CURLAN PIERRE,

Plaintiff,

VERIFIED COMPLAINT

Index No.

CITY OF NEW YORK, CHRISTOPHER MACHALEK,
AND JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10,Defendants.
-----X

Plaintiff, CURLAN PIERRE, by and through the undersigned attorneys, Sim & DePaola, LLP, for his complaint against Defendants, CITY OF NEW YORK, CHRISTOPHER MACHALEK, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, alleges and states as follows:

1. This is a civil rights action, in which Plaintiff seeks relief and redress against defendants, vis-à-vis sections 1981, 1983, 1985, 1986 and 1988 of Title 42 to the Code of Laws of the United States, for the violations of his civil rights under the First, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States, the constitution of the State of New York, in addition to the laws of the City and State of New York.
2. The following claims arise from an incident that occurred on March 20, 2021, in which Defendants, acting under color of state law, unlawfully stopped, searched and seized, battered and assaulted, detained, arrested Plaintiff in the vicinity of the intersection of Jamaica Avenue and 173rd Street, within the County of Queens, City and State of New York. Plaintiff was subsequently held in police custody at the 103rd Precinct where he was illegally detained until was later released from physical custody with a Desk Appearance Ticket. As a result, Plaintiff was deprived of his liberty and suffered various physical, emotional and psychological injuries. Plaintiff was wrongfully detained over the course of approximately two (2) days.

3. Plaintiff CURLAN PIERRE was maliciously prosecuted and denied his rights to Fair Trial and Due Process from the date of his arraignment, until all adverse charges under Bronx County Criminal Court Docket No. CR-005816-21QN were summarily and unconditionally dismissed and sealed, pursuant to sections 160.50 or 160.60 of the New York Criminal Procedure Law on or about September 24, 2021.

4. At all times here mentioned, Defendants were acting under color of state law, to wit, under color of the statutes, ordinances, regulations, policies, customs and usages of the City and State of New York.

5. Within ninety (90) days of the accrual dates of the state law claims herein, Plaintiff served the New York City Comptroller's Office with written notice of said claims.

6. More than thirty (30) days have elapsed since the service of said notice, and this matter has not been settled or otherwise disposed of.

7. Plaintiff has complied with the municipal Defendant's demand for an oral examination, pursuant to section 50-h of the General Municipal Law or no such demand has been noticed within the time permitted by law.

8. This action and associated claims have been timely commenced within three (3) years after the occurrences upon which they are based.

9. Plaintiff seeks monetary damages (compensatory and punitive) against Defendants, an award of costs and reasonable attorneys' fees, and such other or further relief as this Court may deem just and proper.

PARTIES

10. Plaintiff, CURLAN PIERRE ("Plaintiff"), is an adult African American or black male, who resides in Brooklyn, New York.

11. Defendant, CITY OF NEW YORK (“CITY”), is a municipal corporation organized under the laws of the State of New York.

12. At all times relevant hereto, Defendant CITY, acting through the New York City Police Department (“NYPD”), was responsible for the policy, practice, supervision, implementation, and conduct of all NYPD matters and was responsible for the appointment, training, supervision, discipline and retention and conduct of all NYPD personnel, including police officers, detectives, and supervisory officers, including the individually named Defendants herein.

13. In addition, at all times here relevant, Defendant CITY was responsible for enforcing the rules of the NYPD, and for ensuring that the NYPD personnel, including the individually named defendants herein, obey the laws of the United States, as well as the City and State of New York.

14. At all relevant times, Defendant CHRISTOPHER MACHALEK (“MACHALEK”) was a police officer, detective, supervisor, policymaker or official employed by the NYPD under Shield No. 4445 and Tax Id No. 96668. Defendant MACHALEK is currently assigned to the NYPD Site and Security Unit. Defendant MACHALEK is being sued in his individual and official capacities.

15. At all relevant times, Defendants, JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, were police officers, detectives, supervisors, policymakers or officials employed by the NYPD. At this time, Plaintiff is not aware of the true names, tax registry numbers, and shield numbers of JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, as such knowledge is within the exclusive possession of defendants.

16. At all relevant times herein, Defendants, JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, were acting as agents, servants and employees of the City of New York or the NYPD. Defendants, JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, are being sued in their individual and official capacities.

17. At all relevant times herein, Defendants, including MACHALEK and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, were acting under color of state law, to wit, under color of the statutes, ordinances, regulations, policies, customs and usages of the City and State of New York.

FACTUAL CHARGES

18. On March 20, 2021, at approximately 7:00 p.m., in the vicinity of the intersection of Jamaica Avenue and 173rd Street, within the County of Queens, City and State of New York. Plaintiff was unlawfully stopped, seized and searched, battered and assaulted, detained, and arrested by, or at the direction of, Defendants, including MACHALEK and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10.

19. On said date and time, Plaintiff was lawfully present and speaking to his friend in the vicinity of this complained-of-incident.

20. Approximately ten (10) minutes before said time and on said date, Plaintiff approached his friend, engaged in a conversation, and observed nearby a physical altercation between two individuals but did not any way interact with those individuals in the vicinity of this complained-of-incident.

21. On said date and time, Defendants, including MACHALEK and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, arrived in the vicinity of this complained-of-incident, approached one of the two aforementioned individuals who was laying on the street, and then illegally approached and stopped Plaintiff without probable cause, reasonable suspicion, valid search or arrest warrant, valid statements from a complaining witness, or any legal justification whatsoever as to the commission of unlawful conduct on the part of Plaintiff.

22. Defendants, including MACHALEK and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, then accused Plaintiff of a criminal offense, questioned him as to where he placed weapons, and proceeded to unlawfully seize and physically restrain Plaintiff by grabbing him by his body and limbs, despite possessing no legal basis to do, as defendants did not possess any credible evidence against Plaintiff regarding the commission of any crime or offense.

23. Defendants, including MACHALEK and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, then physically restrained Plaintiff while violently contorting his arms behind his back before finally affixing metal handcuffs to Plaintiff's wrists in an excessively tight fashion, which caused Plaintiff to sustain substantial physical pain and injuries to his arms, hands and wrists.

24. Plaintiff complained to Defendants, including MACHALEK and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, that the handcuffs were too tight and causing Plaintiff to suffer substantial pain but said defendants either ignored or outright refused Plaintiff's requests to loosen the handcuffs.

25. Thereafter, Defendants, including MACHALEK and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, conducted a search of Plaintiff's person by invasively shoving their hands into his pockets and clothing in an aggressive manner without probable cause, reasonable suspicion, valid search or arrest warrant, valid statements from a complaining witness, or any legal justification whatsoever as to the commission of unlawful conduct on the part of Plaintiff.

26. Defendant, including MACHALEK and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, then recovered no contraband from Plaintiff's person.

27. Defendants, including MACHALEK and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, then placed Plaintiff in a police vehicle and transported him against his will to the 103rd Precinct where he was fingerprinted, photographed, strip-searched with attendant cavity inspection, interrogated without presence of counsel, and illegally detained in a dank and dirty cell for approximately five (5) hours before being released from physical custody with a Desk Appearance Ticket issued by Defendant MACHALEK.

28. As a result, Plaintiff was caused to be unlawfully, involuntarily, and continuously detained by Defendants, including MACHALEK and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, over the course of two (2) days before his release from custody on or about March 21, 2021.

29. Defendants, including MACHALEK and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10 lacked any probable cause or reasonable suspicion to stop, seize or arrest Plaintiff, because defendants never observed Plaintiff commit any crime or violation of the law and were never informed that Plaintiff committed any crime or violation of the law.

30. Due to the lack of probable cause for the searches or seizures of Plaintiff's person or property, the aforementioned conduct constituted the completed torts of assault and battery by Defendants, including MACHALEK and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10.

31. Prior to Plaintiff being arraigned in criminal court, Defendant MACHALEK signed and forwarded the criminal court complaint against Plaintiff in Queens County Criminal Court, which falsely accused Plaintiff of committing a criminal offense of assault.

32. Defendants, including MACHALEK and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, knowingly, maliciously and intentionally engaged in the fabrication of false and fictitious evidence, observations, events and occurrences, which defendants falsely attributed to Plaintiff before forwarding to prosecutors of the Queens County District Attorney's Office.

33. Defendants, including MACHALEK and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10 engaged in fraud, the suppression of evidence, perjury, the gross deviation from acceptable police conduct and other conduct undertaken in bad faith, including the withholding of other video surveillance recordings, witness statements or accounts, an abject lack of inculpatory evidence, and other governmental issued forms, which all directly contradict the false allegations against him by Defendants, including MACHALEK and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10.

34. Plaintiff asserts that defendants, including MACHALEK and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, falsely arrested, wrongfully detained and maliciously prosecuted Plaintiff with the full knowledge that he had committed no crime or violation of the law.

35. Plaintiff, therefore, asserts that due to the clear absence of any viable probable cause to warrant the initiation or continuation of his criminal prosecution, at any point, he was maliciously prosecuted and denied his rights to Fair Trial and Due Process by Defendants, including MACHALEK and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10 who never possessed probable cause to believe that Plaintiff was guilty of any crime or offense, or that the prosecution would succeed, until the underlying criminal court proceedings under Queens County Criminal Court Docket No. CR-005816-21QN were terminated in favor of Plaintiff when all adverse charges were summarily and unconditionally dismissed and sealed, upon consideration of the merits thereof, pursuant to §§160.50 or 160.60 of the New York Criminal Procedure Law on, or about September 24, 2021.

36. At all times relevant hereto, the Defendants, including MACHALEK and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, were involved in the decision to stop, seize, arrest and prosecute Plaintiff without reasonable suspicion or probable cause, or failed to intervene when they observed others doing so in the absence of any reasonable suspicion or probable cause.

37. At all times relevant hereto, the Defendants, including MACHALEK and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, subjected Plaintiff to excessive force, or failed to intervene when they observed others subjecting Plaintiff to excessive force.

38. Plaintiff asserts that the aforementioned unlawful acts committed by defendants are representative of a pervasive policy, custom or pattern and practice within the City of New York and the NYPD in particular.

39. Defendants, including MACHALEK and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10 subjected Plaintiff to disparate treatment compared to other individuals similarly situated, because defendants did not stop, accuse, search, seize, arrest or cause criminal prosecutions to be initiated against any accused persons, who were engaged in activity identical or substantially similar to the kind that resulted in the illegal search, seizure, detention, and prosecution of Plaintiff, namely being accused of criminal offense with an abject lack of facts and circumstances establishing probable cause of such, in the vicinity of the above-referenced location at the above-referenced time, while in obedience of all local, state and federal laws.

40. Defendants, including MACHALEK and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10 unlawfully stopped, questioned, searched, seized, arrested, and maliciously prosecuted Plaintiff, because of their improper and pernicious desires to prevent Plaintiff from exerting his First Amendment right to engage in protected speech and activities, such as Plaintiff's right to refuse to yield to defendants' unreasonably coercive demands to utter false confessions or assist defendants in the fabrication of evidence against defendants' true suspects or other persons of interest.

41. Defendants, including MACHALEK and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10 engaged in a conspiracy to falsely arrest and maliciously prosecute Plaintiff by personally conferring with each other, regarding the fabrication of the aforementioned nonexistent evidence, the suppression of exculpatory evidence, as well the manner and means by which said fabrications would be forwarded to prosecutors.

42. Plaintiff asserts that the defendants, including MACHALEK and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, who violated his civil rights, are part of a larger pattern and practice of similar misconduct, which is so widespread, pervasive and consistent throughout the NYPD and the City of New York that the commission of such constitutionally violative behavior has become tantamount to an official policy or custom within the NYPD and City of New York or, at the very least, conclusive evidence that the City and the NYPD have either tacitly approved of such egregious wrongdoings or that they have become deliberately indifferent to the civil rights of those who may come into contact with their police officers, including the individually named defendants herein.

43. The individually named defendants herein, as well as other officers serving in the employ of the NYPD and City of New York, have blatantly, shamelessly, consistently and repeatedly engaged in conduct violative of the civil rights guaranteed and protected by Constitution of the United States, in addition to the laws and constitution of the State of New York, all without incurring any ramifications for such misconduct and, ostensibly, with the full and complete blessing of the NYPD, the City of New York and their respective policymakers and supervisors.

44. The New York Times, as well as numerous other reputable journalistic enterprises, have reported on the widespread corruption within the NYPD and City of New York, particularly the incredibly disconcerting proclivity of many NYPD officers to lie about subject matters that are materially relevant to criminal prosecutions, including the complete fabrication of arrest evidence and witnesses. Also detailed, is the NYPD's obstinate refusal to effectuate corrective or preventive measures to combat the inevitable recurrence of such misdeeds, and perhaps most troubling, the NYPD's alarming tendency to, instead, reward and promote these officers, including those who were inculpated via incontrovertible evidence, such as video evidence.

45. The constitutionally repugnant behavior that persists within the ranks of the NYPD results from the NYPD's own policies, rules and procedures, namely the NYPD's incredibly flawed and illegal use of arrest quotas. Despite its illegality, such policies remain systemic throughout the NYPD and its individual commands. The NYPD, however, was not content in compelling its officers to effect as many arrests as possible, regardless of the presence of any legal right to do, it promulgated various subsets of quotas, which are predicated on race, color or ethnicity. Additionally, the NYPD, its supervisors or policymakers would assign varying point values to arrests, which were, again, impermissibly based upon the arrestee's race, color or ethnicity. Unsurprisingly, officers would be better rewarded for minority arrests or summonses. This egregious conduct has reported by numerous respected media outlets and publications and has even formed the basis for federal lawsuits against the City and the NYPD, which were commenced by its own employee officers.

46. On June 17, 2020, the New York Daily News published an article, by Graham Rayman, entitled "Brooklyn Cop Claims he was Punished for not Meeting Arrest Quotas, Refusing to Take Responsibility for Controversial Arrest in which he Wasn't Involved," describing allegations from an NYPD Police Officer, Terrence Dickerson, that he was retaliated against by the NYPD for refusing to adhere to mandatory racially based arrest quotas and for his refusal to accept responsibility for a controversial and publicized arrest via the excessive force, despite the fact that he was not even at the scene.

47. On March 18, 2018, The New York Times published an explosive article, entitled "Promotions, Not Punishments for Officers Accused of Lying," written by Joseph Goldstein. Mr. Goldstein shines a light on the multitude of flaws within the CCRB and the NYPD, highlighting the fact that the substantiation of a claim against an officer will invariably rely on the presence of incontrovertible proof against the officer. Due to the rarity availability of this type of evidence, an alarmingly small percentage of officer misconduct claims are substantiated. The CCRB is further handicapped by a terribly designed system that requires evidence of a virtually indisputable nature to substantiate any claim against an officer. The article also details the NYPD's persistent reluctance to investigate or discipline officers who lie and even posits that this reluctance is a significant cause of the lying pandemic within the NYPD. The article references various officers and detectives who were the subject of credible accusations relating to the officers' intentionally false statements, with some allegations coming from federal and state judges.

48. On September 12, 2019, The New York Times published another article by Joseph Goldstein, entitled "Officers Said They Smelled Pot. The Judge Called Them Liars." Unsurprisingly, this article dealt with the unusually high frequency of officers using the odor of marijuana to excuse a search that conspicuously does not result in the recovery of any marijuana. It should not require an article in The New York Times to call attention to such patently disingenuous tactics, but has become necessary for a variety of reasons, including the NYPD's failure to correct such behavior, the willingness of prosecutors and judges to credit the lying officers and the increasing rate of occurrence.

49. On April 24, 2019, The New York Times published an article, entitled "Detective's Lies Sent Three People to Prison, Prosecutors Charge," by Sean Piccolo, detailing the lies of NYPD Second Grade Detective Joseph Franco and how those lies resulted in the imprisonment of at least three innocent people. The article described how Det. Franco lied about observing drug transactions on at least three separate occasions, lies that were only uncovered through contradictory video evidence. Det. Franco's lies resulted in the innocent individuals each being sentenced to prison terms in excess of one-year.

50. Other articles include: (i) "Testilying' by Police: A Stubborn Problem.," by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, March 18, 2018; (ii) "New York Detective Charged with Faking Lineup Results," by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, February 17, 2018; (iii) "He Excelled as a Detective, Until Prosecutors Stopped Believing Him," by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, October 17, 2017; (iv) "Review Board Notes Rise in New York Police Officers' False Statement,” by J. David Goodman, The New York Times, May 14, 2015; (v) “In Brooklyn Gun Cases, Suspicion Turns to the Police,” by Stephanie Clifford, The New York Times, December 11, 2014; (vi) “Detective is Found Guilty of Planting Drugs,” by Tim Stelloh, The New York Times, November 1, 2011; and (vii) “The Drugs? They Came from the Police,” by Jim Dwyer, The New York Times, October 13, 2011.

51. The NYPD has a longstanding and ignominious record of failing to discipline its officers, or even entertaining allegations of wrongdoing against them. On June 26, 2019, The New York Times published an article, entitled “2,495 Reports of Police Bias. Not One Was Deemed Valid by the N.Y.P.D.” This article reported that within the last five (5) years, almost 2,500 separate individuals have filed formal complaints with the NYPD alleging that an officer acted with bias toward them, with not a single one being substantiated by the NYPD. Such a finding is plainly incredible and obviously the result of deliberately poor or nonexistent investigatory protocols. The report further impugned the NYPD’s commitment to combat the prejudices and the biases exhibited by many of its officers.

52. Upon information and belief, the NYPD, the City of New York, and their respective policymakers, officials or supervisors have imposed, tacitly approved or acquiesced to policies, customs, or patterns and practices within the NYPD that resulted in the arrest and criminal prosecution of Plaintiff without probable cause.

53. Upon information and belief, the NYPD, the City of New York, and their respective policymakers or supervisors have failed to provide adequate training regarding the identification of probable cause, reasonable suspicion or the appropriate amount of force to be used.

54. Defendants’ actions with respect to the underlying arrest of Plaintiff, which occurred without even the semblance of probable cause, were so blatantly violative of Plaintiff’s civil rights that the tacit approval of identical or similar acts by the policymakers or supervisors of the NYPD and the City of New York, as well as their deliberate indifference towards the rights of any individuals who may come into contact with Defendants, should be inferred, because such flagrant deprivations of constitutionally protected rights could not and would not occur without the tacit approval or deliberate indifference regarding the commission of such violations by the policymakers or supervisors of the NYPD and City of New York.

55. Upon information and belief, further details and facts, relating to the unlawful policies, customs or patterns and practices of the NYPD, City of New York and their respective policymakers, supervisors, police officers or employees, will become known after the completion of discovery, as such information is presently within the exclusive possession of Defendants, the NYPD and City of New York.

56. Upon information and belief, the personnel files, records and disciplinary histories of the officer Defendants will reveal a history of Constitutional violations indicative of defendant City's knowledge that the individual officer Defendants were unfit for employment as NYPD officers, or for employment in general, and that the probability of the individually named Defendants committing similar violations in the future was extremely high.

57. Upon information and belief, said personnel files, records and disciplinary histories will conclusively show that the City and the NYPD were fully aware of Defendants' past constitutional violations, the unacceptably high probability for the recurrence of similar transgressions, the unreasonably dangerous situations that were likely to result from their hiring or retention, as well as their unsuitability for employment as law enforcement officers, or for employment in general, and that the NYPD and City of New York failed to engage in any preventive or corrective action intended to diminish the likelihood of recurrence for such violations, which is tantamount to the City's tacit approval of such misconduct or the City's deliberate indifference towards the civil rights of those who may interact with its employees, including MACHALEK and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10.

58. Upon information and belief, the NYPD and City of New York and have failed, or outright refused, to correct the individually named Defendants' predilections to engage in unconstitutional behavior or attempt to prevent the recurrence of such misconduct.

59. The aforementioned acts of defendants, including MACHALEK and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, directly or proximately resulted in the deprivation or violation of Plaintiff's civil rights, as enumerated and set forth by the First, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States, the constitution of the State of New York and the laws of the City and State of New York.

60. As direct or proximate results of said acts, Plaintiff was caused to suffer the loss of his liberty, irreparable reputational harm, the loss of earnings and potential earnings, substantial and permanent physical and psychological injuries, as well as severe and permanent emotional distress, including fear, embarrassment, humiliation, traumatization, frustration, extreme inconvenience and anxiety.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Free Speech Retaliation Claim Under
New York State Law

61. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

62. Plaintiff engaged in speech and activities that were protected by Article I, Section 8, of the New York State Constitution.

124. Defendants acted with malice, which, in the absence of probable cause, may be inferred.

125. The prosecution was terminated in Plaintiff's favor, when all criminal charges were unconditionally dismissed and sealed.

126. Accordingly, Defendants violated Plaintiff's Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment rights.

127. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

ELEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Malicious Abuse of Process Under
New York State Law

128. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

129. Defendants arrested, detained and caused a criminal prosecution to be initiated or maintained against Plaintiff to compel the compliance or forbearance of some act.

130. Defendants had no excuse or justification to forcibly detain or initiate a prosecution against Plaintiff, especially with the absence of any cognizable probable cause.

131. Defendants intended to inflict substantial harm upon Plaintiff.

132. Defendants acted to achieve a collateral purpose, beyond or in addition to Plaintiff's criminal prosecution.

133. Defendant City, as employer of the individual Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

134. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

TWELFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Malicious Abuse of Process Under
42 U.S.C. § 1983 Against Individual NYPD Defendants

135. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

136. Defendants arrested, detained and caused a criminal prosecution to be initiated or maintained against Plaintiff to compel the compliance or forbearance of some act.

137. Defendants had no excuse or justification to forcibly detain and initiate a prosecution against Plaintiff, especially with the absence of any cognizable probable cause.

138. Defendants intended to inflict substantial harm upon Plaintiff.

139. Defendants acted to achieve a collateral purpose, beyond or in addition to Plaintiff's criminal prosecution.

140. Defendants' actions deprived Plaintiff of his constitutional rights to free from illegal searches and seizures and to not be deprived of his liberty without the due process of law in violation of the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution.

141. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

THIRTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTIONDenial of Right to Fair Trial Under
New York State Law

142. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.
143. Defendants fabricated false evidence to be used against Plaintiff that was likely to influence a jury's decision.
144. Defendants forwarded said false information to prosecutors within the District Attorney's Office.
145. Defendants' actions resulted in post-arraignment restrictions and deprivations upon plaintiff's liberty and freedom of movement.
146. Accordingly, defendants deprived plaintiff of his civil rights, pursuant to Article I, Sections 1, 2, 6 & 9, of the New York State Constitution, as well Article II, Sections 10 & 12, of the New York Civil Rights Law.
147. Defendant City, as employer of the individual Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.
148. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

FOURTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTIONDenial of Right to Fair Trial Under
42 U.S.C. § 1983 Against Individual NYPD Defendants

149. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.
150. Defendants fabricated false evidence to be used against Plaintiff that was likely to influence a jury's decision.
151. Defendants forwarded said false information to prosecutors within the District Attorney's Office.

152. Defendants' actions resulted in post-arraignment restrictions and deprivations upon plaintiff's liberty and freedom of movement.

153. Accordingly, defendants violated Plaintiff's right to fair trial, pursuant to the Fifth, Sixth and Fourteenth Amendments to United States Constitution.

154. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

FIFTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Biased Based Profiling under
New York City Law

155. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

156. Defendants impermissibly relied upon Plaintiff's actual or perceived race, color, national origin, ancestry, citizenship status, gender, religion, religious practice, age, disability or sexual orientation, as the determinative factor in initiating law enforcement action against Plaintiff, rather than Plaintiff's behavior or other information or circumstances that would link Plaintiff to suspected unlawful activity.

157. Accordingly, defendants violated plaintiff's rights, pursuant to the Administrative Code of the City of New York, Section 14-151

158. Defendant City, as employer of the individual Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

159. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

SIXTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Deprivation of Rights and Denial of Equal Protection of the Laws under
New York State law

160. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

161. Plaintiff, as an African American or black male, is a member of a racial minority and protected class.

162. Defendants discriminated against Plaintiff on the basis of his race, color, national origin, ancestry, gender, religion, religious practice, age, disability or sexual orientation.

163. Defendants also engaged in the selective treatment of Plaintiff, in comparison to others similarly situated.

164. Defendants' discriminatory treatment of Plaintiff was based on impermissible considerations, such as race, color, ethnicity, an intent to inhibit or punish Plaintiff for the exertion of his Constitutional rights, or a malicious or bad faith intent to injure Plaintiff.

165. Defendants applied facially neutral laws against Plaintiff in a discriminatory manner.

166. Defendants, motivated by discriminatory animus, applied facially neutral statutes with adverse effects against Plaintiff.

167. Defendants did not possess a rational basis, excuse or justification for applying any laws or statutes against Plaintiff.

168. Accordingly, defendants violated plaintiff's rights, pursuant to Article I, Section 11, of the New York State Constitution, Article VII, Section 79-N, of the New York Civil Rights Law and Section 296, Paragraph 13, of the New York Human Rights Law.

169. Defendant City, as employer of the individual Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

170. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

SEVENTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Deprivation of Rights and Denial of Equal Protection of the Laws under
42 U.S.C. §§ 1981 and 1983 Against Individual NYPD Defendants

171. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.
172. Plaintiff, as an African American or black male, is a member of a racial minority and protected class.
173. Defendants discriminated against Plaintiff on the basis of his race, color or ethnicity
174. Defendants engaged in the selective treatment of Plaintiff in comparison to others similarly situated.
175. Defendants' selective treatment of Plaintiff was based on impermissible considerations, such as race, color, ethnicity, an intent to inhibit or punish Plaintiff for the exertion of his Constitutional rights, or malicious or bad faith intent to injure Plaintiff.
176. Defendants applied facially neutral laws against Plaintiff in a discriminatory manner.
177. Defendants, motivated by a discriminatory animus, applied facially neutral penal statutes with adverse effects against Plaintiff.
178. Defendants did not possess a rational basis, excuse or justification for applying any laws or statutes against Plaintiff.
179. Accordingly, defendants violated plaintiff's rights, under the Fourteenth Amendment.
180. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

EIGHTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Conspiracy to Interfere with Civil Rights and Failure to Prevent the Conspiracy under
42 U.S.C. §§ 1983, 1985 and 1986 Against Individual NYPD Defendants

181. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.
182. Defendants engaged in a conspiracy against Plaintiff to deprive Plaintiff of his rights to engage in protected speech or activities, to be free from unreasonable searches and seizures, to be afforded a fair trial, to not be deprived of his liberty or property without due process of law, or of the privileges and immunities under the laws and constitutions of the United States and of the State of New York.

183. Defendants committed overt acts in furtherance of their conspiracy against Plaintiff.

184. As a result, Plaintiff sustained injuries to his person, was deprived of his liberty or was deprived of rights or privileges of citizens of the United States.

185. Defendants' conspiracy was motivated by a desire to deprive Plaintiff of his civil rights or because of some racial, otherwise class-based, invidious or discriminatory animus.

186. The Defendants that did not engage or participate in the conspiracy to interfere with Plaintiff's civil rights, had knowledge that acts in furtherance of the conspiracy were about to be committed or in process of being committed, possessed the power to prevent or aid in the prevention of the conspiratorial objective, and neglected to do so.

187. Accordingly, defendants violated Plaintiff's rights, pursuant to the Fourth, Fifth, Sixth and/or Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution.

188. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

NINETEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Intervene Under
New York State Law

189. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

190. Those Defendants that were present but did not actively participate in the aforementioned unlawful conduct, observed such conduct, had an opportunity to prevent such conduct, had a duty to intervene and prevent such conduct, and failed to intervene.

191. Defendant City, as employer of the individual Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

192. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

TWENTIETH CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Intervene Under
42 U.S.C. § 1983 Against Individual NYPD Defendants

193. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

194. Those Defendants that were present but did not actively participate in the aforementioned unlawful conduct observed such conduct, had an opportunity to prevent such conduct, had a duty to intervene and prevent such conduct, and failed to intervene.

195. Accordingly, the Defendants who failed to intervene violated the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments.

196. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

TWENTY-FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligent Hiring, Training, Retention and Supervision Under
New York State Law

197. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth.

198. Defendant City owed a duty of care to Plaintiff to adequately hire, train, retain and supervise its employee defendants.

199. Defendant City breached those duties of care.

200. Defendant City placed defendants in a position where they could inflict foreseeable harm.

201. Defendant City knew or should have known of its employees' propensity for committing civil rights violations.

202. Defendant City failed to take reasonable measures in hiring, training, retaining and supervising its employee defendants that would have prevented the aforesaid injuries to Plaintiff.

203. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

TWENTY-SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

Breach of Bailment
New York State Law

204. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth.

205. Defendants took possession of Plaintiff's money and property.

206. Defendants assumed the role of bailee when such possession was assumed by them.

207. Pursuant and implicit to Defendants' assumed role of bailee, Defendants assumed an implied contractual obligation to safeguard Plaintiff's aforesaid property pending the disposition of the subject criminal suit.

208. The aforesaid subject criminal suit terminated in Plaintiff's favor.

209. Defendants were obligated and required to return said money and property to Plaintiff.

210. Defendants failed to safeguard Plaintiff's property and instead lost their property.

211. Defendants' undue and improper loss of Plaintiff's aforesaid property constituted a breach of its assumed contractual obligations as bailee.

212. Defendant City, as employer of the individual Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

213. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

TWENTY-THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

Municipal "Monell" Liability Under
42 U.S.C. § 1983 Against Defendant City

214. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth.

215. Defendant City maintained a policy or custom that caused Plaintiff to be deprived of his civil rights, tacitly approved of such violative conduct or was deliberately indifferent toward the potential exposure of individuals, such as plaintiff, to such violative behavior.

216. Defendant City's employee police officers have engaged in an illegal pattern and practice of misconduct, so consistent and widespread that it constitutes a custom or usage, of which a supervisor or policymaker must have been aware of.

217. Defendant City, its policymakers and supervisors failed to provide adequate training or supervision to their subordinates, to such an extent that is tantamount to the City's deliberate indifference toward the rights of those who may come into contact with defendant City's employees.

218. Defendant City's employees engaged in such egregious and flagrant violations of plaintiff's Constitutional rights that the need for enhanced training or supervision is obvious and equates to a display of deliberate indifference by defendant City and its policymakers toward the rights of individuals, who may come into contact with defendant City's employees.

219. Defendant City's repeated refusal or failure to install or apply corrective or preventive measures constitutes the tacit approval of such violative behavior or a deliberate indifference to the rights of those who may be affected by such behavior.

220. Defendant City's conduct caused plaintiff to be deprived of his civil rights, as guaranteed by the Constitution of the United States, via the First, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth & Fourteenth Amendments thereto.

221. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests judgment against Defendants, jointly and severally, as follows:
