Plaintiffs, KENDELL ELVIN, TEVIN HARRIS, TRACY HARRIS, DAMIEN MCGILL, JASMINE RAMOS, JOSEPH TAYLOR and DARNELL WILLOUGHBY, by and through the undersigned attorneys, SIM & DEPAOLA, LLP, for their complaint against the Defendants, CITY OF NEW YORK, HUSAMEDIN UMER, ERIC DYM, ERIC KONOSKI, ANDRES GOMEZ, JOHN OLSEN, CHRISTOPHER FOY, DENNIS MOSS, ANGEL ROMERO and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-25, allege and state as follows:

1. This is a civil rights action, in which plaintiffs seek relief, vis-à-vis 42 U.S.C. §§ 1981, 1983, 1985, 1986 and 1988, the laws of the State of New York, in addition to the self-executing clauses or implied private causes of action within the New York State Constitution, for the violations of their civil rights, as guaranteed and protected by the First, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States, as well as the Laws and Constitution of the State of New York.

2. The following claims arise from a July 25, 2019 incident, in which Defendants, acting under color of state law, unlawfully stopped, questioned, searched, assaulted, arrested and detained plaintiffs in the vicinity of 750 East 166th Street, within the County of Bronx, City and State of New York. Plaintiffs were subsequently removed against their will to NYPD Police Service Area 7 and before being transported to Bronx County Central Booking. As a result, plaintiffs were deprived of their liberties and suffered various physical, emotional and psychological injuries. Plaintiffs were wrongfully detained over the course of two (2) days. Thereafter, Plaintiffs were maliciously prosecuted and denied their right to fair trial, until the false charges against them were unconditionally dismissed and sealed, thus terminating the criminal proceedings in Plaintiffs' favor.

3. At all times here mentioned, Defendants were acting under color of state law, to wit, under color of the statutes, ordinances, regulations, policies, customs and usages of the City and State of New York.

4. Plaintiffs have each complied with the New York General Municipal Law by timely serving a notice of claim upon the City of New York within ninety-days from the date their respective claims arose.

5. At least thirty (30) days have elapsed since the service of said notice, and adjustment or payment thereof has been neglected or refused.

6. Plaintiffs have each complied with the municipal defendant's demand for an examination, pursuant to GML § 50-h, no demand was made or said demand was untimely.

7. This action and associated claims have been commenced within one-year-and-ninety-days after the events and occurrences, upon which they are based.

8. Plaintiffs seek monetary damages (compensatory and punitive) against defendants, an award of costs and reasonable attorneys' fees, and such other and further relief as this Court may deem just and proper.

PARTIES

9. Plaintiffs, KENDELL ELVIN ("Mr. Elvin"), TEVIN HARRIS ("Mr. Tevin Harris"), TRACY HARRIS ("Mr. Tracy Harris"), DAMIEN MCGILL ("Mr. McGill"), JOSEPH TAYLOR ("Mr. Taylor") and DARNELL WILLOUGHBY ("Mr. Willoughby"), are all African-American males, who presently reside in the County of Bronx, City and State of New York.

10. Plaintiff, JASMINE RAMOS ("Ms. Ramos"), is a Hispanic or Latina female, who presently resides in the County of Bronx, City and State of New York.

11. Defendant, City of New York ("City"), is a municipal corporation organized under the laws of the State of New York.

12. At all times relevant hereto, defendant City, acting through the New York City Police Department ("NYPD"), was responsible for the policy, practice, supervision, implementation, and conduct of all NYPD matters and was responsible for the appointment, screening, hiring, training, supervision, discipline, retention and conduct of all NYPD personnel, including police officers, detectives, investigators, sergeants, lieutenants and other supervisory officers or officials, as well as the individually named NYPD defendants herein.

13. In addition, at all times here relevant, defendant, City, was responsible for enforcing the rules or regulations of the NYPD, and for ensuring that the NYPD personnel obey the laws and constitutions of the United States and the State of New York.

14. Defendants, HUSAMEDIN UMER, ERIC DYM, ERIC KONOSKI, ANDRES GOMEZ, JOHN OLSEN, CHRISTOPHER FOY, DENNIS MOSS and ANGEL ROMERO, were, at all times here relevant, police officers, detectives, sergeants, lieutenants or other supervisory officers, employed by the NYPD and, as such, were acting in the capacity of agents, servants and employees of defendant City. Defendants were, at the times relevant herein, police officers, detectives, sergeants, lieutenants or other supervisory officers, assigned to Police Service Area 7 of the NYPD. Defendants are being sued in their individual and official capacities.

15. At all relevant times herein, defendants JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10 were acting as agents, servants and employees of the City of New York, or the NYPD. Defendants JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10 are being sued in their individual and official capacities.

16. At all relevant times herein, defendants were acting under color of state law, to wit, under color of the statutes, ordinances, regulations, policies, customs and usages of the City or State of New York.

17. Within ninety-days of the accrual dates for the claims herein, Plaintiffs served notice of claims, upon the City of New York, pursuant to the applicable sections within the New York General Municipal Law (GML).

18. Over 30 days have elapsed since the filing of this notice, and this matter has not been settled or otherwise disposed of.

19. Plaintiffs have complied with municipal Defendant's request for an oral examination, pursuant to GML § 50-h or no such demand was conveyed within the statutorily prescribed time period.

20. This action and associated claims have been timely commenced within one-year-and-ninety-days from the applicable accrual dates.

FACTUAL CHARGES

22. On, or about July 25, 2019, at approximately 1:30 a.m., in the vicinity of 750 East 166th Street, within the County of Bronx, City and State of New York, plaintiffs were unlawfully stopped, questioned, searched, seized and arrested by defendants, including UMER, DYM, KONOSKI, GOMEZ, OLSEN, FOY, MOSS, ROMERO and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-25.

23. Defendants, including UMER, DYM, KONOSKI, GOMEZ, OLSEN, FOY, MOSS, ROMERO and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-25, approached plaintiffs with their outstretched arms, while ordering them place their hands above their heads.

23. Defendants, including UMER, DYM, KONOSKI, GOMEZ, OLSEN, FOY, MOSS, ROMERO and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-25, proceeded to unlawfully stop and question plaintiffs, regarding illegal activity, despite possessing no valid reason to inquire, as no criminal activity was present or even reasonably suspected.

24. Defendants, including UMER, DYM, KONOSKI, GOMEZ, OLSEN, FOY, MOSS, ROMERO and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-25, never observed any of the plaintiffs to be engaged in unlawful or suspicious activity, as plaintiffs were well within their rights to peaceably gather in mourning of friend who had recently passed and to question and voice their displeasure with the defendants' behavior, particularly defendants' use of clearly excessive force and exertion of exceedingly poor and discourteous communicative techniques with law abiding members of the community.

25. Defendants, including UMER, DYM, KONOWSKI, GOMEZ, OLSEN, FOY, MOSS, ROMERO, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-25, proceeded to unlawfully search and seize the persons and property of plaintiffs without their consent, a judicially authorized warrant or any other legal authority to do so, as there no were no indicia of criminal activity present.

26. Defendants, including UMER, DYM, KONOWSKI, GOMEZ, OLSEN, FOY, MOSS, ROMERO, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-25, proceeded to grab plaintiffs, physically restrain them and violently contort their arms behind their backs to apply metal handcuffs, which affixed in an excessively tight fashion, causing plaintiffs to each sustain substantial physical pain, bruising and discomfort to their arms, wrists and hands.

27. Defendants, including UMER, DYM, KONOWSKI, GOMEZ, OLSEN, FOY, MOSS, ROMERO, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-25, refused to loosen plaintiffs' handcuffs, despite multiple pleas from each plaintiff.

28. Defendants, including UMER, DYM, KONOWSKI, GOMEZ, OLSEN, FOY, MOSS, ROMERO, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-25, struck each plaintiff with their closed fists and steal toed NYPD issued boots, which caused each plaintiff to sustain substantial physical pain, bruising and swelling about their bodies and heads.

29. After rear handcuffing Mr. Elvin, defendants, including UMER, DYM, KONOWSKI, GOMEZ, OLSEN, FOY, MOSS, ROMERO, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-25, proceeded to kick Mr. Elvin's legs out from under him, which caused him to painfully fall to the ground.

30. After rear handcuffing Mr. Tevin Harris, defendants, including UMER, DYM, KONOWSKI, GOMEZ, OLSEN, FOY, MOSS, ROMERO, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-25, slammed Mr. Tevin Harris to the ground and proceeded to drag him on the concrete to defendants' police transport vehicle.

31. Prior to, during and after handcuffing Mr. Tracy Harris, defendants, including UMER, DYM, KONOWSKI, GOMEZ, OLSEN, FOY, MOSS, ROMERO, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-25, slammed said plaintiff down to the ground multiple times and struck him numerous times about his body and head.

32. Prior to, during and after handcuffing Mr. McGill, defendants, including UMER, DYM, KONOWSKI, GOMEZ, OLSEN, FOY, MOSS, ROMERO, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-25, slammed said plaintiff down to the ground multiple times and struck him numerous times about his body and head.

33. Prior to placing Ms. Ramos in handcuffs, defendants, including UMER, DYM, KONOWSKI, GOMEZ, OLSEN, FOY, MOSS, ROMERO, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-25, put her in a chokehold, pinned her over a metal gate and then her slammed violently to the ground, which caused Ms. Ramos to suffer substantial physical pain, contusions, swelling to her neck, back, legs, arms and torso.

34. Prior to, during and after handcuffing Mr. Taylor, defendants, including UMER, DYM, KONOWSKI, GOMEZ, OLSEN, FOY, MOSS, ROMERO, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-25, slammed said plaintiff down to the ground multiple times and struck him numerous times about his body and head.

35. Prior to, during and after handcuffing Mr. Willoughby, defendants, including UMER, DYM, KONOWSKI, GOMEZ, OLSEN, FOY, MOSS, ROMERO, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-25, slammed said plaintiff down to the ground multiple times, painfully twisted his arms in an unnatural manner, punched him in his chest and stomach, stomped and kneed him in the back, while he was face-down on the pavement.

36. Plaintiffs were then removed against their will to Police Service Area 7 (“PSA 7”), where they were each subjected arrest processing by defendants, including UMER, DYM, KONOWSKI, GOMEZ, OLSEN, FOY, MOSS, ROMERO, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-25.

37. Defendants, including UMER, DYM, KONOWSKI, GOMEZ, OLSEN, FOY, MOSS, ROMERO, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-25, subjected Mr. Tevin Harris, Mr. Tracy Harris, Mr. McGill, Mr. Taylor and Mr. Willoughby to strip-searches with attendant cavity inspections inside of PSA 7, despite the absence of any indicia that plaintiffs had secreted contraband within their person.

38. Defendants, including UMER, DYM, KONOWSKI, GOMEZ, OLSEN, FOY, MOSS, ROMERO, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-25, fabricated false accounts and allegations against plaintiffs, including claims that plaintiffs surrounded and shoved defendants, prevented a lawful arrest and engaged in behavior with the intent to cause public annoyance, alarm or inconvenience, and forwarded said untrue accusations to prosecutors, so that criminal prosecutions would be initiated against plaintiffs.

39. As a result of defendants’ unlawful and constitutionally repugnant misconduct, plaintiffs were wrongfully detained for approximately two (2) days, until their eventual release after arraignment.

40. Plaintiffs were maliciously prosecuted and denied their right to fair right trial, from the date of their respective arraignments, until the criminal proceedings were terminated in their favor, via the unconditional and outright dismissal of all adverse charges, due the abject lack of probable cause for their arrests or criminal prosecutions.

41. The criminal proceedings against Mr. Elvin, Mr. Tracy Harris, Mr. McGill and Ms. Ramos were favorably terminated at arraignments on July 25, 2019, upon a finding of no probable cause to arrest or prosecute by the arraigning criminal court judge, Hon. L. Stroth.

42. The criminal proceedings against Mr. Tevin Harris, Mr. Taylor and Mr. Willoughby were terminated in favor of plaintiffs on October 9, 2019.

43. Defendants, including UMER, DYM, KONOWSKI, GOMEZ, OLSEN, FOY, MOSS, ROMERO, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-25, proceeded to suppress exculpatory evidence from prosecutors, so that plaintiffs would be criminally prosecuted, namely by withholding, failing to disclose or destroying the true accounts of the subject events and occurrences, as well as video recordings, which depicted defendants, including UMER, DYM, KONOWSKI, GOMEZ, OLSEN, FOY, MOSS, ROMERO, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-25, using excessive force and acting as the true aggressors against plaintiffs.

44. Defendants, including UMER, DYM, KONOWSKI, GOMEZ, OLSEN, FOY, MOSS, ROMERO, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-25, arrested, used excessive force and caused criminal prosecutions to be initiated against plaintiffs, in retaliation for plaintiffs' exertion of their civil rights to voice their concern and displeasure with the actions of defendants and also peaceably and lawfully gather.

45. Defendants, including UMER, DYM, KONOWSKI, GOMEZ, OLSEN, FOY, MOSS, ROMERO, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-25, arrested, used excessive force and caused criminal prosecutions to be initiated against plaintiffs, because of their desires to use plaintiffs' arrests and criminal prosecutions as leverage to obtain information from plaintiffs, to incur additional overtime compensation, benefits and career favor from the superior officers, to avoid adverse consequences associated with failing to meet NYPD departmental arrest quotas and also to conceal their egregious violations of proper police procedures and gross misconduct, including their fabrications of non-existent observations, evidence and information.

46. Defendants, including UMER, DYM, KONOWSKI, GOMEZ, OLSEN, FOY, MOSS, ROMERO, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-25, illegally targeted plaintiffs for law enforcement action, due to defendants' impermissible considerations of plaintiffs' color, race, ethnicity, sexual orientation, sex or gender, or defendants' impermissible perceptions thereof, as plaintiffs would not have been stopped, searched, subjected to the use of excessive force, arrested or maliciously prosecuted, otherwise.

47. Defendants, including UMER, DYM, KONOWSKI, GOMEZ, OLSEN, FOY, MOSS, ROMERO, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-25, engaged in a conspiracy to falsely arrest and maliciously prosecute plaintiffs by personally conferring with each other, regarding the fabrication of the aforementioned non-existent evidence and observations, as well the manner and means by which said fabrications would be forwarded to the District Attorney's Office.

48. Plaintiffs assert that the Defendants, including UMER, DYM, KONOWSKI, GOMEZ, OLSEN, FOY, MOSS, ROMERO, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-25, who violated plaintiffs' civil rights, are part of a larger pattern and practice of similar misconduct, which is so widespread, pervasive and consistent throughout the NYPD and the City of New York that the commission of such constitutionally violative behavior has become tantamount to an official policy or custom within the NYPD and City of New York or, at the very least, conclusive evidence that the City and the NYPD have either tacitly approved of such egregious wrongdoings or that they have become deliberately indifferent to the civil rights of those who may come into contact with their police officers.

49. The individually named defendants herein, as well as other officers serving in the employ of the NYPD and City of New York, have blatantly, shamelessly, consistently and repeatedly engaged in conduct violative of the civil rights guaranteed and protected by Constitution of the United States, in addition to the laws and Constitution of the State of New York, all without incurring any ramifications for such misconduct and, ostensibly, with the full and complete blessing of the NYPD, the City of New York and their respective policymakers and supervisors.

50. The New York Times, as well as numerous other reputable journalistic enterprises, have reported on the widespread corruption within the NYPD and City of New York, particularly the incredibly disconcerting proclivity of many NYPD officers to lie about subject matters that are materially relevant to criminal prosecutions, including the complete fabrication of arrest evidence and witnesses. Also detailed, is the NYPD's obstinate refusal to effectuate corrective or preventive measures to combat the inevitable recurrence of such misdeeds, and perhaps most troubling, the NYPD's alarming tendency to, instead, reward and promote these officers, including those who were inculcated via incontrovertible evidence, such as video evidence.

51. The constitutionally repugnant behavior that persists within the ranks of the NYPD results from the NYPD's own policies, rules and procedures, namely the NYPD's incredibly flawed and illegal use of arrest quotas. Despite its illegality, such policies remain system in throughout the NYPD and its individual commands. The NYPD, however, was not content in compelling its officers to effect as many arrests as possible, regardless of the presence of any legal right to do, it promulgated various subsets of quotas, which are predicated on race, color or ethnicity. Additionally, the NYPD, its supervisors or policymakers would assign varying point values to arrests, which were, again, impermissibly based upon the arrestee's race, color or ethnicity. Unsurprisingly, officers would be better rewarded for minority arrests or summonses. This egregious conduct has reported by numerous respected media outlets and publications and has even formed the basis for federal lawsuits against the City and the NYPD, which were commenced by its own employee officers.

52. On June 17, 2020, the New York Daily News published an article, by Graham Rayman, entitled “Brooklyn Cop Claims he was Punished for not Meeting Arrest Quotas, Refusing to Take Responsibility for Controversial Arrest in which he Wasn’t Involved,” describing allegations from an NYPD Police Officer, Terrence Dickerson, that he was retaliated against by the NYPD for refusing to adhere to mandatory racially based arrest quotas and for his refusal to accept responsibility for a controversial and publicized arrest via the excessive force, despite the fact that he was not even at the scene.

53. Another article with a title that speaks for itself, also published by the New York Daily News, on December 5, 2019, and written by Graham Rayman, is entitled “Ex-Cop Details NYPD ‘Collar Quotas’—Arrest Black and Hispanic Men, ‘No Cuffs on Soft Targets’ of Jews, Asians, Whites: Court Docs.”

54. The New York Times, on December 6, 2019, published an article by Joseph Goldstein and Ashley Southall, entitled “I Got Tired of Hunting Black and Hispanic People,” which revealed a disturbing account from a different NYPD Police Officer, Anthony Diaz, describing a police force that measures the quality of police work by the quantity of minority arrests.

55. On March 18, 2018, The New York Times published an explosive article, entitled “Promotions, Not Punishments for Officers Accused of Lying,” written by Joseph Goldstein. Mr. Goldstein shines a light on the multitude of flaws within the CCRB and the NYPD, highlighting the fact that the substantiation of a claim against an officer will invariably rely on the presence of incontrovertible proof against the officer. Due to the rarity availability of this type of evidence, an alarmingly small percentage of officer misconduct claims are substantiated. The CCRB is further handicapped by a terribly designed system that requires evidence of a virtually indisputable nature to substantiate any claim against an officer. The article also details the NYPD's persistent reluctance to investigate or discipline officers who lie and even posits that this reluctance is a significant cause of the lying pandemic within the NYPD. The article references various officers and detectives who were the subject of credible accusations relating to the officers' intentionally false statements, with some allegations coming from federal and state judges.

56. On September 12, 2019, The New York Times published another article by Joseph Goldstein, entitled "Officers Said They Smelled Pot. The Judge Called Them Liars." Unsurprisingly, this article dealt with the unusually high frequency of officers using the odor of marijuana to excuse a search that conspicuously does not result in the recovery of any marijuana. It should not require an article in The New York Times to call attention to such patently disingenuous tactics, but has become necessary for a variety of reasons, including the NYPD's failure to correct such behavior, the willingness of prosecutors and judges to credit the lying officers and the increasing rate of occurrence.

57. On April 24, 2019, The New York Times published an article, entitled "Detective's Lies Sent Three People to Prison, Prosecutors Charge," by Sean Piccolo, detailing the lies of NYPD Second Grade Detective Joseph Franco and how those lies resulted in the imprisonment of at least three innocent people. The article described how Det. Franco lied about observing drug transactions on at least three separate occasions, lies that were only uncovered through contradictory video evidence. Det. Franco's lies resulted in the innocent individuals each being sentenced to prison terms in excess of one-year.

58. Other articles include: (i) “Testilying’ by Police: A Stubborn Problem,” by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, March 18, 2018; (ii) “New York Detective Charged with Faking Lineup Results,” by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, February 17, 2018; (iii) “He Excelled as a Detective, Until Prosecutors Stopped Believing Him,” by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, October 17, 2017; (iv) “Review Board Notes Rise in New York Police Officers’ False Statement,” by J. David Goodman, The New York Times, May 14, 2015; (v) “In Brooklyn Gun Cases, Suspicion Turns to the Police,” by Stephanie Clifford, The New York Times, December 11, 2014; (vi) “Detective is Found Guilty of Planting Drugs,” by Tim Stelloh, The New York Times, November 1, 2011; and (vii) “The Drugs? They Came from the Police,” by Jim Dwyer, The New York Times, October 13, 2011.

59. The NYPD has a longstanding and ignominious record of failing to discipline its officers, or even entertaining allegations of wrongdoing against them. On June 26, 2019, The New York Times published an article, entitled “2,495 Reports of Police Bias. Not One Was Deemed Valid by the N.Y.P.D.” This article reported that within the last five (5) years, almost 2,500 separate individuals have filed formal complaints with the NYPD alleging that an officer acted with bias toward them, with not a single one being substantiated by the NYPD. Such a finding is plainly incredible and obviously the result of deliberately poor or nonexistent investigatory protocols. The report further impugned the NYPD’s commitment to combat the prejudices and the biases exhibited by many of its officers.

60. Upon information and belief, the NYPD, the City of New York, and their respective policymakers, officials or supervisors have imposed, tacitly approved or acquiesced to policies, customs, or patterns and practices within the NYPD that resulted in plaintiff’s arrest without probable cause.

61. Upon information and belief, the NYPD, the City of New York, and their respective policymakers or supervisors have failed to provide adequate training regarding the identification of probable cause, reasonable suspicion or the appropriate amount of force to be used.

62. Defendants' actions, pursuant to plaintiffs' underlying arrest, which occurred without even the semblance of probable cause, were so blatantly violative of plaintiffs' civil rights that the tacit approval of identical or similar acts by the policymakers or supervisors of the NYPD and the City of New York, as well as their deliberate indifference towards the rights of any individuals who may come into contact with defendants, should be inferred, because such flagrant deprivations of constitutionally protected rights could not and would not occur without the tacit approval or deliberate indifference regarding the commission of such violations by the policymakers or supervisors of the NYPD and City of New York.

63. Upon information and belief, further details and facts, relating to the unlawful policies, customs or patterns and practices of the NYPD, City of New York and their respective policymakers, supervisors, police officers or employees, will become known after the completion of discovery, as such information is presently within the exclusive possession of defendants, the NYPD and City of New York.

64. Upon information and belief, the personnel files, records and disciplinary histories of the officer defendants will reveal a history of Constitutional violations indicative of defendant City's knowledge that the individual officer defendants were unfit for employment as NYPD officers, or for employment in general, and that the probability of the individually named defendants committing similar violations in the future was extremely high.

65. Upon information and belief, said personnel files, records and disciplinary histories will conclusively show that the City and the NYPD were fully aware of defendants' past constitutional violations, the unacceptably high probability for the recurrence of similar transgressions, the unreasonably dangerous situations that were likely to result from their hiring or retention, as well as their unsuitability for employment as law enforcement officers, or for employment in general, and that the NYPD and City of New York failed to engage in any preventive or corrective action intended to diminish the likelihood of recurrence for such violations, which is tantamount to the City's tacit approval of such misconduct or the City's deliberate indifference towards the civil rights of those who may interact with its employees, including Defendants, UMER, DYM, KONOWSKI, GOMEZ, OLSEN, FOY, MOSS, ROMERO, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-25.

66. Upon information and belief, the individually named defendants have combined to be named as defendants in numerous lawsuits that have accused them of committing violations similar or identical to those alleged herein, all of which have resulted no disciplinary or corrective action of any kind.

67. Upon information and belief, the NYPD and City of New York and have failed, or outright refused, to correct the individually named defendants' predilections to engage in unconstitutional behavior or attempt to prevent the recurrence of such misconduct

68. The aforementioned acts of Defendants, including UMER, DYM, KONOWSKI, GOMEZ, OLSEN, FOY, MOSS, ROMERO, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-25, directly or proximately resulted in the deprivation or violation of plaintiffs' civil rights, as guaranteed and protected by the First, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, as well as the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.

69. As a direct or proximate result of said acts, plaintiffs were caused to suffer the loss of their liberties, irreparable reputational harm, loss of earnings and potential earnings, physical injury, as well as severe and permanent emotional distress, including fear, embarrassment, humiliation, traumatization, frustration, extreme inconvenience, and anxiety.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Free Speech Retaliation Claim Under
New York State Law

70. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

71. Plaintiffs engaged in speech and activities that were protected by Article I, Section 8, of the New York State Constitution.

72. Defendants committed impermissible or unlawful actions against plaintiff that were motivated or substantially caused by plaintiffs' engagement in constitutionally protected speech or activities.

73. Defendants' retaliatory actions against plaintiffs resulted in the deprivation of their liberty and the initiation of criminal charges against them.

74. Defendants' retaliatory actions adversely affected plaintiffs' protected speech or activities by physically or procedurally preventing them from further pursuing said protected speech or activities or by chilling their desires to further participate or engage in such protected speech or activities.

75. Accordingly, plaintiffs' rights to engage in protected speech and activities, guaranteed and protected by Article I, Section 8, of the New York State Constitution, were violated by defendants.

76. Defendant City, as employer of the individual Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoings, under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

77. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, plaintiffs sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

First Amendment Retaliation Claim Under
42 U.S.C. § 1983 Against Individual Defendants

78. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.
79. Plaintiffs engaged in speech and activities that were protected by the First Amendment to the United States Constitution.
80. Defendants committed impermissible or unlawful actions against plaintiffs that were motivated or substantially caused by plaintiffs' engagement in constitutionally protected speech or activities.
81. Defendants' retaliatory actions against plaintiffs resulted in the deprivation of their liberty and the initiation of criminal charges against them.
82. Defendants' retaliatory actions adversely affected plaintiffs' protected speech or activities by physically or procedurally preventing them from further pursuing said protected speech or activities, or by chilling their desires to further participate or engage in such protected speech or activities.
83. Accordingly, plaintiffs' rights to engage in protected speech and activities, as guaranteed and protected by the First Amendment to the United States Constitution, were violated by defendants.
84. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiffs sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged
