Plaintiff CORY MCTAGGART, by her attorneys, Shulman-Hill, PLLC, as and for his Verified Complaint herein, alleges upon information and belief as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. This is a civil rights action to recover money damages arising out of defendants' violation of Plaintiff's rights as secured by the Civil Rights Act, 42 U.S.C. Sections 1983 and 1988, and of rights secured by the Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, and the common law and the laws of the State of New York. On or about May 16, 2022, at approximately 2:10 a.m., while lawfully at Foster Avenue and Utica Avenue, County of Kings, State of New York, was subject to an unlawful arrest, detention, assault, battery and excessive use of force by defendant Police Officers. In doing so, defendant Police Officers caused serious physical and emotional injuries to Plaintiff. Plaintiff was deprived of her rights under 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 802 and his constitutional, common law and statutory rights when the individual defendants unlawfully stopped, detained, assaulted, battered, subjected to excessive force, passed along false accusations to prosecuting attorneys and engaged in the malicious prosecution of Plaintiff, in violation of the Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, the common law and the laws of the State of New York.

PARTIES

2. Plaintiff CORY MCTAGGART is a resident of the State of New York.

3. NYPD Police Officer Mirsad Radoncic, Shield No. 24382 is and was at all times relevant herein an Officer with the New York City Police Department.

4. NYPD Police Officer Mirsad Radoncic, Shield No. 24382 is being sued in their individual and official capacity.

5. Currently and at all times relevant herein, NYPD Police Officer Mirsad Radoncic, Shield No. 24382 was assigned to the Intel CIS FIO Program of the NYPD.

6. NYPD Police Officers John and Jane Does Numbers One Through Ten are and were at all times relevant herein officers, employees, and agents of the New York City Police Department.

7. NYPD Police Officers John and Jane Does Numbers One Through Ten are being sued in their individual and official capacities.

8. At all times relevant herein, the individual defendants were acting under color of state law in the course and scope of their duties and functions as agents, servants, employees and officers of the New York City Police Department, and otherwise performed and engaged in conduct incidental to the performance of their lawful functions in the course of their duties. They were acting for and on behalf of the New York City Police Department at all times relevant herein, with the power and authority vested in them as officers, agents and employees of the New York City Police Department and incidental to the lawful pursuit of their duties as officers, employees and agents of the New York City Police Department.

9. Defendant City of New York is a municipal entity created and authorized under the laws of the State of New York. It is authorized by law to maintain a police department, which acts as its agent in the area of law enforcement and for which it is ultimately responsible. The defendant City of New York assumes the risks incidental to the maintenance of a police force and the employment of police officers as said risks attach to the public consumers of the services provided by the New York City Police Department.

10. Plaintiff in furtherance of her causes of action brought pursuant to New York State law filed a timely Notice of Claim against the City of New York in compliance with the Municipal Law Section 50 and in accordance with New York State law.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

1. On or about May 16, 2022, at approximately 2:10 a.m., while lawfully at Foster Avenue and Utica Avenue, County of Kings, State of New York, the defendant Police Officers unlawfully arrested Plaintiff without legal justification.

2. At the above date and time, Plaintiff was going to meet friends some of his friends near the intersection of Foster Avenue and Utica Avenue.

3. Plaintiff parked his car in a parking lot at the intersection of Foster Avenue and Utica Avenue and then exited his vehicle.

4. Plaintiff, who had been in a car accident months prior, used a cane to walk.

5. Plaintiff's friends were on a sidewalk nearby and when Plaintiff approached, he observed several Defendant officers speaking to Plaintiff's friends.

6. The Defendant officers asked Plaintiff and his girlfriend for their identifications.

7. Plaintiff asked Defendant Officer Mirsad Radoncic why he stopped his friends and the Officer responded by telling the Plaintiff to back off.

8. When Plaintiff repeated his question, Defendant Officer Mirsad Radoncic pushed Plaintiff several times, causing him to fall to the ground.

9. Once Plaintiff was on the ground, several defendant officers piled on top of him, one officer shoving his knee into Plaintiff's chest, and another shoving his knee into Plaintiff's ribs.

10. The defendant officers proceeded to flip Plaintiff over onto his stomach, twist his arm and handcuff him.

11. During this entire encounter, Plaintiff screamed that he was handicapped, and that his bone is fractured.

12. The Defendant officers handcuffed and arrested Plaintiff in the absence of probable cause.

13. The defendant officers transported Plaintiff to Brookdale Hospital for treatment, where he remained until 9 AM.

14. The Defendant officers caused Plaintiff to suffer injury to his diaphragm.

15. From the hospital, the Defendant Officers transported Plaintiff to the 71st Precinct and placed him in a holding cell therein.

16. At no point did Defendant Officers recover any drugs, weapons, graffiti instruments, or other illegal contraband from Plaintiff or from a location that was in Plaintiff's possession, custody, or control.

17. While Plaintiff was in custody, the Defendant Police Officers provided the Kings County District Attorney's Office with the false, misleading and/or incomplete information that Plaintiff committed a crime.

18. Specifically, the Defendant officers falsely stated to the Kings County District Attorney's Office that Plaintiff engaged in obstruction of governmental administration.

19. Plaintiff remained in custody for approximately 36 hours until he was released on his own recognizance on May 17, 2022.

All criminal charges against Plaintiff were dismissed and sealed on June 16, 2022.

20. At no time relevant herein did Plaintiff commit a crime or violate the law in any way, nor did the police officers have an objective reason to accuse Plaintiff of committing a crime or violating the law in any way.

21. Plaintiff continues to suffer emotional trauma and distress from the actions of defendant officers complained of above.

22. Some of the police officer defendants observed the violation of Plaintiff's rights under the Constitution of the United States and New York State Law and did nothing to prevent their fellow officers from unjustifiably assaulting, battering, and using excessive force against Plaintiff.

23. The unlawful assault, battery, and use of excessive force by the individually named defendants caused Plaintiff to sustain physical, psychological and emotional trauma.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligence

24. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

25. Defendants owed a duty of care to Plaintiff.

26. To the extent defendants claim that the injuries to Plaintiff by the defendant police officers was unintentionally caused and that the force used by the defendants against him was unintentional, then the defendants breached that duty of care by injuring his wrists.

27. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

28. All of the foregoing occurred without any fault or provocation by Plaintiff.

29. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

30. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

31. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional, psychological and physical injuries.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION
Unlawful Stop, Question, and Search

32. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

33. The illegal approach, pursuit, stop and grab employed by defendants herein terminated Plaintiff's freedom of movement through means intentionally applied.

34. The conduct of defendants in approaching, stopping, and grabbing Plaintiff was performed under color of law and without any reasonable suspicion of criminality or other constitutionally required grounds.

35. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

36. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

37. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION
Violation of Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment Rights:
Unlawful Seizure and Deprivation of Liberty

38. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

39. The individually named police officer defendants, while acting in concert and within the scope of their authority, caused Plaintiff to be seized, unlawfully searched, falsely arrested, and falsely imprisoned, and maliciously prosecuted without reasonable suspicion and/or probable cause, in violation of Plaintiff's right to be free of an unreasonable seizure under the Fourth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

40. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional and psychological injuries.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION
False Imprisonment

41. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

42. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute false arrest and false imprisonment under the laws of the State of New York. Defendants intended to confine Plaintiff and, in fact, confined Plaintiff, and Plaintiff was conscious of the confinement. In addition, Plaintiff did not consent to the confinement and the confinement was not otherwise privileged.

43. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York and the United States Constitution.

44. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

45. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

46. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to loss of liberty, physical, emotional and psychological injuries.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Plaintiff's Fourth And Fourteenth Amendment Rights: Excessive Force

47. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

48. The use of excessive force by defendants by, amongst other things, roughly handcuffing, grabbing and throwing Plaintiff into a vehicle and slamming Plaintiff against the vehicle constituted objectively unreasonable physical seizures of Plaintiff in violation of his rights under the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

49. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of his employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Assault

50. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

51. Defendants, their agents, servants and employees, acting within the scope of their employment, intentionally, willfully and maliciously assaulted Plaintiff in that they had the real or apparent ability to cause imminent harmful and/or offensive bodily contact and intentionally did a violent and/or menacing act which threatened such contact to the Plaintiff, that such acts caused apprehension of such contact in the Plaintiff.

52. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

53. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

54. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

55. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional and psychological injuries.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Battery

56. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

57. Defendants, their agents, servants and employees, acting within the scope of their employment, intentionally, willfully and maliciously battered Plaintiff, when they, in a hostile and/or offensive manner tased Plaintiff, roughly handcuffing, grabbing and throwing Plaintiff into a vehicle and slamming Plaintiff against the vehicle brutally effecting an arrest of Plaintiff without his consent and with the intention of causing harmful and/or offensive bodily contact to the Plaintiff and caused such battery.

58. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

59. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

60. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

61. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional and psychological injuries.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION
Negligent Infliction of Emotional Distress

62. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

63. By the actions described herein, defendants, each acting individually and in concert with each other, engaged in extreme and outrageous conduct, conduct utterly intolerable in a civilized community, which negligently caused severe emotional distress to Plaintiff. The acts and conduct of the defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to Plaintiff and violated Plaintiff's statutory and common law rights as guaranteed by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.

64. The acts and conduct of the defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to Plaintiff and violated Plaintiff's statutory and common law rights as guaranteed Plaintiff by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.

65. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

66. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

67. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

68. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional and psychological injuries.

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION
Negligent Hiring, Retention, Training and Supervision

69. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

70. The City of New York and its employees, servants and/or agents acting within the scope of their employment did negligently hire, retain, train and supervise defendants, individuals who were unfit for the performance of police duties on the aforementioned dates at the aforementioned locations.

71. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional and psychological injuries.

TENTH CAUSE OF ACTIONFailure to Intervene

72. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

73. The defendants that did not physically touch Plaintiff, but were present when other officers violated Plaintiff's Constitutional Rights had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of Plaintiff, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other officers.

74. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein.

75. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff's suffered serious, debilitating and permanent emotional injury, his liberty was restricted for an extended period of time, he was put in fear of his safety, his injuries worsened, he did not receive necessary medical treatment, and he was humiliated and subject to other physical constraints.

76. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

77. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

78. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

79. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional and psychological injuries.

ELEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTIONViolation of Fourth And Fourteenth Amendment Rights:*Denial of Right to Fair Trial/Due Process

80. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

81. Defendants, individually and collectively, manufactured and/or withheld false evidence and forwarded this false evidence to prosecutors in the Kings County District Attorney's Office.

82. Defendants filled out false and misleading police reports and forwarded them to prosecutors in the Kings County District Attorney's Office.

83. Defendants signed false and misleading criminal court affidavits and forwarded them to prosecutors in the Kings County District Attorney's Office.

84. In withholding/creating false evidence against Plaintiff, and in providing/withholding information with respect thereto, Defendants violated Plaintiff's constitutional right to due process and fair trial under the New York State Constitution and under the Due Process Clause of the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States and to be free to deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution.

85. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff sustained, inter alia, loss of the right to due process and a fair trial, loss of liberty, emotional distress, embarrassment and humiliation, and deprivation of his constitutional rights.

86. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
