VERIFIED COMPLAINT

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

Plaintiff JAMES MCFEE, by his attorneys, Shulman-Hill, PLLC, as and for his Verified Complaint herein, alleges upon information and belief as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. This is a civil rights action to recover money damages arising out of defendants' violation of Plaintiff's rights as secured by the Civil Rights Act, 42 U.S.C. Sections 1983 and 1988, and of rights secured by the Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, and the common law and the laws of the State of New York. On June 15, 2021, at approximately 7:30 p.m., Plaintiff James McFee, while lawfully in the vicinity of 587 Park Avenue, County of Kings, New York, was subject to an unlawful arrest, detention, assault, battery and excessive use of force by defendant Police Officers. Plaintiff was deprived of his rights under 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 8802 and his constitutional, common law and statutory rights when the individual defendants unlawfully stopped, detained, assaulted, battered, subjected to excessive force, passed along false accusations to prosecuting attorneys and engaged in the malicious prosecution of Plaintiff, in violation of the Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, the common law and the laws of the State of New York.

PARTIES

2. Plaintiff James McFee is a resident of the state of New York.

3. New York City Police Officer Pascual Melo, Shield No. 6249, is and was at all times relevant herein an Officer with the New York City Police Department.

4. New York City Police Officer Pascual Melo, Shield No. 6249, is being sued in their individual and official capacity.

5. Currently and at all times relevant herein, New York City Police Officer Pascual Melo, Shield No. 6249, was assigned to the Housing-PSA3 Police Precinct of the NYPD.

6. New York City Police Officers John Does #1-10 are and were at all times relevant herein officers, employees, and agents of the New York City Police Department.

7. Police Officers John Does #1-10 are being sued in their individual and official capacities.

8. Currently and at all times relevant herein, New York City Police Officer Pascual Melo was assigned to the Housing-PSA3 Police Precinct of the NYPD.

9. At all times relevant herein, the individual defendants were acting under color of state law in the course and scope of their duties and functions as agents, servants, employees and officers of the New York City Police Department, and otherwise performed and engaged in conduct incidental to the performance of their lawful functions in the course of their duties. They were acting for and on behalf of the New York City Police Department at all times relevant herein, with the power and authority vested in them as officers, agents and employees of the New York City Police Department and incidental to the lawful pursuit of their duties as officers, employees and agents of the New York City Police Department.

10. Defendant City of New York is a municipal entity created and authorized under the laws of the State of New York. It is authorized by law to maintain a police department, which acts as its agent in the area of law enforcement and for which it is ultimately responsible. The defendant City of New York assumes the risks incidental to the maintenance of a police force and the employment of police officers as said risks attach to the public consumers of the services provided by the New York City Police Department.

11. Plaintiff in furtherance of his causes of action brought pursuant to New York State law filed a timely Notice of Claim against the City of New York in compliance with the Municipal Law Section 50 and in accordance with New York State law.

12. In accordance with New York State law and General Municipal Law Section 50, Plaintiff testified at a hearing held pursuant to General Municipal Law Section 50-H on November 30, 2021.

13. More than thirty (30) days have elapsed since service of said Notice of Claim was filed and the City of New York has failed to pay or adjust the claims.

14. This action falls within one or more of the exceptions as set forth in CPLR Section 1602, involving intentional actions, as well as the defendant, and/or defendants, having acted in reckless disregard for the safety of others, as well as having performed intentional acts.

15. Plaintiff has sustained damages in an amount in excess of the jurisdictional limits of all the lower Courts of the State of New York.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

16. On June 15, 2021, at approximately 7:30 p.m., Plaintiff was present in the vicinity of 587 Park Avenue, County of Kings, State of New York, when the defendant Police Officers unlawfully assaulted, battered and detained Plaintiff without legal justification.

17. Plaintiff was hanging out in front of his building at 587 Park Avenue with his family and two year-old daughter, enjoying a summer evening.

18. Plaintiff's father, John Sr., had come to visit Plaintiff and his family from John's home in Detroit, for Fathers Day.

19. At around 7:30 p.m., defendant police officers approached Plaintiff's brother Jermaine across the street and placed him into handcuffs.

20. When Plaintiff saw the Police arresting his brother, he went across the street with his phone out to record the arrest.

21. One of the defendant officers shoved Plaintiff to the side while he was recording, before also shoving Plaintiff's mother and sister.

22. The same defendant officer began accusing Plaintiff of taking a key, which Plaintiff denied.

23. Plaintiff was then grabbed roughly and handcuffed with excessive force, causing bruising and abrasions to his upper arm and both wrists, and within minutes his hands began to turn blue and swell up from excessively tight handcuffs.

24. Plaintiff was searched and placed into a vehicle for transport.

25. No contraband or anything illegal was found on Plaintiff.

26. Plaintiff was initially taken to a police precinct where he was searched again, fingerprinted and placed into a cell.

27. Plaintiff did not resist arrest or interfere with police officers at any relevant time.

28. Despite alleging that Plaintiff had a car key, no key was ever found or recovered from his person nor was any other contraband found.

29. Plaintiff was then taken to Brooklyn Central Bookings, where he remained for approximately 24 hours before arraignment.

30. While Plaintiff was in custody, the defendant police officers provided the Kings County District Attorney's Office with the false, misleading and/or incomplete information that Plaintiff committed a crime.

31. Specifically, the defendant police officers falsely stated to the Kings County District Attorney's Office that Plaintiff was engaged in Obstructing Governmental Administration and Resisting Arrest.

32. Due to the Plaintiff's arrest, and pendent criminal matter, he was suspended from his place of employment with the Department of Education.

33. Until his date of arrest, Plaintiff had been a paraprofessional assisting teachers in the New York City area.

34. Plaintiff made approximately $1500 every two weeks, after tax.

35. On August 12, 2021, Plaintiff's criminal case was ordered dismissed and sealed.

36. Plaintiff was not able to resume work until mid-September as a result of his unlawful arrest in this case, thereby depriving him of approximately three (3) months of employment income.

37. At no time relevant herein did Plaintiff commit a crime or violate the law in any way, nor did the police officers have an objective reason to accuse Plaintiff of committing a crime or violating the law in any way.

38. At no point did Defendant Officers recover any drugs, weapons, graffiti instruments, or other illegal contraband from Plaintiff or from a location that was in Plaintiff's possession, custody, or control.

39. Nevertheless, Plaintiff was unlawfully arrested and handcuffed by defendant officers without legal justification or probable cause, unlawfully fingerprinted, photographed and searched, and unlawfully detained.

40. Some of the police officer defendants observed the violation of Plaintiff's rights under the Constitution of the United States and New York State Law and did nothing to prevent their fellow officers from unjustifiably assaulting, battering, and using excessive force against Plaintiff.

41. The unlawful assault, battery, and use of excessive force by the individually named defendants caused Plaintiff to sustain physical, psychological and emotional trauma.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligence

42. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

43. Defendants owed a duty of care to Plaintiff.

44. To the extent defendants claim that the injuries to Plaintiff by the defendant police officers was unintentionally caused and that the force used by the defendants against his was unintentional, then the defendants breached that duty of care by pushing, grabbing and over-tightly applying handcuffs to Plaintiff..

45. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

46. All of the foregoing occurred without any fault or provocation by Plaintiff.

47. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

48. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

49. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional and psychological injuries.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION
Unlawful Stop, Question, and Search

50. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

51. The illegal approach, pursuit, stop and grab employed by defendants herein terminated Plaintiff's freedom of movement through means intentionally applied.

52. The conduct of defendants in approaching, stopping, and grabbing Plaintiff was performed under color of law and without any reasonable suspicion of criminality or other constitutionally required grounds.

53. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

54. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

55. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment Rights: Unlawful Seizure and Deprivation of Liberty

56. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

57. The individually named police officer defendants, while acting in concert and within the scope of their authority, caused Plaintiff to be seized, unlawfully searched, falsely arrested, and falsely imprisoned, and maliciously prosecuted without reasonable suspicion and/or probable cause, in violation of Plaintiff's right to be free of an unreasonable seizure under the Fourth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

58. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional and psychological injuries.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

False Imprisonment

59. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

60. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute false arrest and false imprisonment under the laws of the State of New York. Defendants intended to confine Plaintiff and, in fact, confined Plaintiff, and Plaintiff was conscious of the confinement. In addition, Plaintiff did not consent to the confinement and the confinement was not otherwise privileged.

61. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York and the United States Constitution.

62. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

63. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

64. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to loss of liberty, emotional and psychological injuries.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTIONViolation of Plaintiff's Fourth And Fourteenth Amendment Rights:
Excessive Force

65. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

66. The use of excessive force by defendants by, amongst other things, roughly handcuffing, grabbing and pushing Plaintiff constituted objectively unreasonable physical seizures of Plaintiff in violation of his rights under the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

67. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of his employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTIONAssault

68. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

69. Defendants, their agents, servants and employees, acting within the scope of their employment, intentionally, willfully and maliciously assaulted Plaintiff in that they had the real or apparent ability to cause imminent harmful and/or offensive bodily contact and intentionally did a violent and/or menacing act which threatened such contact to the Plaintiff, that such acts caused apprehension of such contact in the Plaintiff.

70. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

71. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

72. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

73. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTIONBattery

74. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

75. Defendants, their agents, servants and employees, acting within the scope of their employment, intentionally, willfully and maliciously battered Plaintiff, when they, in a hostile and/or offensive manner tased Plaintiff, roughly handcuffing, grabbing and pushing Plaintiff without his consent and with the intention of causing harmful and/or offensive bodily contact to the Plaintiff and caused such battery.

76. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

77. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

78. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

79. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional and psychological injuries.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligent Infliction of Emotional Distress

80. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

81. By the actions described herein, defendants, each acting individually and in concert with each other, engaged in extreme and outrageous conduct, conduct utterly intolerable in a civilized community, which negligently caused severe emotional distress to Plaintiff. The acts and conduct of the defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to Plaintiff and violated Plaintiff's statutory and common law rights as guaranteed by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.

82. The acts and conduct of the defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to Plaintiff and violated Plaintiff's statutory and common law rights as guaranteed Plaintiff by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.

83. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

84. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

85. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

86. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional and psychological injuries.

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligent Hiring, Retention, Training and Supervision

87. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

88. The City of New York and its employees, servants and/or agents acting within the scope of their employment did negligently hire, retain, train and supervise defendants, individuals who were unfit for the performance of police duties on the aforementioned dates at the aforementioned locations.

89. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional and psychological injuries.

TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Intervene

90. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

91. The defendants that did not physically touch Plaintiff, but were present when other officers violated Plaintiff's Constitutional Rights had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of Plaintiff, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other officers.

92. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein.

93. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff's suffered physical injury, his liberty was restricted for an extended period of time, he was put in fear of his safety, and he was humiliated and subject to other physical constraints.

94. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

95. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

96. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

97. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

ELEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION
Violation of Fourth And Fourteenth Amendment Rights:
Denial of Right to Fair Trial/Due Process

98. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

99. Defendants, individually and collectively, manufactured and/or withheld false evidence and forwarded this false evidence to prosecutors in the Kings County District Attorney's Office.

100. Defendants filled out false and misleading police reports and forwarded them to prosecutors in the Kings County District Attorney's Office.

101. Defendants signed false and misleading criminal court affidavits and forwarded them to prosecutors in the Kings County District Attorney's Office.

102. In withholding/creating false evidence against Plaintiff, and in providing/withholding information with respect thereto, Defendants violated Plaintiff's constitutional right to due process and fair trial under the New York State Constitution and under the Due Process Clause of the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States and to be free to deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution.

103. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff sustained, inter alia, loss of the right to due process and a fair trial, loss of liberty, emotional distress, embarrassment and humiliation, and deprivation of his constitutional rights.

104. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

105. The City, as the employer of the officer Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

106. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of Defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries including, but not limited to: economic, emotional and psychological injuries.

TWELFTH CAUSE OF ACTION
Deliberate Indifference to Medical Needs

107. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

108. Defendants, despite being aware that Plaintiff was required medical assistance to deal with his handcuff-related injuries, delayed Plaintiff's medical treatment and refused to administer and properly procure immediate and adequate medical attention.

109. The delay in medical treatment to Plaintiff's injuries resulted in increased severity in injuries that were suffered by Plaintiff that would have been prevented if Plaintiff received treatment in a timely manner.

110. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

111. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

112. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

113. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical emotional and psychological injuries.

THIRTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION
Individual Defendant Officer's Violation of Plaintiff's AC 8-8802 Rights

114. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

115. The acts of Defendant Officers constituted conduct under color of any law, ordinance, rule, regulation, custom or usage.

116. The acts of Defendant Officers caused Plaintiff to be deprived of his rights under 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 8802, to wit: to be secure in his person, house, papers, and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures, and to be secure against the use of excessive force regardless of whether such force is used in connection with a search or seizure.

117. The Defendant Officers, while in uniform, unlawfully seized, frisked, and searched the Plaintiff, as well as pushing, grabbing and applying over-tight handcuffs, before detaining plaintiff and further causing his detention for approximately 48 hours in total.

118. By reason of the acts and omissions by Defendants described above, Plaintiff has endured physical and emotional injuries and was otherwise damaged and injured.

FOURTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION
Individual Defendant Officer's Failure to Intervene in Violation of Plaintiff's AC 8-8802 Rights

119. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

120. The acts of Defendant Officers constituted conduct under color of any law, ordinance, rule, regulation, custom or usage.

121. Defendant Officers had a duty to protect Plaintiff from violations of his rights under 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 8802, to wit: to be secure in his person, house, papers, and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures, and to be secure against the use of excessive force regardless of whether such force is used in connection with a search or seizure.

122. The Defendants that did not physically touch Plaintiff, but were present when other officers violated Plaintiff's AC 8-8802 right against unreasonable search and seizure and excessive force had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of Plaintiff, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other officers.

123. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein, thereby failed in their duty to intervene to protect Plaintiff from violation of his rights.

124. By reason of the acts and omissions by Defendants described above, Plaintiff has endured physical and emotional injuries and was otherwise damaged and injured.

FIFTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION
City-Employer's Liability for Defendant Officer's Violation of Plaintiff's AC 8-8802 Rights

126. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

127. Defendant Officers are "covered individuals" as defined in 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 - 8801 in that they are employees of the Police Department or persons appointed by the Police Commissioner as a Special Patrolmen.

128. The City of New York, as the employer of the covered individual Defendant Officers, is liable to the Plaintiff for the wrongdoing of the covered individual Defendant Officers.

129. The acts of Defendant Officers constituted conduct under color of any law, ordinance, rule, regulation, custom or usage.

130. The acts of Defendant Officers caused Plaintiff to be deprived of his rights under 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 8802, to wit: to be secure in his person, house, papers, and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures, and to be secure against the use of excessive force regardless of whether such force is used in connection with a search or seizure.

131. The Defendant Officers, while in uniform, unlawfully seized, frisked, and searched the Plaintiff, as well as pushing, grabbing and applying over-tight handcuffs, before detaining plaintiff and further causing his detention for approximately 48 hours.

132. By reason of the acts and omissions by Defendants described above, Plaintiff has endured physical and emotional injuries and was otherwise damaged and injured.

SIXTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

City-Employer's Liability for Defendant Officer's Failure to Intervene in Violation of Plaintiff's AC 8802 Rights

133. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

134. Defendant Officers are “covered individuals” as defined in 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 - 8801 in that they are employees of the Police Department or persons appointed by the Police Commissioner as a Special Patrolmen.

135. The City of New York, as the employer of the covered individual Defendant Officers, is liable to the Plaintiff for the wrongdoing of the covered individual Defendant Officers.

136. The acts of Defendant Officers constituted conduct under color of any law, ordinance, rule, regulation, custom or usage.

137. Defendant Officers had a duty to protect Plaintiff from violations of his rights under 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 8802, to wit: to be secure in his person, house, papers, and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures, and to be secure against the use of excessive force regardless of whether such force is used in connection with a search or seizure.

138. The Defendants that did not physically touch Plaintiff but were present when other officers violated Plaintiff's AC 8-8802 rights against unreasonable search and seizure and excessive force had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of Plaintiff, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other officers.

139. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein, thereby failed in their duty to intervene to protect Plaintiff from violation of his rights.
