VERIFIED COMPLAINT

Index No.

Plaintiffs, CIARA MILLER and JOSEPH RIVERA, by and through the undersigned attorneys, SIM & DEPAOLA, LLP, as and for their complaint against the Defendants, CITY OF NEW YORK, ADAN ROSA, HECTOR RODRIGUEZ, GREGORY VEGA, ABRAHAM VILLAVIZAR and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, allege and state as follows:

1. This is a civil rights action, in which Plaintiffs seek relief, vis-à-vis 42 U.S.C. §§ 1981, 1983, 1985, 1986 and 1988, the laws of the City and State of New York, in addition to the self-executing clauses or implied private causes of action within the constitution of the State of New York, for the violations of his civil rights and the deprivations to his liberties, as enumerated and promulgated by the First, Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States, as well as the laws and constitution of the State of New York.

2. The following claims arose on January 13, 2019, when Defendants, acting under color of state law, unlawfully stopped, questioned, searched, arrested and detained Plaintiffs in the vicinity of 2158 White Plains Road, within the County of Bronx, City and State of New York. Plaintiffs were subsequently removed to an NYPD precinct, and then to Bronx County Central Booking. As a result, Plaintiffs were deprived of their liberty and suffered various physical, emotional, and psychological injuries.

3. Plaintiff Ciara Miller was wrongfully detained over the course of approximately one (1) day, was maliciously prosecuted and denied her right to a fair trial until all charges were dismissed which constituted a termination of the criminal proceedings in favor of the accused.

4. Plaintiff Joseph Rivera was subjected to extreme and excessive force causing him to suffer seizures and other serious physical injuries.

5. At all relevant times herein, Defendants were acting under color of state law, to wit, under color of the statutes, ordinances, regulations, policies, customs and usages of the City and State of New York.

6. Plaintiffs timely served their Notices of Claim upon the New York City Comptroller's Office.

7. Over thirty (30) days have elapsed since the service of said notices, and this matter has not been settled or otherwise disposed of.

8. Plaintiff Ciara Miller has complied with municipal Defendant's request for an oral examination, pursuant to Section 50-h of the New York General Municipal Law.

9. Plaintiff Joseph Rivera's 50-h hearing was scheduled on November 20, 2020 and has been adjourned on consent of the parties due to his incarceration. The Parties agreed via stipulation dated November 20, 2020 that this action could be commenced prior to conducting Plaintiff JOSEPH RIVERA's 50-h hearing. Mr. Rivera will comply with municipal Defendant's request for an oral examination, pursuant to Section 50-h of the New York General Municipal Law in accordance with the terms of the aforesaid stipulation.

10. This action and associated claims have been commenced within one-year-and-ninety-days after the occurrences upon which they are based upon availing upon the COVID-19 tolling provisions enacted by Governor Cuomo by Executive Order 202.6 et seq. that tolled the statute of limitations from March 20, 2020 to November 3, 2020 for a period of two hundred twenty-eight (228) days.

11. Plaintiffs seek monetary damages (compensatory and punitive) against Defendants, an award of costs and reasonable attorneys' fees, and such other and further relief as this Court may deem just and proper.

PARTIES

12. At all relevant times herein, Plaintiff, CIARA MILLER ("Ms. Miller"), is a Black or African American female, who resides in Bronx County, within the City and State of New York.

13. At all relevant times herein, Plaintiff, JOSEPH RIVERA ("Mr. Rivera"), is a Hispanic or Latino male, who resides in Bronx County, within the City and State of New York.

14. At all relevant times herein, Defendant, City of New York ("City"), is a municipal corporation duly organized and existing under the laws of the State of New York.

15. At all relevant times herein, the New York City Police Department ("NYPD") is a wholly owned subsidiary that is further wholly operated, managed, maintained, and controlled by Defendant City.

16. At all relevant times herein, Defendant City, acting through its NYPD, was responsible for the policy, practice, supervision, implementation, and conduct of all NYPD matters and was responsible for the appointment, screening, hiring, training, supervision, discipline, retention and conduct of all NYPD personnel, including police officers, detectives, investigators, sergeants, lieutenants and other supervisory officers or officials, as well as the individually named NYPD Defendants herein.

17. At all relevant times herein, Defendant, City, was responsible for enforcing the rules or regulations of the NYPD, and for ensuring that the NYPD personnel obey the laws and constitutions of the United States and the State of New York.

18. At all relevant times herein, Defendant ADAN ROSA (“ROSA”) was a police officer, supervisor, or policy maker employed by the NYPD under Shield No.7253, Tax Id No. 943757, assigned to NYPD 49th Precinct, and, as such, was acting in his capacity as an agent, servant and employee of the defendant, City of New York. Defendant ROSA is being sued in his individual and official capacities.

19. At all relevant times herein, Defendant HECTOR RODRIGUEZ (“RODRIGUEZ”) was a police officer, supervisor, or policy maker employed by the NYPD under Shield No.8626, Tax Id No. 942455, assigned to NYPD 49th Precinct, and, as such, was acting in his capacity as an agent, servant and employee of the defendant, City of New York. Defendant RODRIGUEZ is being sued in his individual and official capacities.

20. At all relevant times herein, Defendant GREGORY VEGA (“VEGA”) was a police officer, supervisor, or policy maker employed by the NYPD under Shield No.770, Tax Id No. 941164 assigned to NYPD 49th Precinct, and, as such, was acting in his capacity as an agent, servant and employee of the defendant, City of New York. Defendant VEGA is being sued in his individual and official capacities.

21. At all relevant times herein, Defendant ABRAHAM VILLAVIZAR (“VILLAVIZAR”) was a police officer, supervisor, or policy maker employed by the NYPD under Shield No. 878, Tax Id No. 934245 assigned to NYPD 47th Precinct Detective Squad, and, as such, was acting in his capacity as an agent, servant and employee of the defendant, City of New York. Defendant VILLAVIZAR is being sued in his individual and official capacities.

22. At all relevant times herein, Defendants JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10 were police officers, detectives, supervisors, policymakers, or officials employed by the NYPD, or City of New York. At this time, Plaintiffs do not know the true names or tax registry numbers of Defendants JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, as such knowledge is within the exclusive possession of Defendants. The names JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10 are fictitious and are meant as placeholders for the Police Officers who falsely arrested, maliciously prosecuted, subjected Plaintiffs to excessive force, and who aided, abetted, assisted and acted in concert with the other Defendants to do the same.

23. At all relevant times herein JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10 were acting as agents, servants and employees of the City of New York, or the NYPD. Defendants JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10 are being sued in their individual and official capacities.

24. At all relevant times herein, Defendants were acting under color of state law, to wit, under color of the statutes, ordinances, regulations, policies, customs and usages of the City or State of New York.

FACTUAL CHARGES-Ms. Miller

25. On, or about, January 13, 2019, at approximately 12:00 p.m., Ms. Miller was lawfully present in the vicinity of 2158 White Plains Road, Bronx, New York. At that time and place, Ms. Miller was walking toward a bench on the street with Mr. Rivera to get some rest because she was six and a half months pregnant at the aforesaid time, when Defendants, including ROSA, RODRIGUEZ, VEGA, VILLAVIZAR and JOHN or JANE DOES 1- 10, unlawfully approached the Plaintiffs.

26. Defendants, including ROSA, RODRIGUEZ, VEGA, VILLAVIZAR and JOHN OR JANE DOES 1-10, unlawfully questioned Plaintiff regarding illegal activity, despite possessing no valid reason to inquire, as no criminal activity was present or even reasonably suspected.

27. Defendants, including ROSA, RODRIGUEZ, VEGA, VILLAVIZAR and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, never observed Plaintiff committing any crime or violation of the law, or any act that could reasonably be suspected as such.

28. Ms. Miller was aggressively approached by defendants, including ROSA, RODRIGUEZ, VEGA, VILLAVIZAR and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, who were aware that Plaintiff did nothing illegal, violently grabbed and contorted Plaintiff's arms behind their backs and applied metal handcuff to her wrists in an excessively tight fashion without reasonable suspicion or probable cause.

29. Ms. Miller asked the officers to put the handcuff in front of her body due to her pregnancy, however her request was rejected by Defendants, including ROSA, RODRIGUEZ, VEGA, VILLAVIZAR and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10.

30. At no point did either Plaintiff physically impede or resist their illegal arrests in any way.

31. Defendants, including ROSA, RODRIGUEZ, VEGA, VILLAVIZAR and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10 subject to Ms. Miller to various assaults and batteries by physically restraining her, pulling her hair, striking her all about her body and head, slamming her to the ground, kneeling and kicking her back while her arms were handcuffed behind her back while Ms. Miller was over 6 months and visibly pregnant.

32. Defendants, including ROSA, RODRIGUEZ, VEGA, VILLAVIZAR and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, then violently shoved Ms. Miller's stomach while she was pregnant, requiring her to be transported to Jacobi Hospital via ambulance.

33. At Jacobi Hospital, Ms. Miller was treated for approximately six (6) hours, during which time she was handcuffed to a gurney. She was subsequently transported to NYPD 49th Precinct by Defendants, including ROSA, RODRIGUEZ, VEGA, VILLAVIZAR and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10.

34. Defendants, including ROSA, RODRIGUEZ, VEGA, VILLAVIZAR and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, engaged in the fabrication of evidence in the form of their observations of Plaintiff's commission of the aforesaid acts.

35. Defendants, including ROSA, RODRIGUEZ, VEGA, VILLAVIZAR and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, falsely accused Plaintiff of Petit Larceny, Second Degree of Harassment, and Resisting Arrest despite the absence of any probable cause to support their allegations. Defendants further had no lawful basis, reasonable suspicion, probable cause, or justification to run through Plaintiff's pockets searching for contraband or stolen property.

36. Defendants, including ROSA, RODRIGUEZ, VEGA, VILLAVIZAR and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, forwarded their false claims to prosecutors so that Plaintiff would be arrested, detained, and criminally prosecuted, despite the absence of any probable cause to support their allegations.

37. Defendants, including ROSA, RODRIGUEZ, VEGA, VILLAVIZAR and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, suppressed exculpatory evidence, and engaged in conduct undertaken in bad faith, namely the fabrication of said false allegations against Plaintiffs to justify their wrongful arrest and malicious prosecution against Plaintiffs, in addition to defendants' destruction, concealment, sabotage or other form of evidence suppression, including defendants' body cam recordings, so that said recordings could not be used to exonerate Plaintiff.

38. Defendants, including ROSA, RODRIGUEZ, VEGA, VILLAVIZAR and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, therefore caused a criminal prosecution to be initiated against Plaintiffs, despite the clear lack of any probable cause to believe Plaintiff was guilty or that one would succeed.

39. Defendants, including ROSA, RODRIGUEZ, VEGA, VILLAVIZAR and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, arrested, intentionally caused a criminal prosecution to be initiated against Plaintiff, because of their desires to use Plaintiff's arrests and criminal prosecutions as leverage to obtain information related to actual crimes, to incur additional overtime compensation, benefits and favor from the superior officers, to avoid adverse consequences associated with failing to meet NYPD departmental arrest quotas and also to conceal their egregious violations of proper police procedures and gross misconduct, including their fabrications of non-existent observations, evidence and information.

40. Defendants, including ROSA, RODRIGUEZ, VEGA, VILLAVIZAR and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, unjustly and unlawfully targeted Plaintiff for arrest and prosecution, due to impermissible considerations, regarding Plaintiff's color, race, national origin, or ethnicity, or defendants' perceptions thereof, as defendants would not have violated Plaintiff's civil rights, if she were not a Black or African American female and member of protected class, as a racial or ethnic minority.

41. Defendants, including ROSA, RODRIGUEZ, VEGA, VILLAVIZAR and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, engaged in a conspiracy to falsely arrest and maliciously prosecute Ms. Miller by personally conferring with each other regarding the fabrication of the aforementioned non-existent evidence, the suppression of exculpatory evidence, as well as the manner and means by which said fabrications could be used to deprive Plaintiff of her liberties and civil rights.

42. Defendants, including ROSA, RODRIGUEZ, VEGA, VILLAVIZAR and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, retaliated against Ms. Miller by forwarding fabricated evidence to prosecutors, namely that Defendants found stolen cellular phone in Ms. Miller and Mr. Rivera's possession.

43. Defendants' malicious prosecutions against Ms. Miller were terminated in Plaintiffs' favor on August 22, 2019, when all charges were unconditionally and outright dismissed and sealed.

FACTUAL CHARGES - Mr. Rivera

44. On, or about, January 13, 2019, at approximately 12:00 p.m., Mr. Rivera was lawfully present in the vicinity of 2158 White Plains Road, Bronx, New York. At that time and place, Mr. Rivera was walking toward a bench on the street with Ms. Miller to get some rest because Ms. Miller was six and a half months pregnant at the aforesaid time, when Defendants, including ROSA, RODRIGUEZ, VEGA, VILLAVIZAR and JOHN or JANE DOES 1- 10, unlawfully approached to the Plaintiffs.

45. Defendants, including ROSA, RODRIGUEZ, VEGA, VILLAVIZAR and JOHN OR JANE DOES 1-10, unlawfully questioned Plaintiff regarding illegal activity, despite possessing no valid reason to inquire, as no criminal activity was present or even reasonably suspected.

46. Defendants, including ROSA, RODRIGUEZ, VEGA, VILLAVIZAR and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, never observed Plaintiff committing any crime or violation of the law, or any act that could reasonably be suspected as such.

47. Mr. Rivera was aggressively approached by defendants, including ROSA, RODRIGUEZ, VEGA, VILLAVIZAR and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, who were aware that Plaintiff did nothing illegal, violently grabbed and contorted Plaintiff's arms behind their backs and applied metal handcuff to her wrists in an excessively tight fashion without reasonable suspicion or probable cause.

48. At no point did Mr. Rivera physically impede or resist their illegal arrests in any way.

49. Defendants, including ROSA, RODRIGUEZ, VEGA, VILLAVIZAR and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10 subject to Mr. Rivera to various assaults and batteries by striking him all about his body and head, slamming his head against a wall and restraining him.

50. Defendants, including ROSA, RODRIGUEZ, VEGA, VILLAVIZAR and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, then shoved Mr. Rivera in the police car and transported him to 49th Precinct, where he was fingerprinted, photographed, and searched.

51. Defendants, including ROSA, RODRIGUEZ, VEGA, VILLAVIZAR and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, engaged in the fabrication of evidence in the form of their observations of Plaintiff's commission of the aforesaid acts.

52. Defendants, including ROSA, RODRIGUEZ, VEGA, VILLAVIZAR and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, falsely accused Mr. Rivera of Petit Larceny, Second Degree of Harassment, and Resisting Arrest despite the absence of any probable cause to support their allegations. Defendants further had no lawful basis, reasonable suspicion, probable cause, or justification to run through Plaintiff's pockets searching for contraband or stolen property.

53. Defendants, including ROSA, RODRIGUEZ, VEGA, VILLAVIZAR and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, forwarded their false claims to prosecutors so that Plaintiff would be arrested, detained, and criminally prosecuted, despite the absence of any probable cause to support their allegations.

54. Defendants, including ROSA, RODRIGUEZ, VEGA, VILLAVIZAR and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, suppressed exculpatory evidence, and engaged in conduct undertaken in bad faith, namely the fabrication of said false allegations against Plaintiff to justify their wrongful arrest and malicious prosecution against Plaintiff, in addition to defendants' destruction, concealment, sabotage or other form of evidence suppression, including defendants' body cam recordings, so that said recordings could not be used to exonerate Plaintiff.

55. Defendants, including ROSA, RODRIGUEZ, VEGA, VILLAVIZAR and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, therefore caused a criminal prosecution to be initiated against Plaintiff, despite the clear lack of any probable cause to believe Mr. Rivera was guilty or that one would succeed.

56. Defendants, including ROSA, RODRIGUEZ, VEGA, VILLAVIZAR and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, arrested, intentionally caused a criminal prosecution to be initiated against Plaintiffs, because of their desires to use Plaintiff's arrests and criminal prosecutions as leverage to obtain information related to actual crimes, to incur additional overtime compensation, benefits and favor from the superior officers, to avoid adverse consequences associated with failing to meet NYPD departmental arrest quotas and also to conceal their egregious violations of proper police procedures and gross misconduct, including their fabrications of non-existent observations, evidence and information.

57. Defendants, including ROSA, RODRIGUEZ, VEGA, VILLAVIZAR and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, unjustly and unlawfully targeted Plaintiff for arrest and prosecution, due to impermissible considerations, regarding Mr. Rivera's color, race, national origin, or ethnicity, or defendants' perceptions thereof, as defendants would not have violated Plaintiff's civil rights, if he were not a Hispanic or Latino male and member of protected class, as a racial or ethnic minority.

58. Defendants, including ROSA, RODRIGUEZ, VEGA, VILLAVIZAR and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, engaged in a conspiracy to falsely arrest and maliciously prosecute Plaintiff by personally conferring with each other regarding the fabrication of the aforementioned non-existent evidence, the suppression of exculpatory evidence, as well as the manner and means by which said fabrications could be used to deprive Plaintiff of his liberties and civil rights.

59. Defendants, including ROSA, RODRIGUEZ, VEGA, VILLAVIZAR and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, retaliated against Plaintiff by forwarding fabricated evidence to prosecutors, namely that Defendants found stolen cellular phone in Ms. Miller and Mr. Rivera's possession.

60. Defendants, including ROSA, RODRIGUEZ, VEGA, VILLAVIZAR and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, suppressed exculpatory evidence from prosecutors, so that Plaintiff would be criminally prosecuted. It is alleged that the aforesaid stolen property was discovered pursuant to an unlawful search of the plaintiffs.

61. Mr. Rivera was incarcerated due to this malicious accusation.

62. Plaintiffs assert that Defendants, including ROSA, RODRIGUEZ, VEGA, VILLAVIZAR and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, illegally approached, stopped, searched, and then falsely arrested them, due to their discriminatory prejudices against racial or ethnic minority and protected class. Their intent to use the instant arrests as leverage against Plaintiffs, so that they would provide defendants with information regarding other crimes or criminal suspects, their desires to fulfill an unconstitutional arrest quota, and to benefit from increased overtime compensation.

63. Defendants, including ROSA, RODRIGUEZ, VEGA, VILLAVIZAR and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, arrested and maliciously prosecuted Plaintiffs, because of their racially discriminatory beliefs, which compelled defendants to equate to Plaintiffs' ethnic or national origin to criminal guilt or criminal knowledge.

64. Defendants, including ROSA, RODRIGUEZ, VEGA, VILLAVIZAR and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, perpetrated multiple overt acts in furtherance of their obviously discriminatory inclinations, namely the complained-of stop, searches, assaults, batteries, seizure, arrest, and malicious prosecution against Plaintiffs, even after they were unable to discover any evidence to justify such conduct.

65. Defendants, including ROSA, RODRIGUEZ, VEGA, VILLAVIZAR and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, unlawfully stopped, questioned, searched, seized, arrested, and maliciously prosecuted Plaintiffs, due to Defendants' perception or consideration of Plaintiffs' race, ethnicity or national origin.

66. Defendants, including ROSA, RODRIGUEZ, VEGA, VILLAVIZAR and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, possessed no valid reason to stop, question, search or arrest Plaintiffs, which gives rise to the strong inference that such conduct resulted from defendants' unjust motivations or proclivities.

67. Defendants, including ROSA, RODRIGUEZ, VEGA, VILLAVIZAR and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, subjected Plaintiffs to disparate treatment compared to other individuals similarly situated, because defendants did not stop, seize, search, detain, arrest or accuse any white individuals, who had engaged in activity identical to the kind that resulted in Plaintiffs' illegal search and seizure.

68. Plaintiffs assert that the Defendants, including ROSA, RODRIGUEZ, VEGA, VILLAVIZAR and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, who violated Plaintiffs' civil rights, are part of a larger pattern and practice of similar misconduct, which is so widespread, pervasive and consistent throughout the NYPD and the City of New York that the commission such constitutionally violative behavior has become tantamount to an official policy or custom within the NYPD and City of New York or, at the very least, conclusive evidence that the City and the NYPD have either tacitly approved of such egregious wrongdoings or that they have become deliberately indifferent to the civil rights of those who may come into contact with their police officers.

69. The individually named defendants herein, as well as other officers serving in the employ of the NYPD and City of New York, have blatantly, shamelessly, consistently and repeatedly engaged in conducting violative of the civil rights guaranteed and protected by Constitution of the United States, in addition to the laws and Constitution of the State of New York, all without incurring any ramifications for such misconduct and, ostensibly, with the full and complete blessing of the NYPD, the City of New York and their respective policymakers and supervisors.

70. The identity of Defendants, JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10 is unknown at this present time. However, these Defendants were involved in plaintiffs' false arrest, unlawful detention, and malicious prosecution, including fabricating evidence related to the criminal court matter with a Docket Number of 2019BX001213. Upon information and belief, the identity of the JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10 Defendants are known only to the Defendants.

71. The New York Times, as well as numerous other reputable journalistic enterprises, have reported on the widespread corruption within the NYPD and City of New York, particularly the incredibly disconcerting proclivity of many NYPD officers to lie about subject matters that are materially relevant to criminal prosecutions, including the complete fabrication of arrest evidence and witnesses. Also detailed, is the NYPD's obstinate refusal to effectuate corrective or preventive measures to combat the inevitable recurrence of such misdeeds, and perhaps most troubling, the NYPD's alarming tendency to, instead, reward and promote these officers, including those who were inculpated via some incontrovertible form of evidence.

72. On March 18, 2018, The New York Times published an explosive article, entitled "Promotions, Not Punishments for Officers Accused of Lying," written by Joseph Goldstein. Mr. Goldstein shines a light on the multitude of flaws within the CCRB and the NYPD, highlighting the fact that the substantiation of a claim against an officer will invariably rely on the presence of incontrovertible proof against the officer. Due to the rarity availability of this type of evidence, an alarmingly small percentage of officer misconduct claims are substantiated. The CCRB is further handicapped by a terribly designed system that requires evidence of a virtually indisputable nature to substantiate any claim against an officer. The article also details the NYPD's persistent reluctance to investigate or discipline officers who lie and even posits that this reluctance is a significant cause of the lying pandemic within the NYPD. The article references various officers and detectives who were the subject of credible accusations relating to the officers' intentionally false statements, with some allegations coming from federal and state judges.

73. On September 12, 2019, The New York Times published another article by Joseph Goldstein, entitled "Officers Said They Smelled Pot. The Judge Called Them Liars." Unsurprisingly, this article dealt with the unusually high frequency of officers using the odor of marijuana to excuse a search that conspicuously does not result in the recovery of any marijuana. It should not require an article in The New York Times to call attention to such patently disingenuous tactics, but has become necessary for a variety of reasons, including the NYPD's failure to correct such behavior, the willingness of prosecutors and judges to credit the lying officers and the increasing rate of occurrence.

74. On April 24, 2019, The New York Times published an article, entitled "Detective's Lies Sent Three People to Prison, Prosecutors Charge," by Sean Piccolo, detailing the lies of NYPD Second Grade Detective Joseph Franco and how those lies resulted in the imprisonment of at least three innocent people. The article described how Det. Franco lied about observing drug transactions on at least three separate occasions, lies that were only uncovered through contradictory video evidence. Det. Franco's lies resulted in the innocent individuals each being sentenced to prison terms in excess of one-year.

75. Other articles include: (i) “Testilying’ by Police: A Stubborn Problem.,” by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, March 18, 2018; (ii) “New York Detective Charged with Faking Lineup Results,” by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, February 17, 2018; (iii) “He Excelled as a Detective, Until Prosecutors Stopped Believing Him,” by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, October 17, 2017; (iv) “Review Board Notes Rise in New York Police Officers’ False Statement,” by J. David Goodman, The New York Times, May 14, 2015; (v) “In Brooklyn Gun Cases, Suspicion Turns to the Police,” by Stephanie Clifford, The New York Times, December 11, 2014; (vi) “Detective is Found Guilty of Planting Drugs,” by Tim Stelloh, The New York Times, November 1, 2011; and (vii) “The Drugs? They Came From the Police,” by Jim Dwyer, The New York Times, October 13, 2011.

76. The NYPD has a longstanding and ignominious record of failing to discipline its officers, or even entertaining allegations of wrongdoing against them. On June 26, 2019, The New York Times published an article, entitled “2,495 Reports of Police Bias. Not One Was Deemed Valid by the N.Y.P.D.” This article reported that within the last five (5) years, almost 2,500 separate individuals have filed formal complaints with the NYPD alleging that an officer acted with bias toward them, with not a single one being substantiated by the NYPD. Such a finding is plainly incredible and obviously the result of deliberately poor or nonexistent investigatory protocols. The report further impugned the NYPD’s commitment to combat the prejudices and the biases exhibited by many of its officers.

77. Upon information and belief, the NYPD, the City of New York, and their respective policymakers, officials or supervisors have imposed, tacitly approved or acquiesced to policies, customs, or patterns and practices within the NYPD that resulted in Plaintiff’s arrest without probable cause.

78. Upon information and belief, the NYPD, the City of New York, and their respective policymakers or supervisors have failed to provide adequate training regarding the identification of probable cause, reasonable suspicion or the appropriate amount of force to be used.

79. Defendants' actions, pursuant to Plaintiffs' underlying arrest, which occurred without even the semblance of probable cause, were so blatantly violative of Plaintiffs' civil rights that the tacit approval of identical or similar acts by the policymakers or supervisors of the NYPD and the City of New York, as well as their deliberate indifference towards the rights of any individuals who may come into contact with Defendants, should be inferred, because such flagrant deprivations of constitutionally protected rights could not and would not occur without the tacit approval or deliberate indifference regarding the commission of such violations by the policymakers or supervisors of the NYPD and City of New York.

80. Upon information and belief, further details and facts, relating to the unlawful policies, customs or patterns and practices of the NYPD, City of New York and their respective policymakers, supervisors, police officers or employees, will become known after the completion of discovery, as such information is presently within the exclusive possession of Defendants, the NYPD and City of New York.

81. Upon information and belief, the personnel files, records and disciplinary histories of the officer Defendants will reveal a history of Constitutional violations indicative of Defendant City's knowledge that the individual officer Defendants were unfit for employment as NYPD officers, or for employment in general, and that the probability of the individually named Defendants committing similar violations in the future was extremely high.

82. Upon information and belief, said personnel files, records and disciplinary histories will conclusively show that the City and the NYPD were fully aware of Defendants' past constitutional violations, the unacceptably high probability for the recurrence of similar transgressions, the unreasonably dangerous situations that were likely to result from their hiring or retention, as well as their unsuitability for employment as law enforcement officers, or for employment in general, and that the NYPD and City of New York failed to engage in any preventive or corrective action intended to diminish the likelihood of recurrence for such violations, which is tantamount to the City's tacit approval of such misconduct or the City's deliberate indifference towards the civil rights of those who may interact with its employees, including Defendants, ROSA, RODRIGUEZ, VEGA, VILLAVIZAR and JOHN OR JANE DOES 1-10.

83. Upon information and belief, the individually named Defendants have combined to be named as Defendants in numerous lawsuits that have accused them of committing violations similar or identical to those alleged herein, all of which have resulted no disciplinary or corrective action of any kind.

84. Upon information and belief, the NYPD and City of New York and have failed, or outright refused, to correct the individually named Defendants' predilections to engage in unconstitutional behavior or attempt to prevent the recurrence of such misconduct.

85. The aforementioned acts of Defendants, including ROSA, RODRIGUEZ, VEGA, VILLAVIZAR and JOHN OR JANE DOES 1-10, directly or proximately resulted in the deprivation or violation of Plaintiffs' civil rights, as guaranteed and protected by the Fourth, Fifth, Sixth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, as well as the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.

42 U.S.C. §§ 1981 & 1983 Against Individual Defendants

194. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

195. Plaintiff is a member of a racial or ethnic minority and protected class.

196. Defendants discriminated against Plaintiff on the basis of his race, color or ethnicity.

197. Defendants engaged in the selective treatment of Plaintiff in comparison to others similarly situated.

198. Defendants' selective treatment of Plaintiff was based on impermissible considerations, such as race, color, ethnicity, an intent to inhibit or punish Plaintiff for the exertion of his Constitutional rights, or malicious or bad faith intent to injure Plaintiff.

199. Defendants applied facially neutral laws against Plaintiff in a discriminatory manner.

200. Defendants, motivated by a discriminatory animus, applied facially neutral penal statutes with adverse effects against Plaintiff.

201. Defendants did not possess a rational basis, excuse or justification for applying any laws or statutes against Plaintiff.

202. Accordingly, Defendants violated Plaintiff's rights, under the Fourteenth Amendment.

203. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

EIGHTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Conspiracy to Interfere with Civil Rights and Failure to Prevent the Conspiracy under
42 U.S.C. §§ 1983, 1985 & 1986 Against Individual Defendants

204. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

205. Defendants engaged in a conspiracy against Plaintiff to deprive Plaintiff of his rights to engage in protected speech or activities, to be free from unreasonable searches and seizures, to be afforded a fair trial, to not be deprived of his liberty or property without due process of law, or of the privileges and immunities under the laws and constitutions of the United States and of the State of New York.

206. Defendants committed overt acts in furtherance of their conspiracy against Plaintiff.

207. As a result, Plaintiff sustained injuries to his person, was deprived of his liberty or was deprived of rights or privileges of citizens of the United States.

208. Defendants' conspiracy was motivated by a desire to deprive Plaintiff of his civil rights or because of some racial, otherwise class-based, invidious or discriminatory animus.

209. The Defendants that did not engage or participate in the conspiracy to interfere with Plaintiff's civil rights, had knowledge that acts in furtherance of the conspiracy were about to be committed or in process of being committed, possessed the power to prevent or aid in the prevention of the conspiratorial objective, and neglected to do so.

210. Accordingly, Defendants violated Plaintiff's rights, pursuant to the First, Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States.

211. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

NINETEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Victims of Violent Crime Protection Act under
New York City Law

212. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

213. Defendants' acts or series of acts constituted a misdemeanor or felony against Plaintiff, as defined in state or federal law which presented a serious risk of physical injury to Plaintiff, whether or not such acts have actually resulted in criminal charges, prosecution or conviction.

214. Accordingly, Defendants committed a crime of violence against Plaintiff and violated Plaintiff's rights, pursuant to the N.Y.C. Admin. Code § 10-403.

215. Defendant City, as employer of the individual Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

216. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

TWENTIETH CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Intervene Under
New York State Law

217. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

218. Those Defendants that were present but did not actively participate in the aforementioned unlawful conduct, observed such conduct, had an opportunity to prevent such conduct, had a duty to intervene and prevent such conduct, and failed to intervene.

219. Defendant City, as employer of the individual Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

220. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

TWENTY-FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Due Process/Fabrication of Evidence Claim Under
42 U.S.C. § 1983 Against Individual Defendants

221. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

222. Those Defendants deliberately fabricated evidence against the Plaintiff and that as a result of this evidence being used against him, he was deprived of his constitutional right without due process of law.

223. As a result, Plaintiff sustained injuries to his person, was deprived of his liberty or was deprived of rights or privileges of citizens of the United States.

224. The Defendants fabricated evidence in order to support their false arrest, detention and prosecution of the Plaintiff. The Defendants used this fabricated evidence and informed the prosecution that the fabricated evidence was true and accurate despite the fact that knew that the fabricated evidence was not true, As a result, the Plaintiff was deprived of his constitutional rights.

225. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

TWENTY-SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Intervene Under
42 U.S.C. § 1983 Against Individual Defendants

226. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

227. Those Defendants that were present but did not actively participate in the aforementioned unlawful conduct observed such conduct, had an opportunity to prevent such conduct, had a duty to intervene and prevent such conduct, and failed to intervene.

228. Accordingly, the Defendants who failed to intervene violated the Fourth, Fifth, and Fourteenth Amendments.

229. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

TWENTY-THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligent Hiring, Training, Retention & Supervision Under
New York State Law

230. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth.

231. Defendant City owed a duty of care to Plaintiff to adequately hire, train, retain and supervise its employee Defendants.

232. Defendant City breached those duties of care.

233. Defendant City placed Defendants in a position where they could inflict foreseeable harm.

234. Defendant City knew or reasonably should have known of its employee Defendants' propensity for violating the individual rights granted under the United States Constitution and the laws of the State of New York, prior to the injuries incurred by Plaintiff.

235. Defendant City failed to take reasonable measures in hiring, training, retaining and supervising its employee Defendants that would have prevented the aforesaid injuries to Plaintiff.

236. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

TWENTY-FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Municipal "Monell" Liability Under
42 U.S.C. § 1983 Against Defendant City

237. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth.

238. Defendant City maintained a policy or custom that caused Plaintiff to be deprived of his civil rights, tacitly approved of such violative conduct or was deliberately indifferent toward the potential exposure of individuals, such as Plaintiff, to such violative behavior.

239. Defendant City's employee police officers have engaged in an illegal pattern and practice of misconduct, so consistent and widespread that it constitutes a custom or usage, of which a supervisor or policymaker must have been aware of.

240. Defendant City and its policymakers failed to provide adequate training or supervision to their subordinates to such an extent that is tantamount to a deliberate indifference toward the rights of those who may come into contact with Defendant City's employees.

241. Defendant City's employees engaged in such egregious and flagrant violations of Plaintiff's Constitutional rights that the need for enhanced training or supervision is obvious and equates to a display of deliberate indifference by Defendant City and its policymakers toward the rights of individuals, who may come into contact with Defendant City's employees.

242. Defendant City's repeated refusal or failure to install or apply corrective or preventive measures constitutes the tacit approval of such violative behavior or a deliberate indifference to the rights of those who may be affected by such behavior.

243. Defendant City's conduct caused the violation of Plaintiff's civil rights, pursuant to Constitution of the United States.

244. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests judgment against Defendants, jointly and severally, as follows:
