Plaintiffs, JUSTIN FORD, JOSE FORD, and KARIN FORD, by their attorneys, Shulman-Hill, PLLC, as and for their Verified Complaint herein, allege upon information and belief as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. This is a civil rights action to recover money damages arising out of defendants' violations of Plaintiffs' rights as secured by the Civil Rights Act, 42 U.S.C. Sections 1983 and 1988, and of rights secured by the Fourth, Fifth, and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, and the common law and the laws of the State of New York. On May 31, 2023, Plaintiffs, while lawfully at or around 1470 Williamsbridge Road, County of Bronx, New York, were subject to an unlawful arrest and detention by the defendant police officers. Plaintiffs were thereafter subjected to approximately 36 hours of unlawful confinement between an NYPD Precinct and Bronx County Central Booking. Plaintiffs were thereafter released from custody from Central Booking, never having seen a judge. The Bronx County District Attorney declined to prosecute the Plaintiffs on the false charges made against them, as they had committed no crime. Plaintiffs were deprived of their rights under 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 802 and their constitutional, common law, and statutory rights when the individual defendants unlawfully stopped, detained, and passed along false accusations to prosecuting attorneys against of Plaintiffs, in violation of the Fourth, Fifth, and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, the common law and the laws of the State of New York.

PARTIES

2. Plaintiff, Justin Ford, is a resident of the state of New York.

3. Plaintiff, Jose Ford, is a resident of the state of New York.
4. Plaintiff, Karin Ford, is a resident of the state of New York.
5. NYPD Police Officer James Carroll, Shield No. 9749, was at all times relevant herein an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.
6. NYPD Police Officer James Carroll, Shield No. 9749, is being sued in his individual and official capacities.
7. NYPD Police Officer James Carroll, Shield No. 9749, was at all times assigned to the Narcotics Borough Bronx command with the New York City Police Department.
8. NYPD Police Officers John Does Numbers One Through Ten are and were at all times relevant herein officers, employees, and agents of the New York City Police Department.
9. NYPD Police Officers John Does Numbers One Through Ten are being sued in their individual and official capacities.
10. At all times relevant herein, the individual defendants were acting under color of state law in the course and scope of their duties and functions as agents, servants, employees and officers of the New York City Police Department, and otherwise performed and engaged in conduct incidental to the performance of their lawful functions in the course of their duties. They were acting for and on behalf of the New York City Police Department at all times relevant herein, with the power and authority vested in them as officers, agents and employees of the New York City Police Department and incidental to the lawful pursuit of their duties as officers, employees and agents of the New York City Police Department.
11. Defendant City of New York is a municipal entity created and authorized under the laws of the State of New York. It is authorized by law to maintain a police department, which acts as its agent in the area of law enforcement and for which it is ultimately responsible. The defendant City of New York assumes the risks incidental to the maintenance of a police force and the employment of police officers as said risks attach to the public consumers of the services provided by the New York City Police Department.
12. Plaintiffs, in furtherance of their causes of action brought pursuant to New York State law, filed timely Notices of Claim against the City of New York in compliance with the Municipal Law Section 50 and in accordance with New York State law.
13. More than thirty (30) days have elapsed since service of said Notices of Claim were filed and the City of New York has failed to pay or adjust the claims.

14. This action falls within one or more of the exceptions as set forth in CPLR Section 1602, involving intentional actions, as well as the defendant, and/or defendants, having acted in reckless disregard for the safety of others, as well as having performed intentional acts.

15. Plaintiffs have sustained damages in an amount in excess of the jurisdictional limits of all the lower Courts of the State of New York.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

16. On May 31, 2023, Plaintiffs were lawfully present at or in the vicinity of 1470 Williamsbridge Road, County of Bronx, State of New York, when the defendant officers unlawfully arrested Plaintiffs without probable cause or legal justification.

17. At the time of the incident, Justin Ford was the lawful owner of a smoke shop where his brothers, Jose Ford and Karin Ford, also worked.

18. At the referenced place and time, Plaintiffs were present within the smoke shop when the defendant officers entered their store and approached them.

19. The defendant officers immediately began to arrest Plaintiffs, subjecting them to unlawful pat-down searches and tightly restraining them with metal handcuffs causing pain and discomfort.

20. Assuming the incident had something to do with the business, what exactly he was unsure, Jose offered to the defendant officers that he was the owner of the store, to take him.

21. Nevertheless, the officers proceeded with arresting the three men.

22. At no time relevant herein did Plaintiffs commit a crime or violate the law in any way, nor did the police officers have any objective basis to accuse Plaintiffs of committing a crime or violating the law in any way.

23. At no point did the defendant officers recover any drugs, weapons, graffiti instruments, or other illegal contraband from Plaintiffs or from a location that was in Plaintiffs' possession, custody, or control.

24. Plaintiffs did not resist arrest and complied with all the officers' demands.

25. Nevertheless, Plaintiffs were unlawfully arrested, handcuffed, and subjected to unlawful pat-down search by the defendant officers without legal justification or probable cause.

26. Plaintiffs were placed in the back of an NYPD vehicle and transported to a local NYPD Precinct.

27. Upon their arrival at the Precinct, Plaintiffs were unlawfully fingerprinted, photographed, and placed in a holding cell.

28. The following day, Plaintiffs were transferred to Bronx County Central Booking, where they were again processed and detained in a holding cell.

29. While Plaintiffs were in custody, the defendant police officers provided the Bronx County District Attorney's Office with the false, misleading, and/or incomplete information that Plaintiffs committed a crime.

30. The allegations were false, misguided, and fabricated by defendant officers.

31. Specifically, the defendant police officers falsely stated to the Bronx County District Attorney's Office that Plaintiffs were engaged in Criminal Possession of a Controlled Substance, and related charges.

32. Given the baselessness of the accusations, the Bronx County District Attorney's Office would decline to prosecute Plaintiffs.

33. On or about June 2, 2023, after approximately thirty-six (36) hours in unlawful custody, Plaintiffs were released from custody without formal charges.

34. Some of the police officer defendants observed the violation of Plaintiffs' rights under the Constitution of the United States and New York State Law and did nothing to prevent their fellow officers from unjustifiably arresting, confining, and using excessive force against Plaintiffs.

35. The unlawful arrest, confinement, and use of excessive force by the individually named defendants caused Plaintiffs to sustain mental and emotional trauma.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligence

36. Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate, and re-allege each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

37. Defendants owed a duty of care to Plaintiffs.

38. To the extent defendants claim that the injuries to Plaintiffs by the defendant police officers were unintentionally caused and that the force used by the defendants against them was unintentional, then the defendants breached that duty of care by, among other things, seizing and tightly handcuffing them.

39. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiffs of their rights under the laws of the State of New York.

40. All of the foregoing occurred without any fault or provocation by Plaintiffs.

41. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

42. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

43. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiffs sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION Unlawful Stop, Question, and Search

44. Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate, and re-allege the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

45. The illegal approach, pursuit, stop and grab employed by defendants herein terminated Plaintiffs' freedom of movement through means intentionally applied.

46. The conduct of defendants in approaching, stopping, and grabbing Plaintiffs was performed under color of law and without any reasonable suspicion of criminality or other constitutionally required grounds.

47. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiffs of their rights under the laws of the State of New York.

48. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

49. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION Violation of Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment Rights: Unlawful Seizure and Deprivation of Liberty

50. Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate, and re-allege the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

51. The individually named police officer defendants, while acting in concert and within the scope of their authority, caused Plaintiffs to be seized, unlawfully searched, falsely arrested, and falsely imprisoned without reasonable suspicion and/or probable cause, in violation of Plaintiffs' right to be free of an unreasonable seizure under the Fourth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

52. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiffs sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional, and psychological injuries.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION
False Arrest/False Imprisonment

53. Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate, and re-allege the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

54. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute false arrest and false imprisonment under the laws of the State of New York. Defendants intended to confine Plaintiffs and, in fact, confined Plaintiffs, and Plaintiffs were conscious of the confinement. In addition, Plaintiffs did not consent to the confinement and the confinement was not otherwise privileged.

55. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiffs of their rights under the laws of the State of New York and the United States Constitution.

56. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

57. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

58. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiffs sustained injuries, including but not limited to loss of liberty, emotional and psychological injuries.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION
Violation of Plaintiffs' Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment Rights:
Excessive Force

59. Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate, and re-allege each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

60. The use of excessive force by defendants by, amongst other things, seizing and tightly handcuffing them, constituted objectively unreasonable physical seizures of Plaintiffs in violation of their rights under the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

61. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION
Negligent Infliction of Emotional Distress

62. Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate, and re-allege each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

63. By the actions described herein, defendants, each acting individually and in concert with each other, engaged in extreme and outrageous conduct, conduct utterly intolerable in a civilized community, which negligently caused severe emotional distress to Plaintiffs.

64. The acts and conduct of the defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to Plaintiffs and violated Plaintiffs' statutory and common law rights as guaranteed Plaintiffs by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.

65. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiffs of their rights under the laws of the State of New York.

66. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

67. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

68. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiffs sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION
Negligent Hiring, Retention, Training and Supervision

69. Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate, and re-allege each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

70. The City of New York and its employees, servants and/or agents acting within the scope of their employment did negligently hire, retain, train, and supervise defendants, individuals who were unfit for the performance of police duties on the aforementioned dates at the aforementioned locations.

71. Upon information and belief, the defendant officers had known histories of disciplinary action for official misconduct and/or civilian complaints demonstrating a lack of fitness.

72. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiffs sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Intervene

73. Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate, and re-allege each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

74. The defendants that did not physically touch Plaintiffs but were present when other officers violated Plaintiffs' Constitutional Rights had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of Plaintiffs, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other officers.

75. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein.

76. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiffs suffered permanent injury, their liberty was restricted for an extended period of time, they were put in fear for their safety, and they were humiliated and subject to other physical constraints.

77. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiffs of their rights under the laws of the State of New York.

78. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

79. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

80. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiffs sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment Rights: Denial of Right to Fair Trial/Due Process

81. Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate, and re-allege the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

82. Defendants, individually and collectively, manufactured and/or withheld false evidence and forwarded this false evidence to prosecutors in the Bronx County District Attorney's Office.

83. Defendants filled out false and misleading police reports and forwarded them to prosecutors in the Bronx County District Attorney's Office.

84. Defendants signed false and misleading criminal court affidavits and forwarded them to prosecutors in the Bronx County District Attorney's Office.

85. In withholding/creating false evidence against Plaintiffs, and in providing/withholding information with respect thereto, Defendants violated Plaintiffs' constitutional right to due process and fair trial under the New York State Constitution and under the Due Process Clause of the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States and to be free to deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution.

86. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiffs sustained, inter alia, loss of the right to due process and a fair trial, loss of liberty, emotional distress, embarrassment and humiliation, and deprivation of their constitutional rights.

87. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

88. The City, as the employer of the officer Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

89. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of Defendants, Plaintiffs sustained injuries including, but not limited to: economic, emotional, and psychological injuries.

TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION
42 U.S.C. § 1983 and New York State Law
Malicious Prosecution

90. Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate, and re-allege the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

91. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute malicious prosecution under the United States Constitution and the laws of the State of New York.

92. Defendants commenced and continued criminal proceedings against Plaintiffs.

93. There was actual malice and an absence of probable cause for the criminal proceeding against Plaintiff and for each of the charges for which he was prosecuted.

94. The prosecution and criminal proceedings terminated in Plaintiff's favor on the aforementioned dates.

ELEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Assault

95. Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate, and re-allege the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

96. Defendants, their agents, servants, and employees, acting within the scope of their employment, intentionally, willfully, and maliciously assaulted Plaintiffs in that they had the real or apparent ability to cause imminent harmful and/or offensive bodily contact and intentionally did a violent and/or menacing act which threatened such contact to the Plaintiffs, that such acts caused apprehension of such contact in Plaintiffs.

97. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiffs of their rights under the laws of the State of New York.

98. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

99. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

100. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiffs sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

TWELFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Battery

101. Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate, and re-allege the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

102. Defendants, their agents, servants, and employees, acting within the scope of their employment, intentionally, willfully, and maliciously battered Plaintiff when they, in a hostile and/or offensive manner, pushed, pulled, grabbed, and tightly handcuffed them, brutally effecting Plaintiff's arrests without their consent and with the intention of causing harmful and/or offensive bodily contact to Plaintiffs and caused such batteries.

103. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiffs of their rights under the laws of the State of New York.

104. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

105. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

106. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiffs sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional, and psychological injuries.

THIRTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Individual Defendant Officer's Violation of Plaintiffs' AC 8-802 Rights

107. Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate, and re-allege the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

108. The acts of the defendant officers constituted conduct under color of any law, ordinance, rule, regulation, custom, or usage.

109. The acts of the defendant officers caused Plaintiffs to be deprived of their rights under 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 802, to wit: to be secure in their person, house, papers, and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures, and to be secure against the use of excessive force regardless of whether such force is used in connection with a search or seizure.

110. The Defendant Officers, while in uniform, unlawfully seized, frisked, and searched the Plaintiffs, before detaining plaintiffs and further causing their detention for approximately thirty-six (36) hours in total.

111. By reason of the acts and omissions by Defendants described above, Plaintiffs have endured mental and emotional injuries and were otherwise damaged and injured.

FOURTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Individual Defendant Officer's Failure to Intervene in Violation of Plaintiffs' AC 8-802 Rights

112. The Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate, and re-allege the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

113. The acts of Defendant Officers constituted conduct under color of any law, ordinance, rule, regulation, custom, or usage.

114. Defendant Officers had a duty to protect Plaintiffs from violations of their rights under 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 802, to wit: to be secure in their person, house, papers, and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures, and to be secure against the use of excessive force regardless of whether such force is used in connection with a search or seizure.

115. The Defendants that did not physically touch Plaintiffs, but were present when other officers violated Plaintiffs' AC 8-802 right against unreasonable search and seizure and excessive force had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of Plaintiffs, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other officers.

116. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein, thereby failed in their duty to intervene to protect Plaintiffs from violation of their rights.

117. By reason of the acts and omissions by Defendants described above, Plaintiffs have endured mental and emotional injuries and were otherwise damaged and injured.

FIFTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

City-Employer's Liability for Defendant Officer's Violation of Plaintiffs' AC 8-802 Rights

126. The Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate, and re-allege the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

127. Defendant Officers are "covered individuals," as defined in 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 - 801 in that they are employees of the Police Department or persons appointed by the Police Commissioner as a Special Patrolman.

128. The City of New York, as the employer of the covered individual Defendant Officers, is liable to the Plaintiffs for the wrongdoing of the covered individual Defendant Officers.

129. The acts of Defendant Officers constituted conduct under color of any law, ordinance, rule, regulation, custom or usage.

130. The acts of Defendant Officers caused Plaintiffs to be deprived of their rights under 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 802, to wit: to be secure in their person, house, papers, and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures, and to be secure against the use of excessive force regardless of whether such force is used in connection with a search or seizure.

131. The Defendant Officers, while in uniform, unlawfully seized, frisked, and searched the Plaintiffs, before detaining plaintiffs and further causing their detention for approximately thirty-six (36) hours in total.

132. By reason of the acts and omissions by Defendants described above, Plaintiffs have endured mental and emotional injuries and were otherwise damaged and injured.

SIXTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

City-Employer's Liability for Defendant Officer's Failure to Intervene in Violation of Plaintiffs' AC 8-802 Rights

133. The Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate, and re-allege the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

134. Defendant Officers are "covered individuals," as defined in 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 - 801 in that they are employees of the Police Department or persons appointed by the Police Commissioner as a Special Patrolman.

135. The City of New York, as the employer of the covered individual Defendant Officers, is liable to the Plaintiffs for the wrongdoing of the covered individual Defendant Officers.

136. The acts of Defendant Officers constituted conduct under color of any law, ordinance, rule, regulation, custom or usage.

137. Defendant Officers had a duty to protect Plaintiffs from violations of their rights under 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 802, to wit: to be secure in their person, house, papers, and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures, and to be secure against the use of excessive force regardless of whether such force is used in connection with a search or seizure.

138. The Defendants that did not physically touch Plaintiffs but were present when other officers violated Plaintiffs' AC 8 – 802 rights against unreasonable search and seizure and excessive force had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of Plaintiffs, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other officers.

139. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein, thereby failed in their duty to intervene to protect Plaintiffs from violation of their rights.

140. By reason of the acts and omissions by Defendants described above, Plaintiffs have endured mental and emotional injuries and were otherwise damaged and injured.

SEVENTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Article I, § 12 of the New York State Constitution

118. Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate, and re-allege each and every allegation contained in the above paragraphs with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein.

119. Such conduct breached the protections guaranteed to plaintiffs by the New York State Constitution, including but not limited to, Article 1, §§ 1, 6, 8, 9, 11, and 12, and including the following rights:

- i. freedom from unreasonable search and seizure of their person and property;
- ii. freedom from arrest without probable cause;
- iii. freedom from false imprisonment, that being wrongfully detained without good faith, reasonable suspicion, or legal justification, and of which wrongful detention plaintiffs were aware and did not consent;
- iv. freedom from the lodging of false charges against them by police officers and prosecutors, including on information and belief, by some or all of the individual defendants; and
- v. freedom from deprivation of liberty without due process of law.

120. As a direct and proximate result of defendants' deprivations of Plaintiffs' rights, privileges, and immunities guaranteed by the New York State Constitution, Plaintiffs suffered mental, economic, and emotional injuries, as well as a deprivation of liberty.

121. As a result of the above tortious conduct, Plaintiffs were caused to suffer mental, economic, and emotional injuries, as well as a deprivation of liberty.

122. As a result of the above unconstitutional conduct, the City of New York is liable for the conduct of the Individual Defendants and any damages they caused under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

JURY DEMAND

141. Plaintiffs hereby demand trial by jury of all issues properly triable thereby.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs, JUSTIN FORD, JOSE FORD, and KARIN FORD, demand judgment against the defendants on each cause of action in amounts to be determined upon the trial of this action which exceeds the jurisdiction of lower courts, inclusive of punitive damages and attorneys' fees inclusive of costs and disbursements of this action, interest and such other relief as is appropriate under the law, and that the Plaintiffs recover the cost of the suit herein, including reasonable attorney's fees pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1988 and 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 801 et seq.
