2. Plaintiff's claims arise out of a February 28, 2020 incident, in which defendants acting under color of state law, unlawfully arrested and detained Plaintiff. As a direct and proximate cause, Plaintiff was unlawfully detained within the New York City Police Department within the jurisdictional confines of Bronx County, New York. Plaintiff was falsely charged with Criminal Possession of a Controlled Substance in the Third Degree,

Plaintiff was deprived of his liberty for approximately thirty-six (36) hours and suffered serious and emotional injuries. Plaintiff had to return to Court a number of times before his criminal case was ultimately ended in his favor on April 12, 2021.

3. Plaintiff in furtherance of his cause of action brought pursuant to New York State law filed a Notice of Claim against the CITY OF NEW YORK in accordance with New York State law and jurisprudence.
4. More than thirty (30) days have elapsed since service of said Notice of Claim was filed and THE CITY OF NEW YORK has failed to pay or adjust the claims or otherwise resolved them.
5. Plaintiff has complied with municipal defendant's request for an oral examination pursuant to Section 50-H of the New York General Municipal Law.
6. This action and all associated claims have been timely brought within the applicable statutes of limitations.¹

¹ On March 20, 2020, Governor Cuomo signed the first of a series of executive orders tolling filing deadlines, including “the commencement, filing, or service of any legal action, notice, motion, or other process or proceeding”. Governor Cuomo periodically extended the tolling period including, most recently, until November 5, 2020.

8. Plaintiff seeks monetary damages (compensatory and punitive) against Defendants, as well as an award of cost and attorneys' fees, and such other relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

19. At about that date and time, Plaintiff was present inside of his mother's apartment visiting his mother and his younger brother.

- Degree, crimes which the Defendants knew or should have known Plaintiff was not involved in the alleged commission of.
32. Based on information and belief, the arrest charges related to an alleged incident involving Plaintiff's mother and brother.
33. Plaintiff repeatedly attempted to explain to the Defendant Officers that he was innocent.
34. Defendant Officer's knew or should have known that Plaintiff was not a resident of the location, and did not possess any drugs.
35. Indeed, at his arrest Defendant Officers knew he was merely an overnight guest.
36. Based on information and belief, a Defendant supervisor, was present on the scene and did not stop the unlawful arrest of Plaintiff.
37. Some of the Defendant officers who did not participate in the incident but were otherwise present and observed the violation of Plaintiff's constitutional rights failed to intercede on Plaintiff's behalf.
38. After Plaintiff's arrest, Plaintiff was subjected to a search of the intimate parts of his body causing him embarrassment and humiliation.
39. Plaintiff was unlawfully detained for approximately thirty-six (36) hours.
40. The force used by Defendants caused Plaintiff personal and emotional injuries, the extent of which are still unknown.
41. During all of the events described, Defendants acted maliciously, willfully, knowingly and with the specific intent to injure Plaintiff and violate his civil rights.
42. Defendants, including Defendant Angelo, prepared false sworn affidavits and false police reports relating to Plaintiff's arrest.

43. Defendants, including Defendant Angelo, repeatedly falsified information relating to the facts and circumstances surrounding Plaintiff's arrest and transmitted such information to the Bronx County District Attorneys Office.
44. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants were involved in the decision to arrest Plaintiff without probable cause or failed to intervene in the actions of their fellow officers when they observed Plaintiff's arrest without probable cause.
45. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants were involved in the decision to violate Plaintiff's civil rights, including falsely arresting Plaintiff, and failed to intervene in the actions of their fellow officers.
46. The City has been on notice for more than a generation that brutality is widespread and that particular reforms need to be implemented. From reform-minded Commissioner Patrick Murphy to the Mollen Commission twenty-five years later, the City has been repeatedly cautioned that a systemic tolerance for brutality flourishes throughout the NYPD. Indeed, years before said violation was perpetrated upon Plaintiff, the Mollen Commission report noted, "This tolerance, or willful blindness, extends to supervisors as well.
47. Plaintiff asserts that the Defendants who violated Plaintiff's civil rights, are part of a larger pattern and practice of similar conduct, which is so widespread, pervasive and consistent throughout the NYPD, and the City of New York that the commission of such constitutionally violent behavior has become tantamount to an official policy or custom within the NYPD, and the City of New York or, at the very least, conclusive evidence that the City, NYPD have either tacitly approved of such egregious wrongdoings or that they have become deliberately indifferent to the Civil Rights of those who may come into contact with police officers.

48. The individually named Defendants herein, as well as other officers serving in the employee of the NYPD, and the City of New York, have blatantly, shamelessly, consistently, and repeatedly engaged in conduct violative of the civil rights guaranteed and protected by the Constitution of the United States, in addition to the laws and Constitution of the State of New York, or without incurring any ramifications for such misconduct and, ostensibly, with the full and complete blessing of the NYPD, The City of New York and their respective policymakers and supervisors.
49. The New York Times, as well as numerous other reputable journalistic enterprises, have reported on the widespread corruption with the NYPD, and City of New York, particularly the incredibly disconcerting proclivity of many NYPD officers to engage in the fabrication or misrepresentation or subject matters that are materially relevant to criminal prosecutions, including the complete fabrication of arrest evidence and witnesses. Also detailed, is the NYPD obstinate refusal to effectuate corrective or preventive measures to combat the inevitable recurrence of such misdeeds, and perhaps most troubling, the NYPD's alarming tendency to, instead reward and promote these officers including those who are implicated via some incontrovertible form of evidence.
50. Upon information and belief, the NYPD, the City of New York, and their respective policymakers, officials or supervisors have approved or acquiesced to policies, customs, or patterns and practices within the NYPD that resulted in Plaintiff's arrest without probable cause
51. Upon information and belief, the NYPD, the city of New York, and their respective policymakers or supervisors have failed to provide adequate training regarding the identification of probable cause, and reasonable suspicion.

52. Defendant's actions, pursuant to plaintiff's underlying arrest, which occurred without even the semblance of probable cause, were so blatantly violative of plaintiff's civil rights that the tacit approval by the policymakers or supervisors of the NYPD, and the City of New York, as well as their deliberate indifference towards the right of any individuals who may come into contact with dependents, should be inferred, because such makers deprivations of constitutionally protected rights could not and would not occur without the tacit approval or deliberate indifference regarding the commission of such violations by the policymakers were supervisors of the NYPD, and city of New York.
53. Upon information and belief further details and facts relating to the unlawful policies customs or patterns and practices of the NYPD, the City of New York and their respective policymakers supervisors police officers or employees, will become known after the completion of Discovery, as such information is presently within the exclusive possession of defendants, the NYPD, and the City of New York
54. Upon information and belief, the personal files, records and disciplinary histories of the officers Defendants will reveal a history of constitutional violations indicative of Defendant City's, knowledge that the individual officer Defendants were unfit for employment as NYPD officers, or poor employment in general, and that the probability of the individually named defendant committed similar violations in the future was extremely high.
55. Upon information and belief said personnel files records and disciplinary histories will conclusively show that the city, and the NYPD were fully aware Defendant passed constitutional violations, unacceptably high probability for the reoccurrence of similar transgressions, the unreasonably dangerous situations that were likely to result from their hiring or retention, as well as their unsuitability for employment as Law Enforcement Officers, or for employment in general, and not the NYPD, and the City of New York to engage in any preventative or corrective action in the likelihood of recurrence for such violations, which is tantamount to the city of tacit approval of such misconduct or the city's deliberate indifference towards civil rights of those who may interact with employees including Plaintiff

56. As a direct and proximate result of the acts of Defendants, Plaintiff suffered the following injuries and damages: violation of his rights pursuant to the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments of the United States Constitution, physical injury, physical pain and suffering, emotional trauma and suffering, including fear, embarrassment, humiliation, emotional distress, frustration, extreme inconvenience, anxiety, loss of liberty and harm to reputation.
