VERIFIED COMPLAINT

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

Plaintiff WAYNE TAYLOR, by his attorneys, Jacobs & Hazan, LLP, as and for his Verified Complaint herein, alleges upon information and belief as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

This is a civil rights action to recover money damages arising out of defendants' violation of plaintiff's rights as secured by the Civil Rights Act, 42 U.S.C. Sections 1983 and 1988, and of rights secured by the First, Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, and the common law and the laws of the State of New York. On March 8, 2017, at approximately 5:30 a.m., plaintiff Wayne Taylor was lawfully inside of his apartment located at 881 E. 162nd Street, Apt. 7E, Bronx, New York, when defendants unlawfully and forcibly entered his apartment without a valid and legally obtained search warrant, searched plaintiff and his apartment, damaged property in plaintiff's apartment, unlawfully seized, falsely imprisoned and falsely arrested plaintiff without probable cause or legal justification. Plaintiff was transported to the 41st Precinct where he was unlawfully strip searched and issued a Desk Appearance Ticket for crimes he did not commit and for which the defendant police officers had no objective basis to accuse him of committing. The defendants denied plaintiff the right to due process and a fair trial and maliciously prosecuted him until October 12, 2017, when all charges against plaintiff were dismissed and sealed in their entirety. Plaintiff was deprived of his constitutional and common law rights when the individual defendants unlawfully searched, strip searched, confined, arrested, imprisoned, denied his rights to a fair trial, and maliciously prosecuted plaintiff in violation of the Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution.

PARTIES

1. Plaintiff WAYNE TAYLOR is and was at all times relevant herein a resident of the State of New York.

2. DETECTIVE KENDRICK MALDONADO, Shield No. 6687, is and was at all times relevant herein, an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.

3. DETECTIVE KENDRICK MALDONADO, Shield No. 6687, is and was at all times relevant herein, assigned to the 41st Precinct.

4. DETECTIVE KENDRICK MALDONADO, Shield No. 6687, is being sued in his individual and official capacity.

5. POLICE OFFICER AHSAN ZAFAR is and was at all times relevant herein, an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.

6. POLICE OFFICER AHSAN ZAFAR is and was at all times relevant herein, assigned to the 41st Precinct.

7. POLICE OFFICER AHSAN ZAFAR is being sued in his individual and official capacity.

8. New York City Police Officers John Does #1-10 are and were at all times relevant herein officers, employees, and agents of the New York City Police Department.

9. Police Officers John Does #1-10 are being sued in his individual and official capacities.

10. At all times relevant herein, the individual defendants were acting under color of state law in the course and scope of their duties and functions as agents, servants, employees and officers of the New York City Police Department, and otherwise performed and engaged in conduct incidental to the performance of their lawful functions in the course of their duties. They were acting for and on behalf of the New York City Police Department at all times relevant herein, with the power and authority vested in he as officers, agents and employees of the New York City Police Department and incidental to the lawful pursuit of their duties as officers, employees and agents of the New York City Police Department.

11. At all times relevant hereto, defendant CITY OF NEW YORK, operated, maintained managed, supervised and controlled the New York City Police Department ("NYPD") as part of and in conjunction with its municipal function.

12. Defendant City of New York is a municipal entity created and authorized under the laws of the State of New York. It is authorized by law to maintain a police department which acts as its agent in the area of law enforcement and for which it is ultimately responsible.

The defendant City of New York assumes the risks incidental to the maintenance of a police force and the employment of police officers as said risks attach to the public consumers of the services provided by the New York City Police Department.

13. Plaintiff in furtherance of his causes of action brought pursuant to New York State law filed a timely Notice of Claim against the CITY OF NEW YORK, in compliance with the Municipal Law Section 50.

14. More than thirty (30) days have elapsed since service of said Notice of Claim was filed and THE CITY OF NEW YORK has failed to pay or adjust the claim.

15. The CITY OF NEW YORK conducted a hearing pursuant to 50-h of the general municipal law on or about February 22, 2018

16. This action falls within one or more of the exceptions as set forth in CPLR Section 1602, involving intentional actions, as well as the defendant, and/or defendants, having acted in reckless disregard for the safety of others, as well as having performed intentional acts.

17. Plaintiff sustained damages in an amount in excess of the jurisdictional limits of all the lower Courts of the State of New York.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

18. On March 8, 2017, at approximately 5:30 a.m., plaintiff was lawfully present inside of his apartment located at 881 E. 162nd Street, Apt. 7E, Bronx, New York.

19. On March 8, 2017, at approximately 5:30 a.m., the defendant police officers unlawfully entered plaintiff's apartment located at 881 E. 162nd Street, Apt. 7E, Bronx, NY, without a valid search warrant, and searched the apartment and the individuals present.

20. At no time relevant herein did defendants recover any illegal drugs, weapons, or contraband from plaintiff's person, or from a location that was in plaintiff's possession, custody, or control.

21. At no time did plaintiff violate any law, commit any crime or violate the law in any way.

22. Defendants did not have an objective factual basis to believe plaintiff committed a crime or violated the law in any way.

23. Nevertheless, plaintiff was unlawfully arrested and transported to the 41st Precinct against his will where he was unlawfully searched, photographed, fingerprinted, and placed in a holding cell.

24. At the precinct, defendants conducted a strip search of plaintiff even though they did not recover any weapons, drugs, or contraband from plaintiff during the initial search, and had no reason to believe plaintiff was hiding contraband on his person, causing humiliation and emotional distress.

25. At no point in time did the police recover any drugs, guns or contraband from Plaintiff.

26. After several hours in unlawful custody at the 41st Precinct, plaintiff was issued a Desk Appearance Ticket by defendants and released from custody.

27. The defendant police officers provided the District Attorney's Office with the false, misleading and/or incomplete information that plaintiff possessed a controlled substance that allegedly led them to believe that plaintiff committed a crime.

28. Based upon the false, misleading and/or incomplete information provided to the District Attorney's Office by the defendant police officers, a prosecution was initiated against plaintiff.

29. On May 9, 2017, plaintiff was arraigned in Bronx County Criminal Court, charged with crimes he did not commit and that the defendant police officers had no basis to accuse him of committing, and released on his own recognizance.

30. Plaintiff was unlawfully charged with PL Section 221.05 – Unlawful Possession of Marijuana.

31. Thereafter, plaintiff was maliciously prosecuted and denied the right to due process for approximately 7 months until all charges were dismissed and sealed in their entirety on October 12, 2017.

32. Due to the malicious prosecution of plaintiff, plaintiff was required to appear in court on approximately 5 occasions for crimes he did not commit and for which the defendant police officers had no objective basis to accuse him of committing.

33. As a result of the false arrest of plaintiff, plaintiff was terminated from his job at Uber Eats where he was previously earning approximately $500 per week.

34. As a result of the unlawful search of plaintiff's home, plaintiff sustained significant property damage caused by the defendant officers including a broken front door which cost plaintiff $580 to repair..

35. Some of the police officer defendants observed the violation of plaintiff's rights under the Constitution of the United States and New York State Law and did nothing to prevent the unjustifiable search, strip search, seizure, and false arrest of plaintiff.

36. Additionally, there is a policy, practice or custom within the New York City Police Department, wherein New York City Police Officers illegally strip search individuals without a specific, articulable factual basis supporting a reasonable suspicion or probable cause to believe the individual secreted contraband, evidence, or has a weapon inside a body cavity as required by Sarnicola v. The County of Westchester, 01 Civ. 6078, 2002 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 20305 at *28-29 (S.D.N.Y. October 23, 2002).

37. New York City Police Officers have testified under oath that it is the policy, practice, and custom of the New York City Police Department to conduct strip searches of every person that is arrested. United States v. Gonzalez, 08 Cr 363 (BSJ), 2009 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 59742 at *7 (S.D.N.Y. March 2, 2009).

38. In fact, the Honorable Barbara S. Jones presiding in the Southern District of New York held that “there is a ‘[NYPD] departmental policy of strip searching all arrestees without making any assessment of particularized circumstances.’” Gonzalez, 2009 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 59742 at *20 (S.D.N.Y. March 2, 2009).

39. As a result of defendant City of New York and the New York City Police Department’s deliberate indifference about the fact that New York City Police Officers routinely conduct strip searches without reasonable suspicion and/or probable cause to believe a prisoner has secreted contraband underneath his clothing, there is a pattern, policy, custom or practice of New York City Police Officers strip searching individuals without a factual basis that establishes probable cause and a legal basis to conduct the strip search.

40. The unlawful search, strip search, false arrest, and false imprisonment, denial of a right to fair trial, and malicious prosecution of plaintiff by the individually named defendants caused plaintiff to sustain physical, psychological and emotional trauma.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Plaintiff’s Fourth Amendment, Fifth Amendment and Fourteenth Amendment Rights

41. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 40 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

42. The individually named police officer defendants while acting in concert and within the scope of their authority, caused plaintiff to be unlawfully seized, unlawfully searched, unlawfully strip searched, falsely arrested, falsely imprisoned, denied of his right to fair trial and maliciously prosecuted without probable cause in violation of plaintiff’s right to be free of unreasonable seizure under the Fourth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States, denial of his right to due process under the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States and to be free of deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

43. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

44. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

False Arrest and False Imprisonment

45. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 44 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

46. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute false arrest and false imprisonment under the laws of the State of New York. Defendants intended to confine plaintiff and, in fact, confined plaintiff, and plaintiff was conscious of the confinement. In addition, plaintiff did not consent to the confinement and the confinement was not otherwise privileged.

47. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

48. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

Unlawful Search

49. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 48 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

50. The illegal approach, pursuit, stop and search employed by defendants herein terminated plaintiff's freedom of movement through means intentionally applied.

51. Defendants lacked probable cause to search plaintiff and his apartment.

52. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

53. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Malicious Prosecution

54. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 53 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

55. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute malicious prosecution under the laws of the State of New York and New York State common law.

56. Defendants commenced and continued a criminal proceeding against plaintiff.

57. There was actual malice and an absence of probable cause for the criminal proceeding against plaintiff and for each of the charges for which they were prosecuted.

58. The prosecution and criminal proceedings terminated in plaintiff's favor on the aforementioned dates.

59. Plaintiff was subjected to a post-arraignment deprivation of liberty sufficient to implicate plaintiff's Fourth Amendment rights.

60. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York and the United States Constitution.

61. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

62. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligent Infliction of Emotional Distress

63. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 62 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

64. By the actions described herein, defendants, each acting individually and in concert with each other, engaged in extreme and outrageous conduct, conduct utterly intolerable in a civilized community, which negligently caused severe emotional distress to plaintiff, Wayne Taylor. The acts and conduct of the defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to plaintiff and violated plaintiff's statutory and common law rights as guaranteed by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.

65. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff was deprived of liberty and sustained great emotional injuries.

66. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligent Hiring, Retention, Training and Supervision

67. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 66 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

68. The City of New York and its employees, servants and/or agents acting within the scope of their employment did negligently hire, retain, train and supervise defendants, individuals who were unfit for the performance of police duties on the aforementioned dates at the aforementioned locations.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Plaintiff's Fifth and Fourteenth Amendment Rights Denial of Right to Fair Trial/Due Process

69. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 68 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

70. Defendants, individually and collectively, manufactured and/or withheld false evidence and forwarded this false evidence to prosecutors in the Bronx County District Attorney's Office.

71. Defendants filled out false and misleading police reports and forwarded them to prosecutors in the Bronx County District Attorney's Office.

72. Defendants signed false and misleading criminal court affidavits and forwarded them to prosecutors in the Bronx County District Attorney's Office.

73. In withholding/creating false evidence against plaintiff Wayne Taylor, and in providing/withholding information with respect thereto, defendants violated plaintiff's constitutional right to due process and fair trial under the New York State Constitution and under the Due Process Clause of the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States and to be free to deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution.

74. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff Wayne Taylor, sustained, inter alia, loss of the right to due process and a fair trial, loss of liberty, emotional distress, embarrassment and humiliation, lost earnings and deprivation of his constitutional rights.

75. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

76. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

77. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Unlawful Strip Search

78. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 77 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

79. Plaintiff was strip-searched by defendants without an individualized reasonable suspicion or probable cause to believe plaintiff was concealing weapons or other contraband underneath his clothing based on a crime charged, the particular characteristics of the arrestee, and/or the circumstances of the arrest.

80. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

81. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Municipal Liability under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 for Policy of Unlawful Strip-Searching All Prisoners Arrested For A Drug Related Crime

82. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 81 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

83. Defendants, collectively and individually, while acting under color of state law, engaged in conduct that constituted a custom, usage, practice, procedure or rule of defendant City of New York, which is forbidden by the Constitution of the United States.

84. The aforementioned customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of defendant City of New York and the New York City Police Department included, but were not limited to, illegally strip searching individuals without a specific, articulable factual basis supporting a reasonable suspicion and probable cause to believe the individual secreted contraband, evidence, or has a weapon inside a body cavity as required by Sarnicola v. The County of Westchester, 01-CIV-6078, 2002 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 20305 at *28-29 (S.D.N.Y. Oct. 23, 2002), as well as inadequate screening, hiring, retaining, training, and supervising its employees with respect to this issue.

85. The aforementioned customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of defendant City of New York and the New York City Police Department were the moving force behind the violation of plaintiff's rights as described herein. As a result of the failure of defendant City of New York and the New York City Police Department to properly recruit, screen, train, discipline, and supervise its officers, including the individual defendants, defendant City of New York has tacitly authorized, ratified, and has been deliberately indifferent to, the acts and conduct complained of herein.

86. The foregoing customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of defendant City of New York and the New York City Police Department were the moving force behind the Constitutional violations suffered by plaintiff as alleged herein.

87. The foregoing customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of defendant City of New York and the New York City Police Department were the direct and proximate cause of the constitutional violations suffered by plaintiff as alleged herein.

88. As a result of the foregoing customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, plaintiff was unlawfully strip searched at the 41st Precinct by the individually named defendant police officers.

89. Defendants collectively and individually, while acting under color of state law were directly and actively involved in violating plaintiff's constitutional rights.

TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Intervene

90. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 66 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

91. Defendants had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of plaintiff, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other officers.

92. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein.

93. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff's liberty was restricted for an extended period of time, he was put in fear of his safety, and he was humiliated and subject to other physical constraints.

94. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

JURY DEMAND

95. Plaintiff hereby demands trial by jury of all issues properly triable thereby.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, plaintiff Wayne Taylor demands judgment against the defendants on each cause of action in amounts to be determined upon the trial of this action which exceeds the jurisdiction of lower courts, inclusive of punitive damages and attorneys' fees inclusive of costs and disbursements of this action, interest and such other relief as is appropriate under the law. That the plaintiff recover the cost of the suit herein, including reasonable attorneys fees pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1988.
