Case Summary

On January 5, 2022, a call was placed to § 87(2)(b) at the number she provided in her complaint. § 87(2)(b) confirmed the time and place of occurrence before appearing to disconnect the call. That same day, another call was placed to § 87(2)(b) and a voicemail was left. On January 10, 2022, a call was placed to § 87(2)(b) and she appeared to disconnect the call. That same day, another call was placed to § 87(2)(b) and a voicemail was left. On January 13, 2022, a call was placed to § 87(2)(b) and a voicemail was left. That same day, the investigator received a missed call from that number, and when the investigator called back a woman identifying herself as § 87(2)(b) mother said § 87(2)(b) was not available. Between January 14, 2022 and January 18, 2022, two calls were placed to § 87(2)(b) who appeared to disconnect the calls in both instances when the investigator identified himself.

On January 18, 2022, a Clear search was performed for § 87(2)(b) which yielded two additional possible phone numbers. On January 18, 2022, a call was placed to the first of these numbers, and an automated message said the number could not accept calls at that time. That same day, a call was placed to the second of these numbers. § 87(2)(b) picked up and said she wanted the investigator to stop calling but appeared to disconnect the call before the investigator could ask her the mandatory withdrawal questions. Because § 87(2)(b) did not wish to continue with her complaint but did not formally withdraw it, it is recommended that this case be closed as complainant uncooperative.
