Plaintiff BRENDEN PULLEY, by his attorneys, Shulman-Hill, PLLC, as and for his Verified Complaint herein, alleges upon information and belief as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. This is a civil rights action to recover money damages arising out of defendants' violations of Plaintiff's rights as secured by the Civil Rights Act, 42 U.S.C. Sections 1983 and 1988, and of rights secured by the Fourth, Fifth, and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution. On September 8, 2020, at approximately 11:10 p.m., Plaintiff Brenden Pulley, while lawfully in the vicinity of 747 MacDonough Street, County of Kings, State of New York, was subject to an unlawful stop, question, frisk, search, false arrest, and false imprisonment by the defendant police officers. Plaintiff was subjected to the use of excessive force, assault, and battery in his unlawful arrest, as well as suffered mental and emotional injury as a result. Plaintiff was subjected to unlawful imprisonment for approximately forty-two (42) days before he was finally released on bail. Plaintiff's criminal case was dismissed and sealed on or about April 20, 2022. Plaintiff was deprived of his constitutional and common law rights when the individual defendants unlawfully stopped, questioned, frisked, searched, confined, falsely arrested, falsely imprisoned, and fabricated evidence against Plaintiff in violation of the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution.

PARTIES

2. Plaintiff Brenden Pulley is a resident of the state of New York.
3. NYPD Police Officer Frank Hernandez, Shield No. 22758, was at all times relevant herein an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.
4. NYPD Police Officer Frank Hernandez, Shield No. 22758, is being sued in his individual and official capacities.
5. NYPD Police Officer Frank Hernandez, Shield No. 22758, was at all times relevant herein assigned to the 73rd Precinct.
6. NYPD Police Sergeant Samuel Hui, Shield No. 3588, was at all times relevant herein an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.
7. NYPD Police Sergeant Samuel Hui, Shield No. 3588, is being sued in his individual and official capacities.
8. NYPD Police Sergeant Samuel Hui, Shield No. 3588, was at all times relevant herein assigned to the 73rd Precinct.
9. NYPD Police Officers John and Jane Does Numbers One through Ten are and were at all times relevant herein officers, employees, and agents of the New York City Police Department.
10. NYPD Police Officers John and Jane Does Numbers One through Ten are being sued in their individual and official capacities.
11. At all times relevant herein, the individual defendants were acting under color of state law in the course and scope of their duties and functions as agents, servants, employees and officers of the New York City Police Department, and otherwise performed and engaged in conduct incidental to the performance of their lawful functions in the course of their duties. They were acting for and on behalf of the New York City Police Department at all times relevant herein, with the power and authority vested in them as officers, agents and employees of the New York City Police Department and incidental to the lawful pursuit of their duties as officers, employees and agents of the New York City Police Department.
12. This action falls within one or more of the exceptions as set forth in CPLR Section 1602, involving intentional actions, as well as the defendant, and/or defendants, having acted in reckless disregard for the safety of others, as well as having performed intentional acts.
13. Plaintiff has sustained damages in an amount in excess of the jurisdictional limits of all the lower Courts of the State of New York.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

14. On September 8, 2020, at approximately, 11:19 p.m., Plaintiff was lawfully in the vicinity of 747 MacDonough Street, County of Kings, State of New York, when he was subjected to an unlawful stop, question, frisk, search, false arrest, false imprisonment, and denial of various federal constitutional rights by the defendant NYPD police officers.

15. Plaintiff was sitting in the passenger seat of his friend's car, which had just pulled up to his house, in violation of no law, regulation, ordinance, or lawful order, when the defendant officers approached them after exiting from an unmarked vehicle with flashlights drawn.

16. Defendant officers started questioning Plaintiff about what he had on his person before violently pulling Plaintiff out of the vehicle and subjecting Plaintiff to two (2) unlawful frisk searches, both without probable cause or legal justification.

17. Defendant officers arrested Plaintiff, placing him in unreasonably tight metal handcuffs causing pain to his wrists.

18. At no point did defendant officers lawfully recover any drugs, weapons, graffiti instruments, or other illegal contraband from Plaintiff or from a location that was in Plaintiff's possession, custody, or control.

19. Plaintiff did not resist arrest at any point.

20. Plaintiff was placed in the back of an NYPD vehicle and transported to the 79th Precinct for processing, against his will. Plaintiff still did not know why he had been arrested.

21. Upon his arrival at the 79th Precinct, he was fingerprinted, photographed and placed in a holding cell.

22. At the 79th Precinct, Plaintiff was subjected to a strip search, while handcuffed, that involved his pants being pulled down forcibly by defendant officers and Plaintiff being lifted off the ground, causing physical injury.

23. While Plaintiff was in custody, the defendant police officers provided the Kings County District Attorney's Office with the false, misleading and/or incomplete information that Plaintiff committed a crime.

24. Specifically, the defendant police officers falsely stated to the Kings County District Attorney's Office that Plaintiff was engaged in criminal possession of a loaded firearm.

25. Plaintiff remained at the 79th Precinct for approximately twelve (12) hours, until he was transferred to central bookings.

26. Based on the Defendant officers false allegations, a Judge set bail on Plaintiff, and Plaintiff was sent to Rikers Island.

27. During Plaintiff's time in custody, those defendant officers not directly involved in the conduct described herein observed the violation of Plaintiff's rights under the Constitution of the United States and New York State Law and did nothing to prevent their fellow officers from unjustifiably assaulting, battering, and using excessive force against Plaintiff.

28. On or about October 8, 2020, Plaintiff was able to afford bail, and was released from Rikers Island.

29. Plaintiff would return to court approximately nineteen (19) times before the charges against Plaintiff were dismissed and sealed on April 20, 2022.

30. The unlawful assault, battery, and use of excessive force by the individually named defendants caused Plaintiff to sustain physical, psychological and emotional trauma.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligence

31. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
32. Defendants owed a duty of care to Plaintiff.
33. To the extent defendants claim that the injuries to Plaintiff by the defendant police officers were unintentionally caused and that the force used by the defendants against him was unintentional, then the defendants breached that duty of care by, among other things, seizing and tightly handcuffing him.
34. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.
35. All of the foregoing occurred without any fault or provocation by Plaintiff.
36. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
37. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.
38. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff's sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION
Unlawful Stop, Question, and Search

39. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.
40. The illegal approach, pursuit, stop and grab employed by defendants herein terminated Plaintiff's freedom of movement through means intentionally applied.
41. The conduct of defendants in approaching, stopping, and grabbing Plaintiff was performed under color of law and without any reasonable suspicion of criminality or other constitutionally required grounds.
42. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the United States Constitution.
43. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
44. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION
Violation of Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment Rights:
Unlawful Seizure and Deprivation of Liberty

45. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.
46. The individually named police officer defendants, while acting in concert and within the scope of their authority, caused Plaintiff to be seized, unlawfully searched, falsely arrested, and falsely imprisoned, and maliciously prosecuted without reasonable suspicion and/or probable cause, in violation of Plaintiff's right to be free of an unreasonable seizure under the Fourth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.
47. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional, and psychological injuries.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION
False Imprisonment

48. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

49. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute false arrest and false imprisonment. Defendants intended to confine Plaintiff and, in fact, confined Plaintiff, and Plaintiff was conscious of the confinement. In addition, Plaintiff did not consent to the confinement and the confinement was not otherwise privileged.
50. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the United States Constitution.
51. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
52. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.
53. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to loss of liberty, emotional and psychological injuries.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Plaintiff's Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment Rights: Excessive Force

54. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
55. The use of excessive force by defendants by, amongst other things, lifting him off the ground during a strip search, causing physical injury, constituted objectively unreasonable physical seizures of Plaintiff in violation of his rights under the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligent Infliction of Emotional Distress

56. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
57. By the actions described herein, defendants, each acting individually and in concert with each other, engaged in extreme and outrageous conduct, conduct utterly intolerable in a civilized community, which negligently caused severe emotional distress to Plaintiff. The acts and conduct of the defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to Plaintiff and violated Plaintiff's statutory and common law rights as guaranteed by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.

58. The acts and conduct of the defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to Plaintiff and violated Plaintiff's statutory and common law rights as guaranteed Plaintiff by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.
59. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.
60. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
61. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligent Hiring, Retention, Training and Supervision

62. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effects as if more fully set forth at length herein.
63. The City of New York and its employees, servants and/or agents acting within the scope of their employment did negligently hire, retain, train and supervise defendants, individuals who were unfit for the performance of police duties on the aforementioned dates at the aforementioned locations.
64. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional and psychological injuries.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Intervene

65. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
66. The defendants that did not physically touch Plaintiff but were present when other officers violated Plaintiff's Constitutional Rights had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of Plaintiff, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other officers.
67. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein.

68. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff suffered significant mental and emotional injuries, his liberty was restricted for an extended period of time, he was put in fear for his safety, and he was humiliated and subject to other physical constraints.
69. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the United States Constitution.
70. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment Rights: Denial of Right to Fair Trial/Due Process

71. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.
72. Defendants, individually and collectively, manufactured and/or withheld false evidence and forwarded this false evidence to prosecutors in the Kings County District Attorney's Office.
73. Defendants filled out false and misleading police reports and forwarded them to prosecutors in the Kings County District Attorney's Office.
74. Defendants signed false and misleading criminal court affidavits and forwarded them to prosecutors in the Kings County District Attorney's Office.
75. In withholding/creating false evidence against Plaintiff, and in providing/withholding information with respect thereto, Defendants violated Plaintiff's constitutional right to due process and fair trial under the Due Process Clause of the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States and to be free to deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution.
76. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff sustained, inter alia, loss of the right to due process and a fair trial, loss of liberty, emotional distress, embarrassment and humiliation, and deprivation of his constitutional rights.

TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Malicious Prosecution

77. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.
78. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute malicious prosecution under the United States Constitution.
79. Defendants commenced and continued a criminal proceeding against Plaintiff.

80. There was actual malice and an absence of probable cause for the criminal proceeding against Plaintiff and for each of the charges for which they were prosecuted.
81. The prosecution and criminal proceedings terminated in Plaintiff's favor on the aforementioned dates.

ELEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Article I, § 12 of the New York State Constitution

82. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges each and every allegation contained in the above paragraphs with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein.
83. Such conduct breached the protections guaranteed to plaintiff by the New York State Constitution, including but not limited to, Article 1, §§ 1, 6, 8, 9, 11, and 12, and including the following rights:
- i. freedom from unreasonable search and seizure of his person and property;
 - ii. freedom from arrest without probable cause;
 - iii. freedom from false imprisonment, that being wrongfully detained without good faith, reasonable suspicion, or legal justification, and of which wrongful detention plaintiff was aware and did not consent;
 - iv. freedom from the lodging of false charges against him by police officers and prosecutors, including on information and belief, by some or all of the individual defendants; and
 - v. freedom from deprivation of liberty without due process of law.
84. As a direct and proximate result of defendants' deprivations of Plaintiff's rights, privileges, and immunities guaranteed by the New York State Constitution, Plaintiff suffered physical, economic and emotional injuries, as well as a deprivation of liberty.
85. As a result of the above tortious conduct, Plaintiff was caused to suffer physical, economic, and emotional injuries, as well as a deprivation of liberty.
86. As a result of the above unconstitutional conduct, the City of New York is liable for the conduct of the Individual Defendants and any damages they caused under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

JURY DEMAND

87. Plaintiff hereby demands trial by jury of all issues properly triable thereby.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff demands judgment against the defendants on each cause of action in amounts to be determined upon the trial of this action which exceeds the jurisdiction of lower courts, inclusive of punitive damages and attorneys' fees inclusive of costs and disbursements of this action, interest and such other relief as is appropriate under the law. That the Plaintiff recover the cost of the suit herein, including reasonable attorney's fees pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1988 and 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 801 et seq..
