1. This is a civil rights action, in which plaintiffs seek relief, vis-à-vis 42 U.S.C. §§ 1981, 1983, 1985, 1986 and 1988, the laws of the State of New York, in addition to the self-executing clauses or implied private causes of action within the New York State Constitution, for the violations of their civil rights, as guaranteed and protected by the Fourth, Fifth, Sixth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States, as well as the Laws and Constitution of the State of New York.

2. The following claims arose on or about July 13, 2018 when Defendants, acting under color of state law, unlawfully stopped, questioned, searched, arrested and detained Plaintiffs Osman Alakifi and Bruce Siame inside of 3722 White Plains Road, within the County of Bronx, City and State of New York. Plaintiffs were subsequently transported to the 47th Precinct. As a result, Plaintiffs were deprived of their liberties and suffered various physical, emotional and psychological injuries. Plaintiffs Osman Alakifi and Bruce Siame were wrongfully detained over the course of approximately two (2) days. Plaintiffs was maliciously prosecuted until all criminal charges were dismissed on April 23, 2019 which constituted a termination of the criminal proceedings in favor of the accused.

3. At all times here mentioned, Defendants were acting under color of state law, to wit, under color of the statutes, ordinances, regulations, policies, customs and usages of the City and State of New York.

4. Plaintiffs filed their notices of claim with the City of New York in compliance with the General Municipal Law.

5. Over 30 days have elapsed since the filing of the aforesaid notices, and this matter has not been settled or otherwise disposed of.

6. Plaintiffs seek monetary damages (compensatory and punitive) against Defendants, an award of costs and reasonable attorneys' fees, and such other and further relief as this Court may deem just and proper.

FACTUAL CHARGES

18. On or about July 13, 2018, at approximately 11:15 p.m., Mr. Alakifi and Mr. Siame were lawfully present inside of 3722 White Plains Road, Bronx, New York. The aforesaid location is a Deli Grocery Store in which Mr. Alakifi worked as a delivery worker. At said time and place, Plaintiffs were illegally approached by Defendants, including GURLESKI, INGRASSIA and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10.

19. Defendants, including GURLESKI, INGRASSIA and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, unlawfully questioned Plaintiffs and accused them of possessing a synthetic form of marijuana, despite possessing no valid reason to inquire, as no criminal activity was present or even reasonably suspected.

20. Defendants, including GURLESKI, INGRASSIA and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, never observed Plaintiffs in criminal possession of synthetic cannabinoid nor any other illegal drug, controlled substance, nor any other contraband.

21. Defendants, including GURLESKI, INGRASSIA and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, then violently grabbed and contorted plaintiffs' arms behind their backs and applied metal handcuffs to their wrists in an excessively tight fashion.

22. Defendants, including GURLESKI, INGRASSIA and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, then forcibly removed Plaintiffs to the 47th NYPD precinct.

23. Defendants, including GURLESKI, INGRASSIA and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, criminally processed Plaintiffs which included fingerprinting, retina scans and various invasive bodily searches.

24. Defendants, including GURLESKI, INGRASSIA and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, then subjected Plaintiffs to illegal interrogation tactics by threatening them with a protracted criminal prosecution followed by a lengthy imprisonment, if they did not agree to testify and provide false evidence against the Defendants' true target and suspect or by providing Defendants with information related other criminal activity.

25. Defendants, including GURLESKI, INGRASSIA and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, retaliated against Plaintiffs by forwarding fabricated evidence to prosecutors, namely that Defendants found aforesaid synthetic cannabinoid in Plaintiffs' possession.

26. Defendants, including GURLESKI, INGRASSIA and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, proceeded to suppress exculpatory evidence from prosecutors, so that Plaintiffs would be criminally prosecuted. At no point did Plaintiff exercise any dominion or control over any illegal drugs at any point which was known to Defendants and thus, facts were fabricated.

27. Defendants, including GURLESKI, INGRASSIA and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, based upon said fabricated observations, falsely informed prosecutors that Plaintiffs had possessed said illegal drugs, despite their full and complete knowledge that Plaintiffs had committed no crimes or violations of the law and that a criminal prosecution would never succeed in the total absence of any probable cause to believe otherwise.

28. After Plaintiffs' arraignments, they were compelled to return to court multiple times to contest egregiously false criminal charges alleged against them by Defendants, including GURLESKI, INGRASSIA and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10.

29. Defendants, including GURLESKI, INGRASSIA and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, arrested and caused a criminal prosecution to be initiated against plaintiffs, because of their desires to use Plaintiffs' arrests and criminal prosecutions as leverage against their true target, to incur additional overtime compensation, benefits and favor from the superior officers, to avoid adverse consequences associated with failing to meet NYPD departmental arrest quotas and also to conceal their egregious violations of proper police procedures and gross misconduct, including their fabrications of non-existent observations, evidence and information.

30. Defendants, including GURLESKI, INGRASSIA and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, illegally and unjustly targeted Plaintiffs for law enforcement action, due to the impermissible considerations of Plaintiffs' color, race, ethnicity, sexual orientation, sex or gender, or defendants' impermissible perceptions thereof, as plaintiffs would not have been stopped, searched, arrested or maliciously prosecuted if they were not from members of a protected class, as an ethnic minority.

31. Defendants, including GURLESKI, INGRASSIA and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, engaged in a conspiracy to falsely arrest and maliciously prosecute Plaintiffs by personally conferring with each other, regarding the fabrication of the aforementioned non-existent evidence, the suppression of exculpatory evidence, as well as the manner and means by which said fabrications could be used to deprive Mr. Alakifi and Mr. Siame of their liberties and civil rights.

32. Defendants, including GURLESKI, INGRASSIA and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, arrested and maliciously prosecuted plaintiffs, because of their racially discriminatory beliefs, which compelled defendants to equate to plaintiffs' ethnic or national origins to criminal guilt or criminal knowledge.

33. Defendants, including GURLESKI, INGRASSIA and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, perpetrated multiple overt acts in furtherance of their obviously discriminatory inclinations, namely the complained-of stop, searches, assaults, batteries, seizures, arrests, and malicious prosecutions against plaintiffs, even after they were unable to discover any evidence to justify such conduct.

34. Defendants, including GURLESKI, INGRASSIA and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, unlawfully stopped, questioned, searched, seized, arrested, and maliciously prosecuted plaintiffs, due to Defendants' perception or consideration of plaintiffs' ethnicity or national origin.

35. Defendants, including GURLESKI, INGRASSIA and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, possessed no valid reason to search, seizure or arrest plaintiffs, which gives rise to the strong inference that such conduct resulted from defendants' unjust motivations or proclivities.

36. Plaintiffs assert that the Defendants, including GURLESKI, INGRASSIA and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, who violated Plaintiffs' civil rights, are part of a larger pattern and practice of similar misconduct, which is so widespread, pervasive and consistent throughout the NYPD and the City of New York that the commission such constitutionally violative behavior has become tantamount to an official policy or custom within the NYPD and City of New York or, at the very least, conclusive evidence that the City and the NYPD have either tacitly approved of such egregious wrongdoings or that they have become deliberately indifferent to the civil rights of those who may come into contact with their police officers.

37. The identity of Defendants, JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10 is unknown at this present time. However, these Defendants were involved in plaintiffs' false arrest, unlawful detention, and malicious prosecution, including fabricating evidence related to the criminal court matter with Docket Numbers of 2018BX024149, 2018BX024150 and 2018BX024151 or Arrest Numbers of B18631879 and B18631882. The identity of the JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10 Defendants are known to the Defendants.

38. The New York Times, as well as numerous other reputable journalistic enterprises, have reported on the widespread corruption within the NYPD and City of New York, particularly the incredibly disconcerting proclivity of many NYPD officers to lie about subject matters that are materially relevant to criminal prosecutions, including the complete fabrication of arrest evidence and witnesses. Also detailed, is the NYPD's obstinate refusal to effectuate corrective or preventive measures to combat the inevitable recurrence of such misdeeds, and perhaps most troubling, the NYPD's alarming tendency to, instead, reward and promote these officers, including those who were inculpated via some incontrovertible form of evidence.

39. On March 18, 2018, The New York Times published an explosive article, entitled "Promotions, Not Punishments for Officers Accused of Lying," written by Joseph Goldstein. Mr. Goldstein shines a light on the multitude of flaws within the CCRB and the NYPD, highlighting the fact that the substantiation of a claim against an officer will invariably rely on the presence of incontrovertible proof against the officer. Due to the rarity availability of this type of evidence, an alarmingly small percentage of officer misconduct claims are substantiated. The CCRB is further handicapped by a terribly designed system that requires evidence of a virtually indisputable nature to substantiate any claim against an officer. The article also details the NYPD's persistent reluctance to investigate or discipline officers who lie and even posits that this reluctance is a significant cause of the lying pandemic within the NYPD. The article references various officers and detectives who were the subject of credible accusations relating to the officers' intentionally false statements, with some allegations coming from federal and state judges.

40. On September 12, 2019, The New York Times published another article by Joseph Goldstein, entitled "Officers Said They Smelled Pot. The Judge Called Them Liars." Unsurprisingly, this article dealt with the unusually high frequency of officers using the odor of marijuana to excuse a search that conspicuously does not result in the recovery of any marijuana. It should not require an article in The New York Times to call attention to such patently disingenuous tactics, but has become necessary for a variety of reasons, including the NYPD's failure to correct such behavior, the willingness of prosecutors and judges to credit the lying officers and the increasing rate of occurrence.

41. On April 24, 2019, The New York Times published an article, entitled "Detective's Lies Sent Three People to Prison, Prosecutors Charge," by Sean Piccolo, detailing the lies of NYPD Second Grade Detective Joseph Franco and how those lies resulted in the imprisonment of at least three innocent people. The article described how Det. Franco lied about observing drug transactions on at least three separate occasions, lies that were only uncovered through contradictory video evidence. Det. Franco's lies resulted in the innocent individuals each being sentenced to prison terms in excess of one-year.

42. Other articles include: (i) “Testilying’ by Police: A Stubborn Problem.,” by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, March 18, 2018; (ii) “New York Detective Charged with Faking Lineup Results,” by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, February 17, 2018; (iii) “He Excelled as a Detective, Until Prosecutors Stopped Believing Him,” by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, October 17, 2017; (iv) “Review Board Notes Rise in New York Police Officers’ False Statement,” by J. David Goodman, The New York Times, May 14, 2015; (v) “In Brooklyn Gun Cases, Suspicion Turns to the Police,” by Stephanie Clifford, The New York Times, December 11, 2014; (vi) “Detective is Found Guilty of Planting Drugs,” by Tim Stelloh, The New York Times, November 1, 2011; and (vii) “The Drugs? They Came From the Police,” by Jim Dwyer, The New York Times, October 13, 2011.

43. The NYPD has a longstanding and ignominious record of failing to discipline its officers, or even entertaining allegations of wrongdoing against them. On June 26, 2019, The New York Times published an article, entitled “2,495 Reports of Police Bias. Not One Was Deemed Valid by the N.Y.P.D.” This article reported that within the last five (5) years, almost 2,500 separate individuals have filed formal complaints with the NYPD alleging that an officer acted with bias toward them, with not a single one being substantiated by the NYPD. Such a finding is plainly incredible and obviously the result of deliberately poor or nonexistent investigatory protocols. The report further impugned the NYPD’s commitment to combat the prejudices and the biases exhibited by many of its officers.

44. Upon information and belief, the NYPD, the City of New York, and their respective policymakers, officials or supervisors have imposed, tacitly approved or acquiesced to policies, customs, or patterns and practices within the NYPD that resulted in Plaintiff’s arrest without probable cause.

45. Upon information and belief, the NYPD, the City of New York, and their respective policymakers or supervisors have failed to provide adequate training regarding the identification of probable cause, reasonable suspicion or the appropriate amount of force to be used.

46. Defendants' actions, pursuant to Plaintiff's underlying arrest, which occurred without even the semblance of probable cause, were so blatantly violative of Plaintiff's civil rights that the tacit approval of identical or similar acts by the policymakers or supervisors of the NYPD and the City of New York, as well as their deliberate indifference towards the rights of any individuals who may come into contact with Defendants, should be inferred, because such flagrant deprivations of constitutionally protected rights could not and would not occur without the tacit approval or deliberate indifference regarding the commission of such violations by the policymakers or supervisors of the NYPD and City of New York.

47. Upon information and belief, further details and facts, relating to the unlawful policies, customs or patterns and practices of the NYPD, City of New York and their respective policymakers, supervisors, police officers or employees, will become known after the completion of discovery, as such information is presently within the exclusive possession of Defendants, the NYPD and City of New York.

48. Upon information and belief, the personnel files, records and disciplinary histories of the officer Defendants will reveal a history of Constitutional violations indicative of Defendant City's knowledge that the individual officer Defendants were unfit for employment as NYPD officers, or for employment in general, and that the probability of the individually named Defendants committing similar violations in the future was extremely high.

49. Upon information and belief, said personnel files, records and disciplinary histories will conclusively show that the City and the NYPD were fully aware of Defendants' past constitutional violations, the unacceptably high probability for the recurrence of similar transgressions, the unreasonably dangerous situations that were likely to result from their hiring or retention, as well as their unsuitability for employment as law enforcement officers, or for employment in general, and that the NYPD and City of New York failed to engage in any preventive or corrective action intended to diminish the likelihood of recurrence for such violations, which is tantamount to the City's tacit approval of such misconduct or the City's deliberate indifference towards the civil rights of those who may interact with its employees, including Defendants, GURLESKI, INGRASSIA and JOHN OR JANE DOES 1-10.

50. Upon information and belief, the individually named Defendants have combined to be named as Defendants in numerous lawsuits that have accused them of committing violations similar or identical to those alleged herein, all of which have resulted no disciplinary or corrective action of any kind.

51. Upon information and belief, the NYPD and City of New York and have failed, or outright refused, to correct the individually named Defendants' predilections to engage in unconstitutional behavior or attempt to prevent the recurrence of such misconduct.

52. The aforementioned acts of Defendants, including GURLESKI, INGRASSIA and JOHN OR JANE DOES 1-10, directly or proximately resulted in the deprivation or violation of Plaintiff's civil rights, as guaranteed and protected by the Fourth, Fifth, Sixth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, as well as the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.

53. As a direct or proximate result of said acts, Plaintiff was caused to suffer the loss of his liberty, irreparable reputational harm, loss of earnings and potential earnings, physical injury, as well as severe and permanent emotional distress, including fear, embarrassment, humiliation, traumatization, frustration, extreme inconvenience, and anxiety.
