Upon information and belief, plaintiffs have expended and incurred diverse sums of money in an effort to extricate themselves from the indignities and humiliation imposed upon them by the actions of the defendants, their agents, servants and employees, including counsel fees and disbursements, and upon information and belief, will expend further sums in that direction.

40. That by the reason of the aforesaid, the plaintiffs have been damaged in an amount which exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts which otherwise would have jurisdiction.

AND AS FOR A SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

41. Plaintiffs repeat, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs "1" through "40" inclusive with the same force and effect as if more fully and at length set forth herein.
42. That on or about October 5, 2016, in the County of Bronx, City and State of New York, at which time and place defendant P.O. MANUEL BARRETO, was acting within the scope of his/her employment, authority and office as part of their regular and official employment as employees for defendants, THE CITY OF NEW YORK AND NEW YORK CITY POLICE DEPARTMENT.
43. That on or about October 5, 2016, in the County of Bronx, City and State of New York, at which time and place defendant SERGEANT VICTOR GENAO, was acting within the scope of his/her employment, authority and office as part of their regular and official employment as employees for defendants, THE CITY OF NEW YORK AND NEW YORK CITY POLICE DEPARTMENT.
44. That on or about October 5, 2016, in the County of Bronx, City and State of New York, at which time and place defendant P.O. STANLEY BAEZ SHIELD NO. 5980, was acting within the scope of his/her employment, authority and office as part of their regular and official employment as employees for defendants, THE CITY OF NEW YORK AND NEW YORK CITY POLICE DEPARTMENT.

45. That on or about October 5, 2016, in the County of Bronx, City and State of New York, at which time and place defendant SERGEANT JOHN JOYCE, was acting within the scope of his/her employment, authority and office as part of their regular and official employment as employees for defendants, THE CITY OF NEW YORK AND NEW YORK CITY POLICE DEPARTMENT.

46. That on or about October 5, 2016, in the County of Bronx, City and State of New York, at which time and place defendant P.O. RAFAEL VASQUEZ SHIELD NO. 11488, was acting within the scope of his/her employment, authority and office as part of their regular and official employment as employees for defendants, THE CITY OF NEW YORK and NEW YORK CITY POLICE DEPARTMENT.

47. As plaintiffs were lawfully and properly enjoying his right as a citizen of the United States of America, said defendants' employees of New York City Police Department, P.O. MANUEL BARRETO, SERGEANT VICTOR GENAO, P.O. STANLEY BAEZ SHIELD NO. 5980, SERGEANT JOHN JOYCE, and P.O. RAFAEL VASQUEZ SHIELD NO. 11488, who having the real and apparent ability to cause imminent harmful and offensive injury, and the power and authority to warrant for the prosecution of the Plaintiffs, did so threaten these acts upon the plaintiffs, and did so cause the plaintiffs herein to be prosecuted and in violation of plaintiff's civil rights; in failing to recognize, detect and investigate same; in revoking the rights of the plaintiffs herein; in failing to train, monitor, control and/or supervise their agents, servants and/or employees; and in prosecuting and continuing to prosecute the plaintiffs.

48. That defendants, P.O. MANUEL BARRETO, SERGEANT VICTOR GENAO, P.O. STANLEY BAEZ SHIELD NO. 5980, SERGEANT JOHN JOYCE, and P.O. RAFAEL VASQUEZ SHIELD NO. 11488, failed to properly and adequately ascertain that plaintiff was not in violation of the law and that plaintiff was prosecuted, depriving him of his rights and liberties as set forth in the Constitutions of the United States of America and of the State of New York without any conduct on the part of the plaintiff to so warrant, to wit:
- a) in that all the actions of the defendants, their agents, servants and/or employees, acting within scope and authority of their employment and office, committed with the intention to cause economic and mental injury to the plaintiffs, prosecuted the plaintiffs without their consent; plaintiffs were at all times conscious of their prosecution and did not consent the prosecution was not otherwise privileged;
 - b) the prosecution and imprisonment were not justified by probable cause or other legal privilege; defendants, their agents, servants and employees, acting under the color of the statute, ordinances, regulations, customs and usages of the United States of America, the State of New York, City of New York and County of Bronx, within the scope of their employment and under the authority of their office as employees of The New York City Police Department for said state.

c) that the defendants, their agents, servants and/or employees, acting within the scope and authority of their office and employment, caused and unlawful prosecution and of the plaintiff thus depriving him of his civil rights as guaranteed by the Constitution of the United States of America when they in a willful, wanton, reckless, careless and negligent manner deprived the plaintiffs of their due process, liberty and freedom without their consent and with the intention of causing harm and deprivation of their freedom and civil liberties, all without warrant, probable cause whatever; and,

d) that the defendants, their agents, servants and employees failed to adequately and properly train, supervise, monitor, discipline or in any other way control the behavior and performance of police officers, their agents, servants and/or employees; that in their practices in the exercise as a police officer, their exercise of supervisory functions and their failure to enforce the laws of the United States of America, the State and City of New York is evidence of the careless and negligent lack of cautious regard for the rights of the public including the plaintiff herein; in that they exhibited a lack of that degree of due care which prudent and reasonable individuals, and reasonable police officers would show in the execution of, and functions of the police officers; and,

e) the failure of the defendants, their agents, servants and employees to hire, train, supervise, discipline or in any other way control the defendants, in the exercise of their functions; in that their failure to enforce the laws of the United States of America, the State of New York and the City of New York were carried out carelessly and negligently and without regard for the consequences, so as to display a careless and negligent disregards for the dangers of harm and injury to the citizens of the United State of America, and the State and City of New York including, plaintiffs; and,

f) due to the acts of the defendants, their agents, servants and employees, and the failure of the defendants, to control, discipline, train, monitor, supervise and/or properly hire personnel under their care, supervision and control, and the continued employment of same presents a clear and present danger to the citizens of the United States of a America and the City and State of New York; and,

g) That the said prosecution was instituted and procured by the defendant, their agents, servants and employees, under the scope and authority of their office and employment in this action, unlawfully, carelessly and negligently and without any reasonable or probable cause whatsoever therefor. That the commencement and/or continuation of the revocation of freedom; hearing and criminal proceedings by the said defendants against the plaintiffs was without probable cause with actual malice and was ultimately terminated in favor of the plaintiffs, and,

h) that the defendants, their agents, servants and/or employees, acting within the scope and authority of their office and employment, permitted the use of policy, and or drafted policy that was violating the Constitutional rights of the above named plaintiffs; and, in that each and all of the employees alleged herein were done not as individuals but under the color and pretense of the statutes, ordinances, regulations, customs and usages of the State of New York, the City of New York and the County of Bronx, and under the authority of their office as police officers for said State, City and County.

RAFAEL VASQUEZ SHIELD NO. 11488, were employed by the defendants, THE CITY OF NEW YORK AND NEW YORK CITY POLICE DEPARTMENT, acting under color of law, have subjected plaintiffs and other persons to a pattern of conduct consisting of false prosecution and that said defendants, P.O. MANUEL BARRETO, SERGEANT VICTOR GENAO, P.O. STANLEY BAEZ SHIELD NO. 5980, SERGEANT JOHN JOYCE, and P.O. RAFAEL VASQUEZ SHIELD NO. 11488, did not confer due process upon the plaintiffs herein, and in denied the rights, privileges and immunities guaranteed plaintiffs and other citizens of the United States of America by the Constitution of the United States of America.
69. This systematic pattern of conduct consists of a large number of individual acts of violations of plaintiffs civil rights, and other citizens, by employees of NEW YORK CITY POLICE DEPARTMENT and more particularly the defendants, P.O. MANUEL BARRETO, SERGEANT VICTOR GENAO, P.O. STANLEY BAEZ SHIELD NO. 5980, SERGEANT JOHN JOYCE, and P.O. RAFAEL VASQUEZ SHIELD NO. 11488, in acting in concert with persons unknown to the plaintiffs and under color of law, and said acts, while carried out under color of law, within the scope and authority of their office and employment, having no justification or excuse in law and are instead reckless, careless and negligent, unrelated to any activity in which police officers may properly, appropriately and legally engage in the course of protecting persons or property or ensuring civil order.

70. Although defendants THE CITY OF NEW YORK AND NEW YORK CITY POLICE DEPARTMENT, knew or should have known of the fact that this pattern of conduct was carried out by , P.O. MANUEL BARRETO, SERGEANT VICTOR GENAO, P.O. STANLEY BAEZ SHIELD NO. 5980, SERGEANT JOHN JOYCE, and P.O. RAFAEL VASQUEZ SHIELD NO. 11488 have not taken any steps or made any efforts to halt this course of conduct, to make redress to the plaintiffs or other Citizens injured thereby, or to take any disciplinary action whatever against any of their employees or agents.
71. The conduct of the defendants, P.O. MANUEL BARRETO, SERGEANT VICTOR GENAO, P.O. STANLEY BAEZ SHIELD NO. 5980, SERGEANT JOHN JOYCE, and P.O. RAFAEL VASQUEZ SHIELD NO. 11488 deprived plaintiffs of the following rights, privileges and immunities secured to them the Constitution of the United States and of the State of New York:

- a) The right of plaintiffs to be informed of the nature and cause of the accusation against him/her as secured to them under the Sixth and Fourteenth Amendments of the Constitution of the United States; and

- b) The right of plaintiffs no to be deprived of life, liberty or property without due process of law, and the right to the equal protection of the laws secured by the fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

72. That by reason of the aforesaid negligence, malicious prosecution, negligent performance of duties, negligent hiring and retention, negligent training and supervision, and violation of civil rights caused by the defendants, THE CITY OF NEW YORK AND NEW YORK CITY POLICE DEPARTMENT, P.O. MANUEL BARRETO, SERGEANT VICTOR GENAO, P.O. STANLEY BAEZ SHIELD NO. 5980, SERGEANT JOHN JOYCE, and P.O. RAFAEL VASQUEZ SHIELD NO. 11488, acting within the scope and authority of their office and employment, who conspired together to enter into a nefarious scheme to wrongfully deprive the plaintiffs, and compel him to abandon his rights and privileges as provided to him in the Constitution of the United States of America, and provided to him in the Constitution of the State of New York, and laws thereto, the defendants, THE CITY OF NEW YORK AND NEW YORK CITY POLICE DEPARTMENT, P.O. MANUEL BARRETO, SERGEANT VICTOR GENAO, P.O. STANLEY BAEZ SHIELD NO. 5980, SERGEANT JOHN JOYCE, and P.O. RAFAEL VASQUEZ SHIELD NO. 11488 violated 42 U.S.C. Sec. 1983 in that the defendants, THE CITY OF NEW YORK AND NEW YORK CITY POLICE DEPARTMENT, P.O. MANUEL BARRETO, SERGEANT VICTOR GENAO, P.O.

STANLEY BAEZ SHIELD NO. 5980, SERGEANT JOHN JOYCE, and P.O.

RAFAEL VASQUEZ SHIELD NO. 11488 acted as persons who under color of any statute, ordinances, regulation, custom or usage of the City of New York and the State of New York, subjected or caused to be subjected, citizens of the United States of America or other persons within the jurisdiction, particularly the plaintiffs thereof to be deprived of their rights, privileges and immunities received by the Constitution and laws of the United States of America and of the State of New York; was subjected to great indignities and humiliation, and pain and distress of mind and was held up to scorn and ridicule, injured their character and reputation, was prevented from attending their usual business and vocation and were injured in their reputation in the community and the acts aforementioned were committed with the aim of injuring and damaging plaintiffs.

73. That the aforesaid occurrence, malicious prosecution, negligent performance of duties, negligent hiring and retention, negligent supervision and training and violation of civil rights, was cause solely and wholly by reason of the negligence of the defendants, THE CITY OF NEW YORK

AND NEW YORK CITY POLICE DEPARTMENT, P.O. MANUEL BARRETO,

SERGEANT VICTOR GENAO, P.O. STANLEY BAEZ SHIELD NO. 5980,

SERGEANT JOHN JOYCE, and P.O. RAFAEL VASQUEZ SHIELD NO. 11488

without any negligence on the part of the plaintiffs herein.

29

74. That by reason of the aforesaid, the plaintiffs have been subjected to great indignities, humiliation and ridicule; were greatly injured in their credit and circumstances; were prevented from performing and transacting their necessary affairs and business; and they were incapacitated from their usual occupation. Upon information and belief, plaintiffs have expended diverse sums of monies, and incurred debt, in an effort to extricate themselves from the imprisonment, indignities and humiliation foisted upon them by the actions of the defendants, their agents, servants and employees, including counsel fees and disbursement and, upon information and belief, will expend further sums in that direction.

75. That by reason of the aforesaid, the plaintiffs requests the following relief:
- a) Punitive damages in an amount which exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts which otherwise would have jurisdiction.
 - b) Compensatory damages in the amount which exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts which otherwise would have jurisdiction.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff demands judgment against the Defendants herein, in a sum exceeding the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction, together with the costs and disbursements of this action.
