Plaintiff Kiley Copeland, by and through his counsel, Michael O. Hueston, Esq.,
upon information and belief, alleges as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. This is a civil rights, common law, and tort action in which plaintiff seeks relief for the violation of plaintiff's rights secured by 42 U.S.C. § 1983; and the Fourth, Sixth, and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution. Plaintiff's claims arise from an incident that arose on or about October 19, 2016. During the incident, the City of New York, and members of the New York City Police Department ("NYPD") subjected plaintiff to, among other things: unlawful search and seizure; false arrest; unreasonable force; failure to intervene; denial of a fair trial/fabricated evidence; and implementation and continuation of an unlawful municipal policy, practice, and custom. Plaintiff seeks compensatory and punitive damages, declaratory relief, an award of costs and attorney's fees, pursuant 42 U.S.C. § 1988, and such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

JURISDICTION & VENUE

2. Venue is proper in the Supreme Court of the State New York, Kings County, because the acts in question occurred in the State of New York, Kings County, and the City of New York is subject to personal jurisdiction in Supreme Court of the State New York, Kings County; and jurisdiction is proper because the Supreme Court of the State New York, Kings County has jurisdiction over plaintiff's federal causes of action pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983.

PARTIES

2. Plaintiff Kiley Copeland is a resident of the State of New York, living at 215 Monroe Street, Brooklyn, New York.

3. At all times herein, defendant City of New York is a municipal corporation organized under the laws of the State of New York, which violated plaintiff's rights as described herein.

4. At all times relevant, defendant City of New York maintained a police department known as the NYPD, which employed the individual defendants.

5. At all times alleged herein, defendants P.O. Jennifer Lasky, Shield # 25804; and P.O. John Does # 1-5; were employed as police officers with Public Service Area # 3, and/or 825 Command, located in Kings County, New York, or other as yet unknown NYPD assignment, who violated plaintiff's rights as described herein.

6. The individual defendants are sued in their individual and official capacities.

STATEMENT OF FACTSThe Incident

7. On October 19, 2016, at and in the vicinity of 140 North Portland Avenue, Brooklyn, New York, several police officers operating from Public Service Area # 3, and/or 825 Command located in Kings County, New York, including upon information and belief, the individual defendants P.O. Jennifer Lasky, Shield # 25804; and P.O. John Does # 1-5 (“the police”), at times acting in concert and at times acting independently, committed the following illegal acts against plaintiff.

8. On October 19, 2016 at approximately 9:30 p.m., at and in the vicinity of 140 North Portland Avenue, Brooklyn, New York, the police without either consent, an arrest warrant, a lawful search warrant, probable cause, or reasonable suspicion that plaintiff had committed a crime unlawfully arrested plaintiff.

9. Plaintiff had come to the area to visit his mother.

10. Other individuals were outside.

11. The police approached and detained plaintiff.

12. There was no cause or justification to detain plaintiff.

13. The police grabbed plaintiff and handcuffed him behind his back.

14. The police searched plaintiff without cause or justification.

15. The police found no contraband, weapons, or controlled substances on plaintiff.

16. The police shoved plaintiff into a police vehicle and transported him to the Public Service Area 3 for processing.

17. The police kept plaintiff in handcuffs for hours.

18. The handcuffs were extremely tight, but the police ignore plaintiff's requests to loosen them.

19. The police transported plaintiff to Brooklyn Central Booking for arraignment.

20. Plaintiff was detained at Central Booking.

21. In order to cover up their illegal actions, the police, pursuant to a conspiracy, initiated by false sworn complaint(s) and/or conversations, falsely and maliciously told the Kings County District Attorney's Office that plaintiff had committed various crimes, including obstruction of governmental administration, loitering, possession of a gambling device, disorderly conduct, consumption of alcohol in public, and resisting arrest.

22. Plaintiff was released at arraignment on his own recognizance.

23. All the criminal charges against plaintiff were adjourned in contemplation of dismissal on March 29, 2017, and the criminal case was dismissed.

24. Plaintiff was physically injured, humiliated, and embarrassed by the experience.

Further Allegations

25. Plaintiff did not resist arrest at any time during the above-described incidents.

26. Plaintiff did not violate any law, regulation, or administrative code; commit any criminal act; or act in a suspicious or unlawful manner prior to or during the above-described incident.

27. The individual defendants did not observe plaintiff violate any law, regulation, or administrative code; commit any criminal act; or act in a suspicious or unlawful manner prior to or during the above-described incident.

28. The individual defendants acted under pretense and color of state law and their individual and official capacities and within the scope of their employment. Said acts by said defendants were beyond the scope of their jurisdiction, without authority or law, and in abuse of their powers, and said defendants acted willfully, knowingly, and with the specific intent to deprive plaintiff of his rights.

29. As a direct and proximate result of defendants' actions, plaintiff experienced personal and physical injuries, pain and suffering, fear, an invasion of privacy, psychological pain, emotional distress, mental anguish, embarrassment, humiliation, and financial loss.

30. Plaintiff is entitled to receive punitive damages from the individual defendants because the individual defendants' actions were motivated by extreme recklessness and indifference to plaintiff's rights.

FIRST CLAIM

(UNLAWFUL SEARCH AND SEIZURE)

31. Plaintiff repeats and realleges all the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

32. Defendants unlawfully searched and seized plaintiff without a lawful warrant, cause, consent, and/or beyond the scope of any warrant.

33. Accordingly, defendants are liable to plaintiff for unlawful search and seizure under 42 U.S.C. § 1983; and the Fourth and Fifth Amendments to the United States Constitution.

SECOND CLAIM

(FALSE ARREST)

34. Plaintiff repeats and realleges all the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

35. Defendants falsely arrested plaintiff without consent, an arrest warrant, probable cause, or reasonable suspicion that plaintiff had committed a crime.

36. Accordingly, defendants are liable to plaintiff for false arrest under 42 U.S.C. § 1983; and the Fourth Amendment to the United States Constitution.

THIRD CLAIM

(UNREASONABLE FORCE)

37. Plaintiff repeats and realleges all the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

38. The individual defendants' use of force upon plaintiff was objectively unreasonable.

39. The individual defendant officers did not have an objective and/or reasonable basis to use any degree of force against plaintiff.

40. Those defendants who did not touch plaintiff, witnessed these acts, but failed to intervene and protect plaintiff from this conduct.

41. Accordingly, the defendants are liable to plaintiff for using unreasonable force, pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983; and the Fourth Amendment to the United States Constitution.

FOURTH CLAIM
(FAILURE TO INTERVENE)

42. Plaintiff repeats and realleges all the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

43. Defendants had a reasonable opportunity to prevent the violations of plaintiff's constitutional rights, but they failed to intervene.

44. Accordingly, the defendants are liable to plaintiff for failing to intervene to prevent the violation of plaintiff's constitutional rights under 42 U.S.C. § 1983; and the Fourth Amendment to the United States Constitution.

FIFTH CLAIM
(DENIAL OF A FAIR TRIAL/FABRICATION OF EVIDENCE)

45. Plaintiff repeats and realleges all the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

46. The individual defendants are liable to plaintiff because they intentionally conspired to fabricate evidence against plaintiff, including omitting and/or manipulating evidence, and suppressing exculpatory evidence and forwarded that false evidence to police officers, prosecutors, and the court.

47. The individual defendants violated the law by either testifying falsely, providing false information, and/or drafting and signing false criminal court complaints and/or false police reports and forwarding them to police officers, prosecutors and the court.

48. The individual defendants were on notice that creating fabricated evidence is a clear violation of law because it is well established that individuals who knowingly use false evidence to obtain a conviction act unconstitutionally, depriving plaintiff of liberty without due process of law or a fair trial, and the harm occasioned by such unconscionable actions are redressable in an action for damages under 42 U.S.C. § 1983, the Fair Trial Clause of the Sixth Amendment to the United States Constitution, and the Due Process Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution.

SIXTH CLAIM

(MONELL CLAIM)

49. Plaintiff repeats and realleges all the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

50. Defendant City of New York, through a policy, practice and custom, directly caused the constitutional violations suffered by plaintiff.

51. Defendant City of New York through the NYPD and its officers, committed the following unconstitutional practices, customs and policies against plaintiff: (1) arresting innocent persons in order to meet productivity goals and without cause; (2) using unreasonable force on individuals; and (3) fabricating evidence against innocent persons.

52. Upon information and belief, defendant City of New York, at all relevant times, was aware that the defendants were unfit officers who have previously committed the acts alleged herein, have a propensity for unconstitutional conduct, or have been inadequately trained.

53. Nevertheless, defendant City of New York exercised deliberate indifference by failing to take remedial action. The City failed to properly train, retrain, supervise, discipline, and monitor the individual defendants and improperly retained and utilized them. Moreover, upon information and belief, defendant City of New York failed to adequately investigate prior complaints filed against the individual defendants.

54. Further, defendant City of New York was aware prior to the incident that the individual defendants (in continuation of its illegal custom, practice and/or policy) would stop, arrest and prosecute innocent individuals, based on pretexts and false evidence.

55. The existence of the aforesaid unconstitutional customs and policies may be inferred from repeated occurrences of similar wrongful conduct involving the individual defendants, placing the defendant City of New York on notice of the individual defendants' propensity to violate the rights of individuals.

56. The foregoing customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of the City of New York and the NYPD were the moving force behind the constitutional violations suffered by plaintiff as alleged herein.

57. The City's failure to act resulted in the violation of plaintiff's constitutional rights as described herein.

WHEREFORE, plaintiff demands a jury trial and the following relief jointly and severally against the defendants; and demands judgment and compensatory damages, individually and/or collectively in an amount that exceeds the jurisdiction of all lower courts that would otherwise have jurisdiction as to the above-stated cause of action against all defendants; punitive damages in an amount to be determined at trial as and for the above-stated causes of action against the individual defendants; together with costs and disbursements of this action and legal fees pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1988.
