of New York, and members of the New York City Police Department ("NYPD") subjected Plaintiff to, among other things, unlawful search and seizure, false arrest and imprisonment, assault and battery, malicious prosecution, negligence, failure to intervene, negligent supervision, hiring, monitoring, training and retention of unfit employees, intentional and negligent infliction of emotional distress, conversion, and implementation and continuation of an unlawful municipal policy, practice, and custom. Within 90 days of the conclusion of the incidents alleged in this complaint, Plaintiff served upon Defendant City of New York a Notice of Claim setting forth the name and post office address of Plaintiff, the nature of the claim, the time when, the place where and the manner in which the claim arose and the items of damages or injuries claimed.

3. More than 30 days have elapsed since Plaintiff's demands and/or claims were presented to Defendant City of New York for adjustment and/or payment thereof, and the Defendant has neglected and/or refused to make any adjustment and/or payment.

4. This action is being commenced within one year and ninety days of the date of the occurrence herein.

5. Venue is proper in the Supreme Court of the State of New York, Kings County, because the acts in question occurred in the State of New York, Kings County, and the City of New York is subject to personal jurisdiction in Supreme Court of the State New York, Kings County.

6. Plaintiff seeks compensatory and punitive damages from the individual Defendants, compensatory damages from the municipal Defendant, declaratory relief, an award of costs and attorney's fees, and such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

PARTIES

John or Jane Does # 1-10 were New York City Police Officers employed with the 73rd Precinct, located in Kings County, New York or other as yet unknown NYPD assignment, who violated Plaintiff's rights as described herein.

10. The individual Defendants are sued in their individual and official capacities.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

11. On July 5, 2019, at and in the vicinity of Bristol Street and Livonia Avenue, Brooklyn, New York, several police officers operating from the 73rd Precinct, including upon information and belief, NYPD P.O. Kilfoyle, NYPD P.O. Brian Ramirez, NYPD P.O. Lashonda Porter, NYPD P.O. Sergeant David Mccann, and P.O. John or Jane Does # 1-10, at times acting in concert, and at times acting independently, committed the following illegal acts against Plaintiff.

12. On July 5, 2019, at approximately 2:00 a.m., at and around the vicinity of Bristol Street and Livonia Avenue, Brooklyn, New York, Defendants, without either consent, an arrest warrant, a lawful search warrant, probable cause, or reasonable suspicion that Plaintiff had committed a crime unlawfully arrested Plaintiff.

13. At that time NYPD P.O. Kilfoyle, NYPD P.O. Brian Ramirez, NYPD P.O. Lashonda Porter, NYPD P.O. Sergeant David Mccann, and P.O. John or Jane Does # 1-10, and approximately 25-40 Police Officers unknown to Plaintiff arrived at the location and approached the area where Mr. Jimenez and a few friends were standing.

14. NYPD P.O. Kilfoyle, NYPD P.O. Brian Ramirez, NYPD P.O. Lashonda Porter, NYPD P.O. Sergeant David Mccann, and P.O. John or Jane Does # 1-10 without a reasonable basis subjected Plaintiff to excessive force by forcibly grabbing Plaintiff, placing Plaintiff in an illegal chokehold while pulling/dragging Plaintiff to the pavement and subjecting Plaintiff to multiple punches about the face and body.

15. NYPD P.O. Kilfoyle, NYPD P.O. Brian Ramirez, NYPD P.O. Lashonda Porter, NYPD P.O. Sergeant David Mccann, and P.O. John or Jane Does # 1-10, without a warrant and without probable cause to believe that Plaintiff had committed or was about to commit any crime or criminal violation, then placed Plaintiff in handcuffs, arrested Plaintiff, and caused Plaintiff to be imprisoned at various locations, including a police vehicle, a police precinct and Central Booking.

16. During this time, in order to cover up their illegal actions, the Defendant officers, pursuant to a conspiracy, falsely and maliciously told the Kings County District Attorney's Office that Plaintiff had committed various crimes.

17. The Defendants made these false allegations, despite the fact that they had no evidence that Plaintiff had committed a crime, to cover up their misconduct, to meet productivity goals and quotas, and to justify overtime expenditures.

18. On or about October 11, 2020 at 1:30 A.M. in the vicinity of Schenck Ave between New Lots Ave and Livonia Ave, Brooklyn New York defendant NYPD P.O. JOHN/JANE DOES # 1-10 of the 73rd precinct driving in an unmarked car in the geographic vicinity of the 75th precinct, without either consent, an arrest warrant, a lawful search warrant, probable cause, or reasonable suspicion that plaintiff had committed a crime, Defendants unlawfully stopped plaintiff, searched plaintiff, and searched the vehicle Plaintiff was occupying.

19. After this unlawful violation of the Plaintiff's civil rights and civil liberties, the Defendants got back into their unmarked vehicle and drove away without issuing a citation to Plaintiff.

20. The individual Defendants acted in concert committing the above-described illegal acts toward Plaintiff.

21. Plaintiff did not violate any law, regulation, or administrative code; commit any criminal act; or act in a suspicious or unlawful manner prior to or during the above incidents.

22. At no time prior to, during or after the above incidents were the individual Defendants provided with information, or in receipt of a credible or an objectively reasonable complaint from a third person, that Plaintiff had violated any law, regulation, or administrative code; committed any criminal act; or acted in a suspicious or unlawful manner prior to or during the above incidents.

23. The Defendants acted under pretense and color of state law and within the scope of their employment. Said acts by said Defendants were beyond the scope of their jurisdiction, without authority or law, and in abuse of their powers, and said Defendants acted willfully, knowingly, and with the specific intent to deprive Plaintiff of his rights.

24. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' actions, Plaintiff experienced personal and physical injuries, pain and suffering, fear, an invasion of privacy, psychological pain, emotional distress, mental anguish, embarrassment, humiliation, and financial loss.

25. Plaintiff is entitled to receive punitive damages from the individual Defendants because the individual Defendants' actions were motivated by extreme recklessness and indifference to Plaintiff's rights.

26. Upon information and belief, the unlawful actions against Plaintiff were also based on profiling.

50. The individual defendants lacked probable cause to believe the above-stated malicious prosecution could succeed.

51. The individual defendants initiated the above-stated malicious prosecution to cover up their illegal and unconstitutional conduct.

52. The above-stated malicious prosecution caused a sufficient post-arraignment liberty restraint on plaintiff.

53. Accordingly, Defendants are liable to Plaintiff for unlawful search and seizure under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 and the United States Constitution.

NINTH CLAIM(MALCIOUS PROSECUTION UNDER STATE LAW)

62. Defendant City of New York is liable to Plaintiff because the occurrence and injuries sustained by Plaintiff, were caused solely by, and as a result of the malicious, reckless, negligent, and/or intentional conduct of Defendant City of New York, and the NYPD, its agents, servants and/or employees, as set forth above, without provocation on the part of Plaintiff contributing thereto, specifically, the negligent and reckless manner in which said Defendant hired, trained, supervised, controlled, managed, maintained, inspected, and retained its Police Officers.

TWELFTH CLAIM

(INTENTIONAL AND NEGLIGENT INFLICTION OF EMOTIONAL DISTRESS)

63. Plaintiff repeats and realleges all the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

(UNREASONABLE FORCE)

67. Plaintiff repeats and realleges all the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

68. The individual defendants' use of force upon plaintiffs was objectively unreasonable.

69. The individual defendant officers did not have an objective and/or reasonable basis to use any degree of force against plaintiff, since plaintiff was unarmed, compliant, and did not resist arrest.

70. Those defendants who did not touch plaintiff, witnessed these acts, but failed to intervene and protect plaintiff from this conduct.

71. Accordingly, the defendants are liable to plaintiff for using unreasonable and excessive force, pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983; and the Fourth Amendment to the United States Constitution.

FOURTEENTH CLAIM

(MONELL CLAIM)

72. Plaintiff repeats and realleges all the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

73. Defendant City of New York, through a policy, practice and custom, directly caused the constitutional violations suffered by Plaintiff.

74. Defendant City of New York through the NYPD and its officers, committed the following unconstitutional practices, customs and policies against Plaintiff: (1) unlawfully stopping and searching innocent persons; (2) wrongfully arresting innocent persons in order to meet productivity goals; (3) wrongfully arresting individuals based on pretexts and profiling; and (4) fabricating evidence against innocent persons.

75. Upon information and belief, Defendant City of New York, at all relevant times, was aware that the Defendants were unfit officers who have previously committed the acts alleged herein, have a propensity for unconstitutional conduct, or have been inadequately trained.

76. Nevertheless, Defendant City of New York exercised deliberate indifference by failing to take remedial action. Defendant City of New York failed to properly train, retrain, supervise, discipline, and monitor the individual Defendants and improperly retained and utilized them. Moreover, upon information and belief, Defendant City of New York failed to adequately investigate prior complaints filed against the individual Defendants.

77. Further, Defendant City of New York was aware prior to the incident that the individual Defendants (in continuation of its illegal custom, practice and/or policy) would stop, arrest and prosecute innocent individuals, based on pretexts and false evidence.

78. The existence of the aforesaid unconstitutional customs and policies may be inferred from repeated occurrences of similar wrongful conduct involving the individual Defendants, placing the Defendant City of New York on notice of the individual Defendants' propensity to violate the rights of individuals.

79. In addition to frequently violating the civil rights of countless residents of New York City, numerous members of the NYPD commit crimes. Officers have been arrested and convicted of such crimes as planting evidence on suspects, falsifying police reports, perjury, corruption, theft, selling narcotics, smuggling firearms, robbery, fixing tickets, driving under the influence of alcohol, vehicular homicide, assault and domestic violence. In fact, former NYPD Commissioner Bernard Kerik was convicted of corruption-related crimes in federal and state courts and served time in federal prison. In 2011, Brooklyn South Narcotics Officer Jerry Bowens was convicted of murder and attempted murder in Supreme Court, Kings County, while under indictment for corruption and is presently serving a life sentence. In 2011, Police Officer William Eiseman and his subordinate Police Officer Michael Carsey were convicted of felonies in Supreme Court, New York County, for lying under oath, filing false information to obtain search warrants and performing illegal searches of vehicles and apartments. In 2012, New York City Police Officer Michael Pena was convicted in Supreme Court, New York County, of raping and sexually assaulting a woman at gunpoint and is presently serving a sentence of 75 years to life.

80. The foregoing customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of the City of New York and the NYPD were the direct and proximate cause of the constitutional violations suffered by Plaintiff as alleged herein.

81. The foregoing customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of the City of New York and the NYPD were the moving force behind the constitutional violations suffered by Plaintiff as alleged herein.

82. The City's failure to act resulted in the violation of Plaintiff's constitutional rights as described herein.

FIFTEENTH CLAIM

(RESPONDEAT SUPERIOR)

83. Plaintiff repeats and realleges all the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

84. The individual Defendants were acting within the scope of their employment as New York City Police Officers when they committed the above-described acts against Plaintiff.

85. The City of New York is therefore vicariously liable under New York State law for the aforesaid torts.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff demands a jury trial and the following relief jointly and severally against the Defendants:

- a. Compensatory damages in an amount to be determined by a jury;
- b. Punitive damages in an amount to be determined by a jury;
- c. Costs, interest and attorney's fees, pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1988; and

d. Such other and further relief as this Court may deem just and proper, including injunctive and declaratory relief.
