, constructive, or statutory possession of marijuana, and had not committed any crime or violation of the law.

22. Mr. Torres had multiple assaults and batteries, committed to his person, by Defendants, including Colon, and John or Jane Doe 1-10, including but not limited to, being placed in handcuffs too tightly.

23. Defendants, including Colon, and John or Jane Doe 1-10, falsely claimed they found marijuana, despite being fully aware that no such event or occurrence ever transpired in reality.

24. At no time did Mr. Torres possess any marijuana.

25. Defendants', including Colon, and John or Jane Doe 1-10, knowingly and intentionally made false statements and allegations against the Plaintiff and thus, Mr. Torres was falsely arrested and charged with possession of marijuana that Defendants knew to be false since Mr. Torres was not in criminal possession of any contraband.

26. Defendants, including Colon, and John or Jane Doe 1-10, were fully aware that Mr. Torres did not have any illegal contraband on his person or in his possession, but Defendants, including Torres, John or Jane Doe 1-10, knowingly and intentionally decided to fabricate said observation to justify an otherwise invalid arrest and to ensure that Plaintiff was maliciously prosecuted.

27. Defendants, including Colon, and John or Jane Doe 1-10, arrested and initiated a criminal prosecution against Plaintiff, not because Defendants believed Plaintiff to be guilty of any crime or violation of the law, but because of their desire to compel Mr. Ocampo, who was their true target and suspect, to plead guilty, in retribution for his prior successful lawsuit against Defendants, including Colon, and John or Jane Doe 1-10.

28. Defendants, including Colon, and John or Jane Doe 1-10, ensured Mr. Ocampo's cooperation by fabricating false evidence against Plaintiff, namely that he was observed to be in possession of marijuana.

29. Defendants, including Colon, and John or Jane Doe 1-10, further ensured that Plaintiff would be falsely inculpated by fabricating the locations in which the illicit drugs were discovered.

30. Plaintiff was rear handcuffed by Defendants, including Colon, and John or Jane Doe 1-10, and placed in a NYPD vehicle to be transported to NYPD 43rd precinct.

31. Upon arrival at said location or while Plaintiff remained detained at the NYPD precinct, he was illegally searched, including a strip-search with cavity inspection, questioned, photographed and fingerprinted by, or at the direction of Defendants, including Colon, and John or Jane Doe 1-10.

32. Defendant George Colon was Mr. Torres' arresting officer and signed his criminal court complaint under Arrest #B18645444, knowingly and falsely accusing Mr. Colon of Criminal Sale of Marijuana in the fourth degree, Criminal Possession Marijuana in the fifth degree, and Unlawful Possession of Marijuana and other related charges, all of which Defendant Colon knew to be untrue.

33. Defendant Colon directly participated in and/or directed that the unfounded criminal investigation proceed against Mr. Torres take place, so that he could exact retribution upon Mr. Ocampo for his prior successful civil lawsuit against him and which contributed to the disciplinary action levied against him, as well as his forced and involuntary assignment to the Bronx Criminal Court Section, a well know depository for unfit NYPD officers and detectives, such as Defendant Colon.

34. Mr. Torres was arraigned and formally charged with one (1) count of Criminal Sale of Marijuana in the fourth degree, one (1) count of Criminal Possession Marijuana in the fifth degree, and one (1) count of Unlawful Possession of Marijuana.

35. At no point did the Defendants including Colon, and John or Jane Doe 1-10, ever observe Mr. Torres in possession of marijuana.

36. At no point were the Defendants, including Colon, and John or Jane Doe 1-10, ever told by any witnesses that Mr. Torres committed any crime or violation of the law.

37. After his arraignment, Mr. Torres was transferred to New York City Police Department, where he was unlawfully detained until his eventual release on, or about, October 6, 2018.

38. Plaintiff was compelled to return to court, multiple times, to contest the false charges levied against him, including Criminal Possession of a Weapon in the second, third, and fourth degree, Criminal Possession of a Firearm, Criminal Possession of Marijuana in the fifth degree and Possession of Ammunition.

39. On October 6, 2018, all charges against Mr. Torres were unconditionally dismissed pursuant to CPL § 160.50, representing a termination of the criminal charges in Mr. Torres' favor.

40. Defendants, including Colon, and John or Jane Doe 1-10 did not possess a valid, judicially authorized arrest warrant for Mr. Torres.

41. Defendants, including Colon, and John or Jane Doe 1-10 did not possess probable cause or other justification for the arrest or seizure of Mr. Torres' person.

42. Defendants, including Colon, and John or Jane Doe 1-10, never possessed probable cause to believe a prosecution would succeed against Plaintiff, or that Plaintiff was guilty of any crime, as Defendants were fully aware that any evidence against Plaintiff was either fraudulent or fabricated, including the observation provided by Defendant Colon, in which Mr. Torres falsely accused of possessing marijuana of said location.

43. While Plaintiff was unlawfully detained, Defendants, including Colon, and John or Jane Doe 1-10, acting with malice, conveyed the aforementioned false, misleading and incomplete information to prosecutors in order to have Plaintiff prosecuted for Criminal Sale of Marijuana in the fourth degree, Criminal Possession Marijuana in the fifth degree, and Unlawful Possession of Marijuana.

44. Defendants, including Colon, and John or Jane Doe 1-10, intentionally, knowingly and falsely made said allegations to conceal their otherwise illegal, tortious and sinister acts, namely entering a residence illegally without a search warrant, arresting an individual without probable cause.

45. Defendants, including Colon, and John or Jane Doe 1-10, suppressed evidence and engaged in conduct undertaken in bad faith, including the fabrication of false evidence and the gratuitous use of excessive force against Plaintiff.

46. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants, including Colon, and John or Jane Doe 1-10, were involved in the decision to arrest Plaintiff without probable cause or failed to intervene when they observed others arresting Plaintiff without probable cause or using excessive force to effectuate his arrest.

47. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants, including Colon, and John or Jane Doe 1-10, engaged in fraud, perjury, the suppression of evidence and other actions conducted in bad faith, or failed to intervene when Defendants observed others doing so, all in furtherance of Plaintiff's wrongful arrest and subsequent malicious criminal prosecution.

48. Plaintiff asserts that the Defendants, including Colon, and John or Jane Doe 1-10, who violated Plaintiff's civil rights, are part of a larger pattern and practice of similar misconduct, which is so widespread, pervasive and consistent throughout the NYPD, and the City of New York that the commission such constitutionally violative behavior has become tantamount to an official policy or custom within the NYPD, and City of New York or, at the very least, conclusive evidence that the City, NYPD have either tacitly approved of such egregious wrongdoings or that they have become deliberately indifferent to the civil rights of those who may come into contact their police officers.

49. The individually named Defendants herein, as well as other officers serving in the employ of the NYPD, and City of New York, have blatantly, shamelessly, consistently and repeatedly engaged in conduct violative of the civil rights guaranteed and protected by Constitution of the United States, in addition to the laws and Constitution of the State of New York, all without incurring any ramifications for such misconduct and, ostensibly, with the full and complete blessing of the NYPD, the City of New York and their respective policymakers and supervisors.

50. In a report by NBC Channel 4 News, New York, entitled “Ex NYPD Sergeant Accused of Assaulting Man at Homeless Shelter, Stomping on His Head More Than 10 Times,” by Jonathan Dienst and Joe Valiquette, horrific allegations against a former NYPD police sergeant were detailed, including his use of extreme and excessive force, as well as his falsifying evidence that was forwarded to prosecutors. The former NYPD sergeant is no longer by NYPD and his criminal case is presently being prosecuted by the United States Attorney’s Office for the Southern District of New York. Another article from citylimits.org, entitled “CityViews: Is NYPD Oversight Really making Homeless Shelters Safer,” by Daniel Castillo, discusses how the NYPD police officers have begun to jointly enforce the law within many homeless shelters, but how such added policing has only worsened the already crime riddled areas. It also details how ongoing problems have only deteriorated since the newly enacted joint jurisdiction.

51. The New York Times, as well as numerous other reputable journalistic enterprises, have reported on the widespread corruption within the NYPD, and City of New York, particularly the incredibly disconcerting proclivity of many NYPD officers to engage in the fabrication or misrepresentation or subject matters that are materially relevant to criminal prosecutions, including the complete fabrication of arrest evidence and witnesses.. Also detailed, is the NYPD’s obstinate refusal to effectuate corrective or preventive measures to combat the inevitable recurrence of such misdeeds, and perhaps most troubling, the NYPD’s alarming tendency to, instead, reward and promote these officers, including those who were inculcated via some incontrovertible form of evidence.

52. On March 18, 2018, The New York Times published an explosive article, entitled “Promotions, Not Punishments for Officers Accused of Lying,” written by Joseph Goldstein. Mr. Goldstein shines a light on the multitude of flaws within the CCRB and the NYPD, highlighting the fact that the substantiation of a claim against an officer will invariably rely on the presence of incontrovertible proof against the officer. Due to the rarity availability of this type of evidence, an alarmingly small percentage of officer misconduct claims are substantiated. The CCRB is further handicapped by a terribly designed system that requires evidence of a virtually indisputable nature to substantiate any claim against an officer. The article also details the NYPD’s persistent reluctance to investigate or discipline officers who lie and even posits that this reluctance is a significant cause of the lying pandemic within the NYPD. The article references various officers and detectives who were the subject of credible accusations relating to the officers’ intentionally false statements, with some allegations coming from federal and state judges.

53. On September 12, 2019, The New York Times published another article by Joseph Goldstein, entitled “Officers Said They Smelled Pot. The Judge Called Them Liars.” Unsurprisingly, this article dealt with the unusually high frequency of officers using the odor of marijuana to excuse a search that conspicuously does not result in the recovery of any marijuana. It should not require an article in The New York Times to call attention to such patently disingenuous tactics, but has become necessary for a variety of reasons, including the NYPD’s failure to correct such behavior, the willingness of prosecutors and judges to credit the lying officers and the increasing rate of occurrence.

54. On April 24, 2019, The New York Times published an article, entitled “Detective’s Lies Sent Three People to Prison, Prosecutors Charge,” by Sean Piccolo, detailing the lies of NYPD Second Grade Detective Joseph Franco and how those lies resulted in the imprisonment of at least three innocent people. The article described how Det. Franco lied about observing drug transactions on at least three separate occasions, lies that were only uncovered through contradictory video evidence. Det. Franco’s lies resulted in the innocent individuals each being sentenced to prison terms in excess of one-year.

55. Other articles include: (i) “Testilying’ by Police: A Stubborn Problem.,” by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, March 18, 2018; (ii) “New York Detective Charged with Faking Lineup Results,” by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, February 17, 2018; (iii) “He Excelled as a Detective, Until Prosecutors Stopped Believing Him,” by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, October 17, 2017; (iv) “Review Board Notes Rise in New York Police Officers’ False Statement,” by J. David Goodman, The New York Times, May 14, 2015; (v) “In Brooklyn Gun Cases, Suspicion Turns to the Police,” by Stephanie Clifford, The New York Times, December 11, 2014; (vi) “Detective is Found Guilty of Planting Drugs,” by Tim Stelloh, The New York Times, November 1, 2011; and (vii) “The Drugs? They Came From the Police,” by Jim Dwyer, The New York Times, October 13, 2011.

56. The NYPD has a longstanding and ignominious record of failing to discipline its officers, or even entertaining allegations of wrongdoing against them. On June 26, 2019, The New York Times published an article, entitled “2,495 Reports of Police Bias. Not One Was Deemed Valid by the N.Y.P.D.” This article reported that within the last five (5) years, almost 2,500 separate individuals have filed formal complaints with the NYPD alleging that an officer acted with bias toward them, with not a single one being substantiated by the NYPD. Such a finding is plainly incredible and obviously the result of deliberately poor or nonexistent investigatory protocols.

The report further impugned the NYPD's commitment to combat the prejudices and the biases exhibited by many of its officers.

57. Upon information and belief, the NYPD, the City of New York, and their respective policymakers, officials or supervisors have imposed, tacitly approved or acquiesced to policies, customs, or patterns and practices within the NYPD that resulted in plaintiff's arrest without probable cause.

58. Upon information and belief, the NYPD, the City of New York, and their respective policymakers or supervisors have failed to provide adequate training regarding the identification of probable cause, reasonable suspicion or the appropriate amount of force to be used.

59. Defendants' actions, pursuant to Plaintiff's underlying arrest, which occurred without even the semblance of probable cause, were so blatantly violative of Plaintiff's civil rights that the tacit approval of identical or similar acts by the policymakers or supervisors of the NYPD, and the City of New York, as well as their deliberate indifference towards the rights of any individuals who may come into contact with Defendants, should be inferred, because such flagrant deprivations of constitutionally protected rights could not and would not occur without the tacit approval or deliberate indifference regarding the commission of such violations by the policymakers or supervisors of the NYPD, and City of New York.

60. Upon information and belief, further details and facts, relating to the unlawful policies, customs or patterns and practices of the NYPD, City of New York and their respective policymakers, supervisors, police officers or employees, will become known after the completion of discovery, as such information is presently within the exclusive possession of Defendants, the NYPD, and City of New York.

61. Upon information and belief, the personnel files, records and disciplinary histories of the officer Defendants will reveal a history of Constitutional violations indicative of Defendant City's knowledge that the individual officer Defendants were unfit for employment as NYPD officers, or for employment in general, and that the probability of the individually named Defendants committing similar violations in the future was extremely high.

62. Upon information and belief, said personnel files, records and disciplinary histories will conclusively show that the City, and the NYPD were fully aware of Defendants' past constitutional violations, the unacceptably high probability for the recurrence of similar transgressions, the unreasonably dangerous situations that were likely to result from their hiring or retention, as well as their unsuitability for employment as law enforcement officers, or for employment in general, and that the NYPD, and City of New York failed to engage in any preventive or corrective action intended to diminish the likelihood of recurrence for such violations, which is tantamount to the City's tacit approval of such misconduct or the City's deliberate indifference towards the civil rights of those who may interact with its employees, including Colon, and John or Jane Doe 1-10.

63. As a direct and proximate result of the acts of Defendants, including the City, whose including Colon, and John or Jane Doe 1-10, Plaintiff suffered the following injuries and damages: violations of his rights pursuant to the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment of the United States Constitution, violations of New York State law, physical injury, physical pain and suffering, emotional trauma and suffering, including fear, embarrassment, humiliation, emotional distress, frustration, extreme inconvenience, anxiety, loss of liberty and harm to reputation.
